THE FIREMEN'S CONCERT

A Grand Success from Beginning to End

Greenville people love good music, and to say that they enjoyed the concert given in Germania hall, Wednesday night, for benefit of Hope Fire Company, is but a mild expression of their true feeling. The concert was given under the direction of Mrs. Walter H. Grimes, and to her is due in a great measure the success of the undertaking. Her selection of assistants was admirable, the best talent of the community being enlisted in making up the programme.

The concert was indeed a grand success, the audience showing its appreciation by heartily applauding every selection. The programme was an elaborate one and would have done credit to a large city and to artists who had spent months of labor in rehearsing their parts. As want of space prevents us commenting separately on each number we publish the programme in full on second page, reference to which will give the selections and names of the performers.

The instrumental selections and recitations were of the highest order and rendered faultlessly. As there is no music equal to that of the human voice, the audience was naturally most enthusiastic over the vocal solos. Each singer had to respond to encores, Mrs. Grimes responding twice in succession and Miss Sabie Cotten three times. It was Miss Pattie Skinner's first appearance before an audience and she captivated everybody. Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. Cherry also sang most charmingly, and Mr. Holcombe was at his best.

In fact there was not a dull piece on the entire programme and every participant is entitled to a full measure of praise.

Hope Fire Company appreciates the efforts of the Ladies in their behalf.

Christmas Tree

We are requested to state that the Christmas tree for the Baptist Sunday school will be held in the main auditorium of the church Friday night. The doors will not be opened until 7:30 o'clock at which time the bell will be rung. Any persons having private presents they desire placed on the tree should send them to the church by 4 o'clock.

The tobacco market will open again Tuesday, Jan. 4th.

The Methodist Sunday school will have their Christmas tree in the Star War-house Monday night.

There was a swell marriage in the colored Baptist church last night. The contracting parties were Frank Norri and Caroline Forbes.

EMPTY STOCKINGS.

Oh, mothers in homes that are happy
Where Christmas comes laden with cheer,

Where the children are dreaming already
Of the merriest day in the year,

As you gather your darlings around you
And tell them the "story of old,"
Remember the homes that are dreary!
Remember the hearts that are cold!

And thanking the love that has dowered you
With all that is dearest and best,
Give freely, that from your abundance
Some bare little life may be blessed!

Oh, go where the stockings hang empty,
Where Christmas is naught but a name,

And give—for the love of the Christ-child!

'Twas to seek such as these that He came.

—ELLEN MANLY in Christmas Ladies' Home Journal.

To Leave at Seven

The steamer Myers will leave here on Saturday morning at seven o'clock for Washington. All parties interested will take notice.

Doubly Afflicted

Greenville had an overproduction of strolling musicians today. The squeaking bagpipe crowd was around, and another set had the hand organ and monkey.

Bound to Court

James Brown, the colored night policeman, was before Justice J. A. Lang, Wednesday, under the charge of perjury and was bound over to Superior Court.

Married.

Wednesday afternoon, 22nd inst., at the residence of Mr. G. W. Parker, in Winterville, Miss Hilda Parker and Mr. Harvey Smith were married by Rev. R. M. Busler.

Get Your Shave

The barber shops will be closed Christmas day, so our beard-growing readers had best do enough shaving tomorrow to last them through Saturday and Sunday.

Dinner for the Poor.

The Kings Daughters will make their annual Christmas visit to the inmates of the County Home on next Tuesday. They wish to carry the poor people out there a good dinner and ask any one willing to contribute to send their donations to Mrs. J. B. Cherry or Mrs. A. J. Blow. Donations can be in either provisions, confections or cash.

Lumber is being hauled on the Dancy lot property to putting up another store building and an office.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1897.

An Unjust Ruling.

State Treasurer Worth has rendered a decision in regard to tobacco warehouses that will be far reaching and very much effect the business of these houses in the sale of tobacco if this decision is enforced. This ruling of Mr. Worth is to the effect that tobacco warehousemen are subject to a tax of 1 per cent. on their commissions. He classes them as commission merchants and applies chapter 284, section 20, laws of 1893.

The matter is attracting a good deal of attention among warehousemen in the various tobacco markets, and there is probability of its being very vigorously resisted. It is regarded as very unjust, and there will be a lively market before it is paid. The legislature of '95 fixed the fees, or commissions, on the gross amount of tobacco sold at 2 1/2 per cent. The treasurer now construes the law of the legislature of '93 as applying to this commission.

New Illustrated Literature

The passenger Department of the Seaboard Air Line has just issued two new illustrated books; one entitled "Education in the South," giving a full and complete list and description of Schools, Colleges and Universities along the Seaboard Air Line; the other entitled "Winter Excursions via Seaboard Air Line," in which appears descriptive and illustrated sketches of the numerous Winter Tourist Points reached via the Seaboard Air Line.

An exceptionally convenient feature of this book, is the arrangement of excursion rates and routes to the principal Florida, Texas, Mexico and California Resorts which show considerable reduction in total rates, especially to Southern Pines, N. C., the famous Winter Health Resort, which was so well patronized last season.

Copies of these books can be secured by addressing T. J. Anderson, General Passenger Agent, Portsmouth, Va., enclosing five cents in stamps to cover postage.

WHEN CHRISTMAS COMES

Have you any old grudge you'd like to pay?
 And wrong laid up from a bygone day?
 Gather them all now, and lay them away
 When Christmas comes.

Hard thoughts are heavy to carry, my friend,
 And life is short from beginning to end!
 Be kind to yourself, leave nothing to mend
 When Christmas comes.

Do you know some fellow stranded and poor,
 As good as you, but with much to endure.
 Do not forget him, however obscure,
 When Christmas comes.

Are there not some little ones, fair and sweet,
 Who know not as yet what they have to meet?
 Perhaps with joy you could make their hearts beat
 When Christmas comes.

Any clouds you can lift from hearts of care?
 Any kind word needed—try to be there,
 And always add help to sympathy's prayer
 When Christmas comes.

Fear not, my friend, giving more than your due,
 Remember the gift presented to you
 In the long ago, and try to be true
 When Christmas comes.
 —WILLIAM LYTLE.

Language of the Coattail.

When you see the lower half section of a coattail missing it means: "I have been introduced to her father's dog."

If the coattail looks like a porrus plaster, full of holes: "I didn't get the shot at a hardware store."

Coattail with a large, open-faced tear on the bias: "I scaled the back fence."

Dust on the coattail: "I had a painful interview with her papa's boot."

Coattail ripped up to the collar: "I had two lap-year proposals at the same time."—Chicago News.

"This Night Shall Thy Soul Be Required of Thee."

"I have worked hard for thirty years, and now I'm going to enjoy myself," said William Fulton, a hale looking man of three score and ten years, as he paid for a suit of clothes in Joseph Cohn's Sons' store at half past 3 o'clock this afternoon. Within one hundred yards of the spot where he stood and within five minutes of the time he uttered these words, the old man lay dead. He and two of his brothers, all bachelors, came to town today with a load of tobacco from their farm in Campbell, and, having disposed of it, were preparing to return. William Fulton was walking down Main street, when he suddenly stopped and fell backward with great force. He was moved to a drug store and when examined by a doctor was dead.—Lynchburg, Va., Dispatch, 16th.
