SPAIN PROTESTS

Victoria, B. C., June 19—The following was received today per steamer Miowea from Honolulu June 9th:

The following is the full text of the correspondence between the Spanish vice consul at this port and the Hawaiian government, relating to the entertainment of American troops at this port:

Honolulu, June 1.

H. E. Cooper, Minister of Foreign Affairs:

"Sir: In my capacity as vice consul for Spain, I have the honor today to enter formal protest to the Hawaiian government against the constant violations of neutrality in this harbor, while actual war exists between Spain and the United States of America. Requesting you to acknowledge the receipt of this communication, I have the honor to be, sir, H. RENJES, Vice Consul for Spain."

The reply of the government which is now in Mr. Renjes' hands is as follows:

Department of Foreign Affairs, Honolulu, June 6, 1898.

"Sir: In reply to your note of the 1st instant, I have the honor to say that owing to the intimate relations now existing between this country and the United States, this government has not proclaimed a proclamation of neutrality having reference to the present conflict between the United States and Spain, but, on the contrary, has tendered to the United States privileges and assistance, for which reason your protest can receive no further consideration than to acknowledge its receipt.

"I have the honor to be, sir,

"Your obedient servant,
HENRY E. COOPER.

A LETTER FROM WALTER PENDER.

Through the courtesy of L. H. Pender we are able to place before our readers an account of the battle at Guantanamo by Walter I. Pender, who everybody so kindly remembers. L. H. Pender showed us a piece of the Spanish rag Walter mentioned. The following is the letter:

U. S. S. Marblehead,
Guantanamo, Cuba, June 8, 1898.

DEAR UNCLE LEON:—I left Key West right after receiving yours of May 11 for Cienfuegos. Stayed there two days, there we joined the flying squadron and sailed for Santiago, where we found the Spanish fleet so we have been anchored off there for Simpson.

He came last week, so Monday we fell in line for battle, but last Thursday night they took the Merrimac (the vessel I was on) ran it in the mouth of the harbor and sank it crossways so the Spanish fleet could not get out. Had six men to run it in there, three of her own crew. They started in with it at 2:30 in the morning. When they entered the forts opened fire on it just as fast as they could. It looked like a solid mass of fire going on it but the ship kept going until they reached the spot, wheeled it crossways and sank it and not a single man got a scratch. They got off in another boat and were captured before they could get away.

It was a daring undertaking. We all were transferred to the New York the night before. The next night they sent me back to the Merrimac to run the engine for Hobson till they started in the harbor, so at 2:30 I fixed both sea valves so they had nothing to do but just knock out a prop and the caps would fly off. I started up the engine slow and then I jumped off into a steam launch and went to the Texas which was lying in front of the mouth of the harbor 4 miles off. There I saw all the firing. I felt bad as I had just told those men on board good-bye and there they were being fired on so fiercely. I never expected to hear of them getting out alive. They would not let me go in with them, but I had the pleasure of running her last and starting her ahead for such a dangerous trip. I hated to see her sunk. She had over two thousand tons of coal on board but we took everything off we could. We are distributed among the fleet, some to stay. Three of us here, though not to stay I don't think, as they do not need us.

Monday we bombarded Santiago forts and it was a hard battle as they had so many batteries and strong ones, but their shooting was bad. We finally silenced them all, so we now have the Spanish fleet shut up in there. This ship I am on was put in front during the battle and the way those shells busted and whistled over us was a sight but luckily none hit the ship, though some passed through the superstructure. I know what a battle is now and hope we will not have to go through another one. That night we were sent here and arrived about daylight and entered the mouth of the river with batteries firing on us from both sides and a gunboat in front, but we silenced the batteries and the gunboat took a sneak behind an island, so we then went to work and cut two cables. The St. Louis and Yankee were with us. Last night we went back to Santiago and they sent us back this evening to land a lot of marines. We were here surrounded by about 2,000 Spaniards, in the midst of great danger, as the river is narrow. Expect to remain here for some time. I am tired of this hot, miserable climate. We can hardly stand it. Nothing to eat but hard tack, salt horse and weak coffee. Can't get fresh water to wash our faces with half of the time. I wish Uncle Sam would send us something to eat instead of looking after starving Cubans, we are worse off than they are. It is a shame the way they are feeding the navy, as they have plenty of ships to send us provisions in. The navy is all right in time of peace but not in war, they think of nothing but fighting. Bananas are growing all around us and they will not let us go ashore to get them. Do you think this trouble will soon be over? I don't. We have lots to do yet. These forts are hard to take.

Their ships are nothing; they will not meet ours. I enclose a piece of a Spanish flag that was taken from the Cienfuegos light house by this ship. Later on I will send some relics of the Merrimac for you to keep for me. Best regards to all the boys and love to all. Tell Mr. Evans I am naying a hot time of it here. Your Nephew,
W. I. PENDER.

OUR BOYS IN CAMP.

Camp Dan Russell, Co. E.,
Raleigh, N. C., June 19, 1898.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:—News is scarce. Nothing unusual except sore arms. Twenty-six of our men went to the hospital this morning. Every one of them were excused from all duty by the doctors on account of their arms.

E. V. Cox, of Pitt, enlisted in Company E. yesterday. We only need one or two more men now. Maybe Mr. Hosier will furnish them.

Prof. Ragsdale dropped in to see us on his way from Asheville, where he had been to the Teacher's Assembly. By the way, I see where he was elected to the presidency. Well, he is just the right man for the place. An excellent choice. All the boys were glad to see him. Prof. is very popular with the Pitt county men. Sorry he could not stay longer. He told us about the storm and fire.

Dr. Perkins is in Raleigh, he came out to see us. He will leave Monday. He came to see the Governor on business.

Latest orders. Men desiring to go to Pullen's Park Pool to bathe, may do so in company with a non-commissioned officer, who will be responsible for their conduct.

All sentinels are posted with loaded guns.

A provost guard of three corporals and nine privates shall be daily appointed to scour the city and surrounding country to arrest all persons out without papers of authority.

Been very rainy all the week. It serves us some work, so it's a ill-wind that blows no one good.

Our flag is to be presented today, so we hear. Don't know who will carry the flag.

Monday, June 20th.

Vaccination is taking effect. Over fifty are in the hospital now. Lieut. Albritton is very sick, he has fever. Corp. Blackley had a very hard chill and now has fever. We hope it is only caused from vaccination, but it may not be so. I saw one man in the hospital delirious last night. He could only be kept quiet with morphine.

W. S. Greer dropped in to see us yesterday. Don't know of any man, not from Greenville, we had rather see. There will be no drilling with arms in two or three days yet, and only dress parade till after Tuesday.

At last General Shafter's army is in Cuba, and unless somebody at Washington and gets rattled over the reported sailing of a Spanish fleet from Cadiz...

It is semi-officially announced that at the last Cabinet meeting it was decided that more troops would be needed, and that another call for volunteers would be issued shortly.

Although Secretary Alger has positively denied the story that owing to quarrels between himself and Gen. Miles...

The tune which our gunners have been playing on Santiago is the march of civilization

"Money may talk," says the Man-yunk Philosopher, "but few of us understand the dialect."

Some doctors claim that unhealthy results follow kissing. They've got the cause and effect twisted. Kissing is generally the result of a heart affection.

"Have a cigar?" said the cheap politician. "No; thank you" replied the foxy reporter. "You haven't given up smokin'?" "No; but the poor man to whom I used to turn over your cigars has. He's dead."

"We're going to have trips tomorrow for breakfast," whispered the old boarder at the supper table. "How do you know?" asked the newest victim. "I saw the landlady going into a department store to-day where there was a bargain sale in Turkish towels."

"We are lost!" shrieked Congata. "Nonsense!" replied Blanco; "there is nothing near us but a regiment of Amazons." "True Your Excellency, but have you not noticed that all the Havana stores announce bargain sales in the morning papers?" "Run up the white flag," sobbed Blanco, for he knew that all was over.

A Tune For Grand

While Meade's army was marching out of the Wilderness, a drum corps in passing Grant's headquarters caught sight of the chief and at once struck up a then popular negro camp meeting air. Every one began to laugh. "What's the fun?" inquired the general. "Why," was the reply, "they are playing 'Ain't
I glad to get out ob de wilderness!'"
The general smiled at the ready wit
of the musicians, and said: "Well, with me a musical joke always requires explanation. I know only two tunes—one is 'Yankee Doodle,' and the other isn't."—San Francisco Ancient Posters.

It is probably the general impression that posters and handbills are modern inventions, but it has been discovered that the ancient Romans practiced this method of advertising.
In digging at Herculaneum there was brought to light a pillar covered with bills, one on top of another.
The paste used to stick them was made of gum arabic. The bills, when separated and examined, were found to be programmes and announcements of public meetings and even election proclamations.—New Madrid abounds in slums, which are even greater eyesores than those of White-chapel. There are labyrinths of narrow old streets, bordered by the most uninviting hovels; and from the squalor of these abodes spring

the components of the ferocious mobs which are the bane of the city. Even the best sections of Madrid are disappointing in appearance: the palaces of the grandees are dreadfully dilapidated, and magnificent buildings are few and far between.

SCHLEY TO MEET CAMARA

A Powerful Flying Squadron For Defense.

Washington, D. C., June 19.—It was determined by President McKinley, Secretary Long and members of the Naval War Board, today to organize a fast and powerful flying squadron to meet Admiral Camara's Cadiz fleet if it comes across the Atlantic. The squadron will be under the command of Commodore Schley and will be composed of the first-class battleship Oregon, which made such a record breaking trip from San Francisco; the flagship Brooklyn, the cruiser New Orleans, the cruiser Minneapolis, the cruiser Cincinnati, the gunboat Newark, the Yale or Harvard, and probably one or two other vessels. The flying squadron will concentrate near San Juan, Porto Rico, and await the appearance of the Spanish fleet.

NO CHANCES TO BE TAKEN.

Naval authorities do not believe that Camara will proceed further than the Canaries, but no chances will be taken. Scouts will be sent in all directions to guard every possible passage by which Admiral Camara could try to slip through. The eastern entrance of the Caribbean sea and the ocean to the north of Porto Rico will be patrolled to prevent the Spanish Admiral from entering Cuban ports. Scouts will protect the coast from possible attack.

The Brooklyn, Oregon and New Orleans are now off Santiago. The other ships are scattered. Some are at Hampton Roads and others doing patrol duty along the coast. It will take two weeks to assemble the fleet. It is 700 miles from Cadiz to the Canaries for which it is believed Camara is headed. It will require four days for the fleet to make this point. It cannot reach there before Monday.

PLENTY OF TIME FOR PROTECTION.

Should the fleet be making for Porto Rico or Cuba its next stop will be at Cape Verde for a distance of 875 miles. Commodore Schley will have ample time to assemble his squadron before the Spanish fleet has time to leave Cape Verde. The distance from Cape Verde to Porto Rico is 2500 miles, and will require Admiral Camara's ships at least two weeks to cover the distance. Commodore Schley will have sufficient time to have the coast thoroughly patrolled.
