GREENVILLE, N. C.

SPAIN RESPONSIBLE.

Foreign Relations Committee Reports.

MAJORITY MAKES NO RECOMMENDATION, MINORITY FAVORS RECOGNITION.

Senate Committee Says Spanish Authorities are Responsible for the Maine Disaster—Gen. Lee Before Committee—Flying Squadron Sails from Old Point Under Sealed Orders.

Report Without Recommendation

By Telegraph to Reflector. Washington, D. C., April 13.—The report from the Foreign Relations Committee was made today. The majority of the Senate committee reported without any recommendation of recognition of Cuban independence, while the minority reported in favor of recognition. The majority of the House committee made a similar report as that which come from the Senate committee.

The preamble to the report from the Senate committee deals fiercely with the Maine loss, and resents it in full manner, holding the Spanish authorities responsible for the disaster to our battleship. The difficulty in exposing the real perpetrators of this disaster does not in the slightest obscure the responsibility of the authorities for its occurrence.

Lee Before Board

By Telegraph to Reflector. Washington, D. C., April 13.—Consul General Lee is appearing before the strategic board today.

Flying Squadron Sails

By Telegraph Reflector. Old Point Comfort, Va., April 13.—The Flying Squadron sailed from here at half past two o'clock this afternoon, going south, under sealed orders.

Opposing Resolutions

By Telegraph to Reflector. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13.—Senator Hoar and others opposed the consideration of resolutions and under the rules demanded that they go over until to-morrow. Vice-President Hobart sustained the point, when Senator Foraker began speaking.

More Boats for the Navy

By Telegraph to Reflector. Washington, D. C., April 13.—The Navy department has decided that the American Liners vessels at St. Paul and St. Louis shall be added to our war fleet. Other purchases of vessels are in contemplation.

DISCOURTEOUS TO LEE

When Consul General Fitzhugh Lee took his departure from Havana last Saturday evening the Spaniards showed him every possible insult. He called at the office of Governor General Blanco to tell that officer goodbye, but the latter sent word out that he did not want to see him. The streets and wharves were lined with Spaniards who hissed and made cat calls at General Lee as he passed. Lee left Havana on the Fern, and it is said that as his boat steamed out the harbor a Spanish war vessel kept a gun trained on her. General Lee saw this and it may well be imagined that he was very indignant at the discourtesy and insults heaped upon him. He sent this verbal message back to Blanco:

"You may tell General Blanco for me that the Fern is the last ship of the American navy that will ever go out of his Havana harbor while the Spanish flag flies over Mor.o."

General Lee thinks there should be war with Spain, and speaking of the possible hostilities said:

"I believe it is my duty that I should be allowed to lead the first division on Havana. If I do, please say for me that I know how to take the city."

Going from Tampa to Washington, General Lee received almost a continuous ovation.

Superior Court.

The following cases have been disposed of since last report:

Alonzo Waters, murder, guilty in second degree, sentenced 10 years in penitentiary.

J. C. McGowan, James Evans and Joseph Evans, affray, McGowan guilty, fined $1 and costs. Others not guilty.

Robert Johnson, affray, guilty. John Clark and Sam Brown, affray, guilty, 60 days in jail with leave to Commissions to hire out.

Leon Patrick and John Plummer, affray, Patrick pleads guilty, Plummer not guilty.

W. W. Humphrey, assault with deadly weapon, not guilty.

This completed the criminal docket for the term and the civil docket was taken up this afternoon.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13, 1898.

Dr. B. W. Richardson considered that one-tenth of all that die in civilized countries die through the drinking of intoxicating liquors.

A comparison of the statistics of crime with the cost of our penal institutions and courts shows that the drunkards of the country cost the nation through crimes committed under intoxication, about $50,000,000.

Summer county, Kansas recently offered a bounty of 3 cents for every rabbit scalp brought in. The farmers all turned out one week with their guns and killed 158,514 rabbits, and broke the county. Now they are working over hours to pay the additional tax.

In Vance County the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and other friends of education, made a special effort to help the teachers of the public schools. To save time and energy it planned to have one meeting for both white and colored teachers, the latter to sit in a comfortable and convenient gallery. But the colored people objected, and then it was decided to have two meetings, one of them especially for the negroes.

Consul General Lee

Next to President McKinley the man who has taken the most prominent part in the present Cuban crisis on the side of the United States and whose work has been most entitled to earnest commendation is Consul General Fitzhugh Lee.

has maintained his difficult position with dignity and firmness, protecting the honor of the nation at the same time avoiding needless offense.

Those who were familiar with his past record did not need to be told that he had both the ability and the courage for the position. He was a West Point graduate, and as early as four years before the war he was out West fighting Indians.

A brave fighter during the war and a true American all the time, it was not to have been doubted that the selection of General Lee for the difficult post at Havana was wise and timely.

JUST FOR FUN

Uncle Sam is ready to put on his war paint, but what will the Spanish Don?

The rolling stone gathers no moss. Neither does it allow any grass to grow under its feet.

In the theatrical business a man becomes an artist just as he is able to draw a good house.

Hoax—"He started with brilliant prospects. His father left him a well-established monthly journal, but now he's gone up."

Joax—"The magazine exploded. I suppose."

Nell—"Poor Miss Anteeck had an awful disappointment last night." Bell—"How?" Nell—"They were rehearsing an amateur play at her house, and Charlie Hansom, as the knight, approached her and began, 'Mary maid—' 'This is so sudden!' she cried, and then she saw her mistake and fainted."

He was a clever burglar who had "burglared" all his life, but when he tried his skill at home He always woke his wife.

Mighty Anxious to Fight

It is said that a former Raleighite and member of the Governor's Guard of this city, fearing the military company might march off suddenly to Cuba and leave him, has given up a good railroad job at Durham and come home.

A late report from the Agricultural Department show that at least 80,000 acres will be planted this year in sugar beets yielding 180,000,000 pounds of sugar.

HEALTH CATECHISM.

To be Committed to Memory by all Dyspeptics, Invalids, Consumptives.

What is the first cause of nine-tenths of all diseases?

Imperfect digestion of food.

Why does imperfect digestion cause disease of other organs?

Because blood, nerves, muscles, bone and flesh are derived from the food we eat and digest. If digestion is perfect the blood is pure, nerves and muscles strong, flesh firm.

Is not dieting the usual and best treatment to cure indigestion?

No, because the dyspeptic has been starved long enough; what is needed is abundant nourishment, not the lack of it.

What is the best method of cure?

Plenty of wholesome food well digested.

But how can a weak stomach digest plenty of wholesome food?

By taking with the food after each meal certain harmless remedies which are known to digest food and thus nourish the blood and rest the weak stomach.

What are these harmless remedies?

The most valuable are vegetable ferments, pure pepsin, Golden Seal and fruit salts. All of these are now combined in the form of pleasant tasting tablets sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspeptic Tablets.

Are these tablets superior to the various liquid preparations so called dyspepsia cures?

Most decidedly, because all liquid medicines become stale with age and lose whatever good qualities they may have had originally, while the tablet retains its properties indefinitely.

Are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets adapted to all forms of dyspepsia?

Yes, because in all cases the trouble results from indigested, fermenting food. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cause the food to be digested before it has time to ferment.

If you wish to know more about them ask your druggist for a package and try them.

The annual report of the State Auditor, for the year ended November 30, 1897, just made public, shows the total value of the taxable property of the State $259,011,508—and increase of $1,474,280.24 for the year.

Bugs Make A Church Untenable.

Myriads of winged bugs have settled in the Church of all Saints, making the lower rooms untenable. They are unlike any other household insect observed here, resembling black ants in shape and color, after they have lost their white wings, which drop off soon after the creatures appear. They eat holes in the flooring and devour carpets and cushions. They broke up the Sunday school last Sunday.

Rev. Dr. Edward W. Worth, the rector, says the insects first made their appearance about four years ago. They generally begin to give trouble about the 1st of April, and last until the hot weather sets in. Every year they have become worse, until now they are practically countless. Insect powder was tried some time ago, but the bugs still increased in number. It was decided to pour coal oil down the cracks of the floor at one time, but this was given up, as had the church burned down no insurance could have been obtained. Money is being raised for extensive alterations to the building, which it is expected, will exterminate the pests.—Baltimore Dispatch.

Kentucky's Oldest Church.

"The oldest church in the state, perhaps the first one of any denomination ever organized in the dark and bloody ground," said Mr. K. J. Hampton of Winchester, "is the Providence Baptist church in Clark county, seven miles south of Winchester, on the Boonesboro road. The old organization was first formed in Culpeper county, Va., in April, 1780, when churches were few and far between. A few months afterward the entire membership decided to locate in Daniel Boone's new preserves and came in a body, bringing the church register and ritual, down Powell's valley and through Boone's pass, worshipping daily en route, and locating in what is now Clark county. A log house was first built in 1781, but a few years later a solid stone structure was erected by the pioneer Baptists. This early day sanctuary has stood the test of time, the masonry showing not a crack today, having stood as firm as the zealous Christians who built it. The building is over 100 years old. Near by the present members, 180 in number, have built a more modern and commodious house of worship, but the old stone church is still a hallowed monument to the Christianity of our forefathers. Daniel Boone often worshiped in the log house built by these old settlers, but the last one of that brave few passed away long since."—Louisville Post.

Eli Green was exceedingly bashful and resorted to all sorts of expedients to avoid the girls. On the rare occasions when his mother had company he was careful to let his work take him to some remote part of the farm.

But on his twenty-first birthday he determined to assert his manhood becomingly and he went to the house of an uncle in the next county and spent an entire week. When he returned, his mother asked him if he had enjoyed himself.

"Waal, Idunno," he answered reflectively. "I didn't s'pose Uncle Jason 'd have comp'ny, but there he was, with a house chock full o' city gals, a hagin an racin an a makin out like he was a fine beau. The wusi on't was they changed their clothes five or six times a day, an I could only turn my collar. Course there was slews o' face cream an fixins, but I guess, take it up one side an down t'other, I was in to get back."

There Was a Bond.

There was a man leaning up against a lamp post on Jefferson avenue, near Second street, seemingly gazing afar and having a lot of thoughts on his mind, when he was approached by a second man who had stood for half an hour almost opposite him with his back to a building.

"Say!" said the second man, "I've been watching you for some time."

"Yes, and I've been looking at you," was the reply.

"I believe there's some sort of bond between us."

"Yes, mebbe."

"Are you a stranger in town?"

"Yes."

"So'm I. Out of a job?"

"Yes."

"So'm I. Got any money?"

"Not a red."

"Neither have I. Want something to drink and eat, of course?"

"Of course."

"Sodo I. Got a bed for to-night?"

"Noap."

"Neither have I. Shake hands. Does me good to meet you. I thought there was a bond between us. Let's walk around and be congenial and strengthen the bond and strike somebody for a dime and go whacks!"—Detroit Free Press.

Sailors Are Not Improvident.

Sailors are not quite so improvident as tradition represents them. They do not squander all their money at any port their ships may happen to touch at. From a return just issued by order of the house of commons, it seems that within the past 17 years over £2,500,000 out of wages earned by seamen have been transmitted either through the post office, local marine boards or board of trade offices to relatives at home. Of that sum, £195,630 was sent between the 1st of April, 1893, and the end of March, 1894. The total amount paid in the United Kingdom on money orders sent to sailors in 28 years was just £12,608,690, and over £355,000 was paid in the 12 months ending March 31, 1894. The seamen's investments in savings banks amount to something very near £85,000 a year.—London Daily News.

Changed Places.

It can be truly said that March and April have changed places on the calendar for 1898. March throughout was as thoroughly delightful as one could wish. April has been unusually rough and cold, causing people to fear greatly that the fruit and truck crops may be destroyed before the cold weather ceases.

WAR TALK

All These Squibs Are Hot

The cotton market was downward today.
 Services in the Methodist church tonight.
 The weather is making an effort to get warmer.
 It was right cool again this morning but no frost.
 Lee to Blanco—"Goodbye, old boy."
 Blanco to Lee—"Nit."

Mr. F. M. Hodges is having a dwelling house built in South Greenville.
 The house committee has let the contract for seating the Star Warehouse for the Pearson meeting.

All the backs were full of folks when they came down from the depot Tuesday evening. Many drummers along.

FOR RENT.—Six room dwelling on Dickinson avenue. Good water and all necessary outbuildings. Apply to J. C. TYSON.

The music at the merry-go-round disturbed the court, Tuesday afternoon, and Judge Bryan sent the Sheriff out to have it stopped.

Ed says it is much pleasanter to make love to a pretty girl than it is to go to war, especially in the budding season of the year.

A new supply of the famous Parker Fountain Pen at Reflector Book Store. Silver dollar, special, mottled and gold band styles. They are the best fountain pen on the market.

The maple trees around the Presbyterian church are getting their foliage faster than other trees. They make a pretty scene now in their robe of rich green.

ALL COURT

Sometime in Life, but Courting Days are Over With Many of These.

STATE NEWS.

E. A. Whitehead, of Scotland Neck, who was a student at the University, died in Chapel Hill Monday.

There was a wreck at Round Knob on the Southern railroad Monday. Eleven freight cars were demolished.

There has never been the amount of rice planted in this section as will be planted this year. It will doubtless pay; and farmers are even using fertilizers this year on the rice crop, which has not been done before.—Goldsboro Argus.

Evening of Pictures

This exhibition in Germania hall Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the ladies of the Episcopal church, was an occasion of unusual interest. The display of pictures, copies of the productions of the leading artists of the world, was excellent and much admired. The ladies also had supper and refreshments on sale. They were liberally patronized.

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING

MRS JOE PERSONS REMEDY

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial trouble which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsillitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the Wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since.
