By Telegraph to Reflector

Hempstead, N. Y.—The sixty-ninth regiment was ordered this morning to move to Chattanooga.

By Telegraph to Reflector

Poughkeepsie, May 21—Mrs. John Speerle, thought to be insane, cut the heads off of her two little children with a butcher knife this morning. The woman's husband died about a month ago is thought to be the cause.

By Cable to Reflector.

Pottsville, Pa., May 21—Explosion of gas this morning in west black mine burned sixty men—one fatally.

An Explosion, &c.

By Cable to Reflector.

Madrid, May, 21—An explosion in Fortress San Julian at Cartegena yesterday killing ten people and injuring 62, including the Governor of port.

It is reported that Admiral Camora had left Madrid on his return to Cadiz with instructions regarding the reserve fleet there. There is a bread riot reported at Badajos near Portegu frontier where there is a large quantity of wheat stored.

Admiral Cervera is said to have left Santiago with his fleet.

A Havana telegram says the insurgents are declaring in favor of Spain and now making a common cause against the Americans.

To Transport Refugees.

By Cable to Reflector.

Kingston, Jamaica, May 21—The steamer Adula has sailed for Cienfugas to bring away the Americans and the other refugees. It is thought this will be the last steamer to leave that port while the blockade lasts and there is a great rush for passports.

Polo Goes Home

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Montreal, May 21—Senor Polo, former Spanish Minister at Washington, sailed for home today, leaving Senor de Bose, to direct the Spanish spy system in America.

Engagement Expected

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, May 21—It is believed now a naval engagement is close at hand. It is said the New York is the only ship that returned to Key West, Sampson with the rest of his fleet is in good position to pound the Spaniards and has been reinforced heavily.

Early Invasion

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, May 21—It is believed on good authority that immediate invasion of Cuba has not been abandoned as printed this morning. The President and Secretary Alger determined against the advice of Gen. Miles not to wait for the close of the rainy season

Spanish Fleet at Santiago

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, May 21—The Navy Department is officially informed that the Spanish fleet arrived at Santiago, but nothing is given out of the later movements of that or the American fleet. It is thought Sampson and Schley will start tonight searching for the Spaniards but probably not find them before Monday or Tuesday. In formation is refused at the department of movement of ships.

Chamber of Commerce.

Something that Greenville has badly needed and which THE REFLECTOR has long advocated, a Chamber of Commerce, is now secured for the town. There was a good number of business men at the Court House, Friday night, to take part in the organization, and the interest manifested shows that they are determined to accomplish something for the town.

The meeting was called to order by J. G. Moye, and on motion J. B. Cherry was made chairman and H. A. White secretary.

A. M. Moore, being better acquainted than any one present with the work of such organizations, was called on to give the meeting the benefit of his information. He made a very interesting talk and pointed out many ways in which a Chamber of Commerce could benefit and advance the interests of the community. At the close of his address a vote of thanks was extended him.

Those desiring to become members of the Chamber were invited to enroll their names. Twenty-four joined, when suitable by-laws were adopted and organization effected by electing the following officers:

President—J. B. Cherry.

Vice-President—H. A. White.

Secretary—L. I. Moore.

Treasurer—J. L. Little.

A committee consisting of L. I. Moore, J. G. Moye and W. F. Harding was appointed to wait upon the business men of the town and invite them all to become members of the Chamber.

The next meeting will be held on Monday night, 30th, after which regular meetings will be held on the first Thursday in each month.

The Chamber has excellent officer and the Reflector feels sure that Greenville is to be greatly benefitted by the organization.

IN the public favor that we tried hard to reach, and succeeded. Not by any trickery or false advertising, but by plain statements of store facts, and have goods at the price when you come. WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
Washington, May 20, 98.

Under the secretive policy that was this week put into operation the administration can change its war plans even oftener than once in every forty-eight hours...

It is learned unofficially—there are always leaks, you know—that the Oregon, the Marietta, and the Buffalo, the dynamite cruiser brought from Brazil, have joined Admiral Sampson's fleet...

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, about stated the position of the Democratic party towards the war revenue bill, now before the Senate, in his speech this week on the bill.

vide for all of it. In reply to Senator Aldrich's questions, Senator Jones said: "I am willing to fix the amount that ought to be produced by the pending bill at $150,000,000; but I believe it would be better and wiser for us to levy even more taxes rather than increase our interest-bearing obligations..."

Mr. W. Godfrey Hunter, of Kentucky, knew what he was about when he accepted the position of United States Minister to Guatemala. His contest for the seat in the House occupied by Hon. John S. Rhea was disposed of in two minutes without a word of debate...

Numerous state officials who has been in Washington this week would have strongly resented the intimation of War Department officials that state officials were responsible for the delay in getting the volunteer army into service had they not feared that to do so would make it appear to foreign countries that the state and Federal authorities were wrangling over the formation of our army...

Now that Secretary Alger has successfully pulled off an important family event—the marriage of his daughter—and has asked Congress to provide for an additional Assistant Secretary of War, it is hoped that he intends moving things a little faster in his department. That things connected with the army have not been satisfactory may be judged by Senator Chandler having openly expressed the opinion that influences were operating to prevent the army taking any part in the war...

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made by Orange v. a., Observer

No hardware store keeps hinges for a horse's gait.

Some men's opinions of themselves are the biggest of the two.

There is one class of buildings that cannot be taxed—air castles.

The snow blockade is stylish for winter, but the ice lemonade does very well for summer.

There is a great deal of wait in a woman's words—when you pop the question and she answers "no."

Why not wind up the war with Spain? The regulars are ready to Wade in and the volunteers are anxious to give 'em Fitz.

Young man, when on board a courtship you only need one mate. At least we would rudder not have any more. Now steer up, boys, but don't keel us overboard.

A homely habit it is to speak the mind on all occasions. But Moya, of Pitt, is addicted to the practice, and he just can't help it, even in a Populist convention, where every body is trying to fool everybody else.

Rather than call an extra session of the Maine Legislature to provide means for mobilizing the State militia, Governor Powers proposes, it is said, to foot the bill himself.

ENTREE TO ENGLAND'S 400.

How Millionaires Achieve the Pleasures of Aristocratic Company.

"How do they do it?" I asked a lady last week whom I thought likely to know how money is got out of an African millionaire bitten with a desire to become a man of fashion. She said: "Well, of course, when they take a fine house, guests have to be found. Then there is a competition to 'run them.'"

And yet what possible pleasure can these millionaires find in being admitted into the outer courts of a society that laughs at them and that only tolerates them in order to plunder them—a society to whose ways they are strange and in which they are as much fish out of water as would be a fine lady in a Johannesburg barroom?

Democratic Rule for good Government. and Mrs. Joe Persons Remedy for the Blood.

So Tired, So Tired, Chronic Dyspepsia

For ten years I had been a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spend a great part of the time lying down.

English Incivility.

Alphonse Daudet used to tell this anecdote to illustrate the incivility of some Englishmen:

"I was on my wedding journey and an Englishman was with my wife and myself in the compartment in the train. The air in the car was close, and I wanted the window lowered. But he insisted it should be kept closed. I told him that I wanted some fresh air, that my wife needed it, but he persisted in keeping the window shut. At his incivility I thrust my elbow through the pane, at the same time exclaiming, 'Keep the air away from us now if you can,' and the fellow glowered like a bull."

The Retort Courteous.

The proprietor of a new Washington hotel celebrated its opening by inviting a large number of distinguished to a supper. At the table a distinguished judge of diminutive stature took offense at a jocular remark of the landlord and, handing him $1, said, "Sir, I wish to pay for my supper." The landlord handed him back 50 cents, saying quietly, "Children half price."—What to Eat.

Victoria's Photographs.

The queen of England keeps all the old photographs of her children which have ever been taken. At Sandringham there are screens in the living room which are simply covered with photographs of royal relatives, friends, politicians, artists—celebrities of all kinds. But the Princess Beatrice is the greatest collector of all. It is told that she has disposed something like 800 photographs about her rooms, to say nothing of several thousands stored away in a box.

In a Maine town there is a custard pie association. It originated in a pie eating match between two farmers nearly a generation ago. Since that time it has held an annual festival with custard pie as the piece de resistance. The "unrivaled delicacy" is washed down with cider.

The phalanx was defeated by the legion because the former could not be maneuvered save on flat, open ground, while the legion could operate in any kind of country.

Recurar worm.
An animal growing between the high and low water marks on the Japanese coasts is a mud worm called sabella. It occupies a hard liny tube of its own making and gets its food, when the high tide comes up over its hiding place, by thrusting out a head bushy with tentacles and sucking in currents of water loaded with minute particles of nutriment. Out of this wriggling creature the shore people make a soup, which is true vermicelli, not a paste imitation of "little worms" and is said to taste as badly as it smells.

Capt. J. T. Williams Dead

Again today we must chronicle the fact that death has been within our midst. At five o'clock this morning Capt. J. T. Williams breathed his last. He had been sick for a long time and his death was not unexpected by his friends and yet such intelligence is always a shock to a community. He bore his sufferings with a great deal of patience and forbearance and met his end calmly. Capt. Williams was a little over fifty six years old and lived a large portion of his life in this county and in this town. He was a private at first in the late civil war but rose to the position of Captain and bravely served his country to the end of that trying ordeal. During his last sickness which has continued for nearly the past six months he professed his faith in Christ and united with the Methodist church on last Sunday. Therefore his many friends mourn not for him as one who dies without hope. A large circle of friends and relatives mourn his loss and THE REFLECTOR tenders sympathies to these bereaved ones. The burial will take place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Large Hail Stones

Mr. J. H. Mills, of Black Jack, who was in town today and came in to renew his subscription to The Reflector, told us that during the hail storm in his section last Sunday some of the stones that fell were as large as hen eggs. He put one of the stones by the side of an egg to measure it. Fortunately for the crops only a few of the stones were so large.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

There was a large number of Democrats from the various townships in attendance upon the convention today to select delegates to the State, Judicial and Congressional Conventions.

The meeting was called to order by A. L. Blow, chairman of the county executive committee, in a brief but stirring speech.

The roll of delegates of the several precincts was called, 92 delegates out of 102 being present.

D. C. Moore was chosen as permanent chairman of the convention by acclamation. D. J. Whichard, H. T. King and W. L. Brown elected secretaries.

On motion of J. B. Grimes, of Chocod, committee of one from each township appointed on platform and resolutions, as follows: A. S. Walker, L. Maget, S. M. Jones, J. R. Gurganus, J. B. Grimes, John Pierce, R. R. Cotten, Benj. May, F. G. James, W. G. Mizelle and W. J. Laughinphouse.

The committee retired to prepare its report. While out, on motion of J. H. Smith, of Falkland, L. I. Moore, of Greenville, was called on to address the convention and responded. Dr. C. J. O'Hagan was also called upon and gave the convention one of his usual strong old time Democrat speeches. He scored the fusion Legislation for its wicked legislation, and the outrages, plunder and robbery that have prevailed under their rule, and said the leader of that horde, Marion Butler, wanting the Democrats to fuse with them, was the most infamous proposition he had ever heard of.

Committee on platform and resolutions returned and stated through their chairman, R. R. Cotten, that in view of the fact that no voting will be done before we hold another convention it is deemed best not to report any platform and resolutions at the present convention.

On motion the delegates of the different townships retired to select their quota of the delegates to the State, Judicial and Congressional conventions. We will publish the list of delegates and remainder of proceedings in next issue.

Do you think there are any Democrats in Pitt county? The streets today answered the question.

STATE NEWS

Charlotte had a great day Friday celebrating the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and unveiling the monument.

We are informed that a day or so ago an English sparrow got caught on a piece of fly paper in Mr. L. J. Moore's store; that the sparrow got a foot on the paper and in fluttering to get loose its wings got caught and it could not get away. Mr. Moore, so it is stated, turned the sparrow loose. This is narrated by Mr. Moore, Mr. Crisp and other fishermen, who say it is a fact. —Kinston Free Press.
