Definition of Fusion.

A subscriber gives us the following definition of fusion:

There are two political parties, (only two). They are arrayed in two opposing ranks, one on the left hand side of the road and the other on the right. Fusion means the collecting together and mixing up of all the corruption from both of these ranks into a third rank, right down the middle of the road. Its aim and object is to control both the other ranks. It usually succeeds in controlling one, that on the left or wrong side.

Distributing Prize Money

Washington, Sept. 5.—The United States Government is preparing to pay the rewards to men who saved Spanish ships.

Admiral Dewey and his men, of the Pacific squadron, will get a hundred and eighty seven thousand five hundred dollars.

Dewey, personally, will receive nine thousand three hundred dollars.

Admiral Sampson and his men, of the Atlantic squadron and Cuban blockading force, will get two hundred and forty nine thousand two hundred dollars.

Sampson, personally, gets about forty thousand.

Hon. Harry Skinner was again nominated for Congress at the conventions of the Republican and Populist parties in Edenton on Thursday. We white folks are going to beat Harry this time, if the tide of revolution culminates by the 8th of November. The white man in North Carolina is the down dog now but if he does not get on top in November then all is lost—Elizabeth City Economist.

Don't.

Don't attempt to borrow money on your wheel. It won't stand alone.

Don't think because you can fool some people that others can't fool you.

Don't get into the habit of talking to yourself if you are easily bored.

Don't think a man appreciates a cyclone because he is carried away with it.

Don't take worry with you on your travels, you will find it on tap everywhere.

Don't think your milkman has pedigreed cows because he supplies you with blue milk.

Don't get the idea into your head that with women on juries there would be fewer disagreements.

Don't attempt to train up your children in the way they should go unless you are going that way yourself.—Chicago News.

Died in Salisbury.

Mr. Allen Warren received a telegram from Mr. O. E. Warren, who with his family was visiting in Salisbury, announcing the death of the latter's little son, Ollen, which occurred last night. He will reach here tonight with the remains. The many friends of the family will sympathize with them in this bereavement.

The funeral will take place at the Methodist cemetery tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Was in the Fight.

W. J. Hemby a member of Battery H., 4th artillery, of the U. S. Army, who joined the service at Fortress Monroe, is home on a furlough from Montauk Park, where the troops have been camped since their return from Cuba. He was in the fight around Santiago and can tell some interesting stories of his experiences there and the hardships the boys endured. He says he escaped the yellow fever but the malaria caught him.

The Progressive Farmer, edited by one J. L. Ramsey, who is an office holder with the Russell gang, makes bold to say that the Democrats hired the editor of the Record to write the article published in that paper about "poor white women," whereupon the editor of the Record rises to brand Ramsey as a "malicious liar." Ramsey has made himself less respectable than the negro editor or any part of the constituency of the negro paper. It is but reasonable to expect that a whiteman and an editor of a paper claiming the support of respectable people would dare to espouse the cause of the white women and children of the State. Are we to conclude that all his self respect has been lost by his digging in the State manure pile?

Perhaps the stench of the State manure pile which has deadened the olfactories of Editor J. L. Ramsay to the extent that he is unable to detect the unpleasant odor emitted from his negro brethren in office has not had the effect upon him that the language used by the editor of the Record, the negro Republican paper published in Wilmington, will have. A white man who can associate with a negro in office must have a stomach equal in ability to endure foul things with that of the common bird whose stomach craves foul meats. But how does a white man feel when a son of Ham rises up to call him a "malicious liar." Political pie must be a very strong disinfectant.

Beauty is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets, beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

Mr Pearson is Right

From the Asheville Citizen we get the following:

"Congressman Pearson sent the following letter, under date August 29, to Lieut.-Col. A. D. Cowles, Second regiment N. C. V. St. Simon's Island, Ga.:

"Upon my return home I find your letter of the 23d, asking that I join in the request that the Second regiment be retained in the military service. In reply I beg to say that every mail brings me applications for assistance in securing the honorable discharge of soldiers in this regiment, and insisting that the men who volunteered to fight ought not to be detained against their will for garrison duty.

"As I look at it, this position is entirely reasonable, and I feel confident that a sufficient number of men from the First and Second regiments would be willing to volunteer for permanent service to make a full regiment and that this arrangement would be much more satisfactory than the plan which you propose.

"It seems to me that the privates should have a voice in the matter as well as the officers, and that the men who have left comfortable homes and good business positions in order to serve their country's flag ought to be consulted before the nature of their duty is changed, and I feel sure that Congress will take this view of the case."

No-To-bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c, $1. All druggists.

During the month of August the interest-bearing debt of the Government was increased by about $73,000,000, being the amount of issues of bonds for which cash has been paid into the Treasury. The money has flowed in much faster than it has been paid out on account of the war; hence there has been during the month an increase of more than $39,000,000 in the cash in the Treasury. The difference of nearly $34,000,000 is the net increase of the public debt for August; and as the Treasury cash balance shall increase (until the completion of the bond deliveries) the interest-bearing debt account will be correspondingly enlarged. The added gold does not represent surplus, but enhanced indebtedness.—Philadelphia Record.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets, Candy Cathartic, 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

Taking the country over the majority of drug clerks are compelled to work sixteen hours a day—too long a service for their own good or the safety of the patrons of their employers. There was, therefore, a basis of justice in the plea for shorter hours made a few days ago at the annual meeting of the American Pharmaceutical Association in Washington. In New York and Massachusetts the clerks have organized to obtain legislative relief, but such action should be unnecessary; the laws of humanity should cut down their hours. Not all the drugs in the pharmacopoeia can restore the health sacrificed by too long confinement to business.—Philadelphia Record.

At a conference of the leading express companies held in Chicago it was decided that the companies would hereafter bear the expense of the war tax upon packages transported by them instead of requiring it to be paid by the senders thereof. The decision comes tardily, but its wisdom will meet with wide acquiescence. The tax can scarcely be onerous to the companies, which in shifting it to their patrons made it vexatious, and, therefore, detrimental to a business which, to some extent, must compete with the United States mails. The companies should have grasped the truth sooner; but "better late than never."—Philadelphia Record.

What it Means

A negro, Sheppard by name, of Durham, has been appointed general store keeper and gauger, a position that places the keys of many of the warehouses and store rooms of the Durham district in his hands. What are the Forsyth and Stoker and Yarkin and Wilkes distillers going to do when a negro takes charge of their houses and whiskey and carries their keys around in his pocket? Negro school equality in Rutherford yesterday. Durham negro to take your keys today. Verily negro rule in the east means something to western Republicans. It is creeping on you as sure as fate. Do you like or will you prevent it in November.—Winston Journal.

Allen Whittington, who lives up on Stony Fork creek, near the Wilkes and Watauga line, is 101 years old. He has a young wife, aged about 30. Mr. Whittington does his own work and often makes trips to Wilkesboro, a distance of twenty miles. He likes to tell of the good old times of long years ago. One of the chief attractions to his house is some good old mellow brandy which he keeps in his cellar that is 12 years old. Mr. Whittington's brother, Alex, who lives on an adjoining farm, is 96 years old.—Winston Journal.

Christ's Separation.

Sawdust and steel filing are all mixed up until the magnet sweeps over the pile, then the one is taken and the other left. The sweepings of the United States mint are all gathered by one broom in one heap, but the fire separates the gold from the dust. The wheat and the tares grow together until the harvest. The good fish and the bad are dragged in the same net, and the angels separate them at the feet of God. The faithful and the unfaithful go about the streets until the Master returns, and then the faithless are cast out. Wise and foolish virgins sleep alike until the Bridegroom comes, and then the separation. The two robbers were in a common prison till Christ separated them on Calvary, and led one away to paradise, and left the other to plunge in deeper depths from the top of the cross where he had rejected Christ. "When he comes," the very thing you think is going to save all will divine the just from the unjust, will devote a part to life, a part to destruction, on the simple test of personal love to Jesus Christ.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Waharra, N. C. July 16, '97.
 Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lobe, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably, I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. Respt.
