DRAWING NEARER.

The war situation today indicates the nearer approach of a great battle. Fifteen thousand Americans and four thousand Cubans lie close to Santiago within view of the Spanish forces entrenched in the city. At Caney, a village on the outskirts of Santiago, Garcia and his men made a bold dash and completely routed the Spaniards quartered there. This gives the American forces the control of surrounding hills upon which to place their heavy artillery and which directly overlook the Spanish entrenchments.

Santiago is now practically surrounded by Americans and Cubans. The outposts of both sides are so close together that picket firing is going on almost continually, but no real fighting has yet taken place. The troops are ready to attack the city as soon as the heavy guns can be placed in position.

Seriously Hurt.

Mr. W. T. Lipscomb was chosen to umpire the game of base ball announced for Thursday afternoon between the "sports," and the boys who were defeated at Kinston. Soon after the game started a swift ball was thrown by Bob Moye, pitcher for the "sports," which being a little too high was missed by catcher Oia Forbes and the ball struck Mr. Lipscomb with full force on the temple. The blow caused Mr. Lipscomb to reel and he would have fallen to the ground but for Mr. Forbes being near enough to catch him. The blow so paralyzed Mr. Lipscomb that he was rendered speechless and his friends became alarmed at his condition. Physicians were summoned and he was taken to his home at once. He has suffered greatly from the injury, yet his condition shows some improvement today.

The accident is greatly regretted by every one, and all earnestly hope that Mr. Lipscomb may speedily recover.

The New York Mail and Express says: "One thing—and one only, apparently—can operate to impede a great forward movement, industrially, in the south following the present war. Assuming that the cotton crop will be as satisfactory as it now promises to be, the southern mills will be working overtime. In the iron districts there will be an activity hitherto unknown in the most favorable of years. Yellow fever alone can halt the industrial boom toward which all the conditions are making. But the experience of a year ago, and the keen appreciation of the risks attending a return of our army to the Gulf coast, should serve to render a spread of the disease, as a direct result of the war, practically impossible.

Telegraph Stamps

It is so inconvenient for persons to go to the bank for a stamp everytime they want to send a telegram, and their not being able to get any after regular banking hours, a supply will be kept at the telegraph office to save such inconvenience. Patrons can hereafter find the one cent stamps needed for telegrams at the office.

THE WHISTLING BOY.

Is there a sound in the world so sweet, on a dark and dreary morn,
When the gloom without meets the gloom within, till we wish we'd not been born,

As the sound of a little barefoot boy gayly whistling in the rain,
While he drives the cows to pastures green, down the path in the muddy lane?

The joy of a boy is a funny thing, not dampened by autumn rain,
His clothes and his hands and his sturdy feet are not spoiled by grime or stain,

The world to him is a wonderful place that he means some day to explore,
If there's time to play and plenty to eat who cares if the heavens pour?

Oh, that cheery trill of a heart as fresh as the drops that clear the air,
Brings a smile to our lips, and clears the soul of the gloom that brooded there,

And we bless the boy as he spats along through rivers of rain and mud,

For the hope and cheer in that whistled note would rainbow the sky in a flood.—

—Celia S. Berkstresser in the July Ladies' Home Journal.

Married.

On Tuesday night, 28th of June, Mr. W. C. Jackson and Miss Mary Smith were married in the Baptist church at Ayden, Rev. W. L. Bibb officiating. THE REFLECTOR extends best wishes.

Moore for Solicitor.

Judicial convention at Rocky Mount on Wednesday, 6th. Pitt county's candidate, L. I. Moore, is in the lead for the nomination for Solicitor. Let all the delegates go up and put in their best work for him.

Up To Date

This is precisely the way in which a little 6 year old boy disposed of his devotions the other night:

Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep;
Ana about this war with Spain,
Please, O Lord, remember the Maine

Ten per cent. of the population of Wyoming of military age are now in the army, and Governor Richards makes the statement that that State has furnished three times its required quota of men, which fact puts Wyoming at the head of the pyramid. There's something in the Rocky Mountain air that makes the men who are raised on it love freedom for their selves and others.

A good story is being told in Edinburgh about a certain clergyman of that city who was very careful about properly crediting his quotations, because of his fear of the charge of plagiarism. He surprised his congregation not long ago by saying in a Sabbath morning prayer: "And Thou knowest, dear Lord, that, to quote a writer in a late number of the Quarterly Review," etc.

FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1898.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

A Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Solicitor of the 3rd Judicial District of North Carolina, to be voted for at the ensuing November election, is hereby called to meet at 1 o'clock P. M., on July 6th, 1898, in the public hall at Rocky Mount.

The counties in the District that have not held conventions to select delegates to this convention will take notice hereof and govern themselves accordingly. By order of the Committee.

F. S. SPRUILL,

Chm. Dem. Ex. Com. Third Judicial District.

The two captains in the second regiment of N. C. Volunteers, who have repeatedly disgraced themselves by being drunk, ought to be cashiered and reduced to the ranks. During the civil war many brave soldiers were unnecessarily killed because some of their officers were too drunk to act intelligently. Drunkenness of officers in this war should be promptly punished and checked.—Pittsboro Record.

It appears to THE REFLECTOR that it is time the name of the drunken captain, or captains, of the second regiment was given to the public. Time and again has it been printed, especially in the Raleigh papers, that one of the captains in camp was too drunk for duty. Items printed in such indefinite way are reflections upon every captain in the regiment and it is but due the innocent ones that the names of the offenders be made public.

They'll Be Good Ones.

A circular issued by Secretary Long gives some interesting details of the plans for the three new battleships recently authorized by Congress. They are to be 368 feet in length, 72 feet beam, mean draft 23½ feet and displacement 11,500 tons. While not so large as some of the new European ships of their class, they will surpass any of them in fighting capacity. Their side armor, of Harveyized nickel steel, will be 16½ inches thick, the barbettes of the main battery armor 15 inches, and the turret armor 14 inches. The armament will include four 13 inch turret guns and 14 6 inch broadside guns, while the secondary battery will contain 24 rapid-fire and machine guns. The maximum speed will be 17 knots.—Atlanta Journal.

In Hawaii they will give a fellow all the credit he wants, but he can't get out of the country till he gets out of debt. That is said to be an old custom. As a man has a hankering to get away for a while after being there a few years, he will hurry to pay up, so he can get out.

There were 330,000 votes cast in this State at the last Presidential election. It is admitted 130,000 of these were negroes, leaving 200,000 white voters. Can it be possible that this two hundred thousand white voters will permit the Russell-Butler combination to so control enough whites to permit this mass of negro voters to continue to dominate the State? Will a sufficient number of whites permit themselves again to be misled by bad men, we care not what they may call themselves, so that, by being run in with the negro voters will keep our State government in the control of such vicious elements as now oppress and disgrace all the people? We can not believe it.—Raleigh Post.

Senator Hale says the war will cost eight hundred millions or more. Its present cost is quite two millions of dollars per day, if not more. That our people may get some idea of how much this $800,000,000 is, we will tell them it is more than three times the value of all the lands, town lots, gold, mineral, timber or quarry interests, horses, mules, Jack Jennets, goats, cattle, hogs, sheep, farming utensils, tool of mechanics, household and kitchen furniture, provisions, fire-arms—including Governor Russell and his private arsenal at the capitol—libraries, scientific and musical instruments—including the Progressive Farmer the organ of the Russell combination—money on hand or on deposit, solvent credits, shares in incorporated companies, all other personal property, all the railroads, steamboats, telephone, express, telegraph, and like property, within the entire State.

And Congressman Grostonor says: this is a Republican war. will be conducted by Republicans and all the glory and honor and nie to come out of it must be enjoyed by Republicans. And Congressman Linney said, in reference to the appointment of a Brigadier General, that it was a political appointment, and that his party would avail itself of the opportunity to use it as such. The taxpayers will be heard from later.—Raleigh Post.

Kentucky has unquestionably stood at the top notch for many years as far as the number of colonels is concerned, but now that all the states have so many real colonels Kentucky will not glitter so much more brightly than other states along this line. A quart of rye whiskey at one sitting is not now the real test of a man as to whether or not he is to bear the title so freely used in that state.—Winston Journal.

"It a newspaper man knew how many 'knocks' he received behind his back, he would adopt another calling," remarked a citizen the other day. The citizen was mistaken. The newspaper man who succeeds expects to be maligned by every law-breaker, swindler and hypocrite and every carping critic who is ignored, and in fact by all persons who do not agree with him on public and private questions. The Durham Sun saw the newspaper man who expects to go through life without being misrepresented and unjustly censured should make arrangements to die young.

Vermont has only two Representatives in the Lower House of Congress, but they are trained men, and make up in effectiveness for what the State lacks in numerical value. One of them has been elected eight times, and the other four times. They are not apprentices. Their tenure of office gives a proportionate value to the service which their constituencies have the good sense to appreciate.—Philadelphia Record.

It would be difficult nowadays to find a man possessed of the qualifications enumerated in the following advertisement, which appeared in an early number of an English provincial journal still in existence: Wanted, for a sober family, a man of light weight, who fears the Lord and can drive a pair of horses. He must occasionally wait [at table, join the household prayer, look after the horses and read a chapter of the Bible. He must, God willing, arise at 7 in the morning and obey his master and mistress in all lawful commands; if he can dress hair, sing psalms and play at cribbage, the more agreeable. Wages, 15 guineas a year.

It is as easy to call back a stone thrown from the hands as to call back the word that is spoken.

Man's life is full of crosses and temptations says an exchange. That is true for a fact. He comes into this world without his consent and goes out of it against his will, and his trip between the two eternities is exceedingly rough. The rule of contrariness is one of the important features of the trip. When he is little the girls kiss him. If he raises a large family he is called a poor man, but if he raises a small check he is a thief and fraud and is shunned like a Chinaman with the itch. If he is poor he is a bad manager; if he is rich he is dishonest; if he is in politics it's for pie; if he's out of politics you can't tell where to place him and he's no good to his country; if he does an act of charity it's for policy; if he won't give to charity he's stingy and lives only for himself; if he dies young there's a great future ahead of him; if he lives to a ripe old age he has missed his calling. He is introduced to the world by a doctor and to the next by the same process. Verily, the road is rough but men like to travel it.

Some of the farmers tell us the drought is doing considerable damage to crops.

The days are now growing a little shorter, but not enough yet to be perceptible.

If it required stamps on hot weather the bureau would be paying big revenue now.

Go to Lang's Cash House and secure bargains, as he is selling his entire stock at cost.

The best of evidence that Roston is recovering from the Spanish bombardment scare is furnished in the announcement that the dome of the State House is being given a new coat of resplendent gold leaf. But for the positive knowledge that there are no Spanish ships in New England waters it is probable that this shining mark for the enemy's gunners would have been given a coat of dull war paint instead of a new layer of gilt.

Reception.

The reception given to Mr. E. C. Pearce and bride at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cherry, Thursday night, was a brilliant social event. There were a large number of callers so extend congratulations to the happy couple. Many very beautiful bridal presents were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Cherry and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. James received the guests, and refreshments were served in the dining room by Miss Bessie Jarvis, with W. F. Harding, Miss Ella King, with E. I. Moore and Miss Myma Shinner with E. B. Fickles.

Had not Heard from Pitt.

Dr. Hufham announced at the morning service Sunday that at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon he would do something that he had never done before, and as far as he knew had not been done by any one in the State or in the South. He preached the dedicatory sermon at the Chapel of the Home for the Aged and Infirm.—Henderson Cor. Raleigh Post.

The good doctor is a little behind this time. A few months ago Revs. A. W. Setzer and N. M. Watson dedicated a chapel at the County Home in Pitt. It is a very neat and creditable building, too.

Institute Closed

The teachers' institute conducted here this week by Prof. J. Y. Joyner closed today. The institute ended with an address on education delivered in the Court House by Prof. Joyner. State Superintendent Mebane was also expected to be present, but owing to sickness in his family could not come. Prof. Joyner is a thorough instructor and the work he has done here among the teachers will have a lasting effect for good.

A procession of forty-eight teachers marched from the Academy to the Court House this morning. Thirty-eight of the number were ladies.

The accident to Mr. W. T. Lipscomb, who was acting as umpire, took away all interest in the game of ball Thursday afternoon, and it was not finished.

Following close on the heels of the Spanish-American war, now eight weeks old, comes the war on revenue stamps. The slaughter in the latter will be much larger than in the former, as almost everybody will go in to licking stamps.

Died.

At 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon little Ernestine, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris, of Scotland Neck, died here at the home of Mr. H. F. Harris where they were visiting. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of our people.

The interment will take place in the Methodist cemetery at 6 o'clock this afternoon.

Always in Season

We hear some business men say that it does not pay to advertise in summer, because business is dull. That is one of the important times to advertise, to help make business better when it is dull. Another thing, it now lacks only one month to the opening of the tobacco season when the farmers will begin selling their crops and getting the money for it. The business man wants to be ready for this, and should be putting in his best efforts to have himself and business thoroughly in the minds of the people. Advertising is seasonable all the year through, but along now is the time when the best hustling should be done.

A special from Jacksonville, Fla., says when about to go in bathing at Pablo Beach, James T. Gatewood, private stenographer to General Lee, of the Seventh Army Corps, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Gatewood was from Richmond, Va., and had been here about a week. The lightning came from a clear sky. The funeral services will be held today and the body will then be forwarded to Richmond for burial.

THE REFLECTOR office is 'up to the neck' in job printing. We are filling large orders for the warehouses preparatory to opening the tobacco season.
