To Seize the Cargo.

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Key West, June 2—The unloading of the cargo of coal that was captured on the British warship Restormel this morning was watched with interest. Remy decided yesterday to seize the cargo immediately without awaiting the court's decision. The captain declared he would scuttle the ship before he would allow a premature seizure. It was found yesterday that the ship's hoisting cranes were broken and it is now suspected that arms are under the coal.

France at it Again.

By Cable to Reflector.

Paris, June 2—It is learned that a large quantity of ammunition is being sent across Pyrenes into Spain. Many French, Belgian firms are engaged in contraband trade. The French authorities are winking at it.

On To Cuba

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, June 2—It transpired this morning that the first part of the expedition to Santiago, including several transports left for Tampa yesterday. It is believed now they are now lying at Key West awaiting the second section. The first detachment consisted of the battalion engineers with siege guns to be used in occupying the hills around Santiago. It is not certain they will await for the second section. It may proceed directly to Santiago depending upon Schley to protect them in landing.

Prohibit Sugar to America

By Cable to Reflector.

Madrid, June 1—A dispatch from Havana Imparcial states that the autonomist cabinet decided to suspend duties on imported provisions and to prohibit the export of sugar to America.

The Second Call

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, June 2—Secretary Alger, this morning, asked for an appropriation of fifty three millions of dollars for equipment and maintenance for the remainder of the year the second call of volunteers.

The Santiago Fight.

By Telegraph to Reflector.

New York, June 2—The Press Publishers correspondent with Schley's squadron says of the Santiago fight that it was of small importance and only lasted 33 minutes. There were four batteries unmasked and the Cristobal Colon also was engaged. The Americans fired fifty shots and the Spaniards one hundred. The latter did no damage. Sampson is expected Wednesday with the Oregon. The correspondent says the object of the bombardment was to find the masked batteries. When this was accomplished the fleet withdrew.

A Cyclone.

By Telegraph to Reflector.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 2—A cyclone at Dekalk Tuesday night, killed the wife and three children of Calvin Smith. There were several fatally injured.

Democratic Nominees for Superior Court Judges

The Democratic nominees for Superior Court judges whose nominations were ratified by the Democratic State Convention are the following:

- First district—Geo. H. Brown, Jr., of Beaufort.
Second district—Henry R. Bryan, of Craven.
Fifth district—Thos. J. Shaw, of Guilford.
Sixth district—Oliyer H. Allen, of Lenoir.
Seventh district—Thos. A. McNeil, of Robeson.
Eleventh district—William A. Hoke, of Lincoln.

These men were nominated in their respective districts by district conventions but they are to be voted for in the State at large. Judges Brown, Bryan, Allen and Hoke are now on the bench and are named to succeed themselves. Shaw is named to succeed Adams, fusionist, and McNeil to succeed McIver, Democrat.

Army and Navy Words

Just now when the papers are filled with terms which peaceful laymen know nothing about it is well to be informed concerning their meaning. The following glossary used in the army and navy will be of interest. First is the relative rank of officers in the two branches:

ARMY.

1. General, or Commander in Chief.
2. Lieutenant-general.
3. Major-general.
4. Brigadier-general.
5. Colonel.
6. Lieutenant-Colonel.
7. Major.
8. Captain.
9. First lieutenant.
10. Second lieutenant.

NAVY.

1. Admiral.
2. Vice admiral.
3. Rear admiral.
4. Commodore.
5. Captain.
6. Commander.
7. Lieutenant commander.
8. Lieutenant.
9. Master.
10. Ensign.

DIVISIONS OF THE ARMY.

Squad—A subdivision of a company, commanded by sergeant or corporal.

Platoon—Half a company, commanded by a lieutenant.

Company—Not more than 100 men, commanded by a captain.

Battalion—Four companies commanded by a major.

Regiment—Three battalions, commanded by a colonel.

Brigade—Two or more regiments, commanded by a brigadier-general.

Division—Two or more brigades, commanded by a major-general.

Corps—Two or more divisions, commanded by lieutenant general.

DIVISIONS OF THE NAVY.

Squadron—A detachment of a fleet employed on any particular service.

Flotilla—A fleet of small vessels, under one commander.

North Carolina Courage

"There are no braver men beneath the sun than the men who claim the Old North State as their mother," said Hon. James E. Boyd, himself a "Tar Heel," in conversation with friends at the Ebbitt.

"Precisely so," said Maj. Jack Hayes, U. S. A., who was standing near by. "I've seen men tested as to grit on many a field, and I am willing to maintain here and everywhere that no gamer boys ever went forth to battle than those who went from North Carolina in our civil war. If I had to pick a regiment of fighting men I'd never make a mistake if I took North Carolinians in toto."

"That's right," responded Colonel Boyd, "and therefore do you wonder that I am a trifle hot in the collar when I read all these romancing, truthcrushing reports in the papers about North Carolina troops deserting. Why, we could get ten times our quota if there were any need. There has been some friction of a minor sort inseparable from the organization of troops, but the desertion stories are false.

"The old State has a record that will give it a place in history as imperishable as her everlasting hills. Her sons fought English tyrants with a courage that never quailed, and what they did to the English General Tryon is known of all school boys in America. Before the adoption of the Declaration of Independence of the original thirteen States the patriots of North Carolina had at Mecklenburg given to the world an exactly similar declaration. Coming down to a later period, North Carolina furnished more troops to the Confederate cause than any of the Southern States, and when Gen. Lee surrendered at Appomattox more than one half of his army were North Carolinians. Besides this, she furnished 10,000 or 12,000 troops to the Union forces.

"Talk about a State like this not responding to the calls of country! It is really too silly to refute seriously, but it might delude some good people, and I know that The Post, which is always the champion of justice, will set our people right before the country.—Washington Post.

A Living Illustration.

Some of the young men who leave the farm say that there is no money in farming. One day last week The Enterprise noticed one of the finest teams that we have seen come from a farm—two Kentucky mules with new harness and the latest improved wagon. On enquiring we learned that the team belonged to Mr. Will F. Garrison, who lives near Abbott's Creek. A friend of his told us that a few years ago this young farmer was a poor boy but by thrift and industry he has bought land, improved it, invested money in other directions and is a successful man—all from the farm.

Farm life offers better opportunities to-day than city life to the young men who will work.—Hight Point Enterprise.

The opinion of the President and his advisors that more troops are necessary for the effective carrying out of the war, which resulted in his proclamation calling for 75,000 more volunteers, has been strengthened in the last few days by the certainty that a large number of soldiers will be needed in the Philippines, and that a very large force will be required for occupation in both Cuba and Porto Rico.

It is also the desire of the government that European powers be given an example of prompt action in a campaign.

The adjutant General has made this statement of strength of the forces already provided for:

- Regulars, 72,000.
Volunteers, first call, 125,000.
Volunteers, second call, 75,000.
Engineers, 3,500.

Ten infantry regiments of yellow fever immunes, 10,000.

Three cavalry regiments at large, 2,000.

These make a total of 287,500 men.

The government is confident that, this force will be adequate for the purposes of this war.

It will allow the sending of 100,000 to Cuba, 25,000 to the Philippines and 20,000 to Porto Rico, leaving a strong home guard force also.

Neuralgia,

Neuralgia,

Neuralgia,

Several years ago I was a severe sufferer from chronic Neuralgia, which made me feel wretched and miserable all the time. Sometimes it was in my head, sometimes in my shoulder, but it seemed to settle mostly in my left side. Around the region of my heart seemed to be affected so much, that it made me anxious and weary. I had a friend who thought there was nothing that Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy would not cure, and she persuaded me to use a dozen bottles. I did so, and it made a perfect cure of me.

The Platform Adopted.

The Democratic party of North Carolina, in convention assembled in Raleigh, N. C., on this day May 26, 1898, do hereby approve, endorse and ratify the last Democratic National and State platform and pledge our earnest support to the principle therein expressed.

We denounce the Republican party for the passage of the Dingley tariff bill, which has increased the burdens of taxation upon the consumers and given the trusts and monopolists greater power to rob the people.

Believing that under our present methods of Federal taxation that more than three quarters of our National revenues are paid by people owning less than one quarter of the property of the country, we protest against such inequality and injustice, and in order to remedy to some extent this great wrong, we favor an income tax, and favor all constitutional methods to sustain it.

We denounce the Republican party for the defeat of the Teller resolutions declaring our National bonds payable in silver as well as gold, and denounce it for its determined purpose of more thoroughly fastening the single gold standard upon our people, and for its avowed hostility to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, as well as gold, at the ratio of 16 to 1, into full legal tender money.

We denounce the Republican party for its determination to issue bonds at this time, and we denounce the Republican war tax bill which lately passed the House of Representatives as unjust and unequal in its burdens, unnecessary and vexatious, and we demand the silver seigniorage be coined, that an income tax be levied; and that the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to issue the necessary amount of full legal tender greenbacks, or United States Treasury notes, in order to meet the expensive of the war with Spain and to supply the revenue deficit under the Dingley bill.

While we deplore the war with Spain, we pledge our earnest support to the Government in all honorable ways to effect a speedy and successful conclusion of hostilities.

We denounce the scandal, extravagance, incompetency and corruption of the present Republican State administration.

We denounce all enactments of the last two Legislatures by which cities and towns in the State have been turned over to negro domination, and we pledge ourselves to enact such laws as will give security and protection to the property and people of every town and community in the State.

We denounce the placing of negroes on committee to supervise white school and we pledge ourselves, if restored to power, to enact such legislation as will make this impossible.

We denounce all legislation enacted by the Legislature of 1895 and 1897 for carrying out the base and partisan designs of the Republican party.

We denounce the placing of ignorant, irresponsible and corrupt men in office.

We oppose the removal by corporations on suit or cases from our State to the Federal courts, and favor legislation to prevent it.

We favor fair and just election laws.

We favor a government of the people, by the people and for the people—economy in expenditure, the abolition of unnecessary offices, decency in administration, constant improvement of our educational system, charity to the unfortunate, and rule by the white men of the State.

We favor the extension of the powers of the Railroad Commission, and a close scrutiny into affairs in order to ascertain, establish and maintain such rates as shall be fair and just to the people and to the transportation and transmission corporations.

We condemn free passes.

We favor the enactment of such legislation as will encourage capital to make investments within our State, and guarantee that the same shall be justly protected.

We favor a union of the silver forces of the country in the Congressional elections, and cordially invite all voters, without regard to past political affiliations, to unite with us in supporting our candidates for Congress who favor the free coinage of silver, thus giving practical force and effect to the recommendation of our Democratic National chairman, Hon. James K. Jones, and to the Congressional committee.

We admire and recommend without stint the great and gallant fight made by Hon. William J. Bryan in the last National campaign for the success of our party and the principles of our platform.

We call attention to the wise economical, honest and honorable administration of the affairs of our State for twenty years prior to the present Republican administration, and promise the people a return of wise, honest, economical and honorable administration, under Democratic success. We call upon every believer in honor, honesty and economy, upon every advocate of white supremacy upon every advocate of equality, and just taxation, upon every advocate of the income tax and opponent of plundering tariff taxation, upon every advocate of the restoration of silver, and opponent of the single gold standard, and the present issue of bonds, as threatened by the Republican party, upon every opponent of government by injunction, and advocate of the jurisdiction of State courts over cases arising in the State against corporations doing business therein, upon every lover of decency and good government and opponents of the prevailing conditions, to unite with us in our contest with the Republican party—the greatest enemy of our principles, and aid us in redeeming the Nation from the clutches of greed and injustice, and the State from the scandal and incompetence that now afflict it.

There is a maxim: "It is sweet to die for one's country." It is still better to live for it, and bless it by good works in every field to which you are called. There are Heroes in the home as well as on the battle field, and they should always be in harmony. Heroes can never be expected upon the battlefields when they are not heroes and heroines in the homes of the land. The one creates the other.

The women of Coffeyville, Kan., made up a package of useful package, and one of the recipients objected to the gift. He said he wanted the Old Testament, because there was so much more war in it.

SYRUP OF FIGS

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

THE SWEETHEART'S WAR.

Oh, dear! it's shameful I declare.
To make the men all go;
And leave so many sweet hearts here
Without a single beau,
We like to see them brave, 'tis true,
And would not urge them stay,
But what are we poor girls to do
When they are all away!

We told them we could spare them here,
Before they had to go;
But bless their hearts, we weren't aware
That we would miss them so!
We miss them all, in many ways
But truth will ever out—
The greatest thing we miss them for,
Is—seeing us about.

On Sundays, when we go to church,
We look in vain for some
To meet us smiling at the steps,
And ask to "see us home."
And then, we can't enjoy a walk
Since all the beaux are gone
For what's the good, to use plain talk,
For we must trudge alone.

But what's the use of talking thus?
We'll try to be content,
And if they cannot come to us,
A message may be sent.
And that's one comfort any way,
For though we are apart,
There is no reason why we may
Not open heart to heart.

We trust it may not ever come
To any warlike test,
We want to see our American homes
Sacred in peaceful rest.
But if the blood of those we love,
Must for Cuba's freedom flow,
With fervent trust in God above,
We bid them "onward go."

And we will watch them as they go,
And cheer them on the way;
Our arms shall be their resting place,
When wounded sore they lay.
Oh! if the sons of American soil
Must for Cuba's freedom die;
Her daughters ask no dearer boon,
Than by their sides to lie.

ONE OF THEM.

Pearson Meeting.

When Evangelist Pearson called for a showing of Bibles at the Wednesday morning service he expressed pleasure at seeing more of them in the congregation than on the previous day. He said some people present must not own a Bible and urged all such to go and buy one and study it so they could know for themselves what God's word says. The subject of the Bible reading was "Conditions of Prayer," the foundation text being James 5:16, "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

There was another immense audience at the night service, fully a thousand people being present. The subject of Mr. Pearson's sermon was "Profit and Loss" from the text Mat. 16:26 "For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul." After the introductory remarks the speaker said he wanted to ask four questions and answer them by the Scriptures. (1) What is your soul worth? You estimate the value of an article by what it cost, what you pay it. Your soul cost the blood of Christ. Many are willing to sell their souls for almost nothing. (2) "Is there any danger of losing your soul?" All are born in sin and must be washed in the blood of Jesus or be lost. You are already lost and on your way to perdition unless you believe in Him. "He that believeth not is condemned already." (3) "How may I lose my soul?" Simply by neglect. Follow the world and its pleasures and drift along with the tide. Do not believe in the Son of God nor His word. (4) "What is it to be eternally lost?" Eternally lost means eternal torment, eternal wrath. Shut out from heaven, and soul and body cast into hell. Remorse of conscience for deeds committed; memory of sins unconfessed and unforgiven.

We outline but a few of the many strong points in the sermon. It was such a discourse as appealed forcibly to the reason and hearts of people. There was too for serious thought in every sentence, and the audience followed the speaker with closest attention.

At the close of the sermon there were numerous requests for prayer, some standing in the congregation to ask prayers for themselves, others to ask that friends or members of their families be remembered. The interest in the meeting is increasing with every service.

Will You Subscribe?

At THE REFLECTOR office there is a blank list upon which to receive subscriptions to the Worth Bagley monument fund being raised by the Raleigh Post. The fund has already passed the $1,000 mark but we have not yet seen a Greenville name among the contributors. Any amount subscribed on the list at this office will be acknowledged and forwarded to the custodian of the fund.
