STATE NEWS

The Kinston Free Press announces that it will begin publishing an afternoon edition on April 4th.

The wife of Dr. James Dinwiddie, President of Peace Institute, Raleigh, died in Baltimore Tuesday morning.

Mr. W. T. Caho will soon begin publishing a paper at Bayboro. He has experience in journalism and will conduct a good paper.

Evangelist W. R. Gales closed a two weeks' meeting in Washington on Sunday. There were about seventy five conversions during the meeting.

"Sir!" cried the haughty girl, "he whom you choose to call your rival is a man of wonderful understanding." "Wonderful!" spitefully replied Charlie Hee'tote, the sales-gentleman; "enormous is the word. I sell him his shoes."

REPORT IN CONGRESS.

HOT TIMES IN WASHINGTON.

Orders Sent Out to Enlist More Men.

WAR DEEMED INEVITABLE.

Crowds Throng About the Senate Chamber and Congress and the Excitement is Intense.

Special to Reflector.

Washington, March 23.—Everything is getting serious towards war and orders have been sent out to enlist more men. Every indication now points to the certainty of war and active hostilities are near at hand.

Today excitement around the capital has been more intense than at any time since 1861. The Board of Inquiry is up in the House and their report is being examined by Congress. Great crowds of people are thronging about the Senate chamber and Congress anxiously awaiting the result of the examination of the report.

JACKSON IS KNOCKED OUT.

Special to Reflector.

San Francisco, March 23.—Jackson and Jeffries had a prize fight here last night, and the negro (Jackson) was knocked out on third round.

Fire Near Bethel.

We learn that the residence of Mr. W. N. Hammond, near Bethel, was destroyed by fire Saturday night. Mr. Hammond was alone at home, and was aroused by burning timbers falling near him in the room where he was asleep. He was badly burned on one arm and had a narrow escape with his life. Very little of the furniture in the house was saved.

Mrs. Hammond and children were visiting her parents in Greenville and did not know of the disaster at her home until a letter was received from Mr. Hammond.

The mannish girl our shirts may wear, But she won't be a man for sure, O! Until at the studs she learns to swear When they roll beneath the bureau!

QUINERLY ITEMS.

Personal, Social and Other Matters of Interest.

QUINERLY, N. C., Mar. 22, 1898. Ask Paul Brooks how to make fruit cake.

W. B. Quinerly, of Ayden, was here a few days ago.

Miss Stella Evans, of Ayden, attended services here last Sunday.

Mrs. M. F. Latham is visiting friends in and near Greenville this week.

Miss Annie Pittman, a very charming young lady of Grifton, was visiting at E. A. Johnson's last week.

Misses Mary and Bessie Harvey, of Craven county, who spent a few days of last week at L. J. Chapman's, returned home on the 20th.

Watt Chapman, of Johnsons Mills, is not as dead as some of his friends might suppose. He was out with his best girl last Sunday. How about that, Harold?

One of our young gentleman went to call on his best girl, who was visiting in the neighborhood last week, but found that she had gone. He returned a wiser and sadder man.

While crossing the street last Friday night Mr. Amos E. Brown was run over by a horse receiving a painful cut on his head and a severe bruise on his right leg. His wounds were at once dressed and he is doing well.

"The New Woman" was presented here on the evening of the 18th, under the auspices of the Social Committee of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Salem church. The entertainment was held at the town hall and was a splendid success. Great credit is due to Mrs. L. J. Chapman as stage manager. Immediately after the entertainment the audience repaired to the former residence of W. B. Quinerly where a "Klondike Gold Mine" and oyster supper occupied the attention of the people. Miss Addie Butler had charge of the culinary department and Mrs. J. B. Latham the Klondike, and the patronage they obtained showed their especial fitness for their respective positions. Dr. W. W. Dawson and J. B. Latham, the other two members of the committee, were kept busy selling tickets, eating oysters, &c. The receipts were about $21.00.

"No, madam," said Weary Willie; "I'm not duty from choice. I'm bound by honor. I wrote a testimonial for a soapmaker once an' promised ter use no udder." "Why not us, that?" "Because, ma'am, that firm failed durin' the war."

Increase Valuation.

The State Auditor makes the announcement that the returns on which the taxes will be collected this year show an increase of $5,747,873.04 over the preceding year, of which $1,359,797.40 was made by the State Board of Equalization. This is the increase in the amount of taxable property.

The aggregate value of real and personal property for the year 1897 as reported from the various counties to the Auditor amounts to $235,502,371.40. This is the property valuation on which taxes will be collected this year. These figures will not appear until next year, when the Auditor's annual report is made. The aggregate value of real and personal property for the year 1896, as will be shown in the Auditor's forthcoming report amount to $229,854,498.—Raleigh post.

One Colored Constable

Cicero Urquhars, colored, was elected constable of Woodville township at the last election. In the interval between election and bonding time Cicero put in his nights stealing cotton from Wm. Hardy, colored. Cicero was indicted for larceny and while the jury was out Cicero ran away. The jury failed to agree—standing eleven white men for conviction and one negro preacher for acquittal. Cicero went down to Norfolk. Mr. Joshua Brown, of Kelford, occasionally puts in a lick or two of good detective work, and as a result of that Cicero is now in jail waiting trial at the next term of the court. Mr. Brown did excellent work in locating his man.—Windsor Ledger.

The Post Office Department at Washington has decided that the printing upon the address side of postal cards of the line of trade in which a business house is engaged, as well as its address, constitutes an advertisement, and that letter postage is to be collected on all such cards. This renders valueless many thousands of postal cards already printed, it having for some time been the custom of business houses to supply their correspondents with self-addressed cards prepared in this style. Business men are protesting against the immediate enforcement of the order, but it has been suggested that they can paste blank strips of paper over the objectionable line of the address.

Don't

Don't drop insinuations. A bigger man may pick them up.

Don't pick out for your friend a man whose dog won't follow him.

Don't think all books are salable because they are bound to sell.

Don't sit in a draught unless you want the doctor to get the cash for it.

Don't wait until summer to buy thermometers; they are always lower in winter.

Don't think because time and tide wait for no man that no woman will wait for him.

Don't fail to keep an eye on the man who offers you suggestions at the expense of another friend.

Don't under-rate modesty. The needle has but one point, yet it would be almost impossible to get along without it.—Chicago News.

After a close study of the spring habits of the summer girl, the Atchison (Kan.) Globe makes the following terse observation: "When a girl wants to go anywhere for the summer she commences in January to say that she wants to go, in February that she ought to be allowed to go, in March that she is going, and in April she begins to get her shirt waists ready." And having gotten her shirt waists ready, she usually wheedles her parents into providing the necessary cash for her trip.

Captain W. H. Harrison, chief clerk in the Georgia State Controller General's office, wants to hold an election in every county in January of each year for the purpose of decaying by ballot who is the meanest man. The man receiving the highest number of votes is to be hanged, and as there are 137 counties in Georgia, the State would get rid of 137 of its worst characters every year.

It is noticeable that swallows and martins have not yet put in an appearance. Perhaps spring is just fooling us and there will be some more shivering weather.

There will be a meeting of Zeb Vance Council, Royal Arcanum, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in Odd Fellows hall. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance is to be attended to.

FOR SALE.—I offer for sale the dwelling house on Third street in which I now live. House contains six rooms, with kitchen and all needed outbuildings. Good well of water. Will sell on easy terms.
 R. GREENE.

How is this for Contrast?

Chicago, March 22.—A cold wave with zero weather is on throughout the West. The thermometer is below zero west of the Missouri river. Heavy snows are falling in some places.

Looking for a Location.

Mayor J. W. Perkins tells the REFLECTOR that he has received a letter from a company in Ohio who want to come South and establish a hard wood mill, and making inquiries about Greenville and vicinity. The Mayor replied at once to the letter and answered their inquiries in full. The company in question works thirty hands, and their plant would be an addition to this community. We hope they can be induced to locate here.

Supports a Family.

Mr. D. A. Stevens tells us of a colored woman who lives in Morning Star township, Mecklenburg county, who lost both of her hands in a cane mill when she was a child and yet with the two stubs she supports a family. The woman washes, hoes, and strange to say, can pick a hundred pounds of cotton per day. She can do some sewing and threads her own needles. We saw an able bodied man on the streets here a few days ago who had lost the fingers of each hand and he was solely dependent upon charity.—Monroe Enquirer.

JUST FOR FUN.

Hoax—"Saw the laziest thing in the world today." Joax—"What's that?" Hoax—"Messenger boy with the spring fever."

"Your Excellency," said the Secretary, "a number of Senators are without, clamoring to know if war has been declared." "I cannot say yet," replied the President; "I have not read the yellow journals this morning."

ACETYLENE GAS.

The Light of the Future.

Why not be independent and own your own little gas plant which will give four times more light than ordinary gas or electric lights at one half the cost? Applicable for use in churches, stores, factories, hotels, residences and country homes; safer than ordinary gas or kerosene lamps. Approved by all the Boards of Underwriters throughout the United States. We want a first class agent in every town. Write for catalogue and prices.

THIS WAR IS A CUT ON PRICES!

Having decided not to run two stores during the Spring and Summer, I have moved the New York Clothing Store stock over to my old stand next to the Bank of Greenville. Combining the two stocks makes more goods than I have room for, and to remove this difficulty I will for
