THE MUSICALS.

Greatly Enjoyed by Each Attendant.

The ladies of the Episcopal church gave their second musicale, Monday night, at the rooms of Mrs. A. M. Moore, and lovers of good music enjoyed a feast indeed. Every number on the programme was rendered with utmost excellence. The vocal solos by Mrs. Cherry, Mrs. Grimes, Mrs. Hooker and Mr. Holcombe were so enjoyable that each had to respond to an encore. The instrumental music was by some of Greenville's best talent, as will be seen by the names below, and every section merited the highest measure of praise.

The following programme was given:
1. Inst. Duet—"Westward Ho!" Wilson. Miss Jennie Williams and Mrs. A. M. Moore.
2. Vocal Solo—"Waiting." Millard. Mrs. James B. Cherry.
3. Inst. Solo—"Nocturne" Op. 37 No 1. Chopin. Miss Nina James.
4. Vocal Solo—"The Song that Reached My Heart." Jordan. Mr. Hugh W. Holcombe.
5. Inst. Solo—"Regaletto de Verdi." Liszt. Miss Clara Bruce Forbes.
6. Vocal Solo—"Answer" Robyn; Mrs. Walter H. Grimes.
7. Inst. Solo—"Impromptu," No 1. Schubert. Miss Lula White.
8. Vocal Solo—"Good Night Lizette" de Koven; Mrs. Travis Hooker.
9. Inst. Solo—Selected, Mrs. A. M. Moore.
10. Duo—Selected. Violin. Mr. Ola Forbes; piano, Miss Jennie Williams.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

Murderer Martin Thora occupies the cell of Carlyle Harris, at Sing Sing Prison.

James Murry, who carries the mail from Cheyenne, Wyo., to Horse Creek, was lost in a recent storm and perished with cold.

There is a startling decrease in the gas pressure throughout Indiana's great gas belt, and an investigation by the State Inspector is in progress.

Caught and Fined.

Possibly some of the boys who were violating both the civil and religious law by exploding bombs on the streets on Sunday, thought they were having lots of fun, but the two whom Mayor Perkins made contribute $13.25 each to the town treasury, on Monday, don't see so much fun in it now.

The sale of Mrs. M. A. Jarvis' property advertised for today, has been postponed. Time of sale will be announced later.

Tuesday and Wednesday.

Berol's American Mystifiers, playing in Germania Hall, Greenville, Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 7th and 8th, have distributed their bills all over town. Each and every one has a bill at his house, office or store. This show is one of the finest on the road and they do exactly what their bill tells.

They give away a valuable line of presents free of charge. Everybody gets a number, those buying reserved seat tickets two numbers, no blanks.

Every one ought to take this chance to enjoy himself, as shows are few and far between in our town.

Tickets in advance at Wooten's drug store, Evans street.

Truth.

The most costly and ornate circular a business man sends out dies in less than a day; but the enterprising newspaper containing the news from the ends of the earth exists from day to day, and a business card in its columns becomes as familiar and as welcome as the news itself. If a merchant should undertake to deliver his circular at thousands of homes every afternoon for a year he would find that the cost would be many times greater than the price of his newspaper advertising, while its distribution would become an intolerable bore to the public, more likely to drive away than to attract trade.—Scranton (Pa.) Truth.

Goes to Wilmington.

Mr. J. Mc. Moore, son of Agent J. R. Moore, returned from Wilmington Monday evening. He had been there to stand an examination for a position in the Auditor's office of the Atlantic Coast Line. He passed a most creditable examination and secured the position. Jim Moore is one of our very best young men and will fill his new position with credit. We regret to see him leave Greenville but wish him every success in his new position. He goes back to Wilmington Wednesday to enter upon his duties.

Market Square Sale.

The Market House lot in front of Court House was sold at public auction on Monday. It was first divided in eight parcels, the bids aggregating $5,128. The lot was then offered as a whole and brought $5,500, or $462 more than the sale by parcels. The lot was bid of by Sheriff W. H. Harrington. This is $410 less than was once offered for the property.

The Board of Commissioners did not confirm the sale.

The Board of County Commissioners contributed $25 to the fund to build an engine horse for Hope Fire Co.

The Only Five-Dollar Daily
its Class in the State

The Wadesboro Christians are after the scalp of the saloon. A number of them met last week and nominated a full ticket for Mayor and Aldermen. And on another night, prayer meeting night for the churches of the town mark you, another set of men met and nominated a ticket which says the saloon must stay and continue to curse the community by its terrible work.
Which meeting was for spoils
and which for morality?

The Wadesboro Courier in commenting on the situation
says:

"The issue is on and must be met. There are two tickets in the field—a wet and a dry. On the dry side stand the Pastors of the town, and the good Christian men and women, who are praying that God will save us from the curse of strong drink. They stand for temperance and sobriety and morality. They are the friends of the drunkard's wife,
and the drunkard's children, yes,
they are the friends of the drunkard himself. They would save our young men from the foul curse of strong drink. They stand for virtue and law, good citizenship and good homes.

On one side stands whiskey—the saloon—the brothel—the barroom—the dram drinker and the drunkard—and all the long chain of evils that are born and sustained by the liquor traffic,
viz: theft robbery, arson, rape,
murder, lawlessness, crime, wife beating, and every other wrong that can be thought of. Look on this and then look on that! It ought not to take a good man long to find his place as to the two sides."

every afternoon at the small price of 25 cents a month. Are you a subscriber? If not you ought to be.

The Eastern Reflector.

TWICE-A-WEEK.

Is only $1 a year. I contains the news every week, and gives information to the farmers, especially those growing
tobacco, that is worth
many times more than
the subscription price.
