Tetter on the Hands.

For several years I was a sufferer from Tetter on my hands. It would come in little watery pimples, and the itching was almost more than I could stand. The skin was tender and the itching would swell so I could hardly bend my fingers. Sometimes my hands would become perfectly raw from the scratching or breaking of the pimples. When I was in this condition I tried one-half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and some Wash in 1884, and by the time I took it my hands were cured, and I am now well of the trouble. It has since broken out a little at times, but not enough to inconvenience me or make me try more medicine. I am now well.

GREENVILLE NEGROIZED

Gov. Jarvis Tells How it was Done

RALEIGH, August 6, 1898.

W. H. BERNARD, Esq., Editor the Morning Star.

DEAR SIR: In response to your request for an account of how the town of Greenville was turned over to the negroes by the Republican-Populist-Fusion Legislature I submit the following statement of facts:

The county of Pitt has a population of about thirty thousand people and is one of the finest agricultural counties in the State.

Greenville, its capital town, has a population of about three thousand people and is a growing, prosperous town. A majority of its voters are white men, and if the people were left to select their officers by any fair or usual method they would be certain to choose competent white men.

The town, however, is the home of one of the leading Republicans of the State, and being under obligations to the negroes he planned to have the town turned over to them. And here is the way it was done. The fusion Legislature of 1895, adopting his plan, divided the town into four wards. The boundaries of these wards were so turned and zigzagged as to put a majority of negro voters in the first and third wards, and a majority of white voters in the second and fourth wards. The first ward is shaped very much like a large broad-axe, with a very long handle, and the third ward is like the letter V. The next step in this devilish plan was to confer upon each of the wards having a majority of negro voters the right to elect two councilmen each, and to restrict the white wards to one councilman each.

At the town election in May, 1897, the negroes availed themselves of the power given them by the Republican-Fusion Legislature and took charge of the town. They elected four negroes councilmen while the white people could elect but two. Thus we had a board composed of four negroes and two white men. This board elected a white Republican mayor, a white chief of police, a negro assistant policeman for the day, negro policeman for the night, and a negro clerk to the board.

The taxable property of the town is near three-quarters of a million of dollars. The board of councilmen levy the taxes and order expenditures. It may be interesting to know how those who levied and spent the taxes ranked as tax payers. One of the negro councilmen paid 84 cents taxes on property, another 63 cents and the other two nothing. So the four negro councilmen who controlled the board paid $1.47 taxes on property for the support of the town. The white Republican mayor paid 43 cents on property and the white Republican chief of police did not do quite so well, he paid only 30 cents. The negro clerk paid nothing and the night watchman nothing. The negro assistant policeman paid $5.75. The nine men who control the town, levy its taxes and spend the money paid all together $7.75 and leaving out the assistant negro day policeman, the other eight paid $2.20. The revenues of the town for the year from May, 1897, to May 1898, was about $3,500, of which about $2,800 went to pay salaries and fees of office or place holders. The white Republican mayor and the white Republican chief of police were both indicted at September term, 1897, of Pitt Superior court for gambling. They confessed their guilt in open court at January term, 1898, and were re-elected to the same offices by the negro board of councilmen in May, 1898. The mayor has since resigned to enter Internal Revenue Service and a better man, a Populist, has been elected in his place, but the town is still in the control of the negroes, as they again elected four negro councilmen at the town election this year and these negro councilmen have in turn elected the same number of negro officials with one exception.

There are numerous instances in which towns have been divided up into wards to keep the towns out of the hands of the negroes, but this is the first instance, of which I have any knowledge, where white men deliberately divided up a town into wards for the purpose of turning it over to the negroes.

For one to properly appreciate the real condition of things in Greenville it is necessary for him to go there and see for himself. But for the forbearance of the white people trouble might have come long ago. They have fully determined to be patient and forbearing and to appeal, as they are doing, to their white brethren throughout the State to send men to the next Legislature who will undo this great wrong and wipe out that infamous act of 1895.

THOS. J. JARVIS.

A Splendid Book.

"Eastern North Carolina as a Tobacco Producing Section" is the title of a 34 page book prepared by Mr. O. L. Joyner and recently published for distribution among the farmers in the eastern counties. It is the best book on tobacco culture that we have yet read. Besides the excellent article written by Mr. Joyner himself, it contains a number of valuable letters on the culture and management of a tobacco crop from prominent farmers of this section. This book will prove of vast benefit not only to Greenville but to other eastern markets. It is written with that spirit characteristic of Mr. Joyner, always eager to accomplish the greatest possible good for his section of the State. While the book would have given him an excellent opportunity to enlarge upon his own business, this is never once referred to in its pages, his sole purpose being to show what Eastern North Carolina has done and is doing, and the advantages it offers. Such a book is well worth preserving and reading over and over again. The thanks of the entire tobacco trade and all other business interests are due Mr. Joyner for this splendid work.

The Cotton Warehouse System

The following editorial appeared in The Baltimore Sun of Monday: The bonded warehouse system recently introduced in a few of the cotton markets in the South has been successful beyond expectation. At Columbia, S. C., there is a warehouse which has a capacity of 12,000 bales, and others are to be constructed with a capacity of 8,000 bales each. The system of bonded warehouses for cotton was designed for the purpose of enabling the planters to store their cotton and hold it during the dull season, when prices were low and the crop could not be sold to an advantage. The cotton growers after their crops had been stored in the warehouses, were able to secure sufficient advances to meet pressing obligations and were not compelled to sell until they could obtain reasonable prices. The plan has been found to work well, not only for the planters, but for the cotton manufacturers as well. They have been enabled to purchase a thousand bales of cotton or more, as the demand might justify store the cotton in a bonded warehouse and secure advances on their receipts, thus releasing a part of their working capital, which would otherwise have been tied up in the purchase of raw material. It is noted as an interesting fact that the New York banks, according to a dispatch to the New York Evening Post lend money on the warehouse receipts at a lower rate of interest than advances can be secured in Columbia, S. C. If the cotton warehouses are established generally throughout the South and the system is found to work well, the cotton growers of the South, it is hoped, may find some measure of protection from the low prices against which they have had to contend in the past few years.

In many towns all over Eastern North Carolina are negro policemen who make themselves particularly offensive to the country white people who go to the towns to transact business. These negroes are appointed to office by Republican boards of alderman and town commissioners. The white people in those towns are powerless to help themselves. Will not our Western white people, and particularly all former Democrats, forget past differences and unite for the election of a Legislature which will give a white man's government to those towns and blot out the spectacle in North Carolina of negro policemen arresting, and in some instances clubbing, white men for those petty offenses against town ordinances which constitute no crime in the country? The Democratic party stands pledged to give them such relief.—Statesville Mascot.

Spanish Proverbs

Spaniards have a weakness for proverbs. Among these are some about women that do not show a very high estimation of the sex and most of which would not apply to American women, whether or not they may be true of the land of the castanets. Some of the best known are:

- Choose neither a wife nor linen by candle light.
Women and weather are not to be trusted.
No season is as brief as a woman's love.
He who has a handsome wife or a castle on the frontier is never without fear.
A woman may be loyal to love, but never to lovers.
Woman is a curious creature with long hair and short ideas.
A girl's hair draws more than a ship's cable.
Woman is a guitar, the sweetness of whose tone depends upon the player.

Intelligent Dogs

Uncle Calvin, an old colored man who would be known in the west as a "cowboy," is the owner of two very smart dogs. His business is that of taking cows out to graze, and these dogs have been so trained as to take the most of the trouble of looking after the cows off of his hands. One is a white dog and the other is a little black dog. The white dog will go and "head off" or bring him any cow he (Calvin) may designate. The other dog will take the rope in his mouth, carry the cow to pasture and when the white dog by peculiar "barks," informs the little black dog that they have arrived at good grazing grounds the little canine will at once run around the nearest tree and tie the cow fast. This performance has been witnessed time and again by citizens of Weldon, who will vouch for the accuracy of this story.—Weldon News.

Busted Klondike

The Klondike boom is slowly bursting. The whole business up there has been absurdly overdone and the steamboat companies and land agents have lured thousands of men to hardships unutterable, while they themselves profited greatly.—City of Mexico Herald.

Admiral Dewey's Appreciation

Atlanta, Aug. 10—Congressman Livingston, of Georgia, has received the following letter from Admiral Dewey: "Flagship Olympia, Off Cavite, Philippine Islands, June 17. 'My Dear Sir: I have just learned from the last papers that I am indebted to you for the introduction in the House of Representatives of the resolutions extending to me the thanks of Congress for the naval engagement of Manila Bay, on May 31. 'I need hardly tell you that I am most sincerely grateful to you as the author of the resolutions bringing as it does the highest honor that can come to an American naval officer in his professional career. But it is a great pleasure to acknowledge my debt of gratitude and to thank you in unstinted measure for the part you took in obtaining for me that greatest distinction. 'It is a source of additional pleasure to me, a Vermonter, that the mover of the resolution was not a man from the North, but one from the far South. This is one of the good signs of the times. In the hour of danger there is no South, no North, but one united country. May we never hear of sectionalism again. There are no lines drawn in the navy. I need not say it may interest you to know that my flag lieutenant, Brumley, is a Georgian by birth and appointment. 'Again thanking you most cordially I remain very gratefully and sincerely,

"GEORGE DEWEY." Promotion for the officers of the Fleet

Washington, Aug. 10—The President has determined to recommend to Congress that Rear-Admiral Sampson be advanced eight numbers and Commodore Schley six numbers. This will result in making each a rear admiral, but with Commodore Schley ranking immediately below Admiral Sampson.

Captain Clarke, of the Oregon, will be recommended for an advance of six numbers in the captain's grade and Lieutenant Wainright will go up eight numbers. Other promotions throughout the fleet will be recommended.

One Hundred Dollars in Two Prizes

In order to encourage the interest of the young in the history of our State, the North Carolina Publishing Society has offered two prizes—one of Sixty Dollars to contestants between the ages of sixteen and twenty inclusive, one of Forty Dollars to contestants between the ages of twelve and fifteen inclusive—for the best brief sketch or reproduction of any one of the lives contained in its forthcoming book "Lives of distinguished North Carolinians" to be issued in September of this year.

Though the book itself is a history and can be fully appreciated only by educated and cultivated adults, yet the youth of the State will be most benefitted by it where they begin the study early; and with a view to encourage such early study the directors of the society have decided to connote the contest to boys and girls residing in this State between the ages above indicated.

The subjects of this sketcher contained in the book are: Davis, Macon, Murphy, Gaston, Badger, Swain, Ruffin, Bragg, Graham, Moore, Pettigrew, Perder, Ram, seur, Grimes, Hill. The sketches as contained in the book average about forty pages each, and they are supplemented by the best illustrative specimens and writings of the subjects.

All applications to enter the contest must be filed with the society before the 10th of September, 1898, and upon such application, the rules under which the contest is to be conducted will be forwarded to the applicant.

Such contest will be decided by a disinterested committee of historians and educators who will not know the names of any of the contestants. The committee for the first prize are Presidents E. A. Alderman, Chas E. Taylor and A. Q. Holliday.

The committee for the second prize are Professors E. P. Moses and Hugh Morson and Dr. James Dinwiddie.

The prize essays will be published and such of the others as the committee recommend. All communications on this subject should be addressed to the North Carolina Publishing Society, P. O. Box 76, Raleigh, N. C.

Buying Enthusiasm

Enthusiasm is good capital to invest in your business. It is worth paying money for. Yes, since you can buy enthusiasm for money. Try it and see how certainly you can do it. Some time when you feel only a languid interest in your business, yank something out of stock and cut a great chunk off the selling price—a chunk worth white; a chunk that will compel people to want the goods at the revised price. Then advertise in your newspaper and tell the people what you have done. Tell them the truth, and your selection of a leader has been wise you will soon find things stirring not only in your store, but in your breast as well. What if you do lose a few dollars on the goods so advertised? If you have aroused your own interest in your business by arousing the interest of others you have bought enthusiasm at a very low price. Try it. It is better than spring medicine for that tired business feeling.—Brains.

New Law Firm

Mr. M. R. Eure, of Gatesville, has moved to Greenville to open a law office here. He has associated with Mr. Donnell Gilliam, of Tarboro, the style of the firm being Gilliam & Eure. We welcome Mr. Eure to Greenville.

Big Breaks

The tobacco warehousemen had the largest breaks today of any since the season opened and it looked like old times to see the tobacco rolling in. Every house had a fine sale and it was well on in the afternoon before the sales were completed. The farmers were jubilant over the high prices obtained. They know that the Greenville market is the place for high prices.

"SUB ROSA" FORGES AHEAD.

Makes a Record and Sets a Fast Pace for all Coming Events.

Last Tuesday night should be underscored on the "Sub Rosa" calendar as the one in which it surpassed all former endeavors to entertain its members and their friends, and to prove its object, the promotion of the social welfare of Greenville. Miss Sallie Lipscomb acted as hostess, and well deserves the thanks of her guests for the charming manner in which they were entertained. The house was tastefully decorated with burnt orange and blue, while the grounds were made brilliant by numerous Chinese lanterns. Directly under these were rustic benches and tete-a-tete chairs, hammocks and cozy nooks in abundance. The candles in some of the lanterns, however, were too short, since several went out in a most sudden and mysterious manner. Assisting Miss Lipscomb to receive were Misses Lillian Cherry, Fessand Rountree and Bettie Tyson. Miss Margaret Skinner and Will Lipscomb, Jr. stood at the door, the latter holding a large waiter of dainty bouquets, and the former pinning one on the lapel of each gentleman's coat. The compliments received by this pair were well calculated to turn the heads of a more worldly couple than they.

At twelve o'clock refreshments were served. Mrs. Lipscomb proved an admirable chaperon and did the honors of her home in a most hospitable manner.

All wish long life and health and prosperity to "Sub Rosa" and with the Governor of South Carolina, hope "it will not be long between drinks."

The members and their guests were as follows:

- Miss Sallie Lipscomb with Henry Strause.
- Miss Lillian Cherry with J. B. Lightfoot.
- Miss Rosalind Rountree with Geo. J. Woodward.
- Miss Blanche Flanagan with Aleck Gary.
- Miss Sophie Jarvis with J. H. Adams.
- Miss Abram with Will Harding.
- Miss Ruby Satterfield, of Ga., with Lewis Skinner.
- Miss Richardson, of Reidsville, with J. L. Fleming.
- Miss Annie Kitchen, of Scotland Neck, with J. C. Jordan.
- Miss Meta Uzzle, of Wilson's Mills with V. J. Lee.
- Miss Rosa Hooker with J. E. Starkey.
- Miss Gladys Clark, of Wilson, with Chas. Forbes.
- Miss Clive Joyner, of Baltimore, with Curtis Gary.
- Miss Ada Wooten with Haywood Dall.
- Miss Hellen Perkins with Dr. R. L. Carr.
- Miss Willie Ficklen with Judge Geo. B. Hughes.
- Stags—Messrs. H. W. Holcomb, Joe Jarvis, R. Hyman, S. V. Priddy, Stewart Carr, Rey. N. M. Watson, E. E. Griffin, W. D. Grimes and E. B. Ficklen.
