ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by Orange Va., Observer.

Live in a worry if you want to die in a hurry.

There is no profit in law—you always get it at cost.

A "private secretary" is the one in which the bottle is kept.

Trains are now fuller—and so are the passengers oftentimes.

Wherever charity doth roam let her think of home, sweet home.

Will somebody please invent a sewing machine that will hemisphere?

The lips of many a man are scalded by the free use of concentrated lie.

The stuffing has been knocked out of Turkey, and Greece is on top at last.

Our girls are the sweetest, because they are Orange maidens—made of orange.

Gloves are very long—and so are "mittens," when the young lady is in dead earnest.

Poor people have coarse dinners as well as the rich. Of "course" you can see the difference.

In the gloaming, oh my darling, hear my hungry cry; bring me with your loving fingers, one big oyster fry.

Fair Phyllis made a big mince pie in manner new and novel; her father seived it with a sigh and used it for a shovel.

A man is very like a gun—that fact please try to affix; for if he finds he's charged too much, why, that's the time he kicks.

About the first thing a woman finds out when she moves into a new house is whether there are any knotholes in the backyard fence between her and her neighbor.

We have a very plain and explicit language. When a man fails in business, we say say he has "gone up," when we really mean that he has "gone down." Queer, isn't it?

Curtails Their Fun.

Some towns in the State will not allow fire crackers etc., to be exploded Christmas. It robs the boys of many joy and lots of noise if they can't touch off pop crackers and explode bombs. All the same it is not improbable that such a prohibition will grow in favor as the years go by.

"I think baby will be a politician," said Mr. Youngpop as he removed the third tack from his offspring's mouth; "he is a natural tax collector."

STATE NEWS:

The Piedmont Bank at Morganton has failed.

During the fiscal year ending December 1st, there were manufactured in North Carolina 26,929,000 pounds of plug tobacco, 6,300 of snuff, 4,029,000 cigars and 32,091,000 packages of cigarettes.

E. q. James Forester raised 375 bushels of corn on about five acres of land—it required just a day and a half to plow over it. That is 75 bushels to the acre.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

The will of the late Mrs. N. L. Shaw has been probated before the Clerk of the Superior court, and in the disposition of her property she generously provides for the new Baptist church to be built here, donating two beautiful, valuable lots to this object. Competent judges say that these lots are worth some $750.00. She also provided that her store lot after the death of her husband, should go to the Ministerial fund of W. F. College.—Warrenton Record.

"Fair, but false!" muttered the conductor as he bit the edge of the lead nickel given to him by his prettiest passenger.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3 '97.

Is it the business of Congress to legislate for the interests of the whole people, or only to do what Mr. McKinley thinks will be beneficial to him and to the Republican party? Such a question would seem to admit of but one answer. Yet, Mr. McKinley is seeking the aid of Czar Reed and Mr. Cannon, chairman of the House committee on Appropriations, to prevent the House legislating for the whole people. Because the Dingley tariff law has failed to provide the money needed to properly carry on the government, and because he does not dare to tell Congress so and ask for additional tariff legislation to furnish more revenue, Mr. McKinley wants to deprive the people who pay the heavy taxes called for by the Dingley tariff of privileges to which they are clearly entitled. If Reed enters the deal—Cannon has already done so—no public building bill, no matter how urgent the need, will be allowed to go through the House; no bill providing for the payment of any private claim against the government, no matter how just it is nor how much those to whom the money is due may be suffering, will be allowed to pass, and no river and harbor appropriation will be passed. Czar Reed may bite off more than he can chew, if he attempts to carry out these ideas. Neither he nor Mr. McKinley will be as strong at this session as they were at the extra session; their favors have mostly been distributed. It is well known that failure to get through a public building bill for his district has cost many Representatives their seats, and next year the Representatives will all be passed on by their constituents. There has been much talk which came to nothing about a revolt against Reed by the House, but in this case there is likely to be a sure enough revolt, if he isn't careful, and a successful one, too.

A scrapping match between two prominent West Virginia Republicans, Mr. F. A. Scott, who is a member of the Republican National Committee, and who expects to become Commissioner of Internal Revenue about the first of January, and Judge Nathan Goff, who was once in the Cabinet and who has just declined a Cabinet portfolio, is indicated by the announced aspirants of both of them—a desire to succeed Senator Faulkner, whose term will expire March 3, 1899. West Virginia Democrats laugh at the expectations of Messrs. Goff and Scott, and say that they have no doubt of a Democratic majority in the next Legislature. Meanwhile Goff and Scott are preparing to fight each other. They were both in Washington this week and both saw Mr. McKinley. Having already more factional party fights than he knew what to do with, Mr. McKinley tried to nip this one in the bud by asking Goff to become Attorney-General when Mr. McKenna is nominated for the Supreme Court, but that gentleman declined and said that nothing but a seat in the Senate would tempt him to give up his present lifetime judicial position, but he may change his mind. Senator Elkins is at present posing as a friend of both Scott and Goff, but it is believed that it will be found when there is a show of hands that he is on the side of Scott.

Senator Mallory, of Florida, has pronounced views on Cuba which he doesn't hesitate in announcing. He said: "Spain's apparent willingness to grant autonomy is but a pretext of delay against positive action by our government. It ought not to deceive any one familiar with the record of Spain's oft-broken pledge to the people of that oppressed island. I do not know what action Congress will take, and I am not in the confidence of the administration. As far back as 1858 a U. S. Senator from my State advocated the independence of Cuba, and the arguments then made are absolutely applicable today. He gave a detailed account of the perfidy of the Spanish government, which would serve without modification at the present time. The autonomy farce has been tried before." Senator Mallory thinks there can be only one right settlement of the Cuban question, and that is the independence of the island, and he regards it as the duty of this country to aid in bringing it about, forcibly if necessary.

It looks now as though no attempt will be made to pass a bill providing for the retirement of the greenbacks, even in the house. The reason is Republican opposition, which is outspoken, especially among Representatives from the west and middle west. The only way a bill providing for the retirement of the greenbacks could be put through the House would be to get it endorsed by a caucus of the Republicans, and then it would not be certain, as there would probably be enough Republicans who would refuse to attend or be bound by the caucus, in addition to the solid vote of the Democrats and Populists, to defeat the bill.

Things to Know.

Mix stove blacking with vinegar; this makes it stick better and also gives a better polish.

To cool a hot dish quickly set it in water and salt; this will cool it far more rapidly than if it were stood in cold water only.

After washing lamp chimneys rub them with dry salt, which will give a brilliant polish to the glass.

Grease stains on a carpet may be removed in a variety of ways: one of the simplest is to take a piece of blotting paper, lay it under the grease mark and a similar piece on the top of the mark. Then press the part with a hot iron; this will cause the grease to be absorbed by the blotting paper. Another method is to add some borax to warm water in which soap has been dissolved and well brush the stained part with this mixture. Ammonia is also useful; it should be diluted with water and rubbed on the carpet.

Negroes on the Grand Jury.

The November term of Granville Superior Court, which convened on Monday last, will long be remembered by the people of the county, as it is the first time in the history of Granville that nine negroes composed half of the grand jury. Of course, so far as politics goes the jury was largely Republican with a Populist foreman. There were some four Democrats on the jury, and they looked rather lonesome. The days of 1865-75 under the Moore Jones regime will not compare with the present order of things brought about by our Populist friends under the guise of reform and "anything Lord, to beat a Democrat." —Oxford Ledger.

Laziness in the Land.

Loafers are enemies to society, for they not only suffer the loss of moral backbone, but they flash the discovery before their fellows that it is possible to scramble through the world without much effort. The world is divided into two classes. The frowsy beggar and the child of the wealthy killing time in every conceivable fashion, belong to the same class. Dirt and daintiness, rags and respectability blend in the common downfall of all that is best in human nature. The race has hitherto gained solely by the sweat of the brow in some form or another and we who toil see no other way to assure further progress.—Orange Va., Observer.

Somewhat changing their tune, Protectionist organs now boast of the great triumph of their policy in the fact that American manufacturers are everywhere driving foreign products out of neutral markets. According to their peculiar logic American manufacturers have overcome foreign rivals in foreign markets because the tariff protects Americans from foreign competition in the home market. That is to say, American consumers must pay more for goods in order that foreigners may buy them cheaper.—Philadelphia Record.

He Lives at Home.

Mr. W. T. Strickland, of Franklin county, was in town last week and gave us an interesting account of Mr. Kenuel Tant. Mr. Tant is about 76 years old and lives five miles south of Louisburg and yet he has not been to that town since the close of the war. He passed through Louisburg returning home at Lee's surrender in April, 1865, which is the last time he looked upon the "Village on the Tar." Mr. Tant enjoys good health but believes in living strictly at home, and during all that time was never known to leave it but once. On that occasion he was induced by one of his friends to ride out to Clifton's mill, about 2 1/2 miles distant. He is happy and contented and this is perhaps the sequel of his isolated habits.

Mr. Strickland also told us of another man in his section of the county who was born in the year 1800 and made a good crop in 1895, doing all the plowing and other work himself.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Answer Didn't Suit.

An editor of a western paper mourning the loss of two subscribers. No. 1 wrote asking how to raise his twins safely, while the other wanted to know how to rid his orchard of grasshoppers. The answer was sent forward by mail, but by accident he put them in the wrong envelope, so that the man with twins received this answer: "Cover them carefully with straw and set fire to it, and the little pests, after jumping in the flames for a few minutes will be speedily settled." And the man with the grasshoppers was told to give castor oil and rub their gums with a bone.—Gazette.

Notice.

This is to notify my friends and patrons that I have this day withdrawn from the partnership of The Greenville Supply Co. and have connected myself with R. L. Davis & Bros' under the firm name of Speight & Co. and will continue to buy cotton and produce as before under said firm name. Thanking my friends for their past patronage, I assure them that their interests will always have my careful consideration. I think I am better prepared to handle their business than ever before and solicit a continuance of their patronage. This Nov. 16th, 1897. JESSE SPEIGHT.

Xmas = Greeting.

Xmas is rapidly approaching, only a short while and the eventful day is here, preparation must be made that it may be one of joy and gladness. See to it that you have supplied yourself with some of the many useful, serviceable and substantial things of life that can here be found in such great variety and abundance. If there is a girl or lady that has not been supplied with a

they should come now while our shelves are filled with beautiful patterns and trimmings.

It may be the children need Shoes, Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Gloves or Neckwear. Some room in the house a new Carpet, Rugs, Curtains and Chairs. The bed may be in want of some all wool Blankets and Marsailles Counterpanes.

In fact you may want and need many other things that you have been "putting off" long enough. Xmas is a good time to bring the matter to a close. Come look through our stock whether you want to buy or not. Yours to please,

J. B. CHERRY & CO.
