Telegrams Must be Stamped

Managers of Western Union Telegraph offices have been instructed that on and after July 1st all messages filed for transmission must have a one cent revenue stamp affixed thereto, under a penalty of $10 for failure to comply with the war revenue law. No message will be accepted at the telegraph offices without the necessary stamp attached thereto, and all customers should provide themselves with stamps before filing their message at the telegraph office. Managers of the telegraph offices will not be supplied with stamps to furnish the public, but they will have to be procured from banks. In Greenville stamps can be procured from Mr. J. L. Little, cashier of the Bank of Greenville, and patrons of the telegraph office should supply themselves so as to avoid delay and confusion when they have telegrams to be sent. However troublesome and annoying to the public this stamping arrangement may be, it is the law and must be complied with.

They Enjoyed It.

At about six o'clock Tuesday afternoon the Reubelle, under the command of Ola Forbes, steamed up Tar river, having on board and in tow about eighteen of Greenville's young people. The object of the expedition was not to encounter and rout the Spaniards, for none were armed except some young men who carried concealed some of Cupid's darts. The only object in view was a little innocent pleasure, and this was realized to the fullest extent. After proceeding up the river for several miles, a suitable point having been reached, these merry young people began to disembark. The young ladies had provided refreshments for the occasion, and the sandwiches, cake, and ice cream served by them, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The return home was by moonlight.

Kinston Won.

The Greenville base ball boys and their rooters returned from Kinston this morning, where they played a game Tuesday afternoon. The game was a close and interesting one, but ended in favor of Kinston by a score of 8 to 6. The boys say they were treated very cleverly and had a delightful trip and stay in Kinston. The Kinston club expects to visit Greenville next Tuesday.

STATE NEWS.

John B. Respass, is to succeed C. W. Tayloe as postmaster at Washington.

There are about twenty cases of smallpox in Reidsville.

The day after the second regiment was paid off at Raleigh the soldiers deposited over $2,200 in bank to be sent home for them.

The Journal says there is a mad dog epidemic around Newbern.

There are now more than seventy cases of smallpox at Statesville.

A colored lawyer of Raleigh has been sworn in as assistant to District Attorney Berrard.

A controversy by letter has recently been in progress between Judge Walter Clark, of the Supreme Court, and Dr. Kilgo, president of Trinity College. Judge Clark is a trustee of the college and a result of the controversy is a request from the board of trustees for his resignation. The Judge has so far refused to comply with the request.

Institute.

The Teachers' Institute being held today at the Male Academy by Prof. J. Y. Joyner of the Greensboro Normal and Industrial College, is not as largely attended as it should be. It requires only a few moments presence at their sessions to see that Prof. Joyner is a master in his profession. His instruction is of a very high order and if our public school officials were under the control of such men we might expect the results from them which are so much to be desired. A fine opportunity to gain information is now present to our teachers and we wish they were all here to take advantage of it.

A Fight.

The only item of much interest in the war news today is a report from Admiral Sampson of a battle at Guantanamo on the 26th in which 15 Americans and 35 or 40 Spaniards were killed and about 60 Spaniards wounded.

Cotton Blossoms.

County Treasurer J. A. Thigpen brought the first cotton blossom of the season to town today. Mr. W. L. Cobb phoned us that he also had a blossom today.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1898.

Guess at The Old Middle.

The easier a woman cries the less it means.

No loyal church-woman ever hears a preacher who is quite so good as her own.

Women always own from one to a dozen cook-books, but they continue to cook things the same old way.

When a woman gives a party, and doesn't invite the neighbors it indicates that she can get along without borrowing.

Women are never so friendly with each other after they have had a business transaction together. One insists on paying more than her share, and is always mad after because the other let her.

If you must attend a church social to keep your conscience soothed, attend on a rainy night. The women in charge know they will have ice cream to take home on such a night, and give patrons their money's worth.

No woman probably appreciates how pretty and graceful she looks when using a needle. And a woman never looks awkward, by the way, with her sleeves rolled up and flour on her arms, though she may appear at a great disadvantage at a social affair. -Atlanta Globe.

The State crop report for June, based on returns to the Agricultural department from 1,000 correspondents, gives the following percentage of the condition of crops: Cotton, 89; tobacco, 90; corn, 92; wheat, 103; oats, 89; sweet potatoes, 87; apples, 76; peaches, 78; grapes, 92. The average of cotton, as compared with last year, 92; corn, 100; tobacco, 100.

Uncle Aaron's Views

"Now, you see," said Uncle Aaron "dem dar Spaniels hez dun run all der ships into de bush harbor fur ter keep outen de way of Uncle Sam's tornade boats, an' steel bruisers, which is pow'ful bad things to get mixed up wid, anvhow.

"Now, old Mister Sampson dun got four big cattleshups along wid his fleet, and dey is ebery one covered clean up in solid iron planks six foot thick, so hit an simply impossible fur dem Spaniels to shoot troo de walls an' damage de beef supply. I tell yo', hit is a mighty good thing to have plenty of cattleshups along an' to hav' 'em intirely protected.

"Now, as to dat teller Cuby, who fetch on all dis yere row, my notion is dat he is liable to git putty bad hurt at any time." -Atlanta Journal.

Detro Turlington, postmaster at Turlington, planted three bushels of wheat last fall, and threshed his wheat the other day from it and measured 93 bushels.

A Minister's Eight Rules

Mrs. Lyman Abbott, in the July Ladies' Home Journal, lays down eight rules that are essential to a minister's successful church and pastoral work. These she has the minister himself proclaim:

- 1. I must be always ready to call when invited.
2. Must catch at every straw of an errand to take me to one of my people.
3. Draw out from others their interests rather than intrude my own, but always assume a common interest in the improvement of the town.
4. Never leave a house without having something on which to hang another call.
5. Never meet a person with criticism or fault-finding.
6. Prepare for calling as truly as for preaching.
7. Study especially the Master's way and try to carry His spirit with me.
8. Keep always in mind that it is my business to bring men to a consciousness of God, and to an understanding of their relationship with Him.

Twelve persons were seriously poisoned by eating ice cream at Sheriff Smith's, in Charlotte, last Thursday night. Mrs. Monteith, mother-in-law of Sheriff Smith, died Friday morning from the poison. Other relations of the Sheriff are still sick. The poison was tyro-toxin, thought to have been produced by a chemical action in the cream, caused by making it during a severe electrical storm in progress at the time.

The soldiers in the present war have many conveniences that were unknown to the soldiers on either side during the civil war, and one of these is mail facilities. A number of expert postal clerks and mail-scriveners went to Cuba with General Shafter and a postoffice has been established near Santiago. After a battle, the soldiers who survive can write letters to their home people with the assurance that the letters will be delivered at their destination almost as quickly as in times of peace. What is better still, for the soldier, he can get letters from home with a certain degree of regularity. No such condition of affairs existed during the late war, and in many other respects the soldiers of to-day are more fortunately conditioned than were some of their fathers, who bore many hardships that will not be encountered in the war now in progress. -Charlotte Observer.

Unknown in Greenville

Last night a negro man knocked violently at the door of a house on Robeson street occupied by two white women named Bass. They refused to open the door and ordered him off. He left but returned in an hour and tried to get in a window. One of the women then raised the window and pointing a pistol at the fellow fired. The man showed the utmost contempt for the weapon and advanced towards the window, when the woman fired two more shots, she says struck him in the breast. The negro, who was without coat or hat, after walking around the house, slowly departed. The Bass women, who are respectable looking, say they are from Greenville N. C. and their father is Jonathan Bass. -Fayetteville Observer.

During the first ten days in July all merchants, lawyers, physicians, liquor dealers, hotel keepers, and others under the Revenue Act, will be required to make returns under the Schedule B tax, to the register of deeds.

THE HEART OF THE YEAR.

We have fathomed the heart of the year And we ask as our pleasures abound If in all the glad years we have found There was ever another so dear?

Was there ever such verdure before Or such fair fragrant lilies as these, With whole meadows of daisies to please, Or of fruitage so lavish a store?

And we think how we watched for the spring, How we hailed the first bloom with delight, How we questioned by day and by night What the new year, the strange year, would bring.

And her heart she has shown us, and oh! There are pleasures and treasures of worth, And she scatters them over the earth, Where the feet of her lovers may go.

And we follow, like children o'erblest With more gifts than they see in their dreams, And we linger by forests and streams And drink of the fountain of rest.

Oh, year that is bonny and sweet, For thy blessings so lavish we fain Would thank thee again and again And pour out our love at thy feet! -Emma A. Lentz in Good Housekeeping.

A Possible Undiscovered Gas.

Professor William Ramsey has given to the British association his opinion that there is an element, as yet undiscovered, lying between helium and argon when arranged according to the "periodic law." While experimenting with helium, in the attempt to purify it by rediffusion, it was found that this gas could be separated into a heavy and a light part, with densities of 2.0 and 2.4; continuing the experiment, after as many as 180 diffusions of helium, the density of the lightest portion remained constant at 1.98, and its refractivity to light as compared with air was 0.1245. The spectrum, too, not differing from helium, one element may therefore be considered as isolated as pure helium. The residue is easily altered in density by rediffusion, implying a small quantity of heavy gas mixed with a large quantity of light gas. The spark spectrum revealed argon in the mixture to the amount of 1.64 per cent by density and 1.14 per cent by refractivity, leading to the supposition that the new gas is contained as a very small proportion of argon. Neither helium nor argon forms compounds, so that the new element as demanded by the "periodic law" must be determined by diffusion. This method, however, does not reveal the existence of such a gas, though it by no means follows, Professor Ramsey holds, that there is no such gas.

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

As we went to press it was looking like a rain might come. We hope it will.

We have already seen several different narrations in print telling the origin of "Hobson's choice."

The 4th of July is nearly here. It has been fifteen years since Greenville had a real celebration of that date.

The war revenue law goes into effect July 1st. Then everything will have to be stamped before it can go.

There is to be a picnic near Cobb's store, in Beaver Dam township, next Friday. There will be a large attendance.

A reception will be given Mr. B. C. Pearce and bride on Thursday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Cherry.

It must be that another wedding is on the programme, judging from the way we hear the "wedding march" practiced in a certain neighborhood.

Bo Cherry asks us to announce a game of base ball between the first nine and the sports Thursday afternoon. The game will be for a shut out.
