Second Cienfuegos Bombardment.
By Telegraph to Reflector.

Key West, May 14--The Windom arrived here this morning with the report that Cienfuegos is ablaze and the forts razed to the ground. Four hundred Spaniards were killed in the second bombardment there. These particulars of the engagement are given:

The cruisers Marblehead, Nashville and Windom, off the town of Cienfuegos on Wednesday, fought a desperate battle against fearful odds, but came off victorious. They left the adjacent coast writhing in ruin and the streets of the town filled with dead and dying. They cut the Spanish cable to prevent any reports of the movement of American ships in that vicinity being sent to Madrid.

The Windom was charged by the shore batteries at a thousand yards range and returned the compliment with her forward rifles. The Nashville and Marblehead followed close and drew fire from masked shore batteries whose presence was suspected. They poured shot and shell into these, and sent the earthworks, guns and Spaniards flying convulsively through the air. The batteries were completely silenced and it is believed the loss of life will reach a thousand.

Worth Bagley Fights Though Dead
By Telegraph to Reflector.

Key West, May 14--Report has reached here of the second bombardment of Cardenas. After assisting the Hudson in getting the crippled Winslow out of danger, and transferring the dead and wounded to the Hudson to be brought here, the Wilmington went back fully determined to avenge the death of Ensign Worth Bagley and the comrades who fell with him. She turned loose her big guns on the masked batteries, the powerful shot riddling everything in their wake. In a short while the town was in flames and the batteries were a mass of ruins. The Americans landed and took possession of the town. It was found that four hundred and thirteen Spaniards were killed in the bombardment.

MONUMENT TO BAGLEY

The Raleigh Post is raising a fund to erect a monument to Ensign Worth Bagley, who was killed in the battle of Cardenas on Wednesday. No honor is too great to bestow upon this gallant young hero, who was the first American to lay down his life in this war for humanity and liberty. The Post, in order that the subscription to monument fund may be general, asks for no amount larger than one dollar, and none will be too small to be acknowledged. There is no doubt of there being a general response to the fund and his memory will be fittingly perpetuated.

Adjutant General A. D. Cowles the official head of the State Guard, paid the following tribute to Ensign Bagley:

"The North Carolinians will remember the 'Maine,' and they will remember, too, poor Bagley. Gallantly fighting for his country, he fell the first martyr in the cause of humanity. He poured out his heart's blood at the base of the standard on which the starry emblem of liberty proudly floated, and stricken unto death, a patriot's loving hope led his palsied arms to its fond embrace. As the angels kissed his eyelids down in sleep, lovingly he gazed upon the flag above him, and as the last faint whisper lingered on his stricken lips, he murmured, 'Mother and My Country.' Passing to fame's eternal camping ground, he saluted our banner in the sky and amid the glories of its folds his sold or spirit was wafted to its God. 'Remember thee! Aye, brave soldier, while memory holds a place in this distracted globe.' Remember thee! Yea, we'll remember the 'Maine' and you."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, May 13, '98

When it comes to fighting we can whip the Spaniards just as fast as we can get at them, but when there is a chance for trickery Spain can give this government seven points in a game of ten and win out every time. This was proven again by the goose chase upon which Admiral Sampson and the strongest vessels of his fleet have been for more than a week—hunting for the Cape Verd Spanish fleet, which instead of being headed for Porto Rico has turned up on the coast of Spain, 3000 miles away. Now, when everybody is disgusted and disappointed, some officials have the nerve to say that they never believed the Spanish fleet was coming this way at all.

This Spanish fleet has been the bugaboo given by the administration as an excuse for the delay in invading Cuba. As soon as it was known that it was on the other side of the Atlantic it was announced that the invasion was to begin at once, Gen. Miles, who was to command, engaged a Pullman berth on a train for Florida and hotel quarters for himself at Tampa. Then, presto change! the engaged Pullman berth was not needed, and Gen. Miles postponed his trip from Washington. Still the public is assured that there has been no doubt or hesitation on the part of the administration; that Mr. McKinley is not waiting to give Spain a chance to sue for peace, and that the invasion of Cuba will be an accomplished fact in the next few days. The men will be in Florida ready to do the invading, as they are being rushed there as fast as steam can carry them, and there will certainly be no good reason for further postponement. It is the opinion of such men as Fitz Lee, who know what they are talking about that the campaign in Cuba need not last longer than thirty days, if as many as 50,000 men are sent over.

There has been no room to find any fault with the promptness of the administration in sending Admiral Dewey—the rank of Rear Admiral was formally conferred upon him by the President and Senate this week—reinforcements to aid him in holding and governing the Philippine Islands. The Cruiser Charleston has already started for Manila from San Francisco, and other ships are being prepared to start. It will take the Charleston about three weeks to make the trip.

There is no truth in the charges so persistently being made in Republican papers that Democratic Senators are responsible for the delay on the war revenue bill passed by the House. The fact is the bill as passed by the House was a very crude and imperfect measure, and the Senate committee on Finance has been trying to whip it into a more satisfactory shape by amending it. More amendments have so far been offered by Republican Senators than by Democrats. The Democrats are too anxious to see this war fought to a speedy and successful close to refuse to do their part towards furnishing the government all the money it needs; but there is money enough on hand for all present needs and they do not intend being stampeded into supporting obnoxious methods of raising money just because the bill is labeled "war measure."

Major General Joseph Wheeler ("Fighting Joe Wheeler") was the first one of the major generals to take the field. He bade his many friends in Congress goodbye and left for Chattanooga, where he will take his command. He took no steps concerning his seat in the House, and will probably take none until it becomes apparent whether the war is to be a matter of weeks or months. Many lawyers contend that the acceptance of a commission by any Federal official vacates the other place. There seems to be a doubt about it. At the request of Senator Sewell, who as major general has been ordered to command the camp of instruction this week established on the Virginia side of the Potomac, several miles from Washington, Attorney General Griggs will give an official opinion on the subject. Major Generals Fitz Lee and James H. Wilson have been ordered to report at Chattanooga for active service.

The concurrent resolution offered by Representative Dockery, of Missouri, providing for a recess of Congress from June 6, until July 19, which is now in the hands of the Ways and Means committee, was not the result of a party conference, but merely Mr. Dockery's idea of what would be the proper thing to do. Czar Reed hopes to have Congress adjourned before the first named date. As a rule Democrats think it would be unwise to adjourn while the war is in progress. While there is no disposition among them to have Congress interfere with the conduct of the war, they think that Congress ought to have some say about the terms of peace, and if it isn't in session it cannot.

With only 11 negative votes the House passed the bill providing for a constitutional amendment for the election of Senators by the people.

MEMORIAL AT WASHINGTON

Through all the years since Lee and his noble heroes surrendered under the apple tree to an overpowering foe, the fire of liberty and Southern rights has burned ardently in my soul. No one moment has the love of the Southern soldiery been lessened and I have even felt that there could be no lack of zeal for the heroic dead whose bones are now a part of the mother earth on a hundred or more battle fields. But I am free to say if possible every sentiment has been ten fold increased by the very thrilling, soul stirring eulogies offered by Mrs. Maggie Call and Col. Julian S. Carr on May 10th at Washington, under the auspices of the Ladies Memorial Association and the Bryan Grimes Camp of C. S. V., of Beaufort County. With her years of age and increasing cares of the youth of her town, Mrs. Call's zeal and enthusiasm seems to have accelerated and today she stands at the topmost round in the ladder of esteem with her people. The children under her care for their part of the program showed excellent training, their conduct was perfect, every word in the songs they sung and their sweet, smiling faces perfectly electrified every one present, and as an old Veteran said that day "thank God, he had got religion again." Never was the throne of grace appealed to with sweeter and grander words than those said by Dr. Payne whose duty it was to ask God's blessings upon the occasion.

Then came the address by that noble soldier and philanthropist, Col. J. S. Carr. In the most patriotic words he covered the entire field from the landing of Columbus to the bombardment of the Philippines by Admiral Dewey the sound of whose cannon have scarcely ceased to echo back the grandest naval victory in the world's history. Col. Carr paid a high tribute to his noble Captain Frederick Harding, of Pitt county, who a few years ago suddenly passed over the river and is now resting with Lee and Jackson under the shade of the trees. When the saber and canteen of Captain Harding were shown to Col. Carr the effect was profoundly grand. In silence the tears rolled down the cheeks of this devoted comrade and as they were allowed to dry upon his noble face they formed a perfect halo of heroic brightness, lighting up that already manly face to something akin to heavenly grandeur.

The program was most effectively carried out, and at the close of the ceremonies at the cemetery the old Vets were handsomely and bountifully feasted at the Nicholson warehouse, after which all went to their homes chock full of the best religion next to that of the religion of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

While listening to the grand and noble eulogy paid to our dead heroes by Col. Carr and Mrs. Call, I could but feel that if the beautiful and noble women of Pitt county could be present and catch the inspiration of the hour surely our daughters would not be slow to organize a Ladies Memorial Association of Pitt county. This would be a fitting tribute for the women of our county to our honored dead, especially so since it was our own county that furnished the first life as a sacrifice upon the altar of Southern rights. God bless the noble women, and may their love grow stronger and efforts more active until every county in this grand old Southland shall have erected a fitting monument to the memory of our noble dead and when the last roll call has been been said may each and every member of Camp and Association hear the welcome words, come up higher, thou hast been faithful enter into the gate of the city of God.

Have You Cancer?

I have had cancer on my face for 14 years and have tried all the cancer doctors of any reputation in this country. I went to Atlanta and put myself under treatment of a cancer doctor of great reputation. I tried all treatments that presented, with but little if any benefit. It appeared first under my eye in a small lump, not larger than a pea, and it started from that to eating until it has now eaten away one of my eyes, one of my ears is gone, and a good portion of one side of my face. I became heartily discouraged by the treatment of all cancer doctors and determined to quit and try blood medicines. I tried all the blood medicines of any repute in the country with but little benefit. Accidentally I might say providentially Mrs. Joe Person passed by my house last summer and came in to see me, and asked me to try her Remedy and Wash. I was altogether discouraged and in bad health every way, and had given up to die. I thought then I would make one more trial and try her Remedy. I did so and the very first dose I ever took did me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life. I commenced building up at once. I had indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic constiveness and it relieved all in a short time. I continued to use it for six months and continued to improve all the time. It did me more good medicines I ever used. Cancer that has developed itself as far as mine had is impossible of cure, but if I could have gotten it five years ago, I know it would have cured me. I believe I would have been in my grave long ago had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It relieves the pain and suffering from the cancer, and gives me good, sweet, restful, I had no appetite and strength. I would urge and advise any one who has the least appearance of cancer to begin on Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash, at once. I believe it will cure any cancer it only taken in time, before it gets such deep hold. Don't delay it when anyone buys Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash, they are not buying a humbug, it is all that is claimed for it. I believe if anyone will use the Remedy for six months, that I will utterly kill the taste for liquor. I believe it equal to the Keeley Cure. I have been a moderate drinker in my time, but since taking the Remedy, I have lost all taste for liquor, and it is repulsive to me now.

 Swepsonville, N. C., July 17, 1897

A Hundred Reasons

Can be given why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best and most effectual cure for every form of indigestion.

They are in Tablet form which retains their good qualities indefinitely, while liquid preparations become stale and useless with age.

After each meal dissolve one or two of them in the mouth and mingling with the food, they constitute a perfect digestive, absolutely safe for the most sensitive stomach.

They digest the food before it has time to ferment, thus preventing the formation of gas and keeping the blood pure and free from the poisonous products of fermented, half digested food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase flesh by digesting flesh-forming foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy designed especially for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy, the successful physician of to-day is the specialist, the successful medicine prepared especially for one disease.

A whole package taken at one time would not hurt you, but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the State of Michigan alone have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.

COMPANY H. IN CAMP

RALEIGH, N. C., May 13, '98

DEAR REFLECTOR:

There is very little news here.

A new company arrived to-day from over the mountains beyond Asheville. It was 116 strong.

Taps are sounded at 10 o'clock and all lights are put out and in a few moments silence is supposed to reign supreme, but the 2nd regiment snoring can't be downed.

Nothing is regular yet, not even our meals.

Ashley Wilson telegraphed Bo Cherry that robbers row had burned out, our men don't believe it. Is it so? [No, it is only a joke.—Ed.]

Our Company is company A 2nd regiment.

We are all kicking, but not high.

Yours truly,
COMMANDER BATTERY Z.
