WHAT HAS OCCURRED.

Synopsis of the War News.

There are no material changes in the war situation for the last few days. Troops are gathering in the vicinity of Santiago, but the attack on the town is deferred until reinforcements arrive.

Commander Watson has sailed on the Newark for Santiago and will find his squadron ready off the Cuban coast. With his squadron he will first seize a base of supplies at the Canary Islands, and then proceed to the coast of Spain and bombard the principal cities where shipyards are located. If Camara is recalled from Port Said Watson's squadron will probably meet him in the open sea and there will be a great naval engagement.

The Egyptian government has informed Camara that it would be a violation of the neutrality laws to permit him to take the hundred and fifty stokers engaged at port Said for the Spanish fleet and they will not be allowed to go aboard the ships.

Capt. Sigsbee has reported an attack on his boat St. Paul, by an unprotected Spanish cruiser and torpedo boat destroyer Terror, off San Juan Wednesday afternoon. The Terror made a dash for the St. Paul but was met by hot fire from the American, three shots taking effect, killing one officer and two men and wounding three others. The Terror retreated under cover of the fortifications and was towed into the harbor in a sinking condition.

Nicholas Fish, the father of Hamilton Fish Jr., who was killed in the charge of the Rough Riders last Friday, has made a request of the Secretary of Navy that the side arms and body of his son be sent to New York.

The President has decided that Gen Miles is not the proper officer to send in charge of the troops to Santiago, but that Gen. Shafter is entitled to such honors as may result from the campaign there. Substantial promotion will no doubt be given the officer highest in command and Miles covets this honor.

INTERESTED IN GREENVILLE.

GREENVILLE, N. C., June 27, '98.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:—Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words.

Mr. J. B. Price and myself feel so much interest in old Greenville that we drum the town on every trip to see if we can get something to do for any of the business people that will aid the progress of the town. A few days ago we were up there and saw Mr. B. E. Parham and told him we would work up some custom from our county. Since then we have carried thirteen orders, which have been delivered and gave perfect satisfaction.

We will commence curing tobacco the last of this week or first of next. My tobacco will come rolling up to the barn like it went to the patch at setting out time.

We are all going to sell our tobacco on the Greenville market, and we are inducing the farmers to carry it there. All we sell flues to will be sure to take their crop there. We have five more orders for this week.

I like old Pitt, because I got my first wife there and my last also. Sometime ago I met a very fine lady up there, pretty and witty and wealthy, and I put right in. I had no idea that I could marry or get her to leave Greenville, and sure enough I couldn't. I will tell you the reason—it was just because I couldn't.

OUR BOYS IN CAMP.

Camp Dan Russell, Co. E.,
Raleigh, N. C., June 27, 1898.

EDITOR REFLECTOR.

The most welcome visitor that could possibly have been imagined came to see us yesterday. I don't know what his name is, but he said he was Uncle Sam's paymaster, so I pulled his leg for $24.48, my pay from April 27th to June 1st. The whole regiment was paid this way except the recruits, who were not paid at all.

Mr. Paymaster says he will pay us again before the 14th of July. Hope so. Think some of our men will be "busted" before tomorrow night.

Our sick men who were mentioned in my last letter are all better, much better. A few are still in the hospital.

The five passes per day keep the regiment very sober.

Don't think we will leave here soon. We have only squad and company drill now. Will go to work Monday.

Since sending you a list of the members of Co. E the following changes have been made: W. A. Ray and A. S. Savim have been transferred from Co. E. to Co. D., M. M. and G. P. Jordan have been transferred from Co. to Co. E. All of them are intelligent gentlemen and good soldiers.

The following new names have been placed on the roll of Co. E: R. A. Michael, G. M. Bell, C. H. Brown, R. L. Clower, T. V. Griswold, E. Harbeson, Walter Hines, J. A. Hall, Sam Hunsucker, A. Hutchinson, Oscar Morecole, Job Washington, Joseph Norcket, B. F. Atkin, J. A. Gentry, J. E. Page, A. E. Debay, W. H. Duckett, E. P. Pippen, John Walsh, S. P. Allen, C. D. Elmore, F. W. Perry, H. T. Pennington, Walter Way, T. Sampson, R. J. Greene, E. V. Cox, J. A. Phelps, F. A. Burrow.

Some of the band men have been transferred to other companies.

Six new corporals have been appointed, as follows: W. W. Perkins, F. W. Perry, J. R. Hicks, M. M. Jordan, B. F. Atkin, E. Harbeson.

Your &c.,
AMBROSE D. JOHNSTON.

Oh, For More Trains.

One has to go away from home now and then to realize how far Greenville seems out of the world with only one train each way a day. We were made to feel very much this way on our recent trip to the western part of the State. Of course the time arrived when we wanted to come home—at least had to come or fail to heed the warning of a diminishing pocket book. Measured by hours necessary to make the trip, Greenville is twice as far from Asheville as some of our neighboring towns. For instance the trip from Asheville to Kinston is made in 12 hours, while it requires 15 hours more (27 hours in all) to reach Greenville, only 28 miles further. Coming the other way Tarboro can be reached in 14 hours, with an extra 13 hours to get from there to Greenville, 25 miles further. This town certainly ought to have more trains.

CLOTHING

In quality great
Such patterns elate
At the prices we state.

Patterns rare and intense,
As bargains they're immense
You invest good judgment and sense.

Take look at my styles,
They came many miles
They keep you in smiles

No better clothes,
Than this line we suppose,
From sheep ever arose.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent, Washington, June 28, 98.

Gen Shafter's army, by its victories in every engagement that any portion of it has had with the Spaniards since its landing in Cuba...

It is claimed by friends of the administration that Shafter is being allowed to conduct the campaign against Santiago in his own way...

The boy had enlisted in the army—had slipped away from home and joined the regiment...

After weary journeys the old man reached the camp and saw his boy on dress parade, and heard the band play "Dixie," as of old...

It is well that many of our regular soldiers now near Santiago have had practical experience with American Indians...

The announcement that ex-Senator Blackburn, of Ky., is to be a brigadier general in the volunteer army was a positive pleasure to many persons...

The Senate committee on claims has begun the investigation directed by resolution of the Senate as to the payment to a lobbyist Methodist Book concern...

to its property at Nashville, Tenn. The investigation was dead easy, as Mr. Barbee, agent of the book concern, told the committee that 35 per cent of the money received had been paid to Mr. Stahlman...

Lost Both of 'Em

The boy had enlisted in the army—had slipped away from home and joined the regiment, and the old couple worried over it until the mother decided that the old man must go after him and bring him home.

After weary journeys the old man reached the camp and saw his boy on dress parade, and heard the band play "Dixie," as of old, and he got enthused and "hurrahed" louder than any one else...

"Maria: The darn thing looks so much like old times that I think I'll give her myself! Send me my old rifle and canteen by express. Hoorah! All well.

No Stamps on Money Orders:

An almost total stoppage of money order business on July 1, it is said, has been averted by the agreement between the officials of the Treasury and Postoffice Departments that the law does not require stamps to be affixed to domestic money orders.

"And from and after the first day of July, 1898, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply as well to original domestic money orders issued by the government of the United States and the price of such money orders shall be increased by sum equal to the value of the stamps herein provided for."

The latter portion of the passage is taken to mean that stamps are not to be used. This construction of the law will obviate the use of about thirty-two million stamps each year...

There is reason to believe that either Davy Jones himself or some one of the many unfortunate tars who have secured berth in his locker has been for the last six weeks cruising about in the pilot house of the tug Thomas J. Smith...

which sank in Chesapeake Bay on May 8. F. A. Von Boyneburgk, formerly a director of the Maritime Exchange in this city, and owner of the tug, has a cottage at Stone Harbor, Seven-Mile Beach, near Cape May. Three days ago he and George Cressy, another resident of the place, saw a strange craft striving to effect a landing at Stone Harbor, in front of his house.

are named to succeed themselves.
Shaw is named to succeed Adams,
fusionist, and McNeil to succeed
McIver, Democrat.

What Stamps the Gentleman.

In all questions of manners a young man should always remember that while politeness is a good trait to acquire, courtesy is infinitely better, writes Edward Bok on "What Makes a gentleman" in the July Ladies Home Journal.
Politeness is manners, but courtesy is heart. Mingling in good society can give us that veneer which the world calls a polish of manners, and true politeness is not to be made little of nor scorned at. Politeness is a fine art, but is an art pure and simple, even at its best. Infinitely better is the cultivation of that courtesy of refinement which enters into the feelings of others and holds them sacred. What we want our young men to have is courtesy of manner not regulated by social code or professional censor. It is idle to say that courtesy is a relic of old-fashioned days and is no longer looked for. It is as much the current coin of good society as it ever was. More than any other element of grace in our lives, it is instantly felt and recognized, and has an unending influence. It calls for respect as nothing else does.
Courtesy of manner and courtesy of speech are the gifts a young man should cultivate.

SYRUP OF FIGS

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

Fire at Ayden.

About three o'clock Sunday morning a house belonging to Mr. R. H. Garris, at Ayden, was destroyed by fire. When first discovered the fire was burning on the inside of the building all around the chimney. It was a two story building that had just been completed but not occupied.

H. A. WHITE,
Greenville, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—Being requested by Messrs. M. P. Jordan & Co., to represent them in the adjustment of their loss sustained by fire on the 12th inst., I want to thank you for the very pleasant and just manner in which this matter was settled. In the future I shall always want some of my insurance in the German-American, and can heartily recommend it to all for liberality.

Yours truly,
J. S. JENKINS.
