GLADSTONE IS DEAD.

Two More Prizes Captured—Shenandoah Safe—Panic in Havana—New York Ready to Answer—No Spanish Fleet Yet.

Could Not Get Away.

After THE REFLECTOR had gone to press Tuesday evening a dispatch was received from St. Vincent, Cape Verd, saying that the Spanish fleet was still detained there. The engineers of the fleet are all Scotchmen and they refuse to sail, having orders from England to that effect.

Will Take Philippine Islands

By Cable to Reflector.

Hong Kong, April 27—Commander Dewey, of the Asiatic Squadron, has been ordered to take the Philippines today.

Shenandoah Safe

By Cable to Reflector.

Cork, April 27—The British ship Killarney arrived at Bristol last night and says she spoke the American boat, Shenandoah, which was reported captured by the Spaniards. This is the clipper that sailed from San Francisco for Liverpool with a load of wheat.

Arranging to Invade Cuba.

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, April 27—The President, Secretary Alger and General Miles confer today to complete arrangements for the invasion of Cuba.

Bolivar Captured.

By Telegraph to Reflector

Key West, April 27—One of the United States cruisers captured the Spanish ship Bolivar and brought her into port here this morning.

Another Prize for Sampson

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, April 27—The President is in receipt of a dispatch saying that Sampson's fleet off Havana captured another prize this morning.

Gladstone Dead

By Cable to Reflector.

Hawarden—April 27—William E. Gladstone died to-day. He had been ill for some time and his death was not unexpected. England's greatest Statesman is no more. The world has had few if any greater men than he was. The world will mourn his death. His death is an international calamity. He passed away quietly surrounded by tender and sympathizing friends and admirers. The entire civilized world will regret that William E. Gladstone is no more. The English, Irish and American people especially will bend their knees for his death.

Cabanas Blockaded

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Key West, April 27—Sampson's fleet is practically in possession of the port of Cabanas on Cuba.

New York Troops Ready

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Albany, April 27—The Governor has notified Secretary Alger that the State of New York is ready with her quota of men for the army.

Still at Cape Verd

By Cable to Reflector.

Cape Verd, April 27—The Spanish fleet is still here.

Discussing Cuban Leaders

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, April 27—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today considered but took no action on the annexation of Hawaii.

In the council of war today General Miles discussed the matter of landing American troops on Cuba with Cuban Leaders.

Columbia at Boston

By Telegraph to Reflector

Boston, April 27—The cruiser Columbia, of the Flying Squadron, is now at anchor here in the lower bay.

Minneapolis Sails

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Bar Harbor, April 27—The cruiser Minneapolis, of the Flying Squadron, sailed from here this morning.

Panic at Havana

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Key West, April 27—A British steamer from Havana arrived here today under a white flag with one hundred and thirty refugees on board. They report Havana engulfed in a panic.

Gladstone's Death Denied

By Cable to Reflector.

London, April 27—The death of Gladstone is denied here, though he is reported as sinking rapidly.

Spanish Troops Concentrating

By Cable to Reflector.

Havana, April 27—All Spanish troops on the island are concentrating here to meet the American forces.

Good For Gomez

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Key West April 27—The prize court is in session here today valuing the prizes that have so far been captured.

The government has decided to send an expedition to meet Gomez. Steamer Montreal landed Spanish forces at Santiago, but Gomez has then cornered so they cannot reach Blanco in Havana.

No Loss to Shippers

The Old Dominion Steamship Company will assume all war risks on goods shipped over its lines, thus protecting shippers from all danger against loss. See notice to this effect in another column, by J. J. Cherry, agent at Greenville.

Up Go Prices.

When war times come prices pop up and there have recently been sharp advances on many articles. Even the newspapers do not escape. The very first bill of paper THE REFLECTOR received since war was declared had an advance of 10 per cent on prices.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1898.

That is a good suggestion the Raleigh Post makes that some troops should be kept in North Carolina to protect our coast and to meet any emergency that may arise in the way of local troubles.

THE REFLECTOR believes that if the much talked of fusion between the Democrats and Populists could be carried into effect it would drive away far more Democrats than it would gain Populists. Better adhere to the principal of a straight fight and stand or fall by it. Democracy is bound to gain the ascendancy again, but it can not do it entangling alliances with place hunters.

Prize Money For The Navy.

The pending hostilities between this country and Spain brings the matter of prizes and prize money into prominence. Who will get the prizes already captured by vessels of the United States is the question which, when answered, will do for future reference in all cases of the kind. The commander of the vessel which captures a prize turns her over to three prize commissioners, who are appointed by the United States District Court, one of whom is to be a retired naval officer and another an attorney of three years' practice. After the question has been adjudicated the prize is awarded as follows.

The law governing the condemnation of prizes provides that when the court shall determine that the prize was of superior or equal force to the vessel or vessels making the capture the entire net proceeds of the sale shall go to the captors. When the court shall determine that the prize was of inferior force one-half the proceeds is sale shall go to the captors and one-half to the United States. Should privateers be commissioned, the entire net proceeds would go to the captors unless otherwise provided in the commissions.

The commanding officer of a fleet or squadron receives one-twentieth part of all prize money awarded to any vessel or vessels under his immediate control. The commanding officer of a squadron or division under the command of a commander-in-chief receives one-fiftieth of the amount awarded to the captors, his share to come out of the part of the prize money awarded to the Government when the Government receives a share. The fleet captain is entitled to one-hundredth part of the award made to any vessel or vessels of the fleet or squadron with which he is serving, except in a case where the capture is made by the vessel in which he is serving, and in that case he shares in proportion to his pay with the other officers and men on board the vessel. To the commander of a single vessel is given one-tenth of the money awarded to his vessel, if it was acting at the time of the capture under the command of the commanding officer of a fleet, squadron or division, and three-twentieths if it was acting independently.

After these deductions, the remainder of the prize money awarded to a vessel is distributed among the officers and crew of the vessels in proportion to their respective pay.

The Spanish merchantman, "Bucan Ventura," captured off Sand Key light by the United States gun-boat "Nashville" Friday, is said to be worth, with her cargo, $500,000. This is the way, according to a New York paper, the prize money will be divided when the ship and cargo are sold:

Value of the prize, $500,000; Government's share, one-half, $250,000; Rear Admiral Sampson's share, one-twentieth, $25,000; Fleet Captain Staunton's share, one-one-hundredth, $5,000; balance to be divided among officers and men of the "Nashville," $220,000; Executive Officer Dillingham, $3,250; Navigating Officer Winslow, $3,250; Ensign Magruder, $1,750; Ensign Kuenzil, $1,750; Ensign Snow, $1,750; Ensign Walker, $1,750; Chief Engineer Freeman, $4,000; passed assistant engineer, $2,500, assistant engineer, $2,125; Assistant Surgeon Pleadwell, $2,375; Assistant Paymaster O'Leary $2,375; Pay Clerk Ingelhart, $2,375; boatswain, $1,500; gunner, $1,500; carpenter, $1,500; three hundred petty officers and enlisted men, average share each $550-80.

Keep Some Troops at Home.

The State Guard, when enlistment is up to the limit, is composed of 1,800 men. The call of the President requires about 2,600. It is evident therefore, that additional volunteers will be needed, and we presume the Governor will issue a call for them. These latter will have to be thoroughly organized, equipped and disciplined. This will take time. It is necessary, therefore, that they be called out at the earliest possible moment. At least a regiment of the regular State Guard should be kept within the State, for obvious reasons, not only to serve as a guard on our own coast, but to be ready in case of local trouble of any character. If the Governor and the authorities would permit us to suggest, we believe it would be best to call for at least three thousand new volunteers in addition to the State Guard, to be formed into three new regiments. This will supply the differences required to make up the number called for by the President, and leave two thousand troops in the State for coast defence and other protection.

We are into the fight, and must meet its emergencies. The State must furnish the 2,600 now required by the general Government to go to Cuba or elsewhere needed, but the State should also have an organized force within her own borders, and we do not think two thousand too many "in time of war." We are sure that within a week after the Governor issues his call for three additional regiments he will have them ready to go into camp. If the State can go through this war, do its duty to the country and to the people at home without having to call out more than five thousand of our citizens to perform military duty we certainly can congratulate ourselves.—Raleigh Post.

Business Bars the Drunkard

Drunkenness to-day is deemed disreputable in the very quarters where only a little while ago it was looked upon simply as a misfortune," write Edward W. Bok, in the May Ladies' Home Journal. Every line of business shuts its doors absolutely to the drunkard. It has no use for him. Business competition has become so keen that only the men of steadiest habits can find employment. This fact the habitual indulger in alcoholics has found out, and different "cure" establishments for drunkenness—and Godsend they are, too, to humanity—are to-day filled with men who have come to a realization of the changed conditions. The man of steady habits is the man of the hour, and the drunkard realizes this. In the social world the same thing is true. The excessive indulgence of even a few years ago would not be tolerated at any dinner to-day. Society has become intolerant of the behavior which inevitably results from excessive indulgence in drinking, and men realize this. It is bad manners to-day to drink to excess. Good taste is spreading, and moderation is necessarily following."

Sparrows Whip A Cat.

Pedestrians who happened to be near the corner of Front and Market streets this morning about 7:30 o'clock witnessed a strange and curious sight. The fun began when a large Maltese cat, owned by one of the down-town merchants, caught and devoured a young sparrow for her breakfast.

Hardly had the feline completed her breakfast when two full grown English sparrows flew down from a neighboring telegraph pole and attacked the cat viciously. Of course her catship objected to being jumped upon in any such violent manner, and made desperate effort to catch the birds. The feathered songsters retreated slowly and apparently much against their will, giving the cat, who followed closely, occasional sharp gongs with their small bills which made the feline twitch at sensation. Finally the repeated the attacks of the birds became too much for the cat and she retreated indignantly to a near by store, the enraged sparrows following closely and only desisting when victim was safe behind a door.—Wilmington Dispatch.

To Dispose of Cut-Worms.

Mr. G. H. McGinn proposes a new yet old (with him), method of disposing of the cut-worm that does so much damage to small cabbage and tomato plants at this season of the year.

He has practiced it, he says, for 15 or 18 years, and it has worked like a charm for him. Here it is. "Go to your neighbor's chinaberry tree—if you haven't one of your own—get a good supply of the old berries and when setting out plants, place a half dozen or more at the root of each plant." He guarantees that a worm will never touch the plant.—Charlotte News.

We again suggest to our farmer friends to plant full food crops this year, and then raise all the cotton they may wish to. This war will not end, in our opinion, before another crop is gathered, and if not, food stuffs will be in great demand, which cotton will not be; at least, the latter will be much cheaper, in proportion, than meat and bread. If the farmer who will have to pay high prices for something to eat next fall and winter and have cheap cotton to sell to get the money to pay the high prices will have no one to blame but himself. The Post has warned in time.—Raleigh Post.

INTERESTING EXPERIENCE

Of an Iowa Lady Why Was Cured of Dyspepsia After Suffering for Twenty-five Years.

Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, an estimable lady residing at Lynnvile, Jasper Co., Iowa, was for twenty-five years a sufferer from Dyspepsia, and her complete restoration to health is so remarkable that we present the facts in the case for the benefit of our readers, many of whom have doubtless suffered in the same manner and will, therefore, be interested in learning how all stomach troubles may be avoided and cured. Mrs. Skeels says: I used only one package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I received such great and unexpected benefit that I wish to express my sincere gratitude. In fact it has been six months since I took the medicine and I have not had one particle or distress of difficulty since. And all this in the face of the fact that the best doctors I consulted told me my case was incurable as I had suffered for twenty-five years. I want half a dozen packages to distribute among my friends here who are very anxious to try this remedy.

Truly yours,
MRS. SARAH A. SKEELS.

The reason why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so successful in curing indigestion and stomach trouble and the reason why it never disappoints those who need it and use it is because nothing is claimed for it except what it will actually perform. It is not a cure-all and no such claims are made for it. It is prepared for the sole purpose of curing Dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion.

There is scarcely a patent medicine made but what is claimed to cure dyspepsia as well as a hundred other troubles. When as a matter of fact a remedy to cure Dyspepsia must be prepared especially for that and nothing else; and among all the remedies, patent nostrums, bitters, etc., so extensively advertised you will find that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only one advertised as a cure for dyspepsia and nothing else. The remedy is prepared by the Stuart Co. of Marshall, Mich., and for sale by all druggists at 50 cents per package, and if you suffer from any form of stomach derangement or indigestion a trial will not disappoint you.

A little book on stomach troubles mailed free, Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

A recent letter of Hon. Amos J. Cummings says that ex-Butcher Weyler, then an attache of the Spanish embassy at Washington was for a time during the war between the States a member of the staff of Gen. Phil. Sheridan and participated with Sheridan in the Shenandoah. The story we have heard is that he was attached during the war to the command of Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman and was with that worthy on his march to the sea. It is no odds which of the stories is correct. His course in Cuba proves that he got his training under some accomplished vandal—Charlotte Observer.

He Kissed Her.

There was a little comedy enacted at the corner of Ninth and Walnut streets shortly before eight o'clock the other evening, which was hugely enjoyed by a small but select audience. A pretty young lady, with black hair and big brown eyes, had just left an adjacent restaurant with a bashful young man. The latter seemed eager to get away from his fair companion, but didn't seem to know just how to go about it. Several people who were waiting for a car were startled to hear the young woman exclaim: "Well, you can't go until you kiss me!" Of course everybody turned to look. The bashful young man grew very red in the face, but the dark-eyed maiden put up a pair of tempting red lips and waited for the osculatory salute. "Ah! kiss her!" remarked one of the bystanders. The bashful youth seemed undecided whether to take the proffered advice or take to his heels. He finally decided upon the former course, and stooped over the patient, upturned face. Then there was a sounding smack, a suppressed scream, and the young man disappeared hastily up Ninth street, while the young woman strolled leisurely out Walnut.—Philadelphia Record.

Cannot Disguise Himself.

"I am endeavoring to become quite English," writes a Boston man in London, "because it will save me from the tips of the first magnitude which servants expect from Americans. I have mounted a perfectly hideous Derby. I carry my right glove in my left gloved hand and swing a walking stick in my right. I wear an English collar, and an English scarf with an English pin in it; my English cuffs are spacious. I am having more clothes made at the Prince of Wales' tailor's. And when I go outside the hotel—it is directly opposite the Abbey—the first cabman up says: 'Driven many American gentlemen, sir, know where they want to go, sir!' Such is the vanity of ambition!"—Boston Transcript.

A new key on the musical scale is Key West. All martial airs can be played on it.

THE REFLECTOR suggests that Col. I. A. Sugg and Lieut. C. D. Rountree take the job to organize a "home guard."

No war ships passed down Evans street today, though water was plentiful.

Henpecked husbands might hold their wives in check by threatening to volunteer. We promised not to tell who suggested this.

March seems to be stealing in on the rear end of April, instead of blowing over the first half of the month as in old times. But these are war days now, and there need be no surprise even at the weather.

Odd Fellows Celebration

The Odd Fellows of Greenville celebrated their 79th anniversary Tuesday night. The members of the two lodges met in their hall and went in a body to the Baptist church where a special sermon was preached by Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of the Methodist church. His subject was "Maintaining Good Works" which he said was selected because of its application to the foundation principle of Odd Fellowship. He said that a religion that undertook to serve God without serving humanity was a failure, and that it was strange that the world through so many ages overlooked the great fact that we render our best service to God when we are best serving our fellow creatures. The sermon was an excellent one and appropriate to the occasion.

After the service at the church the lodges and many friends returned to the hall where an informal social gathering was held. The pleasure of this gathering was heightened by the rendering of beautiful recitations by Mrs. D. D. Oyerton and Misses Lina Sheppard and Julia Foley.

Wilmington will likely capture the prize that Raleigh has been seeking as being the place to mobilize the State troops.
