TODAY'S WAR NEWS

Sampson Must Co-operate—Hobson Has Been Exchanged.

Washington, July 6.—Admiral Sampson refused to enter Santiago harbor with his fleet at the request of Gen. Shafter, but was ordered by the President to confer in the matter. Sampson must co-operate with Shafter. Santiago was expected to fall today.

Fifteen thousand troops will soon be on the sea and hurried to Santiago to reinforce Shafter.

The Spanish commandant agrees to an exchange of Hobson and his men for Spanish prisoners held by Americans.

General Corbin announced this afternoon that the exchange of Hobson and his men had been perfected and they are now within the American line.

It is reported that the Spanish warship Alfonso tried to run out of Havana and was captured by the Americans.

Four hundred Spanish prisoners on board the Harvard remained and six of them were shot before the trouble was quelled.

Camara's fleet has been ordered to leave Suez canal within twenty-four hours without coaling.

Sever Hundred Drowned

New York, July 6.—A collision occurred this morning off Sable Island between the French steamer Labourgienne, bound from New York to Havre, and the steamer Grecian. The Labourgienne sank at once and seven hundred people were drowned.

Spain Loses Another Ship

Gibraltar, July 5.—The Spanish auxiliary cruiser Alfonso XII, lately arrived from Cuba, is afire at Cadiz. The vessel was used as a troop ship. The dispatch seems to indicate that the fire was accidental.

The flagship New York was over late in getting into the naval fight off Santiago harbor, and thus Admiral Sampson missed the opportunity of a lifetime. The honors this time are for the captains of the battleships, and no mistake.

Mr. W. A. Darden, of Hardeesville, cured two barns of tobacco last week. Mr. Darden says the crop in that neighborhood is poor, for want of rain, that there has been scarcely any rain there since May. Mr. Darden lost an old family horse last Saturday—it was gored to death by a Jersey bull.—Kin-ston Free Press.

How the Fleet Was Destroyed

Off Santiago, July 3.—Cervera's squadron attempted this morning to escape the fate which awaited it if it remained in the harbor. The fact that the Spanish Admiral took such desperate chances indicates that the fall of the city is imminent.

At 9:40 watchful eyes on the American warships saw the torpedo boat destroyers Furor and Pluton coming out of the harbor's mouth. Close behind followed the Almirante Oquendo, Vizcaya, Maria Teresa and Cristobal. After leaving the harbor the armored vessels turned westward, proceeding at a high rate of speed, while the destroyers made straight for Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn.

The American warships opened a heavy fire and some started in pursuit. The Gloucester, Captain Wainright, started after the dreaded destroyers, firing as she advanced.

The Texas, Iowa, Indiana and Brooklyn went in hot pursuit of the big Spanish ships. The Vizcaya and Maria Teresa were hit repeatedly, but continued to fire and run. In a short time the Oquendo put helm up and headed for the beach, her commander having apparently concluded that it was better to destroy the ship than let the Americans capture her. She was run ashore about eight miles west of Santiago. Almost immediately the Maria Teresa followed suit, going scarcely a quarter mile beyond the Oquendo. Then fire broke out upon both, and soon they were wrapped in flames. In the meantime their crews had got ashore. The Vizcaya kept on two miles further and then started for the shore. Almost as soon as she grounded there was a terrific explosion aboard, being blown up to prevent capture.

The Americans now devoted their attention to the Colon, which steamed ahead of all the Americans with the exception of the Gloucester, which in the meantime had, unaided, destroyed the Pluton and Furor. Of sixty men on the Pluton, twenty escaped ashore and later were taken prisoners. Lieutenant Wood in a small boat rescued six men from the Furor and captured her colors. Three hundred prisoners were captured on the beach, including Cervera and staff. He was taken aboard the Gloucester in a small boat, where the wounded prisoners were also taken. The slaughter on the destroyers was frightful.

As Cervera went aboard the Gloucester, Captain Wainright congratulated him on his most gallant fight. Cervera wept. The crew of the Gloucester dressed the wounds of the Spanish and fed them. They were half starved.

Admiral Sampson on the flagship New York had gone to Siboney to confer with Shafter, but returned in time to join in the chase of the Colon, which was kept up until about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. She was the fastest vessel of the Spanish fleet, but her pursuers kept pounding her with shot and shell, and she finally gave up in despair and was grounded sixty miles west of Santiago. She was the only one of the enemy that lowered her colors.

The beach is now strewn with half burned life boats and corpses mingled with debris. Not an American ship was injured, and but one man, Yeoman Ellis, of the Brooklyn, was killed.

Just after the action an Austrian warship appeared off Santiago, but seeing the Spanish ships burning on the beach, put again to sea.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

A Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Solicitor of the 3rd Judicial District of North Carolina, to be voted for at the ensuing November election, is hereby called to meet at 1 o'clock P. M., on July 6th, 1898, in the public hall at Rocky Mount.

The counties in the District that have not held conventions to select delegates to this convention will take notice hereof and govern themselves accordingly. By order of the Committee.

F. S. SPRULL,

Chm. Dem. Ex. Com. Third Judicial District.

News to Ed. Johnson.

Under Democratic rule an efficient United States District Attorney and an efficient assistant could conduct with perfect satisfaction all the business of the Federal court and still have much of their time to practice in the State courts. This administration characterized by its multiplication of offices, has two so-called white lawyers whose conduct of the last term of the Federal court was so inefficient as to bring the court into ridicule and contempt.

For some time there has been a factional fight among the negroes of Wake county. Ed. Johnson, a colored lawyer, not being a part of the Jim Young machine. Months ago it became known that Johnson had been promised a place as assistant district attorney. When Spears was appointed it looked like Ed. was to be left out in the cold, and there promised to be some lively kicking. Then it was that a new office was created, and a wholly unnecessary one, and Ed. Johnson was appointed second district attorney. Whatever the title of the office, that is the character of the place Ed. holds. It seems that Bernard, being criticized for having a negro assistant, denies it. In a recent issue, the Greenville REFLECTOR says:

"District Attorney Bernard says that the colored man, Johnson, of Raleigh, recently appointed to a position in his office, is not his assistant, as published in many of the State papers, but is simply a messenger. O. J. Spears is the assistant attorney."

This will benews to Edward A. Johnson, Esq., attorney and counsellor at law, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of the Fourth Congressional district, and author of a "History of the Negro Race." Such a Republican leader a "messenger!" Tell it not in Oberkette and whisper it not in Rhamlin.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Art may be long, but time is too short for some people to become artists.

A Solo--Not A Concert

Every disclaimer made by Germany contradicting accusations of her intention to interfere with the United States in the Philippines, is, somehow or other, followed by new developments showing that she is jealous of the Americans' success there. She withdrew two of her warships from Manila harbor the other day upon "learning" that their presence was regarded by the United States as unfriendly, but now comes the news from Berlin in the Associated Press dispatches "on the best of authority" that Germany, France and Russia have reached an understanding whereby they will combine, at the end of the war, to prevent the United States (or Great Britain, either), from obtaining possession of the whole of the Philippines. They will ask for an international Congress to settle "all questions connected with the war." Spain is to have a voice in this Congress, and Germany will demand a slice of the Philippines.

It is to be hoped that the United States will let Germany, Russia and France understand that this Spanish-American war is no Greco-Turkish affair, to be regulated by any "concert of Europe." Uncle Sam has never mounted the European band-wagon. This musicale is not a "concert," anyhow. It is a solo, and since the United States has raised the tune by herself, she proposes to sing it to a finish without interruption or interference.—Charlotte Observer.

Pungent Paragraphs.

The wheels in a man's head are seldom able to score a century run.

Women never criticise the grammar of men who pay them compliments.

A man is more apt to tell what he doesn't believe than what he does.

When it comes to a toss-up between a man and a ball the man invariably loses.

True love is portrayed by a man and women who have been married three years and still ride a tandem.

About the time a man gets a large family of daughters off his hands he has to begin setting his sons-in-law on their feet.—Chicago News.

A Small Crop Better Than None.

It is an unwise policy for a merchant to abstain from spending $50 for advertising simply because he cannot afford to spend a thousand. It should be remembered that seed will grow just as well when bought in small packages as when bought in bushels, and although the crop will necessarily be much smaller, it will be just as luxuriant. Furthermore, it is far better to have a small crop than to have none at all.—Rome (N. Y.) Sentinel.

Democratic Nominees or Superior Court Judges

The Democratic nominees for Superior Court judges whose nominations were ratified by the Democratic State Convention are the following:

First district—Geo. H. Brown, Jr., of Beaufort.

Second district—Henry R. Bryan, of Crayen.

Fifth district—Thos. J. Shaw, of Guilford.

Sixth district—Oliyer H. Allen, of Lenoir.

Seventh district—Thos. A. McNeil, of Robeson.

Eleventh district—William A. Hoke, of Lincoln.

These men were nominated in their respective districts by districts conventions but they are to be voted for in the State at large. Judges Brown, Bryan, Allen and Hoke are now on the bench and are named to succeed themselves. Shaw is named to succeed Adams, fusionist, and McNeil to succeed McIver, Democrat.

The Manufacture of Allibs.

"In all my experience at the bar," said a Chicago lawyer, "I never had so close a shave as Judge Blank gave me. I was defending a man charged with larceny and had worked up a beautiful alibi for him. I brought in four fellows who swore positively that at the very hour when the crime was committed the prisoner was working as a bricklayer with themselves, upon a building in process of erection on a certain corner way out in the southwestern part of the city.

"Everything was working smoothly and my client seemed practically a free man, when suddenly the judge aroused himself from a doze and blurted out: 'Say, hold on a minute! Where is that building located?'

"I instantly told him, giving the exact location by streets and the lot number.

"Well, that's queer,' the court continued. 'I've owned that lot for the past six years and I never knew before that there was any kind of a building on it.'

"But the jury evidently preferred to believe my witnesses instead of believing the judge, for they acquitted my man just the same. I don't violate any confidence now, however," he added, "in admitting that Judge Blank probably will not have to pay taxes on the building which my witnesses erected on the lot."

Scientific Cooking.

"People have an idea," said the expert cook, "that when we speak of scientific cookery we are talking of something very difficult, but it is only the application of the simplest principles. Scientific cookery can only be obtained by careful experiment, careful observation, and careful record. When we cook as we would make chemical experiments we shall have perfect cooking—we shall be sure then that a loaf of bread will always be good. There is as much training of the mind from the practice of exact cookery as from the study of mathematics."

When Baby's Shoes Slip.

If the baby's shoes have grown slippery a few lines scratched lengthwise and crosswise on the sole with a knife or scissor's blade will be effectual in stopping the slipping and consequent straining of the back.

Wonderful Wax Making.

Bees gorge themselves with honey, then hang themselves up in festoons or curtains to the hive, and remain quiescent for hours; after a time wax scales appear, forced out from the wax pockets. The bees remove these scales with their natural forceps, carry the wax to the mouth, and chew it for a time, thus changing it chemically. Thus it may be seen that wax-making is a great expense to the colony, for it costs not only the time of the workers, but it is estimated that twenty-one pounds of honey are required to make one pound of wax.

GOD'S GIFTS.

File on the logs! the bright flames start

And up the roaring chimney race; How grateful should we be, sweet-heart,

For just this little fireplace!

Draw near, and sum our blessings, sweet; While we are housed and clothed and fed

The bleak winds hound from street to street Souls that share not life's daily bread.

Thank God for home! and if a knock Sound at the door this icy night, O let us hasten to unlock And bring a brother to the light!

It was for this God's gifts were lent— To light the way for those that roam;

It was for this the Christ was sent— To shelter those who had no home! —Frank Stanton.

VALUE OF THE EPISTLES.

"Part of the difference in form between the teaching of Christ and that of the Apostle comes from the fact that St. Paul preached the gospel along the lines of his own experience," says The Living Church (P. E.) of Chicago. "Certain critics talk disdainfully about his metaphysical rendering of the grandly simple truths of Jesus, but St. Paul had to defend the truth against philosophical attacks, and he was wise to meet such attacks in the most effective way. Christ was to him philosophy as well as salvation, for He was the fulness that filleth all things. To him God in Christ settled every question, both in the heavens and on the earth, and he was ever ready to give to Jew or Gentile a reason for the faith that was in him. This controversy, like all other theological controversies, is being overruled by the great Head of the church for the intellectual and spiritual profit of His people. Incidental harm may be done in the confusing of mind and shaking of faith for a few timid believers, but the good will be permanent and valuable. Already it is sending our greatest interpreters of Scripture back to an earnest and impartial study of the Epistles, with the object of seeing things with Paul's own eyes, rethinking his thoughts, and stating them with fidelity and persuasiveness. The result will be a larger apprehension of the value of the Epistles to the church in our day, and a clearer understanding of the necessity of completing the picture of Christ in the Gospels by the teaching of the Apostles."

Old Human Nature's Rebirth.

"Mr. Moody thinks that when he was born of the spirit he 'got a new nature,' and one entirely different from that with which he came into the world. The evidence of it he finds in the new desires and the new directions of his life. We suspect," says the Universalist Leader of Boston and Chicago, "that if Mr. Moody should take a careful inventory of the faculties and powers that make up his 'nature' he would find them to be precisely the same that he had before his conversion. His energies may be differently directed, he may have tastes, sympathies, purposes, standards, affections, which he had not before; and speaking in the language of literature rather than of science he may say that he is another man, with a new nature. But Mr. Moody is a literalist. His contention is that the 'old nature' has been expelled and a literally new nature put in its place. That belief is a superstition and a needless burden on Christianity. The glory of man is, that his nature, his old common human nature, is capable of rebirth into the consciousness of higher, truer, holier life."

The Retort Ready.

A bustling agent for a patent churn invaded the office of a busy merchant one day and proceeded to deliver his lecture.

"One moment, please," said the merchant. "May I ask to whom I am indebted for this visit?"

The caller produced his card. It contained the inscription, Barton Zebulon Day, Agent for Cosmopolitan Novelty Company."

The man of business studied the card for a moment. Then he looked up.

"I am honored by your call, Mr. Barton Zebulon Day," he said, with a genial smile, "but this is also my B. Z. Day. Good day!"

The Noblest Revenge.

The most Christian revenge we can take upon our enemies is to do them a kindness; for to return malice for malice and injury for injury will afford but a temporary gratification to our evil passions, and our enemies will only be rendered the more bitter against us. But to take the first opportunity of doing them a kindness or rendering them a service, the sting of reproach will enter deeply their soul; and, while to us it will be a noble retaliation, our triumph will not infrequently be rendered complete, not only by blotting out the malice that had otherwise stood against us, but by bringing repentant hearts to offer themselves at the shrine of friendship.

Capture of the Ladronez

Manila, via Hong Kong, July 4.—The arrival of the Charleston and transports today, June 30, brought joy to the fleet. But one death marred the journey of the expedition. It was that of Elias Hutchinson Canby, of Oregon, as the result of an operation for appendicitis. He died on June 19, and was buried at sea on June 21st.
The ships left Honolulu under sealed orders, to be opened when one day out. They disclosed instructions to capture the Ladronez, and the course was accordingly shaped for Guam.
The fleet arrived off San Luis de Appa on June 20 and fired twelve shots at Fort Santa Cruz, from which came no reply. In the afternoon two officers came off to the Charleston and thanked Captain Glass for the salute, and said that the Governor regretted he had no powder to return the courtesy.
When noticed that they were prisoners of war they were astounded. They said that they knew nothing of an existing war. Notice was sent to the civil Governor, Lieut Colonel Mauna, to report aboard Charleston, and the Governor sent a reply that the laws of Spain forbade his leaving the soil for an instant, and he concluded by saying he would be glad to receive Captain Glass at 10 o'clock the next morning.
Lieutenant Braunersreuther and a small force, sent ashore early the next morning, presented an ultimatum that he must surrender in half an hour, and the demand was complied with.
A force of marines landed in the afternoon; made prisoners of the Spanish soldiers and formally took possession of the islands in the name of the United States, and hoisted the Stars and Stripes. The natives cheered and tore off their Spanish uniforms, and pulling off their buttons gave them to our soldiers.

The governor, fifty-four soldiers, two officers and several civil officers and natives were brought to Manila. The islands were put under the control of an American citizen resident of Angana, capital of the Ladronez.
Mr. E. H. Shelburn has put in a gas plant for lighting his store. It lights the building beautifully.
The marriage of Mr. J. A. Andrews and Miss Hennie Sheppard takes place in the Episcopal church at 7:30 o'clock Thursday morning. Public invited.
