Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Graham, N. C. July 16, '97.

Oneida Cotton Mills:

About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold for the lance, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably, I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

WALTER PENDER WRITES AGAIN.

Tells What the Boys are Doing Around Cuba.

Mr. W. I. Pender, one of the crew of the Marblehead, writes another interesting letter to a friend in Greenville from which THE REFLECTOR is permitted to make some extracts for its readers. The letter is dated Guantanamo, Cuba, Aug 4th. He says: I hope to be back in a United States port soon. There is talk of our going to New York sometime this month, though there has already been talk along this line for a month. Today we learned that our Captain was going to be placed in command of the Newark (which is here) to join Watson's fleet for Europe. I don't know who will take his place on the Marblehead. We hate to see the change, for we have the best Captain in the navy and he has done more than any two men in this war. We knew he would be given a larger ship, but the crew expected to go with him. He told Capt. Sigsbee, who came aboard one day, that he had the best crew in the navy.

This place, Guantanamo, Las surrendered, and we are in the upper bay near the city wharf. They sunk the gunboat that was stationed here so we are now at work raising it. The value of this boat is $75,000, less one-third of which will be divided among us. We have already got her guns off and they are all right. They only destroyed the breech plugs as was done to the guns on the fleet off Santiago.

One of the Santiago fleet has been floated and with steam on her own boilers will be brought here repairs so she can go to New York. The wreckers are now at work on the Cristobol Colon, which was one of the best of Cervera's fleet and sustained the least damage. I expect to help run her from here to New York.

All the American fleet is laying in the coter bay and we are in here alone. I have to stay in the engine room only 8 out of 48 hours. It is somewhat of a lazy life now. They will not let us go ashore, as the Spanish soldiers are here yet, only the officers being carried away so far. Times are dull with us and all hands will shout when we are told to steam for a home port.

Fire in Beaufort County

Messrs. C. E. Tuten & Co's store and Dr. Dixon's office at Edwards, were burned this morning about 1 o'clock. Everything was lost. No insurance. We trust these gentlemen will soon be on their feet again.—Washington Messenger.

The Dr. Dixon referred to here is Dr. W. H. Dixon, of this county, who not long since moved from Grimesland to Edwards. We regret to hear of his loss by fire.

Gone, but Coming Back

Mr. Jesse Speight, of the firm of Speight & Co., left Monday evening for Kinston, and before returning will make visits to Seven Springs, Wilson, and his old home in Greene county. After recreating around these places he will return home and be ready to take up his cotton buying business again on the first of September. Through the patronage of his many customers he hopes to handle much of the crop this season. He is going to make fair dealing and highest market prices bring the cotton to him.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Star Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C. Aug. 15, '98.
Mr. McKinley is still in doubt as to the policy we should pursue towards the Philippines. It was that doubt that caused the temporary peace agreement, signed by representatives of the two governments, to provide that the Commissioners to negotiate the treaty of peace, which shall determine the final disposition of the Philippines should meet at Paris, not later than Oct. 1st, when it would have been easy to have saved a month by having the Commission meet September 1. The Spanish government has been quick to recognize this doubt on the part of Mr. McKinley, and to act upon it, it has issued a statement to the Spanish people saying that they had reason to believe the peace commission would allow Spain to retain the Philippines. What the policy of the administration is to be towards the Philippines will be plain after Mr. McKinley names the five American peace commissioners. The only one yet known is Secretary Day, who may be considered as Mr. McKinley's mouth-piece and personal representative. It is daily becoming plainer that a great mistake was made in allowing Spain to have any say as to the disposition of the Philippines. While there are differences of opinion among our people, as to our keeping the islands, the opinion is practically unanimous that Spain should not be allowed to retain them. It will be farcical for us to talk about driving Spain out of Cuba and Porto Rico for the sake of humanity, and then to allow Spain to keep the Philippines after they were practically in our possession. We should not confine our humanity to the Cubans, else foreigners will refuse to believe it is humanity.

The government is preparing to send food to Cuba, not only for the insurgents, but for all that need it, including the Spanish soldiers, but the Red Cross Society is ahead of the government as it is already distributing food and other relief in Cuba.

If the Democrats do not elect a majority of the House this year, it will not be the fault of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, which is preparing for a vigorous campaign with confident expectations of success. While the Committee will, as usual, furnish the candidates with the kind of literature they think will be most effective in their districts, it will also distribute literature criticising the war revenue law, because of its being harder upon the poor than upon the rich; showing up some of the many evils resulting from Secretary Alger's using the War Department as a republican partisan machine, and the financial question will not be neglected, but will be discussed in accordance with the Chicago platform. Democrats who have visited the Committee headquarters, without exception, regard the close of the war at this time as decidedly advantageous to the Democratic party, because it will enable them to bring other questions to the attention of the voters and because it will prevent the other side going into the campaign with a false plea that a vote against a republican candidate would be a vote against the conduct of the war. It has not yet been determined whether the administration should be attacked for its action in giving Spain too much to say through the three joint commissions provided for in the terms of peace, when it could just as easily have settled everything in the terms themselves, which Spain would have been bound to accept anyway, although such action is being strongly advocated.

There is some very strong talk among the Senators and Representatives, who have been in Washington since Sampson was advanced eight numbers and promoted to be Rear Admiral, while Schley, who was also promoted to be Rear Admiral, was only advanced six numbers, which makes Sampson one number ahead of him, instead of one number behind him as he was before these promotions were made. While it is not regarded as likely that any attempt will be made to hang up Sampson's promotion in the Senate, it is almost certain that occasion will be taken in both House and Senate, to show that he owes it more to favoritism than to anything he did. It will not be surprising, either, should the resolution offered by Representative Berry, extending the thanks of Congress to Schley for destroying Cervera's fleet, be adopted.

It is stated at the War Department that no troops will be discharged until it is known how many will be needed to garrison Porto Rico and Cuba, and it will be sometime before that is known as military commissions are first to meet at San Juan and Havana, and arrange the terms and time of evacuation of Porto Rico and Cuba. The Spaniards will be hurried out of Porto Rico as fast as possible, but as there are six or eight weeks more of the unhealthy season in Cuba, our representatives on the Commission are not likely to object to the Spaniards taking all the time they want to leave there.

DR. BYERS TO LEAVE

Dr. W. A. Byers, the eminent eye specialist, who has been in Greenville during the past five or six weeks, will leave for other places where he has engagements within a short time, greatly to the regret of the many friends he has made during his brief stay here.

Dr. Byers came to this town unknown personally to anyone, but the high endorsements he had from distinguished members of the medical profession and the certificates from prominent men in all walks of life whom he had successfully treated for serious and almost hopeless eye troubles won for him at once the favorable consideration of the physicians of Greenville and he was given a cordial welcome. During his stay he has treated a great number of patients, residents of the town and county, many of whom were sent to him by their regular physicians, and the success that has attended his treatment is the most satisfying and substantial testimonial of his skill as a specialist. Numbered among his patients are the very best people of Pitt county, and almost every profession has representatives in the list. Those whom he has relieved after long years of suffering are more than grateful to him, and a failure to remedy visual defects and alleviate troubles that heretofore have been pronounced incurable by other specialists has yet to be recorded against him in this town. When he leaves Greenville it will be regretted by all of those who have learned to know him, and his promised return at a future day will be welcome. He carries with him the endorsement of his patients and all who have had a knowledge of his work, and with the endorsement goes the best wishes for his success wherever he may locate for the practice of his profession.

High Prices Talk

Today the Eastern warehouse had a lot of tobacco from Lenoir county, within 3 miles of Kinston, and another lot from Craven county, within 10 miles of Newbern. And the sellers of the tobacco went home delighted with what the Eastern done for them in high prices. It takes top prices to draw tobacco from such a distance, but the Eastern is always doing that kind of work.

MUSIC PUPILS.

I desire a class of pupils in instrumental Music, beginning Monday, Sept. 5th. Terms made known on application. Lessons will be given to pupils in their home if preferred.

MISS MARY ALICE MOYE

JUST FOR FUN

A footpad—the corn plaster. Blanco may talk freely now that there's to be no fighting. The provisional guard—the watchman at the grocery store. War ships viewed from the rear present a stern appearance. Piano tuners say that their business is most profitable when it is flat. She—"I wonder why the papers speak of guns at 'barkers.'" He—"Probably it's on account of the muzzles."
