IT LOOKS WORSE TO-DAY.

WAR SITUATION MORE CRITICAL AND THE CRISIS EXPECTED MONDAY.

Lee Left Havana—Woodford Under British Protection—A Strict Censorship Established over Messages.

This being Good Friday, and the day being observed as far as conditions would admit, is the cause of our telegraphic news service being shorter than usual today. What messages have come indicate a change for the worst in the situation and that the prospect for war is more serious.

Congressman Harry Skinner left Washington last night to come home for a few days. Reaching Weldon this morning he received a telegram advising him that the situation had changed and summoning him back to Washington. He sent THE REFLECTOR the following telegram:

The Situation Changed.

Special to Reflector.

Weldon, N. C., April 8—Late yesterday evening the war situation took a decided change for the worse. A telegram to me from Washington which has just been received says the President's message is certain to go to Congress Monday. Consul General Lee has left Cuba and Minister Woodford has packed his baggage at Madrid and put it in the custody of the British Minister for protection.

The morning Post says that war is certain. HARRY SKINNER.

Crisis Approaching—Situation Critical.

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, D. C., April 8—Frequent conferences around the White House and War and State Departments today are the only outward signs of the approaching crisis in Cuban affairs. The President's message will be placed before Congress Monday unless some radical changes in the programme takes place between now and then.

While the report from Havana is that everything there is quiet, there is constant expectancy that an outbreak may occur at any moment, and the gravest of doubts still continue. The observance of Good Friday may have a tendency to keep matters quiet through the day.

Beginning today all code telegrams that are passed between officials will have to be deciphered by the President's censor. The strictest vigilance is being observed.

AN "EVENING OF PICTURES."

The "Evening of Pictures," which will be given next Tuesday night, is made possible through the courtesy of "The Ladies' Home Journal." The pictures are copies in black and white of the original pictures purchased by the Home Journal for its own illustration, which pictures are from the pen of America's foremost artists.

Charles Dana Gibson is perhaps the best known illustrator in America. The type of woman which he is fond of depicting has been called the "Gibson girl" and his popularity is widespread.

Edwin A. Abbey is one of the foremost living illustrators. His most ambitious works are the frescoes in the Boston Public Library. He was last year elected to the Royal Academy in London.

Robert Blum has won distinction in decorative painting. His principal work is a large fresco in the Mendelssohn Society's rooms in New York.

B. West Clinedinst is a very popular illustrator who devotes himself particularly to early Colonial and Washingtonian scenes.

A. B. Frost is unquestionably the king of modern character draughtsmen. Of recent years he has devoted himself to country scenes and sporting subjects.

Will H. Low designed the new one dollar Treasury note, and the diploma for the World's Fair at Chicago. His paintings have won much praise both in Chicago and Washington.

Albert Lynch is a Parisian. He is purely a painter and deservedly most popular.

Howard Pyle has produced some of the most scholarly and valuable drawings which have appeared in the books and periodicals published in America.

Frank O. Small is much admired for his rendition of sweet womanhood.

W. T. Smadley has no equal in his peculiar field. His keen appreciation of beautiful women and manly men has enabled him to draw the American in his most favorable aspect.

F. de Thulstrup makes a specialty of military subjects, all which are most interesting.

W. L. Taylor is an illustrator of much ability, and his pictures are noted for their extreme finish and precision.

Irving R. Wiles is one of the foremost portrait painters of New York.

Alice Barber Stephens is undoubtedly the foremost draughtswoman in America. Her ability as an illustrator has placed her on the top of the ladder, her works comparing most favorably with any illustrative works in the world.

Maude Cowles has remarkable artistic ability, and her illustrations are always in demand.

This exhibition of pictures will be given in Germania hall, Tuesday 12th. Admission 10 cents. Refreshments will be served, and the pictures on exhibition will be for sale.

FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1909.

A Populist caucus in Raleigh decided to hold the State convention of that party May 17th.

That sounds funny—Hal Ayer saying the Populists are going to submit to the Democrats a proposition for cooperation that the latter could honorably accept and would be put in a dilemma if they refused. Of the two evils let's take the dilemma.

Gov. Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, came over the line to deliver a lecture in Winston, and is reported to have said that the audience there was the smallest to which he ever lectured.
 The Governor ought to have learned in advance that Winston has fiddlers of her own.

There is nothing that stimulates trade so much as regular advertising in a paper of recognized standing—Flt. Wayne (Ind.) Journal.

It may have been observed that Lee looms up so large in the present crisis as to overshadow Woodford and even McKinley.—
Richmond Dispatch.

A tramp who had been befriended by Judge Martip, of Chicago, recently gave to his benefactor an old Scotch coin as a "luck piece." The judge has been informed that the only other coin in existence is in the British Museum, and a collector has offered him $250 for the duplicate.

The family clock at R. B. Pro-cator's residence cut up a queer caper last night. There was a whirring sound for a few minutes, and then the door flew open and the spring shot out over the floor like a snake. It is supposed that the clock had the "spring" fever and just decided not to work any longer.—Durham Sun.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company has eighteen women in its employ as station agents, and the superintendents are very much pleased with the way in which they perform their duties. These women act as both freight and ticket agents, and it is said in their favor by the traveling auditors that their accounts are always perfectly straight.

An odd tombstone has been placed in a cemetery in Lincoln, Neb. It marks the grave of James Jacobs, a butcher, who died in 1891. He was of a roving disposition, so his father had a valise modelled in marble and placed on the grave. The inscription in addition to name, date of birth, and death, is: "Here is where he stopped last."

An up-to-date Chicago undertaker has made arrangements to conduct funerals by wheel. He has constructed a cycle hearse, to be propelled by eight riders and to be followed in the procession by a few cycle carriages for the aged. Behind these will ride the friends of the deceased on their wheels. This service is, of course designed for deceased bicycle enthusiasts, and is advertised to be the "cheapest and most elegant."

We do not believe the Post can do its former readers—indeed all farmers—a greater service than urge them to give special attention to the raising of ample food supplies. This is the better course for them to pursue ordinarily, but this year, if we are to have war, and everything points to that now, provisions will certainly be higher while cotton will as surely be lower. If war is entered upon we need not expect it to be concluded before breakfast. We wish we could think so. The longer it is prolonged the greater will be the demand for food supplies, and the less for cotton. Those framers who will heed this very important suggestion will thank the Post for its urgency in this direction.
 —Raleigh Post.

Freddy's Fear.

They pass a plate of cakes to Freddy at dessert. He puts out his hand, hesitates, then draws it back and begins to weep.

"What are you crying for?" asks his mother.
 "Because you are going to scold me when I choose the biggest one."—Figaro.

The Farmers and the War.

A number of the intelligent farmers of this county are watching the news very narrowly, in order to judge what sort of crops to pitch. If there is to be war they will plant corn; if not, they will prepare, as usual, for cotton. An Observer representative ascertained this fact last evening; and it is very interest-

 from poll tax for 1897.

Thirty nine members of Hope Fire Company were exempted from poll tax for 1897.

 $2.66 erroneous tax charge.

 tax in one township, he being ordered that Rev. N. M. Watson, of the Methodist church, and Rev.

 A. W. Setzer, of the Baptist church, be requested to dedicate the building at their appointment.

The following were appointed to list taxes in the several towns-ships:

NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

A Positive Cure For Dyspepsia.

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable, or practically so.
 But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as it first appears.

The trouble with Dyspepsia is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves, or going to opposite extremes or else deluging the already overburdened stomach with "bitters," "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse.
 What the stomach wants is a rest.
 Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained.

This is the great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy, but its success and popularity leaves no doubt as to its merits.

The tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach.

The sufferer from dyspepsia according to directions is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your dyspepsia may be, because as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of the many remedies advertised to cure dyspepsia none of them has given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

The Deacon's Determination.

"No," said the old deacon, "I knows it! I got a duty ter perform right heah. Dat duty is ter de Lawd; en de Lawd mus' be er stiddy prayin' ter make de Americans win right off en ez prayin' is my business, I gwine at it, en I'll keep it up twell de "But," suggested a brother deacon, "s'pose dey ketch you a-prayin', en try ter rush you ter de front?"

"De man what does dat," said the deacon, with emphasis, "will git his d—n head chopped off—dat's whut!"

trying to impress on the class the lessons of Washington's birthday, and among other questions she asked:

"If the Southern Confederacy had succeeded what would Wash-

"Twins," was the prompt reply of one of the boys.—New York

Are You "Run Down?"

Until February, 1892, I was a physical wreck and had been for over twenty years. No one can ever know what I suffered from rheumatism and neuralgia in different parts of my body, but principally in my head. I suffered so much with pains in my back that often I would have to lay with bottles of hot water to my back to give me what little relief it would. I suffered with indigestion for years, which gave me often such choking spells that the doctor would have to be summoned in haste.
I could not eat a mouthful of meat or solid food of any kind, and the eructation of gas from my stomach was distressing. My system was completely run down. I had no strength and was distressingly nervous. Sometimes I would be unconscious from these nervous spells and would have to have hot baths applied for relief. When I had been in this condition for over twenty years, Mrs. Joe Person visited our town in February, 1892, and persuaded me to try a half-dozen bottles of her Remedy, as she told me she had never known it to fail to restore a broken down system. I knew I would have to try something and thought it might as well be her Remedy as anything, but I had no faith in anything curing me. I bought a half-dozen bottles and when I was on the second I began to feel better and by the time I took the six bottles I WAS WELL. Indigestion was perfectly cured and I can now eat anything I want and it agrees with me. It cured me entirely of neuralgia and I have never had it since. It cured me of hemorrhoids from which I suffered agonies—rheumatism, backache, headache, nervousness all cured. When I see any one suffering from anything I asked them why don't they take the Remedy, that half a dozen bottles would cure them. I would not take hundreds of dollars for what it did for me. It restored me to health and now I enjoy life.

Found Fourteen Skeletons.

John D. Bellamy, Esq., spent Thursday at Whiteville and the Star is indebted to him for information regarding a curious find made by Mr. J. Lloyd McKoy on his place near that town. He was having post holes for a fence dug last Thursday and struck a human skull about two feet under the surface. Additional excavations revealed the whole human skeleton.

Mr. McKoy made further examinations and exhumed thirteen other skeletons. The bodies had been buried in a circle, the heads touching in the centre. About the neck of each of the skeletons was a string of beads and a quantity of periwinkle shells. Mr.
McKoy thinks that his find must be an old Indian grave or burying ground. However, the circular interment is unusual.—Wilmington Star.

A Great Help.

"Yes, our little 4-year-old is such a comfort and such a help to me," said Mrs. Westside to a lady caller. "Why he can take care of his baby sister as well as any nurse. He is in the next room now, playing with little Dorothy." (Raises her voice) "Wal-ter!"
"Yeth, mamma."
"Are you taking care of little sister?"
"Yeth, mamma."
"What are you doing?"
"Oh, I'z des playin' I'ze a barber, and I'ze shavin' her wif papa's razor."

In Favor of Cheek Estate.

A cablegram from Bangkok announces that Sir Nicholas Hannon, arbitrator between the estate of the late Dr. W. A. Cheek, a native of Orange county, North Carolina, and the Government of Siam, has decided in favor of the Cheek estate, thus sustaining all the contentions of Mr.
Barrett, United States Consul there.
Two hundred thousand dollars is involved.

The widow of Dr. Cheek and her children now reside in Hillsboro.
They will obtain the $200,000 agreed upon by the arbitrator. The late Dr.
Cheek is well remembered in North Carolina. He was born and raised in Orange county.

The case of the heirs of Dr. Cheek against the Siamese Government was long drawn out, and it has finally been decided by the arbitrator. Sir Nicholas Hannon, of Hongkong, that the claim of the heirs for $200,000 indemnity is just and valid, and must be admitted and paid by Siam.

Dr. Cheek went to Siam from Orange county years ago, entered into a sort of partnership with the Siamese Government in the business of getting out teak timber on an extensive scale.
Default is his contract was alleged.

His property, which consisted largely of a vast herd of elephants, which were used to transport the teak, were seized, and he died later, after having vainly endeavored to secure rehabilitation and justice at the hands of the Siamese officials.—Raleigh Post.
