Gladstone's Funeral

By Cable to Reflector.

London, May 28.—Gladstone's funeral today was a marvel of simplicity, grandeur and majesty. Ceremonies began at 10 o'clock in West Minster Hall. The procession went to West Minster Abbey where an immense crowd had gathered as well as in the streets and neighborhood. The Queen was represented by Duke Connaught and Cambridge, speaker of the House of Commons, followed by four hundred members, Lords and Peers, all surviving members of Gladstone's ministry the Prince of Wales, Duke of York, Marquis of Salisbury, Rosberry, Balfour, Harcourt, Duke Rutland, Earl Kimberly, and a large representation of the greatest men in Great Britain. The greatest music ever rendered in West Minster preceded the funeral. Great organ supplemented by full orchestra, and surpliced choirs of St. Paul's, Margaret's and West Minster sang Schubert's and Beethoven's funeral music assisted by instruments. Mrs. Gladstone and family were at the Abbey waiting. Grouped around the open grave. Dean Bradley read the lesson and the choir began singing Gladstone's favorite hymn "Rock of Ages." When the whole congregation joined and the voices drowned the instruments. Such rendering of the hymn was never heard before.

George G. Meade Post, No. 1 Grand Army of the Republic, has arranged to send a wreath of immortelles to Raleigh, N. C., wherewith to deck the grave of Ensign Bagley, the hero of Cardenas, on Decoration day. The spirit that blossoms forth in such a tribute honors the Grand Army even as it honors the immortal dead; and its manifestation at this time is a proof that the lesson of Decoration day is being all the more deeply impressed upon thoughtful natures by the events of the present war.—Philadelphia Record.

SATURDAY, MAY 28, 1898.

The man who does not like the platform adopted by the Democrat State convention is hard to please.

The Raleigh Post a day or two ago started off an article like this:

The newly elected State Executive Committee met yesterday afternoon.

Then the Marblehead steamed away.

That's right. With a Democratic crew in charge of the ship of State there would be no need for gunboats or cruisers to stand guard.

NO FUSION FOR DEMOCRATS:

The recent Populist State convention appointed a committee to prepare and present to Democratic convention, a proposition for co-operation. When read before the latter convention, the proposition was referred to the committee on platform and resolutions who made the following report.

The committee on platform and resolutions, by direction of the convention, having had under consideration the proposition for fusion made by a committee of the populist party, recommended that this convention adopt the following resolutions in respect thereto:

Resolved, 1. That the proposition for fusion submitted by the populist committee be, and the same is hereby, respectfully declined.

Resolved, 2. That the Democratic state executive committee be, and the same is hereby, instructed to entertain no further proposition for fusion.

Resolved, 3. That the secretary of the convention transmit a copy of these resolutions to the chairman of the populist executive committee.

Those who have been placing such a high estimate upon the red-breast as the chief of all perch fish would have their zeal dampened were they to have experience similar to that of the Robesonian. A half dozen fine fellows—live and kicking—were purchased last Wednesday evening and anticipations of a splendid breakfast were in view. From the very first cleaned, however, a green snake, a foot or more in length, was taken, and while we know the other fish were not contaminated the thought of the repulsive snake could not be gotten out of mind and breakfast was not eaten with the same relish as though none had been round. A meal of fish that might have been seeding on snake was not pleasant to think of. We knew that certain kinds of fish would eat anything they could get, but thought that perch were the cleanest of the finny tribe, and red-breasts the best of the perch family. To have our ideal fish thus summarily brought down to the common tribe was a shock to the feelings. The idol is shattered to no more occupy its high pedestal. —Lumberton Robesonian.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, May 27, 98.

Amidst the general rejoicing at the trapping of the Spanish fleet in the harbor of Santiago de Cuba there is no disposition to unduly focus public attention on the fact that the Spanish trapped themselves, instead of getting trapped as the result of orders issued by the administration. Everybody is so glad that the fleet is securely trapped that there is no disposition to probe too closely into the why and wherefore of the trapping. Naval officers who are familiar with the harbor at Santiago say that with two of our big warships at the narrow mouth of the bottle shaped harbor it will be an impossibility for a single Spanish ship to escape destruction should they attempt to get out. The country around Santiago is in complete control of the insurgents. These being the facts it is not surprising that many regard it among the probabilities that by the maintenance of a strict blockade we can very soon starve the Spanish fleet into surrendering. That would be a catch worth having sure enough, as there are some fine vessels in that fleet. But the most important thing about the trapping of the Spanish fleet is that it will enable our warships in Cuban waters to do something more practically towards bringing the war to a close than chasing here and there hunting for this fleet which has so kindly put itself in our power. This of itself should result in some immediate results, and hints are dropped that it will.

Although a member of the Cabinet this week denied that a call for additional volunteers had been considered, Mr. McKinley has issued a proclamation calling for 75,000 more men. This call was determined upon a week ago, as stated in this correspondence, but, like the many other plans determined upon by the administration, it was hung up for a time. From unofficial sources it is learned that 25,000 men are to be sent to the Philippine Islands, 20,000 to Porto Rico, which is to be shortly occupied; 100,000 to Cuba, and that 100,000 are to be held as a reserve to be used for home defense or as reinforcements to any of the other armies as circumstances may determine. The movement against Porto Rico has been urged upon Mr. McKinley ever since the war began, on the ground that if Spain should sue for peace while still in possession of that island we would have no right to demand that it should be given up, while if we capture it we will have every right to hold on to it, desire it, or to make any other disposition of it. The idea of those who have urged the move—a correct one, too—being that the people of this country will be satisfied with nothing short of the expulsion of the Spanish flag for this hemisphere.

The House passed several minor war measures this week, but Czar Reed still has the Hawaiian annexation resolution hung up. The Senate is still considering the war revenue bill. There is no probability that the war with Spain will last long enough for the battleships Illinois, Alabama, and Wisconsin now being built, to participate. The armor trust, composed of the Carnegie and Bethlehem companies, which refused to make the armor for those ships under the act of the last Congress, limiting the cost to $300 a ton, have now submitted bids to furnish it under the act of the present Congress, raising the limit to $400 a ton, but the delivery of the armor will not be begun until next December and will not be completed until a year after that date so that the government will be lucky if the battleships are ready for service by the middle of 1900.

Rank in the Army.

The highest grade in the Federal navy at present is that of rear admiral. The rank of vice admiral was created by Congress in 1864 and bestowed upon David G. Farragut. On July 25, 1866, the rank of admiral was given to Farragut, and on the same day David D. Porter was made vice admiral. Admiral Farragut died in 1870, and Vice Admiral Porter became admiral. Upon the death of Admiral Porter in 1891, the rank of admiral and vice admiral became extinct, leaving the grade of rear admiral the highest in the navy.

It is highly probable that both of the extinct grades will be re-created during or at the close of the war and that the number of rear admirals will be further increased to give proper recognition to commanders who shall have displayed exceptional skill and prowess. Says the Philadelphia Record: In the present exultant mood of the American people the country over it is safe to say that they will regard any distinction which may hereafter be conferred upon Admiral Dewey as brilliantly deserved; but we must wait until the war is over before we can apportion all the honors won.

Some patriotic women in New York have resolved to abstain from buying Paris gowns. Patriotic Americans of New York and all over the country should follow this example and refrain from patronizing newspapers printed in America whose owners are so un-American as to reside in Europe.

A Melon Paradise.

As the effort to colonize negroes in Liberia is not working satisfactorily, it might be feasible to induce them to go to the Messilla valley, in Mexico, where the largest watermelons are grown. It is said that a farmer in that valley had no wagon strong enough to take one to market, so he had to cut slices out of it with a crosscut saw as they were needed for home consumption. But one of them became too ripe; it burst and washed away all the lower acres of his farm. No lives were lost, but much damage was done, as the flood rushed down the irrigation ditches. This story is vouched for by an exchange whose editor wears seven shooters in his belt.—Atlanta Constitution.

Do You Suffer from Cancer? If so Read This.

I have had cancer on my face for 14 years, and have tried all the cancer doctors of any reputation in this country. I went to Atlanta and put myself under treatment of a cancer doctor of great reputation. I tried all treatments that presented, with but little if any benefit. It appeared first under my eye in a small lump not larger than a pea and it started from that to eating until it has now eaten away one of my eyes, one of my ears is gone and good portion of one side of my face. I became heartily discouraged by the treatment of all cancer doctors and determined to try blood medicines. I tried all the blood medicines of any reputation in the country, with but little benefit. Accidentally, or I might say, providentially, Mrs. Joe Person passed by my house last summer and came in to see me and asked me to try her Remedy and wash. I was altogether discouraged and in bad health every way and had just given up to die. I thought that I would make one more trial and try her Remedy. I did so and the very first dose I took did me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life. I commenced building up at once. I had indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic costiveness and it relieved all in a short time. I continued to use it for six months and continued to improve all the time. It did me more good than all the blood medicines I ever used. Cancer that has developed itself as far as mine had is impossible of cure, but if I could have gotten it five years ago I know it would have cured me. I believe I would have been in my grave long ago if it had not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It relieves the pain and suffering from the cancer, and gives me good, sweet, restful sleep. I had no appetite and was weakened down. It gave me good appetite and strength. I would urge upon and advise any one who has the least appearance of cancer to begin to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash at once. I believe it will cure any case of cancer if only taken in time, before it gets such deep hold. Don't delay it. When anyone buys Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash they are not buying a humbug, it is all that is claimed for it. I believe if anyone will use the Remedy for six months, it will utterly kill the taste for liquor. I believe it equal to the Keeley Cure. I have been a moderate drinker in my time, but since taking the Remedy, I have lost all taste for liquor and it is repulsive to me now.

Fair weather tonight and Sunday.

Lightning's Work.

During the storm yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, the lightning struck Mr. C. T. Wooten's handsome residence in East Kinston. All the rooms except two were damaged.

The dining room chimney was split open. Two fire screens were completely broken up. All the rooms were nicely papered with wall paper. These rooms will have to be partly repapered.

Mrs. Wooten was in her bed-room, sick, and Miss Bessie was sitting in a chair. The lightning struck on each side of them, and if it had not been for the telephone wire they would both probably have been killed.

A shot gun was in this room loaded. The kindly lightning filled this gun with water. We cannot understand how this water came in the house, because it did not leak before or after the lightning struck the house.

Rev. E. D. Brown, who was near a window upstairs, was paralyzed for a few moments. The ceiling was knocked off in his room.—Kinston Free Press.

THE REFLECTOR acknowledges an invitation to the commencement exercises of the A. & M. College, Raleigh, May 29 to June 1.

Send Them a Box

The Pitt County Rifles have now been in camp at Raleigh nearly three weeks, and it is a subject of remark about the city that ours is the only company there which has not been remembered by their home people by a box of some kind. This should not be so. Our boys are there to go in the fight for the defense of the flag and our people should see that they fare as well in camp as other companies. The REFLECTOR believes that calling attention to this matter will be sufficient. Let some one volunteer to take charge and see that the box is forwarded, and let all willing to do so send in their contributions.
