FIRE NEAR GRIMESLAND.

Mr. Laughinghouse Suffers Another Loss.

On last Saturday morning about 3 o'clock, Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse, near Grimesland, lost a double barn and 250 barrels of corn by fire. He says he has no idea whatever how the fire originated. The loss is about $900 with only $100 insurance on building and $200 on the corn which he carried in the Farmers Mutual Fire Assn.

Mr. Laughinghouse has been unfortunate in this direction, and everyone will sympathize with him in this additional loss he has sustained. It was only last winter that his splendid dwelling house was burned.

Resolution of Condemnation

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M., at its regular meeting held in the town of Greenville on Monday night, Dec. 6th, 1897, and a copy of same was ordered to be published in THE DAILY REFLECTOR:

WHEREAS, The Masonic Fraternity has in all ages been the protector of the defenseless and the support of the widow and orphan, and having recently heard with much regret of the cruel and brutal treatment inflicted upon a defenseless orphan boy of the town, and living in the family of B. T. Bailey.

Now therefore, be it resolved, that the Masonic Fraternity of Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. condemn in unmeasured terms the inhuman treatment of the said B. T. Bailey toward the said child and we recommend to the next Grand Jury of the county of Pitt, that they take cognizance of such conduct and deal with it as the law directs.

By order of the Lodge.

H. HARDING,
B. F. SUGG,
R. WILLIAMS,
Committee.

New K P Officers

At the last meeting of Tar River Council No. 93, K. of P., the following officers were chosen for the ensuing term:

R. L. Carr, C. C.
E. A. Moye, V. C.
E. G. Flanagan, P.
W. C. Hines, M. of W.
J. N. Hart, M. of E.

HEAVY SUITS,
OVERCOATS, SHOES
UNDERWEAR,

Our stock is the largest, finest and cheapest ever shown in North Carolina. Come in and take a look before you buy. If good goods at low prices is what you want, we can sell you.

FRANK WILSON,
GREENVILLE N. C.

There Are More

comfort-giving wearables at our store than in any other two or three establishments combined in this town.

There Are More

people we've clothed this season than any past year, and

There Are More

who will come here to take away some of the genuine good things we give for so little. Be one among the many who are happy to trade here.

Ladies Choice Wraps and Shals, Beautiful and Stylish Dress Goods—a line superior to any kept in town. Ready Made Clothing, Overcoats, Cape Coats, Bed Quilts and Blankets, Flannels, Robes.

and all other goods are here that are needed and helpful to your comfort and health. No where will you be treated more fairly, more honestly than here. Ask your neighbor where he trades, where you can do the best for yourself, and he'll send you to

H. M. HARDEE.

GET IN THE PUSH.

Save something every day every week, every month. This you can do if you buy your DRESS GOODS, HATS, CLOTHING AND SHOES. of us. Try it one month. Compare the prices you pay us with those you have been paying others, lay aside the difference, and see what a nice little sum you will have for Christmas.

No matter how prosperous a builder may be his work is constantly going up.

A fine line Mufflers in white, cream, blue, black, gray, &c. the thing for Xmas. FRANK WILSON.

Sunday school children are growing more interested in stories about Santa Clause.

The Reflector Book Store has a few teacher's Bibles, elegantly bound. The price is astonishingly low.

FOR RENT.—New six room dwelling house, all conveniences, desirable location. Apply to, J. W. HIGGS.

BASKETS.—Work baskets, waste baskets, lunch baskets, market baskets, and all other kinds of baskets at Zeno Moore & Bros'.

FRESH TODAY.—Hominy Flakes small and large Hominy, white Beans shredded Cod Fish, Mountain Butter &c. S. M. SCHUTZ.

G. A. McGowan & Co., have a full line of Burial Robes for ladies and gentlemen at extremely low prices, also Mourning Hat Bands for men.

The Reflector Book Store has just received a nice lot of new stationery—ledgers, day books, receipt books, record books, paper, correspondence cards with envelopes, tablets, pencils, rubber bands, etc.

NOTICE!

The Public are warned not to cash or trade for Check No 7643, amount $51.80, payable to C. R. Hardy or bearer, as payment of same has been stopped at The Bank of Greenville, said check having been lost. November 19th, 1897. EVANS, JOYNER & CO.

NEW MONTH—NEW FACES.

But the Same Old Year, and You Have Seen These Names Before.

Hill Horne is very sick.

H. P. Strause returned from Henderson Monday evening.

E. T. Stewart, of Washington, is visiting Capt. A. J. Griffin.

D. D. Gardner returned this morning from a visit to Kinston.

The little son of R. Greene has been quite sick the past week but is improving.

Judge E. W. Timberlake arrived Monday evening and opened court this morning.

Capt. Swift Gallaway, of Snow Hill and J. E. Moore, of Williamston, are attending court.

D. D. Haskett and Wiley Brown have returned from the N. C. Conference at Raleigh.

T. B. Heskitt and daughter, of Scotland Neck, who have been spending a week here, returned home today.

Miss Bessie Smith, of Ayden, spent Monday with Mrs. W. H. Harrington and returned home on the evening train.

G. W. Slaughter and W. A. Morris passed through Greenville this morning on their bicycles on their way from Grimesland to Granville county.

J. B. Respass, of Beaufort county, spent yesterday here. His manner around the politicians indicated that he was looking for something and wanted to see how the ground lay up here.

Fine Candies fresh and delicious at Pender's.

There will be a tournament at Grimesland on the 30th.

The next N. C. Conference meets at Elizabeth City.

Allen Warren & Son received a card from Budapest, Hungary, requesting one of their nursery catalogues.

Frank Wilson is showing a handsome line of silk mufflers. There are some remarkably beautiful ones in his display.

S. E. Pender has some very fine candy at his store. It was made by Mrs. Pender and is as nice as any of the famous candies brought here from elsewhere. He is going to carry a variety in stock.

The Masonic lodge here is enjoying quite a revival. Four new members were received Monday night and several other applications are pending.

For a few days past the rush of tax payers has been so heavy on the Sheriff's office, that the Sheriff and his deputies had to hustle to write receipts fast enough.

The object of advertising is not so much to sell an article that everybody wants, as to make everybody want an article that the advertiser sells.—Press & Printer.

Nell—"May Patcher took one of her last year's silk waists and made three out of it" Belle—"Gracious! But she must have gotten thin." Nell—"Not at all. She simply got enough material out of each of the old-fashioned sleeves to make the extra waists."

Supper.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have their supper Wednesday night in the building next to the residence of Dr. Brown, on Cotanch street. They will serve an elegant supper and solicit a liberal patronage.

The Walls Never Trembled.

Some colored women confined in the town lock up for disorderly conduct, tried their lungs at singing and praying Monday night. But there wasn't any angelic visitor at midnight to open the door and set the prisoners free.

Notice.

This is to notify my friends and patrons that I have this day withdrawn from the partnership of The Greenville Supply Co. and have connected myself with R. L. Davis & Bros' under the firm name of Speight & Co. and I will continue to buy cotton and produce as before under said firm name. Thanking my friends for their past patronage, I assure them that their interests will always have my careful consideration. I think I am better prepared to handle their business than ever before and solicit a continuance of their patronage. This Nov. 16th, 1897. JESSE SPEIGHT.

Xmas = Greeting.

Xmas is rapidly approaching, only a short while and the eventful day is here, preparation must be made that it may be one of joy and gladness. See to it that you have supplied yourself with some of the many useful, serviceable and substantial things of life that can here be found in such great variety and abundance. If there is a girl or lady that has not been supplied with a

New Christmas Dress

they should come now while our shelves are filled with beautiful patterns and trimmings.

It may be the children need Shoes, Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Gloves or Neckwear. Somewhere in the house a new Carpet, Rugs, Curtains and Chairs. The bed may be in want of some all wool Blankets and Marsailles Counterpanes.

In fact you may want and need many other things that you have been "putting off" long enough. Xmas is a good time to bring the matter to a close. Come look through our stock whether you want to buy or not.

Yours to please,

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1897.

CAPT. KITCHEN FOR HARMONY.

He writes a letter to the Editor of the Charlotte Observer, in Reply to a Recent Editorial.

I said in my letter that I would invite all "who love home, family, wives, daughters, children, friends and bleeding humanity." This invitation would include the editor of the Observer and all like him, for I know he is honest, sincere, patriotic and not only does all these things, but more. And no man living would rejoice more than this writer to feel and know that you were in harmony with the Chicago declaration of principles. I don't think the party or its principles ever had a stronger advocate, or a more sincere, honest, patriotic supporter, and I know it never had a member I thought more of, or had more confidence in. And I love you now, and I will continue to do so, because I recognize your right in your opinions. And when the day comes, that the man of thought, reasons and convictions cannot entertain and express those thoughts, reasons and convictions in this land of ours, without being hounded down and denounced, that will at least be the beginning of the end of our liberties and independence.

Now, you quote me as saying of the Populists: "This wholesale denunciation and abuse of all who aided in administering a merited rebuke to the national Democracy is all wrong and out of place," and then you ask me, "if this is not also true of the few" who kicked at the Chicago platform, or in your words, the "handful of Bourbons." I answer emphatically. Yes, a thousand times yes.

No one wants our former brethren to "tag along at the tail end of the procession." I want all the honest, patriotic gold advocates and Populists and all others who believe in the bed rock principles of the party, and who favor the driving of the present gang out of power in the State, into outer darkness, where there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth, and who will abide the decision of the conventions of the party, to come boldly into the conventions, and stand in said conventions as peers and equals of all other Democrats. Of course I do not mean that I would favor inviting sneaks, spies, hummers and traitors into a Democratic organization or convention, as plotters, schemers, intriguers stirrers up of strife. But I do not consider the honest gold standard man or the honest non-office-seeking Populist as belonging to these classes, but I look upon them as I look upon myself and the members of the Democratic party, as honest, upright, patriotic citizens, desiring and striving to do the best they can to aid in bringing light out of darkness, quiet out of chaos, happiness out of misery, prosperity out of adversity, and, above all things, to save our civilization from the hands of such men as Butler, Pritchard, Russell and their hordes of heathens and barbarians.

As I have said in substance, I think nothing less of a good citizen, honest and open in his convictions, because he holds opinions different from mine on any question. And it is radically wrong, morally wrong and politically wrong to heap denunciations upon them. The villain, the scoundrel, the plotter, the intriguer, the unprincipled fellow of the baser sort, devoid of principles, honor, virtue, true manhood, and who deals in falsehoods, slanders and stratagems and treasuries is the fellow to denounce.

If I was chairman of the Democratic party, I would beg and beseech all Democratic papers and speakers, for decency's sake, and especially for the sake of harmony and unity in the party, to hoist on high the flag of truce and cease firing on their former friends and to turn their guns upon the common enemy.

I would then extend a cordial invitation to every man in North Carolina who is opposed to the Republican party, its principles and practices, and who favors white supremacy in the State, and who will support the nominees of the conventions, provided they are men of good standing, to come and join hands and touch shoulders with us as brethren and comrades and aid us in organizing an army of patriotic soldiers, regardless of past party affiliations, to purge the State of plunder-hunters, demagogues and inefficients, and restore white supremacy from Cherokee to Currituck.

Some men are pugilistic by nature, and can't help it. I used to be so myself. But time and age have put a quietus on me, and the fire does not burn so rapidly. These hot blooded fellows will learn a lesson after they pass through a few more storms, and will be as tame and quiet as lambs.

There is a right and a wrong way to do all things. Let us all strive to find out the right thing to do, by using all means at our command, and then do the best we can. I don't know what is best to do, but I do know villification, vituperation, denunciation, crimination and recrimination are all wrong. I know another thing: If we don't get together and stand together we will all go down together in one common ruin. The cause is common to us all. We must all win or we must all lose. There is no half way ground in this fight. We must stand together or fall separately.

It is a very serious question with the people in my part of the State. We are ready to do our duty under any circumstances, make any honorable sacrifice. If I could control or influence the party leaders, I would induce them to proclaim from the house tops, from one end of the State to the other: "Let bygones be bygones, let the dead bury its dead, our liberties are in danger, our people are suffering; here is my hand and my heart, yonder is the enemy of us all, let's be up and at him!"

As ever, your friend,

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6 '97.

Democrats and Populists are not behind the Republicans in joining in the general sympathy extended to Mr. McKinley because of the great sorrow which has come up through the dying agonies of his mother. For the time, the strong opposition to the recommendations of his annual message is held in obedience, and the criticism to which the message is open remains unspoken. In the presence of the angel of Death, as it were, any display of partisanship would be unseemly. The opening of the session of Congress was, owing to the circumstances, quieter than usual, although the crowds were there as usual. There were numerous empty seats in both House and Senate, although the attendance was, on the whole, about up to the average of opening days.

Senator Daniel was warmly congratulated by his colleagues on his unanimous renomination by the Democratic caucus of the Virginia legislature.

Because it happens that all of the outspoken opponents of the annexation of Hawaii in the Senate are Democrats it has been stated that party lines are to be strictly drawn in the discussion of the treaty, and that a Democratic caucus is likely to be held for the purpose of declaring against annexation. There is no disposition on the part of those Democratic Senators who are opposing the ratification of the treaty, to make it a party question, although they will do all they can to defeat the treaty. This ought to be apparent to all when Senator Morgan, of Alabama, a Democrat of the rock-ribbed kind, is one of the foremost advocates of the ratification of the treaty. While the advocates of annexation are just as confident as ever that it will be accomplished, not a few of them express doubts of the ratification of the treaty, and believe that it will have to be done by joint action of Congress.

Representative Allen, of Mississippi, who enjoys the reputation of being the wittiest man in the House says: "Down in Mississippi, we have not, as yet, been deluged with prosperity. The advance agent is tarrying a long time on his way to our section. Tupelo (Mr. Allen's town) is waiting for him and will give him a brass band reception. Our people, however, are not suffering for the necessaries of life. We live modestly and contentedly, and are long on hog and hominy, however short we may be on filthy lucre. We do not go much on clipping coupons, but as the poet well says, "We are the people."

Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, is opposed to the Postal Savings Bank scheme, unless material changes are made, because he thinks it would impose hardships on owners of real estate, especially farm lands. He says that the National Banks having no legal right to make loans on real estate, the private and savings banks are the principal sources from which such loans are necessarily obtained, and that the operation of the Postal Savings Banks would drive all the idle money into the United States Treasury and the National Banks, leaving no place where land owners could borrow money. If the scheme be amended so that the money deposited in the Postal Savings Bank can be loaned to land owners, Senator McLaurin will gladly support it.

It is a real pleasure to be able to give this administration credit for so commendable an action as the official action of the Post Office Department, closing the mails to all newspapers that print advertisements offering chances in any disguised lottery scheme, such as missing letter words, guessing, etc. These swindles have been shown up almost as often as the green goods business, but so long as they could advertise they could always find new victims. The fight against Mr. McKenna has probably already caused Mr. McKinley to regret having promised to nominate him to the United States Supreme Court. It's growing quite hot, and the end is not yet.
