Church Notes.

Rev. B. R. Hall, P. E. of the Methodist church, held quarterly conference Saturday night. He preached a magnificent sermon Sunday morning, but was too unwell to hold services Sunday night. He left this morning for his home at Goldsboro.

Rev. J. B. Morton preached two excellent sermons in the Presbyterian church Sunday. He returned to his home in Tarboro this morning.

The doors of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist churches were opened Sunday morning for the reception of members. There were two received at the Presbyterian church, nine at the Methodist church and thirteen at the Baptist church. The ordinance of baptism was administered at the Methodist church by Rev. N. M. Watson Sunday morning and Rev. A. W. Setzer of the Baptist church baptized twelve in the river at six o'clock Sunday afternoon.

OUR TELEGRAPH SERVICE.

For nearly three months THE REFLECTOR has been giving its readers a daily telegraphic service, furnishing the news every day just as it occurred. This has been done at great expense to the paper and much extra labor to the editor and force. We doubt if another editor in the State, or elsewhere, has done the same amount of work that we have had to do to furnish such news. The editor of THE REFLECTOR has served as his own telegraph operator, receiving all the press despatches himself and editing them in readiness for the printers, besides looking after his local reporting and office duties. No one unacquainted with it can realize what taxing, almost killing work this has been.

Of course giving this telegraphic news has to some extent increased the patronage of the paper, but not near enough to justify the extra expense incurred, to say nothing of the increased labor. Every week the service has been given we have lost money by it. Besides this, for sometime now the news has been of such a nature as to be not worth paying for. Such as came could not be vouched for, the news associations in order to fill out their contract to the required number of words having taken to the habit of sending out rumors one day and correcting them the next. This has been both annoying and unsatisfactory, in that readers of such news could not know at the time of reading it if it was true.

Another trouble has been the delay on the part of the telegraph people in getting the service to us, making it very late in the afternoon before we could get THE REFLECTOR out.

For all these reasons taken together we have decided to stop the telegraphic service for awhile, both to save the expense while the news is not worth paying for, and to take some rest that we sorely need. Our readers can rest assured that we will closely watch what is going on and THE REFLECTOR will keep them informed of all important occurrences connected with the war. And just as soon as the news becomes of sufficient interest we will begin the regular telegraphic service again. We are not stopping it permanently, but only temporarily.

With this explanation we hope no one who has subscribed to THE REFLECTOR because of the telegraph service will withdraw his name. By continuing your patronage you will help us to some extent regain what we have lost in giving the service so far, and it will show that you appreciate what we have already done. Bear in mind that THE REFLECTOR is going to keep you up with the news.

Marriage Licenses.

The Register of Deeds last week issued marriage licenses for the following couples, all white:

T. E. Carson and Daisy James.
George Weathington and Laura Carris.
Wm. E. Tucker and Clara I. Proctor.
Wm. H. Long and Jennie M. Williams.

Plucked from Earth to Bloom in Heaven

When the grim monster death enters the home and lays his remorseless hand upon father or mother, a cold, cheerless feeling steals over the soul of those left behind, and they wonder at the mystery of God's providence. But when mother and father both are taken into the cold and hollow tomb, and not content with thus ravaging the home and harrowing the hearts of the innocent children of tender years, death comes again and claims for his victim the young, tender, beautiful flower of maidenhood, the heart and soul looks up into the dim vista of mystery and exclaims, "Oh that I might understand the wonderful mysteries of God's providence." The pulse almost ceases to beat, the heart almost stands still with awe, and exclaims, "When will we understand."

On Saturday morning, the 19th inst. at the early dawn of day, 4 a. m. when the merry songsters came forth to chirp their native song of praise. When the heralds of the day God were sounding the blasts of morn the spirit of beautiful and lovely Miss Reeka Fleming, daughter of the late Thomas Fleming, winged its flight from earth up to the Paradise of God, and on the wings of morning, soared aloft to catch the spirits of father and mother who were waiting the coming of the beautiful angel daughter, and convey her through the ether blue to the great white throne of Him who has said, "come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you in the skies." Only fifteen summers had she gladdened the hearts of loved ones and friends, beautiful in form, face and character. She was loved by all who knew her. Only a short month had she left the scenes of school life under the training of that matchless hand and influence of Miss Nannie Cox, of Winterville, N. C., full of hope, unconsciously beautiful in all the graces of pure, young, innocent maidenhood. She was seized at once upon arrival at her aunt's, Miss Addie Fleming, with typhoid fever from which she never recovered.

Father, mother, daughter at rest side by side, awaiting the great day of Him who is the resurrection and the life. Weep not loved ones and friends. Another link has been forged in the chain that binds us to heaven and to God. Another harp has been tuned in the great Mistletoe of glory.

"Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." Thy beauty is plucked from earth to beautify and adorn the great white throne of Him, "who doeth all things well." A FRIEND.

President Ragsdale

At the annual meeting of the North Carolina teacher's assembly held last week at Asheville Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, of our city, was elected president of the association for the ensuing year. This is a compliment worthy bestowed for there is no man in North Carolina who will take more pleasure in discharging his duty as president of the teachers' association than Prof. Ragsdale. There is no organization in the state that has for its purpose the upbuilding and establishment of nobler and higher principles than that of the teachers' association and as the head of this organization Prof. Ragsdale will see to it, because he knows how, that its influence for good, will if possible be placed upon a higher plane.

We congratulate the teachers' assembly upon its wise selection and Prof. Ragsdale for his eminent fitness to fill the position with credit both to himself and the association.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

A Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Solicitor of the 3rd Judicial District of North Carolina, to be voted for at the ensuing November election, is hereby called to meet at 1 o'clock P. M., on July 6th, 1898, in the public hall at Rocky Mount.

The counties in the District that have not held conventions to select delegates to this convention will take notice hereof and govern themselves accordingly. By order of the Committee.

F. S. SPRULL,

Chm. Dem. Ex. Com. Third Judicial District.

Penalty is Severe.

After the first of July be sure to put a two-cent stamp on every check or draft. Parties failing to apply these stamps will be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction fined not less than $50 and imprisoned not less than six months.

The stamps will be on sale at the Internal Revenue offices throughout the country. It is better to be ready than to go to jail. A tax on the earnings of the trusts would have raised the necessary money and saved this inquisitorial burden. Bit the trusts elected McKinley and must not be touched!—Raleigh News

STRANGE, 'TIS PASS-

That All Who Suffer Do
Not Use

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY.

HOPEWELL, MECKLENBURG CO N. C.
December 1st, 1896.

Last June I was suffering terribly from some bladder trouble which was so severe and extreme that the physicians said an operation would have to be performed and the stone crushed.
I dreaded it so much and had so much faith in Mrs Joe Person's Wash that I determined to try it first and see what it would do. I applied it three times a day and in thirty six hours the infla-mation subsided, the swelling and enlargement was reduced and the stone passed without any trouble. The stone was large and no one can know excep those who have so suffered what it was.
I do not believe I could have stood an operation and believe I would died had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Wash.
If anyone is suffering from this bladder trouble let them try it. My pain would be so great I would have to be put in a tub of hot water to relieve those terrible paroxysms of pain. It made a perfect cure of me. Oh, that everyone could realize what a medicine is within reach and try it, how much suffering would be relieved. Mrs. Person herself does not say as much for her Remedy as it deserves.

MRS. ABNER ALEXANDER.

Democratic Nominees or Superior Court Judges

The Democratic nominees for Superior Court judges whose nominations were ratified by the Democratic State Convention are the following:

First district—Geo. H. Brown, Jr., of Beaufort.

Second district—Henry R. Bryan, of Craven.

Fifth district—Thos. J. Shaw, of Guilford.

Sixth district—Oliver H. Allen, of Lenoir.

Seventh district—Thos. A. Mc-Neil, of Robeson.

Eleventh district—William A.
Hoke, of Lincoln.

These men were nominated in their respective districts by district conventions but they are to be voted for in the State at large.
Judges Brown, Bryan, Allen and Hoke are now on the bench and are named to succeed themselves.
Shaw is named to succeed Adams, fusionist, and McNeil to succeed McIver, Democrat.

A Tune For Grant.

While Meade's army was marching out of the Wilderness, a drum corps in passing Grant's headquarters caught sight of the chief and at once struck up a then popular negro camp meeting air. Every one began to laugh. "What's the fun?" inquired the general. "Why," was the reply, "they are playing, 'Ain't I glad to get out ob de wilderness!'"
The general smiled at the ready wit of the musicians, and said: "Well, with me a musical joke always requires explanation. I know only two tunes—one is 'Yankee Doodle,' and the other isn't."—San Francisco

Ancient Posters.

It is probably the general impression that posters and handbills are modern inventions, but it has been discovered that the ancient Romans practiced this method of advertising.
In digging at Herculaneum there was brought to light a pillar covered with bills, one on top of another.
The paste used to stick them was made of gum arabic. The bills, when separated and examined, were found to be programmes and announcements of public meetings and even election proclamations.—New

There are people living in every neighborhood who will travel twenty-five miles every week in the year to see a circus, who would not spend one penny to put a newspaper in the hands of their children. To such men the antics of a buffoon in a circus convey more knowledge than all the books and newspapers ever published. It is well for their children that we have a system of common school.—Orange Va.

GREENVILLE, N. C., June 16.

Adj. Gen. A. D. Cowles, Raleigh, N. C. In accordance with your recent approval, in behalf of the ladies of Greenville and other friends, we forward to you today by express a beautiful silk flag to be presented to Company E. Second regiment N. C. V. Pitt Rifles, in token of the love, confidence and best wishes of those left behind for the brave boys, who have enlisted in the defense of their country's honor.

May the silken folds be to them an ever-attending reminder of the heart-beats, pulsating in the breasts of every one at home, as if 'twere one continuous prayer, for their safety, while nobly discharging the duty laid upon them.

Present the flag at such a time and in such a manner as may seem to you most fitting.

The delay in sending it is due to an error in the wording made by the manufacturers.

Wishing for you a speedy recovery from your recent accident, and with great respect for you and the boys. We are most sincerely,
