GREAT WAR NEWS

Hardly Enough to Know That War Exists.

SAGASTA DOES SOME SASSY TALKING.

Baltimore Reported Disabled but not Believed—Murderer Lynched—Steamer Sunk in Collision—Spanish Captain Says Ships in Disgraceful Condition.

It He Can Get Him Out.

By Telegraph to Reflector.
Washington, May 26—Naval officials believe Schley won't waste powder on the Santiago forts but will draw Cervera outside and fight him in open sea.

War Revenue Bill

By Telegraph to Reflector.
Washington, May 26—Senator White, of California, addressed the Senate on the war revenue bill. He favored the Senate amendments enlarging the list of taxables, which he said the House confined to three, beer, tobacco and stamps.

To Lease Hawaii.

By Telegraph to Reflector.
San Francisco, May 26—The Hawaiian Islands will probably be leased for troops. It is proposed to send troops from San Francisco to Honolulu and the transport return from Manila for them. Transportation is possible from California to Honolulu by smaller vessels.

May Be Lost

By Telegraph to Reflector.
Key West, May 26—Feers are felt for safety of the London Times' correspondent, Knight. Nothing has been heard from him since he started ashore from the dispatch boat in very rough weather.

Stop Conferring and Fight Some

By Telegraph to Reflector.
Washington, May 26—An important conference is progressing in the White House regarding the proposed invasion of Cuba and Porto Rico.

Strike Threatened

Philadelphia, May 26—Bituminous coal miners threatened to strike for an advance of wages. Serious trouble is feared. A conference is now proceeding at Harrisburg. If trouble ensues the Governor may call on the President for troops to preserve order in the State, so many national guards being in the government service.

Sagasta Says No Fight

By Cable to Reflector.
London, May 26—The Central News Madrid dispatch quotes Sagasta as saying a naval engagement in Cuban waters is extremely improbable, all likelihood being indefinitely postponed. Rumors of fighting are unfounded. Cervera's squadron is safe in Santiago harbor. Americans would find Santiago ports and the Spanish ships there very different from Manila. Americans dare not attack Santiago, and if they are awaiting a naval engagement before invading Cuba they will need patience. Cervera arrived at Santiago on the 19th.

Oregon at Key West

By Telegraph to Reflector.
Key West, May 26—The Oregon arrived here this morning. Capt. Clarke says he had an uneventful trip. He saw no Spanish ships but was ready for a brush if any came along. He left the Marietta 300 miles behind. She was too slow to keep up with the Oregon. The battleship is in a fine condition and ready for any service as soon as called. The Oregon's orders are unknown.

Baltimore Reported Disabled.

By Cable to Reflector.
London, May 26—A private dispatch from Manila says the United States cruiser Baltimore is disabled.
Madrid, May 26—A dispatch report from Manila says that the cruiser Baltimore is disabled.
London, May 26—The Baltimore was disabled by an explosion on board.
Washington, May 26—The navy department discredits the reports that the Baltimore is disabled.

Steamers Collide, One Sunk.

By Telegraph to Reflector.
Calcutta, May 26—The steamers Mecca and Lindula collided near Saus Head last night. The Mecca sunk. She had fifty crew and passengers aboard, mostly Asiatics, who were all drowned. Lindula is in port badly damaged.

Spy Playing Lieutenant..

By Telegraph to Reflector.
Key West, May 26—A Spanish spy has been identified Lieut. Sobral by seven persons who boarded with him in Washington. Others are as positive he is not Sobral. Prisoner is held on the fishing smack but will be imprisoned in Atlanta military prison, to be tried there as spy.

Nothing to Fight With

By Cable to Reflector.
Hong Kong, May 26—Captain Concha, Commander of the Spanish cruiser Don Juan de Austria, which was sunk at Manila by Admiral Dewey, says the Spanish ships are in a disgraceful condition. The Commanders wished to fight Dewey outside but Montojo refused.

Murderer Lynched

By Cable to Reflector.
Salisbury, May 26—Garfield King, a colored murderer, was taken from jail at one o'clock this morning by a mob and hanged. The rope broke first time. Before another could be rigged King was shot while trying to run away. He was strung up the second time and his body riddled with bullets.

Sounds Fishy

By Cable to Reflector.
Madrid, May 26—A Manila dispatch says that the Americans attempted to land arms and ammunition at Bina Caban. The Spaniards attacked the Americans and captured the arms and ammunition when they got them ashore.

Lying in State

By Cable to Reflector.
London, May 26—Gladstone's body is lying in state at West Minister hall. It was viewed by twenty thousand people. The coffin is of oak with brass handles and rests on a black dais, covered with draped black silk.

Fine Photographs

R. H. Beasley photographer of Goldsboro, has photographs of Camp Grimes, both Regiments, also a fine photograph of the Pitt County Rifles. He will send copies of these photographs to any address for 50 cents each. Send to him for a copy.

THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1898.

The Republicans of the sixth district have nominated Col. Oliver H. Dockery for Congress.

This is an important day at Raleigh and we hope the Democratic host gathered there will spurn fusion in all its forms.

A fund has been started to erect a monument to private W. M. Barbee, of Durham, who was killed in the railroad collision near Savannah.

The fund to erect a monument to Ensign Worth Bagley has reached $1,000. We have not seen a Greenville name in the list of contributors.

There is so much opposition to the negro Anthony, who was sometime since nominated for postmaster at Scotland Neck, that it is said his name will be withdrawn.

"Trapped" and "bottled-up" are expressions now being used in connection with the dodging Spanish fleet. But it sometimes occurs that bottles get broken or the game gets out of the trap.

Maybe those people in different parts of the country who have been sending out reports of heavy cannonading the last few days, could not distinguish between the roar of thunder and the booming of cannon.

The e has been nailed to the reports published in some of the northern papers that there were so many desertions among the soldiers of the second North Carolina regiment that a draft would be necessary to raise the quota of men from this State. Town Topic, a society paper published in New York, was right severe in its criticism upon the State, but it has been made to retract and set the matter right.

It is remarked as a curious coincidence that on May 22nd, 1861, North Carolina sent the First Regiment of Confederate Volunteers to fight United States troops, and on May 22nd, 1898, she sent the First Regiment of United States Volunteers to fight under Old Glory.

Trammen Were Asleep

Savannah, Ga., May 24.—The coroner's jury investigation of the Florida, Central and Peninsula railroad collision, at Burroughs' Station, in which Private Barbee of the First North Carolina regiment was killed, and Private Colclough was seriously injured, showed to-night that the conductor, brakeman and flagman of the freight train, which collided with the military train, were asleep when the third section of regular passenger train passed the siding, on which the freight was waiting, and did not know whether signals were displayed indicating another section was to follow.

The Flying Squadron

The flying squadron passed over the city yesterday morning after midnight, but no one has any idea where it lit. From 1 to 2 o'clock a strange noise was heard in the sky. The night was very dark and one could not see upward very far, but those who heard the peculiar noise in the sky at that time, say it was an exodus of birds. There must have been millions of them, for they were an hour or more in passing. They made a strange sound, like boys whistling. No one could tell which way they were going, whether North or South. Possibly they were Cuban swallows, seeking more peaceful shores.—Charlotte Observer.

Don't Neglect the Bad Boys.

A teacher once refused to take the advice of the committee and expel a bad boy from school. The boy, knowing his teacher's confidence, began to do better and continued with such perseverance that he afterward became eminent. He was thrice elected governor of New York, and once to be United States Senator. He was also under one President, Secretary of War and under another Secretary of State. A word of encouragement proved to be the turning point in the life of William L. Marcy. How many have failed because of the lack of such a word!

They Are United

We have seen nothing more inopportune, to say the least, than the declaration by a Southern editor that the North and the South can never be united until the late President of the Confederacy is declared by Congress to have been a patriot. In the first place the North and the South are united. If that union did once lack a fitting seal, since Worth Bagley fell at Cardenas it has been given.—Biblical Recorder.

All code books carried on warships have leaden backs to make them sink if lost overboard. The letters in the book, moreover, are printed with a peculiar ink which fades away when it comes in contact with the water. To make things still more safe, the letters are changed every few months by the navy department. Even on the warships few officers know their vessel's official signal code.

The Mad Dog Bugaboo.

In the Ladies Home Journal Edward W. Bok writes on "The Bugaboo of the Mad Dog," quoting a number of authorities to show that there is no such disease as "hydrophobia" and inquiring if "it is not time, therefore, in view of these indisputable facts, that we should give ourselves a little more freedom from this bugaboo of the mad dog? What the newspapers so essentially report as cases of 'hydrophobia' are, in reality, nothing more nor less than instances of people who have been bitten by dogs and frightened into hysterical conditions in which they involuntarily reproduce all the supposed symptoms of 'hydrophobia.' It is a pity that our newspaper editors cannot have a more careful regard for the feelings of women during the summer months and agree to suppress the reports of cases supposed to be 'hydrophobia.' They make the public mind nervous and do more to spread the silly notion of a belief in 'hydrophobia' than anything else. Women have had their feelings played upon long enough by this foolish notion, of 'hydrophobia,' and enough unnecessary suffering has been inflicted upon the dog, who is often killed for nothing but a popular fallacy. It is high time that common-sense should rule: that we should believe the fact that there is no such thing as 'hydrophobia,' and rid ourselves of this bugaboo of the mad dog."

This is the season for commencesments and many young men and young women will soon be at the home place to rest under the old home tree.

But is there not a growing disposition on the part of students to become restless at home during the dull vacation?

Even after a year away from home the old home becomes tiresome to some young men before vacation is over and they have to "take a trip" somewhere. It seems sometimes like the tender love for the old home place is not as strong and sweet in the young of the present as it was in the young of former days.

It is beautiful and hopeful to see young men and young women love the old home and its associations.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

The government has fixed the rate for transporting soldiers at one cent per mile, the same rate they paid during the civil war. All the railroads between them will have the carrying of 125,000 soldiers. If they can afford to transport them at one cent a mile, ought the thousands who travel in North Carolina to be compelled to pay 3 1/2 cents a mile.—News and Observer.

Passenger rates may be too high—we don't know—but we do not doubt that the railroads make more money hauling a big body of troops a long distance at a cent a mile than they do hauling a few passengers a few miles at 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents a mile. The railroads ought not to be allowed to make extortionate prices, as they sometimes do, but we believe in looking at things from a reasonable point of view. The News and Observer, upon consideration must see the unreasonableness of its comparison.—Kinston Free Press.

Henry Shelby, one of the richest men in West Virginia, died in Shepherdstown, in that State, the other day with the peculiar distinction of never having slept in any house except the one in which he was born.

Do You Suffer from Cancer? If so Read This.

I have had cancer on my face for 14 years, and have tried all the cancer doctors of any reputation in this country. I went to Atlanta and put myself under treatment of a cancer doctor of great reputation. I tried all treatments that presented, with but little if any benefit. It appeared first under my eye in a small lump not larger than a pea and it started from that to eating until it has now eaten away one of my eyes, one of my ears is gone and good portion of one side of my face. I became heartily discouraged by the treatment of all cancer doctors and determined to try blood medicines. I tried all the blood medicines of any repute in the country, with but little benefit. Accidentally, or I might say, providentially, Mrs. Joe Person passed by my house last summer and came in to see me and asked me to try her Remedy and wash. I was altogether discouraged and in bad health every way and had just given up to die. I thought that I would make one more trial and try her Remedy. I did so and the very first dose I took did me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life. I commenced building up at once. I had indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic constiveness and it relieved all in a short time. I continued to use it for six months and continued to improve all the time. It did me more good than all the blood medicines I ever used. Cancer that has developed itself as far as mine had is impossible of cure, but if I could have gotten it five years ago I know it would have cured me. I believe I would have been in my grave long ago if it had not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It relieves the pain and suffering from the cancer, and gives me good, sweet, restful sleep. I had no appetite and was weakened down. It gave me good appetite and strength. I would urge upon and advise any one who has the least appearance of cancer to begin to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash at once. I believe it will cure any case of cancer if only taken in time, before it gets such deep hold. Don't delay it. When anyone buys Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash they are not buying a humbug, it is all that is claimed for it. I believe if anyone will use the Remedy for six months, it will utterly kill the taste for liquor. I believe it equal to the Keeley Cure. I have been a moderate drinker in my time, but since taking the Remedy, I have lost all taste for liquor and it is repulsive to me now.

The Daily Reflector.

Gives the home news every afternoon at the small price of 25 cents a month. Are you a subscriber? If not you ought to be.

The Eastern Reflector.

TWICE-A-WEEK.

Is only $1 a year. It contains the news every week, and gives information to the farmers, especially those growing tobacco, that is worth many times more than the subscription price.

Weather Bulletin.

Showers near the coast tonight, probably fair Friday.

More rain last night.

Croquet sets have come out of winter quarters.

Beautiful new line of Embroideries and White Goods at Lang's.

The heavy rains have done damage to the streets and sidewalks.

It is a quiet place these times that fails to find a Spanish spy lurking around.

Farmers wanting tobacco sticks should read the advertisement of W. R. Parker, agent.

The rain for three nights in succession has come just in time to hold the congregation in the Star Warehouse that had gathered there for services.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR is not getting the patronage it should have to enable it to pay a big price for telegraph service. The friends of the paper should help us talk up a better patronage.

From the beginning of the present war France has not only given her sympathy but her moral support to Spain and the French newspapers have reviled us, called us "Yankee Pigs" and paid us other similar compliments. The tradesmen of Paris are largely dependent upon the custom of rich Americans and they are likely to regret the day they took sides against us. The American Patriotic Woman's League is forming chapters in all the large cities, its members signing a pledge to buy nothing made in France. This boycott would touch France feeling in its vital spot, the pocket-book. Such retaliation would have more effect than all the proclamations of ministers and cabinet.—Charlotte News.

SMALL TALK.

Items Without Heads that go Right A ong.

Rev. L. O. Wyche left this morning for Weldon.

S. H. Abbott, of Kinston, came over this morning.

D. D. Overton is able to be out from his recent sickness.

J. J. Cherry went to Seven Springs again Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. L. Daniel went to Parmele this morning to visit her daughter.

J. W. Perkins went to Kinston Wednesday evening and returned this morning.

Jesse Speight left this morning for a trip up the road: He will stop wherever he can find a bale of cotton.

G. J. Woodward returned Wednesday evening from camp at Raleigh. George says he lost 12 pounds while there.

Heber Barber and Maud Evans, both children of deceased Odd Fellows, left this morning for the Orphanage at Goldsboro.

Misses Bessie Harding, Bessie Patrick, Queenie McGowan and Laura Cox came home Wednesday evening from the N. and I. College at Greensboro.

Capt. Charlie Hancock, of Newbern, spent last night here. He was for many years the popular conductor on the A. & N. C. railroad. He is now canvassing for the Raleigh Post and will prove a valuable aid to that excellent paper.

Awfully Dark

It would be moonlight nights now but for the heavy clouds that have obscured the light. But the fact that the moon ought to be shining seems to be sufficient excuse for street lamps not being lighted, and people have to take the mud in the darkness.

Died in Florida.

Mr. W. D. Keel, a young man of Carolina township, this county, who for the last few years has been living in Jacksonville, Fla., died there very suddenly on Tuesday morning. His remains were brought home for interment, reaching there Wednesday evening.

Go Tonight.

Considering the threatening weather early in the evening there was a good attendance at the service in the Star Warehouse last night. Still there is room for improvement and it is hoped more of the people will be out tonight. You will enjoy the service.

Notice

Mr. Pearson writes that he will arrive Saturday, and at 8:30 that evening desires to meet and confer with the chairmen of the various committees, the chief usher, all the organists, choir leader, and pastors. Mr. Pearson has the reputation of being a prompt man. Let those interested meet him promptly at the hour named.

Sweetest Love Story in Literature

"Wherever Mrs. Browning trod, what ever she touched, became endowed with the sacredness of her presence," writes Clifford Howard of Robert and Elizabeth Barret Browning in the June Ladies' Home Journal. "When Mr. Browning returned with her on a visit to England, after an absence of several years, he repaired to the little church in which they had been married, and there, at the entrance, he reverently kneeled and kissed the paving stones upon which she, the light of his being, had stepped. And in after years, when the light had gone from his life, he sought this sacred spot on the twelfth of each September, and in the dusk of the evening shadows passers-by might have seen a white-haired man kneeling for a moment as if in prayer before the doorway of the dark and silent church. Yet little would they have thought to recognize in this man the poet Browning. His mystic writings had led the world to regard him as a man of austere nature."

Since the proposition has been made to return all Confederate flags held in the North the Washington Post suggests that some Massachusetts people might gladden residents of New Orleans on the spoon question.

If anything it rained harder and longer Wednesday night than it did the night before.

Time is money sure enough when the war is costing a million dollars a day.

Infamous Swindlers

Capt. Wm. P. Oldham has received at his mill in this city a circular from a concern in Greensboro offering to sell him powdered talc with which to adulterate flour. The circular states the quantity of talc to be used in different qualities of flour and tells how impossible it is to detect it. Talc is much cheaper than flour and the circular holds out the fine opportunity to make money by adulterating flour with it.

The Federal and State authorities should look after the swindlers. They violate the Federal laws for using the mails for swindling, and the State laws provide severe punishment for adulterating food.—Wilmington Messenger.

Some Hints for You.

Will you be at the Star Warehouse at the service this evening? If not, why not?

Were you at the Star Warehouse preparatory service last evening? If not, why not?

Preparatory services in the Star Warehouse each evening at 8:15 o'clock, RAIN or SHINE.

Does your attendance at the preparatory service indicate your interest in the Pearson meeting? If so the number interested is distressingly small.
