A DEADLOCK.

Committee Can't Agree on Message.

PROBABLE MAJORITY WITH THE PRESIDENT.

Compromise Proposition May be Made—Minority will Report for Favoring Recognition.

Left for New York

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Halifax, April 12.—The United States cruisers New Orleans and San Francisco sailed from here today for New York.

Excitement in Spain

By Cable to Reflector.

Madrid, April 12.—There is a great anti-American demonstration here today. On every hand there is a strong opposition to the armistice.

Senator Allen Favors War

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—Senator Allen has introduced a resolution declaring war against Spain.

Senator Pasco introduced a resolution authorizing the President to extend aid to the destitute Americans who have been driven from Cuba.

Senator Mason is making a speech in favor of the recognition of Cuba as a republic.

Dead-Lock in Committee

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—The Foreign Relations Committees are practically at a dead-lock, and the indications now seem to favor that a compromise proposition will be made prior to taking a recess. The Senate committee has a possible majority against recognizing the independence of Cuba. Senator Gray, Democrat, has declared his intention of joining the Republicans if the latter can be united. The minority will make a report favoring recognition.

Consul General Lee is expected to arrive at three o'clock.

Lee Passes Richmond

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Richmond, April 12.—The Governor and a great multitude of citizens greeted Gen. Fitzhugh Lee as he rolled into the depot. Gen Lee asked the gathering if it wanted to fight and they all exclaimed: "Yes, we are glad the time has arrived."

Lee Arrives

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington April 12, 4:00 p. m.—Gen. Lee has arrived and is now with the President.

Practically Agreed,

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, D. C.,—April 12 4:30 p. m.—The Senate and House Committees are practically agreed upon the resolution for immediate intervention. Will report tomorrow.

Mrs. Cotton's Recital

Last night in the Chapel of G. F. college Mrs. Sallie S. Cotton, of Falkland, N. C., read her famous poem, "The White Doe, or The Fate of Virginia Dare." A large and appreciative audience welcomed her to Greensboro again. She is well known here, having delivered the Alumnae address to Greensboro Female College at last commencement.

Miss Manie Currie, of Maxton, read a short, though beautiful, sketch of the myths and traditions connected with Virginia Dare, the first white child born on the American continent. Then Miss Addie Latham, in a few choice words, introduced Mrs. Cotton.

The reading of the poem consumed but an hours time, and that hour was spent with intense interest on the part of the audience. The style of delivery was exceedingly easy and attractive. The description of the scenery in early north eastern North Carolina was true to nature. Her interpretation of the myths connected with the conversion of Virginia into a white doe and of the reconversion was deep, strong, still and beautiful, so also was her interpretation of the Indian and early white life on our eastern shore. The poem has a good plot, it this term can be applied to a poem. The characters are in the main true to nature—at any rate true to our best myths. In the portrayals of their deeds of heroism and love she touches the depths of pathos, and often she reaches the sublime and the beautiful.

This poem is soon to be published in book form; and then it will take its place among the very finest literature of our day. It will preserve in beautiful form one of our most beautiful myths.—Greensboro Telegram.

Firemen Elect Officers.

Hope Fire Company held its regular monthly meeting Monday night. After transacting other business the annual election of officers was held with the following result:

Foreman—F. M. Hodges.
1st. Asst. Foreman—W. F. Burch.
2nd. Asst. Foreman—G. J. Woodward.

Sec. and Treas.—A. B. Ellington.
Engineer—L. H. Pender.
Asst. Engineer—W. O. Barnhill.

This meeting completed the third year since the organization of the company, the time for which the members enlisted, and when a re-enlistment was called for only three of these present failed to put down their names.

TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1898.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, April 11th 98. Congress has weightier business on hand than to find fault with the reasons which Mr. McKinley says caused him to ask for armed intervention in Cuba.

To tell the truth, Congress is so much relieved by the action of Mr. McKinley in sending in that much postponed message in favor of armed intervention that it is willing to forgive him more serious sins, both of omission and commission, than saying that we are not making a war of vengeance on the Spaniards.

Consul Gen. Fitz Lee, having completed the task of getting all the Americans who desired to leave out of Cuba, is now on his way to Washington to tell Mr. McKinley and Congress what he thinks is the best and quickest way to get the Spanish out of Cuba.

there were numerous Americans in Cuba liable to be made victims of Spanish treachery.

While not possible at this time to specify the exact time that our big fleet of warships at Key West will start to Cuba, they will certainly get off this week, unless there shall be some delay on the part of Mr. McKinley in carrying out the authority that will be conferred upon him by Congress, or the Spanish shall announce their recognition of Cuban independence and intention to evacuate the island.

The so-called army reorganization bill, which provided for increasing the regular army, whenever in the opinion of the authorities there was an exigency, to 104,000 men, is virtually dead, the House having voted to send it back to the committee on military affairs, which reported it. It was an administration measure.

In response to a request for information on the subject by Representative Cooper, of Texas, Secretary Alger stated that the work of fortifying the coast of Texas was being pushed rapidly to a conclusion and that sufficient heavy guns had been allotted to Sabine Pass to protect that port from any attack the Spanish could make upon it.

The democrats in Congress are ready to vote the government all the money that will be needed to thoroughly thrash Spain, even to the extent of an issue of from $100,000,000 to $500,000,000 in coin bonds, but they have made plain to the schemers who have been sounding Congress on the subject that even if every gun owned by Spain were upon the Capitol building, in easy range, they would refuse to vote for the issue of one single gold bond.

Judge B. F. Buckner, of Ky., who is well-posted on Kentucky politics, says: Our people are not satisfied with the republican regime, state or national, and Kentucky will get back into the Democratic column at the earliest possible date, to remain there permanently.

Col. Jed. Hotchkiss, of Va., who participated in more than 100 battles in the civil war says: "We have ample justification for war and will wage it, but I do not think the crash will be severe for the Spanish government too well understands its inferiority. It may make a semblance of fight in order to appease the home rabble, but with the absolute certainty of being crushed, it will speedily bow to the inevitable."

Mexico does not sympathize with Spain, for the people of Mexico know something of Spanish cruelty. Until 1821, when Mexico gained independence, she bore the galling Spanish yoke, and the ancestors of the Mexicans of today felt the tyranny and inhumanity of Spain.

There are now seventeen privates in the Billville regiment. This leaves only thirty colonels.

AN "EVENING OF PICTURES."

The "Evening of Pictures," which will be given next Tuesday night, is made possible through the courtesy of "The Ladies' Home Journal." The pictures are copies in black and white of the original pictures purchased by the Home Journal for its own illustration, which pictures are from the pen of America's foremost artists.

Charles Dana Gibson is perhaps the best known illustrator in America. The type of woman which he is fond of depicting has been called the "Gibson girl" and his popularity is widespread.

Edwin A. Abbey is one of the foremost living illustrators. His most ambitious works are the frescoes in the Boston Public Library. He was last year elected to the Royal Academy in London.

Robert Blum has won distinction in decorative painting. His principal work is a large fresco in the Mendelssohn Society's rooms in New York.

B. West Clinedinst is a very popular illustrator who devotes himself particularly to early Colonial and Washingtonian scenes.

A. B. Frost is unquestionably the king of modern character draughtsmen. Of recent years he has devoted himself to country scenes and sporting subjects.

Will H. Low designed the new one dollar Treasury note, and the diploma for the World's Fair at Chicago. His paintings have won much praise both in Chicago and Washington.

Albert Lynch is a Parisian. He is purely a painter and deservedly most popular.

Howard Pyle has produced some of the most scholarly and valuable drawings which have appeared in the books and periodicals published in America.

Frank O. Small is much admired for his rendition of sweet womanhood.

W. T. Smadley has no equal in his peculiar field. His keen appreciation of beautiful women and manly men has enabled him to draw the American in his most favorable aspect.

T. de Thulstrup makes a specialty of military subjects, all which are most interesting.

W. L. Taylor is an illustrator of much ability, and his pictures are noted for their extreme finish and precision.

Alice Barber Stephens is undoubtedly the foremost draughtswoman in America. Her ability as an illustrator has placed her on the top of the ladder, her works comparing most favorably with any illustrative works in the world.

Maude Cowles has remarkable artistic ability, and her illustrations are always in demand.

This exhibition of pictures will be given in Germania hall, Tuesday 12th. Admission 10 cents. Refreshments will be served, and the pictures on exhibition will be for sale.

Church Architecture and Local Taste

Our modern work depends primarily, as will our future work, upon the earnestness and honesty of the community, and this is especially true of our church architecture, where the material and practical aspects are subordinated to the spiritual. American architects have shown their ability, but they are of necessity the servants of their clients and can only, the ablest of them, design good work for people who really want it.

A Social Distinction.

Said the shoe clerk boarder: "Any customer who desires to look at something in one of the up stairs departments is taken on the elevator, while the poor clerk has to walk up the stairs. I think this is done to show the difference in their positions."

"It looks to me," said the cheerful idiot, "more like showing the difference in their bringing up!"—Indianapolis Journal.

A Wake county Sanctificationist has made a dismal failure as a miracle-worker. He arranged to give his flock an opportunity to see him walk on the water. To this end he had placed planks two or three inches under water in a pond, the planks resting on supports, which were not visible. A rude fellow removed a plank and when the miracle-worker struck this gap he got a quick ducking.

A detachment of engineers of the U. S. army arrived at Ft. Caswell, near Wilmington, Thursday, to mine the bar and its approaches. They will also go to Beaufort to lay mines there.

We Do Not Believe It.

Col. Olds, in his correspondence states upon the authority of a "prominent Democrat" of this city that Hon. W. J. Bryan has written a letter to a Democrat of this State urging the Democratic press to hold up in their criticism of Senator Butler, etc., etc., etc. We would like to see that letter in print: Until we do, we must be pardoned for saying that we do not credit Mr. Bryan with any such truckling nonsense as thus attributed to him. If Mr. Butler has obtained any such influence over him, it greatly discredits Mr. Bryan's judgment.

In referring to this matter, the Wilmington Messenger expresses very clearly the situation:

"As highly respected and admired as in Hon. William J. Bryan by North Carolina Democrats, his plea for the State press to hold up on Butler will not be heard. He does not know that trickster and trader, but the Democrats do know him, and will neither trust him or spare him. He is both a traitor to them, as well as their enemy and traducer. So Mr. Bryan need not try his persuasion in that direction. He does not understand the situation. North Carolina Democrats will have no part in the dicker. A straight fight for State redemption and Democratic principles is the demand of the loyal and the faithful. In hoc signo."

It is an open secret that Butler and his followers expect to hold their National Convention before the Democrats do, and nominate Mr. Bryan on a Populist platform Butler hoping to be his running mate. It is then thought the popularity of Bryan in the Democratic party will force that party to nominate him, with his Populist associate; in other words, Butler's idea is to force the Democracy to adopt the Populist ticket.

This is the dish that Butler is said to be scheming to set before the king.

We would be shocked to know that Mr. Bryan is a party to any such plot, as we believe a large majority of his Democratic supporters would be. There are some Democrats in this state—a very few, however—who, it is believed, will favor the move. It is of these, no doubt, who is reported by Col. Olds to have visited Governor Russell recently and tendered him the Vice-Presidency on the ticket with Mr. Bryan. The Governor, it is said, smiled complacently, if not pityingly, upon these Democratic patriots who could thus so bunglingly exhibit the Mr. Hyde side of their character, but yielded that position to his friend Butler his eyes in fine frenzy rolling upon the seat now held down by the Senator as the full of his own ambition.

Strange things are surely being done, by strange Democrats, in these days. How many crimes will yet be committed in Mr. Bryan's name the Lord and the Russell-Butler "Democrats" only can tell.—Raleigh Post.

The Spanish Royal Family.

Alphonso XIII, King of Spain, was born May 17, 1886, nearly six months after the death of his father, Alphonso XII. His mother, Maria Christiania, who is now Queen Regent, was an Austrian Princess. The King has two sisters, the Infanta Maria-de las-Mercedes, 18 years of age, and the Infanta Maria Thereas, 16 years old.

The King's grandmother is ex-Queen Isabella, born 1830, crowned 1833, abdicated 1870. Her husband, the Infant Francis d' Assisi, born 1822, is still living.

One of Alphonso's aunts is the Infanta Eulalie, wife of Prince Antonio of Orleans, who visited the United States and the World's Fair in 1893. Another aunt is the Infanta Isabella, widow of the Count de Girgenti, and a third the Infanta Maria, wife of Prince Louis of Bavaria. The King's granant, the Infanta Louis, widow of the Duke of Montpensier (son of King Louis Philippe of France), is the mother of a son and a daughter, the latter being the wife of the late Count of Paris head of the house of Orleans.

The kinsman who worries the Spanish government, and whose person the government dares to touch, is Don Carlos, the King's second cousin, who is a pretender to the throne. He has a large following, and the fear of his popularity increasing is the greatest incentive the Spanish government has to please the people. The Spanish people want to fight the United States, and because of Don Carlos (who has four daughters and a son, Jaime, born 1870, who is very aggressive in advocating his father's pretensions) the Spanish government dares not displease the people. If it should back down, the dynasty would fall, and Carlos would reign.

Murder Trial.

The case against Alonzo Waters charged with the murder of Henderson West was called up in court Monday afternoon, Solicitor Wheeler Martin representing the State and Messrs. A. M. Moore and W. D. Grimes appearing for the prisoner.

The following jury was selected to try the case: Southy Carroll, Joseph Lang, J. B. Carroll, J. L. Robinson, W. J. Manning, Cy. Langley, Wm. Corbett, T. A. Fornes, Joseph Bradley, C. E. Boyd, Ed. Norris and J. L. Elks.

Only two witnesses for the State were examined at the afternoon session of the court when the State rested its case. The defense started their side this morning by putting the defendant on the stand in his own behalf.

The defense also offered but very little testimony. The lawyers completed their argument and the Judge charged the jury and gave them the case before the court took a recess for dinner until 3 o'clock.

At 3 o'clock the court reassembled and the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. Judge Bryan then sentenced Waters to ten years in the penitentiary.

"Dat Wife Hanna."

Friday night a group of negroes, eager to hear the war news, surrounded the Observer bulletin, and one in the party lined it out, as it were. After the import of the telegrams had been taken, the crowd moved to one side and began discussing McKinley and the delay of the message. Mr. H. C. Eccles stepped up to the board about that time, and his ear became at once even more interested than his eye. This is the discussion he heard:

":What you think o' Mr. McKinley?" said one.

"He's all right," said another. "He knows what he is doing. Dis here delay, is gwine to be all right."

"Yes; Mr. McKinley, he's all right," said a third, "but dat wife Hanna of his—she de very devil.—Charlotte Observer.

The New York Mail and Express observes that "with a Treasury balance of $226,000,000 of which more than $175,000,000 is gold, this beloved country is ready for anything that comes along, whether it be a fight, a foot race or a peace picnic." Yes, sir, Uncle Sam is fixed for whatever may happen. He is well off himself and no poor kin.—Charlotte Observer.

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING MRS JOE PERSONS REMEDY

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial trouble which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the Wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since.
