THE MAYOR OF LINCOLN N. J.

Mr. Drake Feels it His Duty to Recommend Paine's Celery Compound

The youngest and most bustling city in the United States—

Founded last April, Lincoln boasts a sewerage system, electric lights, macadimized roads, trolley cars, telephone franchise and a water plant.

From a hamlet to a town—to a city, in this incredibly short time, Lincoln has grown with the wonderful progressiveness looked for only in the West—a splendid example of the indomitable pertinacity of one strong man.

Like most forceful men, Mayor Drake must see results before giving his approval; but when convinced he speaks out his mind without fear or favor of any one.

There is no hesitation among Mayor Drake's friends in saying that Paine's celery compound has been of the utmost help in enabling him to do a prodigious amount of work, and to get rid of that insomnia that at one time resulted from excessively prolonged effort. Mayor Drake himself says:

Lincoln, Middlesex Co., N. J.

Oct. 30, 1897.

Wells, Richardson & Co.,

Gentlemen—I have been getting Paine's celery compound from our local druggist. After sixteen hours work each day, I sleep eight hours each night like a baby, and attribute much of the strengthening of my nerves to Paine's celery compound. Yours truly,

SILAS D. DRAKE.

Nothing demoralizes the health sooner or more completely than even the occasional loss of sleep. To start a new day with the brain unrefreshed is like trying to keep a worn out horse up to work with the whip instead of by feeding. The incessant brain activity is as if the skull were laid bare and the surface of the brain were struck lightly every few seconds and without a sign of a "let up."

Thus sleeplessness imperceptibly, but no less surely, destroys the brain cells that are the sources of mental power and the health of every organ of the body.

Paine's celery compound gets the nervous system out of this dangerous rut of sleeplessness. It supplies nourishment to the nervous tissues faster than they are worn out, and does not let the nutrition of these delicate parts get low enough to bring on insomnia.

One of the earliest evidences of the final success of Paine's celery compound in curing debility, nervousness, sleeplessness and derangements of liver and kidneys is the increased appetite, the clearer skin, and that indescribable precursor of health, a feeling of "well being" that takes the place of the tired, anguid, melancholy condition.

A Peculiar Worm.

An animal growing between the high and low water marks on the Japanese coasts is a mud worm called sabellia. It occupies a hard limy tube of its own making and gets its food, when the high tide comes up over its living place, by thrusting out a head bushy with tentacles and sucking in currents of water loaded with minute particles of nutriment.
Out of this wriggling creature the shore people make a soup, which is true vermicelli, not a paste imitation of "little worms!" and is said to taste as badly as it smells.

IF TRUE IT MEANS WAR.

Battleship Main Reported Blown Up.

Early this morning THE REFLECTOR received the following special bulletin:

"The United States Battleship Main was blown all to pieces by a Spanish torpedo boat last night, 102 of the crew reported killed."

Inquiries were made by wire as to the correctness of the report and it was said to have come through reliable channels. However, all efforts to get further news during the day have been without result and we are unable to say whether the report is true.

While the report caused some excitement here, it is discredited by most people, as it hardly looks reasonable that Spain would take such a rash step, knowing that it would precipitate an immediate war with the United States as well as arouse the censure of all civilized countries.

LATER—Just before going to press the report was confirmed but no definite particulars given, except that the killed and wounded of the Maine's crew was about sixty.

Wires Down

There was a heavy wind storm Tuesday night, reaching almost the velocity of a cyclone. It seems to have extended over much of the country, especially along the coast regions. The telegraph wires are demolished and market reports and messages have been badly interrupted.

Big Fire Anniversary

Today is the second anniversary of the big fire. This morning two years ago Greenville had the most destructive conflagration in the history of the town, but today not the slightest trace of it is visible. In that fire fourteen brick stores, besides other buildings, were destroyed, and in the two years since twenty-two new brick stores, a brick office building of sixteen rooms and many frame buildings have gone up, so that not only what was lost has been restored but also many additional buildings have been gained. And the buildings keep right on coming.
