Thrown from a Buggy

Mr. John Tucker brought his wife and three children to town Thursday afternoon. Upon starting home and getting as far as South Greenville Mr. Tucker went to turn the horse around to come back for something, when the animal took fright and jumped off to un. Mr. Tucker, his wife and baby were thrown out of the buggy leaving the other two children in it. He did not lose his hold on the reins and soon managed to stop the horse. Fortunately none of the party were seriously hurt, a few bruises being all the damage done.

TWO MORE FINE RACES.

Second Day Winners--Forest Wilks Makes a Track Record in 2:18 3/4.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable and rainy morning which seemed to indicate that the races for the second day would have to be postponed, the weather cleared up about midday and gave a pretty afternoon, so that there was no interference at all with the programme. The crowd out at the track was larger than the previous day, and they saw two of the finest races that have been witnessed here. The first was a free for all trot and pace that resulted as follows:

Forest Wilks.	1	2	1	1
Bird Eye.	3	1	3	4
Mike Dunn.	2	3	2	2
Musette.	4	4	4	3
Time	2:20, 2:21, 2:19, 2:18 3/4

Forest Wilks' heat in 2:18 3/4 is the track record, being the best time ever made here. Bird Eye was a close second.

The second race was a trot and pace with the following result:

Hubert H.	1	1	1
Elise.	2	2	2
Addie S.	3	3	3
Time	2:36, 2:35, 2:36.

RUNNING RACES.

Come Down With The Tin.

A rural editor adopts this unique method of bringing delinquent subscribers to time:

"Will those friends who owe us for the paper kindly call and settle at once? We are anxious to contribute to the fund for a monument to the martyrs of the Maine, as well as to fortify our dwelling against the possible invasion of an enemy. It takes money to accomplish these worthy objects and we need it badly."

"I have here an alarm clock with a lightning rod attachment," said the peddler. "Now, thunderstorms generally come at daybreak, as you probably know. Well, the lightning strikes the rod, runs down and starts the alarm, and wakes your cook in a jiffy."

ALFRED FORBES.

Brutal Conduct of a Colored Policeman.

Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock Policeman W. P. Toomer, colored, arrested and brought to the station house Leslie Godwin, a young white man, who was partly under the influence of liquor. Drunk and disorderly was the charge entered on the record, after the prisoner had been locked up.

Policeman Toomer stated that he made the arrest in Brooklyn, and that sometimes previous to the arrest a fight had taken place between Godwin and George Silvey, white. On this fracas, however, the policeman said he saw nothing, but when he arrested Godwin was acting disorderly, while his sister and mother were pleading with him to go home, but in vain.

When Policeman Toomer made his exit from the station, Mrs. Sallie Godwin and Mrs. Katie Memory, mother and sister, respectively, of the young man arrested, entered.

They both recited a tale of brutal conduct on the part of Policeman Toomer, and the latter lady was somewhat excited, and during her recital burst into tears.

Both ladies stated that when Policeman Toomer arrived that son and brother was in their care, and was going home along with them. Policeman Toomer savagely grabbed hold of young Godwin and told him to consider himself under arrest. Mrs. Memory then said: "Toomer, help me carry him home." To this the officer made an impertinent and gruff reply, and jerked Mrs. Memory away from the side of her brother and threw her halfway across the sidewalk.—Wilmington Messenger.

Just Before The Millennium.

When the grass hoppers cease to hop and the old cow quits her bawling; when the fishes no longer flop and the baby stops its squalling; when the dunners no longer dun and the hoot owl quits its hooting; when rivers ever cease to run and the burglar stops his looting; when the vine no longer twines and the lark stops its larking; when the sun no longer shines and the man quits his sparking; when the heavens begin to drop and old maids stop advising, then it is time to shut up shop and quit advertising.—Felcity, Ohio, Times.

FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1898.

Governor Russell received a message from President McKinley asking how many troops the State could furnish in case of hostilities. The reply gave 245,000 as the number.

The article in another column, taken from the Wilmington Messenger, about the brutal conduct of a colored policeman, shows one of the effects of fusion in this State. The article ought to appeal to the white men who helped to give the present crowd control of North Carolina.

The Populists of Georgia have just held their State convention and nominated Thomas E. Watson for Governor. The convention adopted resolutions that among other things endorsed the St. Louis platform and favored the passage of a bill that will at once close all bar rooms and provide for the sale of liquor under government control.

There was a Populist conference held in Raleigh Wednesday night, with an attendance of about seventy from thirty-five counties. We take the following from the Raleigh Post as a part of what was done at the meeting:

The fun commenced when a committee was named to draft resolutions looking forward to the policy of the party in the coming campaign. The committee, which was composed of Dr. Cyrus Thompson, Auditor Ayer, A. S. Peace, Senator J. E. McCaskey, Baylus Cade and M. H. H. Caldwell, retired, and after much mental effort and delay returned with a report.

The committee reported the following resolutions, which, after being read, were accorded a howl of disapproval:

"Resolved, That the spirit of this conference warrants the assertion that any differences which may have existed in the People's party of North Carolina are eliminated, and the sense of this conference is that every effort to create discord hereafter will be an object of grave suspicion, and the promoters of such an effort may be looked on as inimical to reform and good government.

"Resolved, That the spirit of the recommendatory addresses by the National chairmen of the People's party the Democratic party and the Silver Republican party, invoking a union of all forces favoring of the National financial system, is cordially endorsed, since such reform was the inspiration of the People's party, and is now the greatest purpose.

"Resolved, That it is the hope of the conference that the State convention of the People's party may be able to devise means for furthering all its principle and efforts as will in no wise compromise the integrity of the party or the beneficent results of legislation already accomplished."

SOLDIERS FOR UNCLE SAM.

Men Wanted for the Infantry, Cavalry and Artillery Service.

A big poster has been put up in the postoffice with the following heading: "United States Army Recruiting Service—Wanted for the United States Army able bodied men of good character, between the ages of 21 and 30 years."

The men are wanted for the infantry, cavalry and artillery service. For the infantry and artillery service men must be not less than 5 feet and 4 inches high and must weigh not less than 128 pounds nor more than 190. For the cavalry the required length is not less than 5 feet 4 inches nor more than 5 feet 10 inches and the weight not over 165 pounds. The term of enlistment is for 3 years for all arms of the service. Applicants are required to satisfy the recruiting officers regarding age and character and should be prepared to furnish the necessary evidence. Only unmarried men need apply. Original enlistments are confined to persons who are citizens of the United States or who have made legal declaration of their intention to become citizens thereof, and who can speak read and write the English language

The pay for enlisted men is as follows: Sergeant majors $23 per month; regimental quartermasters, $23; chief trumpeters and principal musicians, $23; saddler sergeants, $22; first sergeants, $25; ordinance sergeants, $34; quartermaster sergeants, $34; sergeants, $18; corporals, $15; soldiers ferriers, artificers and blacksmiths, $15; wagones, $14; field musicians and privates, $13. The men are also furnished rations, clothing, bedding, medicines and medical attendance.

Soldiers who have served honestly and faithfully for 20 years or who have been discharged for wounds or disease are entitled to admittance in the Soldiers' Home at Washington. Twelve and a half cents per month is deducted from the monthly pay for the benefit of the Home. Men who serve 30 years will be retired and will be allowed three-fourths of their pay monthly and $9.50 per month for clothing and subsistence.

Applications should be made to Captain F. Hartz, Captain 11th infantry, recruiting officer, 624 East Broad street, Richmond, Va.—Wilmington Messenger.

There are now twenty-three children in the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home at Goldsboro, carefully instructed and trained for useful men and women. They are the sons and daughters of Odd Fellows and are supported by the Odd Fellows of the State, a per capita tax being levied on each member of the fraternity for this purpose. The new building is now complete and will be occupied immediately. It cost only $10,500, but it is one of the best and most admirably arranged orphan homes in the South. In addition to this there are two other buildings—a dormitory and the superintendent's home. The asylum is admirably located, about three-quarters of a mile from Goldsboro, adjoining the fine park recently donated to the city by the Weil brothers. Adjoining the orphanage is a fine twenty-acre farm, cultivated by the boys. The total expenses of the institution are thus kept within $150.00 a month. The orphans are given the benefit of the city graded schools, though they are instructed in music by a special teacher at the orphanage. When the new building has been fitted up and the new management is installed the institution will be able to care for a large number of children.—Ex.

"Some people," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "have so little music in them it seems a pity they should let any of it escape."

Reflections of A Bachelor.

Women never apologize to each other, they only cry and then kiss and make up.

Probably Delilah had an idea she could save money by cutting Samson's hair herself.

Some men's faces reflect nothing but the truth. Some women's reflect nothing but the teeth.

Every man is a hero to the woman he marries and every woman is a hero to the man she doesn't.

Women talk a lot about their rights but none of them want to do any fighting. If there was a war a few of them would go as nurses. Nobody shoots at nurses.

No man ever wants to kiss a girl after he has once seen her hold a nickle the conductor has given her for change between her teeth while she gets her purse open.—New York Press.

How Many Pieces in a Locomotive.

A telegram from the war department was received by the Pennsylvania railroad stating that Major General Miles wanted to know how many pieces are in a class "L" locomotive, the standard type built here. Counting each individual piece, even to the rivets or bolts but not the nails in the cab and tender, there were in all 20,006 pieces. It is conjectured that Gen. Miles wants to make a comparison of some sort between a locomotive and a disappearing gun carriage.—Philadelphia Record.

Lost Her Appetite.

Miss Irwin, who lives near Matthews, has been strangely afflicted since last August. Her appetite began failing and since that time has continued to diminish until now she eats nothing and cares for nothing. Her case is a strange one and puzzling to her physician. Though very weak she is still able to be up and visit her friends. Her meager sustenance is gained principally from the nutriment which she forces herself to swallow in the liquid form.—Charlotte News.

Curious Intermarriage of two Families.

Eight of the most remarkable marriages on record took place within a few weeks in the parish of St. Marie, Quebec. Two neighbors, named Morin and Rheame, have eight children, four sons and four daughters. Rheame's four sons have married, Morin's four daughters, and Morin's four sons have married the daughters of Rheame.—Boston Herald.

Riley and his Valise

James Whitcomb Riley, the poet, says: "I am continually haunted by the fear that my trunk will be lost, so I go about the country with a grip. In case there is ever a fearful railway accident and among the debris is a valise with an arm attached to it firmly they may bury it, without further identification as the fragments of the Hoosier poet."

Eighteen hundred and nine, the year of Gladstone's birth, produced also Tennyson, Abraham Lincoln, Darwin, Blacke, Mark Lemmon, and Oliver Wendell Holmes. Of them all, Mr. Gladstone is now the only one left.

THEY RIDICULE IT.

Many People Ridicule the Idea of an Absolute Cure for Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles.

Ridicule, however, is not argument and Facts are Stubborn Things.

Stomach troubles are so common and in many cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on never being humbugged especially on medicines.

This fear of being humbugged may be carried too far; so far, in fact, that many persons suffer for years with weak digestion, rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten promptly, thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely upon the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taken after meals, digest the food. That is all there is in it. Food not digested or half digested is poison, as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite, and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for book on stomach diseases or ask your druggist for it.

Hats off in Church.

The question first agitated several months ago of having the women remove their hats at the High Street Methodist Episcopal church, Muncie, Ind., was officially acted upon by the trustees of the church on March 9, the board unanimously passing a resolution requesting that "in the future all women attending services at this church are requested to remove their hats until the completion of church service."

The church boasts of the largest Methodist congregation in Indiana and the fifth largest in the United States, and the hat resolution, which has stirred up the congregation, was the outcome of the outraged feelings of a dilatory trustee. He came late to church and had to take a back seat, where he could not see anything on account of "a waving forest of ostrich feathers, plumes and ribbons," worn on the heads of the women in front of him.

A number of the women say they will withdraw from membership rather than submit to such tyrannical orders from selfish male members of the congregation, but the majority of the congregation is with the board and the pastor.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Germany is about to try an interesting experiment in the administration of judicial oaths, in the hope of diminishing the number of perjury cases. The witness will be asked to make an unsworn statement in court, and will then be required to swear to it, first being permitted to withdraw or correct any part of his testimony. Heavy penalties are provided for the willful making of false statements in court.

Thirty Fighting Billions

The assessed valuation of real and personal property in the United States at the time of the eleventh census was $25,473,173,418. This is an understatement of the wealth of the nation in 1890, but the figures are sufficiently impressive.

Between 1830 and 1890 the total assessed valuation had increased from $27,189,903,495 to $25,473,173,418, and the assessed valuation per capita had increased from $341.73 to $407.18. The most conservative estimates of the assessed valuation in 1898 will not fall below $30,000,000,000. The present valuation probably exceeds that sum by two billions of dollars.

What, then, is the emergency appropriation of $50,000,000, voted last week for the national defence and now available for use by President McKinley?

It is a tax of less than one-sixth of 1 per cent, upon the nation's resources.—New York Sun.

Former Citizen Dead.

We learn of the death of Mr. W. B.
Phipps, of Chicago, which occurred on the 8th inst. Mr. Phipps was once a citizen of Greenville, and left here during the war to go west. He is remembered by many of our older people.

Found a Wheel.

Mr. H. B. Jordan, section master of the Coast Line, has a bicycle which he found in a small out-building near Great Swamp church. The wheel is a Featherstone make, 1896 model. Mr.
Jordan thinks some one stole the wheel
and hid it in the building.

Two Nights Longer

Upon many requests Chick's International stars have decided to remain in Greenville two nights longer. Last night Germania hall was crowded,
there being not even standing room left, and all were again charmed with the performance. Tonight there will be a change of programme with new features.

There will be a matinee at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, admission
10 and 20 cents. At this performance
Lovell's moving pictures will be shown as usual, the room being darkened so as to bring them out with good effect.
Let the children go.

THIS WAR IS A CUT ON PRICES!

Having decided not to run two stores during the Spring and Summer, I have moved the New York Clothing Store stock over to my old stand next to the Bank of Greenville. Combining the two stocks makes more goods than I have room for, and to remove this difficulty I will for

This is no fake but a necessity. I am over stocked, I don't want to throw the surplus goods away, so to get the stock low enough to accommodate I am going to give them to you at almost your own price. This is a Klondike that you don't find every day. Come on while you can get a chance at these goods.
