MORE ABOUT THAT STORM

CAMP GRAHAM, TYBEE, Ga. Sept 6. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

"Hell's broke loose in Georgia today!"

Those were our thoughts when that Northeaster struck Tybee. The wind at times blew 100 miles an hour. Every tent in the North Carolina companies was either blown down or split wide open by the gale. The rain and sand drove against us worse than hail. Ships were wrecked before our eyes. Houses were blown to pieces and the ocean sent her mad waves to our tents. Now you can see one fellow in heavy marching order with gun and all his belongings wringing wet driven before the wind. Then another with nothing except his rubber; another barefooted, bareheaded, no coat, no socks, trying to get to some box cars a few yards below the camp. These cars were the only place of safety on the whole island.

The wind suddenly shifted to the Southwest. We could see a ship only a few hundred yards from camp. At first her horn blew mournfully, then she commenced to signal with her lights. We could neither answer nor help her at all. The South wind blew her out to sea and we never knew who she was nor what became of her.

When morning came the wind abated somewhat, the tide went back, and a steady cold rain came to keep our almost frozen bodies wet. Some of the men left for Savannah on the train. It was four hours making 18 miles, road blocked all the way, all telegraph and telephone connection broken. Rations, except a few cans of salmon, destroyed, and nowhere to cook the few pieces of sand beaten bacon we could find. Talk about the high life of a soldier at a summer resort! From 24 to 36 hours with nothing to eat, no fire, and nowhere to sleep except in cars loaded with brick turned edgewise.

Nice time! You would have smiled to see us. Water knee deep all around, covered with wet sand, a beautiful picture!

Some of the people of the island gave our boys coffee and something to eat. The Englishman, Wortham, who runs a saloon and restaurant, had coffee made and gave it free and generously to all who came for it.

Mrs. Campbell, an old Irish woman who runs a bakery, gave them what bread she had whether they had money or not, also her molasses. We ate nearly all the canned goods on the island.

After things got quiet the mosquitoes came. They were bigger and more plentiful than before. Nearly all the old socks and underclothing we used to make smoke with were washed away, so the mosquitoes fed on North Carolina soldiers.

Lieut. Morgan, of the engineer corps, and one of his men while trying to lend a helping hand to a sinking schooner, were drowned. Their bodies have not been found.

Last Saturday Maj. Wilder received orders to be ready to move his command to Raleigh to be mustered out. We were the happiest crowd you ever saw; being ragged did not cut any figure. Anything to get away from Tybee, that Georgia summer resort! Sunday morning brought a most sickening message reading somewhat like this: "General order No 100 is hereby revoked, hold your command at Tybee." This sent about one-fourth of the men to the hospital.

One of the battery men told me about sending one of Tybee's mosquitoes home, the postage being 6 cents.

THE STRAIGHT MAN

PITT COUNTY Sept. 9th 1898. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Election day will soon be here and its plain to see that the Democracy is organizing for success. The danger signals of negro dominance, incompetency, high taxes, and lax execution of the laws to protect the innocent against the savage and the licentious is already floating to the breeze.

The people are looking out for officers to fill the different positions of trust and responsibility. Of course the places that have the biggest remuneration are the ones most eagerly sought. We have seen mentioned for Superior Court Clerk a number of very clever men; most any of which would serve their county well; but among them all, speaking from a farmer's stand point judging from his industrious habits, his honesty, sobriety, his well cultivated mind, Ben May, of Farmville, comes nearest to filling all the requirements for that high position; and I am sure your correspondent is only asserting what those who know him best believe. He will make a vigorous canvass, and is not composed of the stuff to go down easy. We hope he will be nominated, and I feel certain of his election.

OLD PITT.

The Salt of the Earth

Mr. Jessa Barnhill, from out near the Grindle creek section, was in town Friday and THE REFLECTOR was glad to have him call around for a chat. This is the first time he has been in town in a year and a half and being in his 78th year he says he is too old to come to town except when he has business here. He has been a regular reader of THE REFLECTOR ever since the paper started, and told how well it kept him posted during the progress of the war. He takes interest now in reading about political matters and says it is astonishing to him how some white men can follow the political party that they do.

Another of THE REFLECTOR's life long readers, Eld. Samuel Moore, of near Bethel, was in to see us a day or two ago and we had a very pleasant chat with him. Like Mr. Barnhill, he is among Pitt's purest and best men. He believes that pure religion and pure Democracy are mighty close kin, and it grieves him to see men following ways that are dark and wanting in principle. Speaking of certain men he said "they love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil."

There are no better men anywhere than Mr. Barnhill and Eld. Moore, and men of their character are truly the salt of the earth.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Star Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C. Sept. 9, '98. Gag the soldiers and whitewash every official, is the remarkable policy that has been adopted by the administration in dealing with all complaints made as to hardships caused by mismanagement and inefficiency in providing supplies for the troops.

Beauty is Blood Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic, clean your blood and keep it clean.

Gen. Wheeler's Son Dead Camp Wikoff, Montauk Point Sept. 7.--Thomas H. Wheeler, and Second Lieutenant Newton D. Kirkpatrick, First Cavalry, were drowned this afternoon.

had been acting on his father's staff for some time past. He was 17 years of age, was a fine young fellow and had made a host of friends among the older officers. Together with Lieutenant Kirkpatrick he went to the beach this afternoon, to enjoy the surf bathing. The surf ran high and the undertow was very strong.

While in command at Camp Wikoff, General Wheeler's headquarters were located on a high hill near the station, a considerable distance back from the water. It was only today that his headquarters were shifted down to the beach.

Lieutenant Kirkpatrick was from Virginia. He was appointed second lieutenant on June 12th, 1896.

Eliminate Your Bowels With Cascarets. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. If C. C. C. fails, druggists refund money.

A Missouri paper tells this good one on the Republican and Populist fusionists in Kansas. A female horse, in the latter State, who was the mother of a mule colt watched over her offspring with care and solicitude, hoping that it would develop into the likeness of her family.

Hasn't a Dollar.

The war has not been an un-mixed evil to General Joseph Wheeler, of Alabama. It is whispered around in private circles, though it has not yet got in the newspapers, that he was about to lose his renomination, and though he has been in Congress many years he hasn't a dollar.

Mr. R. S. Fimple, of Littleton, N. C., has recently sold 20,000,000 feet standing timber of North Carolina pine variety to Wakefield, Va., lumbermen who will at once begin the erection of a saw mill on the property with a daily capacity of 30,000 feet. The timber is only a few miles out from Littleton, and known as the Long property, and on the entire track the standing timber of the North Carolina pine variety is estimated at about 200,000,000 feet.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. SEPT. 10.

The press on which the Home Visitor was published has been sold to Mc. G. Bryan and is being moved to Greenville.

David McGlohon says he has a stranger at his home who will become a Democratic voter in about twenty-one years.

Mr. Wiggins, representing Sprunt & Son cotton brokers of Wilmington, was here Wednesday looking after making arrangements for buying cotton at this place this fall.

One of our business men says he is wearing his garment wrong side out now-a-days to give the Democrats good luck and make collections good.

Mrs. John Harper returned home Thursday from visiting her parents near Black Jack.

Ferny Gaskins was here Thursday.

Our town is quite healthy now, not a case of sickness here.

Showers of drummers are passing this way every day. Looks like our merchants will soon be supplied.

It is a bad wind that blows nobody good. The last wind blew the price of eggs to 14c here.

B. F. Manning & Co. can surprise you in prices for ready made clothing and regular line of dry goods.

W. M. Carroll, of the firm Carroll Bros., will leave Monday for the north to purchase goods.

Winterville Wire Fence Co. have just purchased a car of best selection of wire and expects to keep plenty of wire fencing on hand. Your order can be filled promptly.

A. G. Cox Mfg Co. is offering 100 pairs cart wheels for sale.

Harrington & Barber are carrying some very nice lines of groceries and furniture.

Fruit is getting scarce and our cannery can't run on full time, but they have put in some nice work.

B. F. Manning & Co. have purchased a large lot of cheap bagging and ties and can meet any prices.

HEADACHE

"Both my wife and myself have been using CASCARETS and they are the best medicine we have ever had in the house. Last week my wife was frantic with headache for two days, she tried some of your CASCARETS, and they relieved the pain in her head almost immediately. We both recommend Cascarets."

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Irabaw, N. C. July 16, '97.

Oneida Cotton Mills:

About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lancet, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

SYRUP OF FIGS

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

"Don't worry," said the corned philosopher, "over things that can not be remedied. A little perusal of the patent medicine ads will show that there is a remedy for everything."—Indianapolis Journal.

Another assortment of the celebrated Parker Fountain Pen, best on earth, just received at Reflector Book Store. The jointless pen is the very latest invention and is a great success. Come and see it.

The home merchant is the man who gives you credit when you have no cash to buy the necessaries of life. The home merchant is the man who helps you to pay the taxes that run your schools and pave your streets. The home merchant is the man to whom you appeal in times of distress for favors. Then why should you ignore him when you desire to make a purchase? He sells as good goods at as low figures as the man who does business in the big city. The bills look green far away.—Ex.

Mr. R. M. Spier Dead

Mr. R. M. Spier who lived near Paeolus, died this morning about 8 o'clock. He was in his seventy ninth year and had been a sufferer for some time. His death was not unexpected to his friends and family. He leaves a wife, three children and a number of near relatives to mourn his death.

Mr. Spier was one of the most respected citizens of the county. He led a quiet, unassuming life but no one ever knew him that did not know his real worth. Few men have ever lived who were as good as he, and as free from any enemies. Never have we known a man to say ought against Montgomery Spier. He has long been a consistent member of the Baptist church at Paeolus and has been the main stay of that church for many years. He was a man of whom it may be said that the world is better from having lived in it and of whom it may also be said at his death "Well done good and faithful servant" thou hast been faithful over a few things I will make the ruler over many things."

Blessed is the memory of such a man, and his life is worthy of imitation in that he served faithfully his Creator and did his duty to his fellow man. THE REFLECTOR extends sympathy to the bereaved ones and joins them in mourning the loss of this good and true man.
