NORTH CAROLINA CAR SERVICE ASSOCIATION.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 10th, '98.
 To all Consignors and Consignees of Freight:

Serious loss and much inconvenience has been caused, both to the shippers and Railroad Companies, by the unnecessary detention of cars in loading and unloading freight. Shippers are often unable to procure cars, tracks are encumbered, and the speedy movement of freight is impossible under the practices that have prevailed. The Railroad Companies are obliged to correct this evil, and have issued the notice printed below.

The system thus established has been in successful operation in nearly all of the States in this country during many years, and with advantageous results to the public, as well as to the Railroads. The amount charged is not sufficient to compensate the railroads for the use of their cars and tracks for warehouse purposes and is not collected for the purpose of revenue, but for the prevention of the detention of cars, which affects both the public and the transportation lines. The rules will be enforced without discrimination by the North Carolina Car Service Association, which will act for all interests alike.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that on and after Oct 1st, 1898, cars not unloaded within forty-eight (48) hours after arrival and cars which are not loaded within forty-eight (48) hours after being placed in position, shall be subject to a charge of one dollar ($1.00) per day or fraction thereof, for the detention of cars and use of tracks, Sundays and legal holidays excepted.

FIRE.

Not Large But an Exciting One

About 11 o'clock Friday night Greenville had such an arousing as only a fire alarm can give the town. The ringing of bells, blowing of steam whistles, firing of pistols and shouts of fire brought people tumbling out of their homes. A bright light out towards the tobacco section told the tale. The kitchen to the residence of Mr. A. H. Critcher was on fire. It was burning fiercely when discovered, the flames coming all through the roof. The kitchen was adjoining the house and the flames quickly spread to the roof and end of the dining room. Men with buckets fought the fire back and kept it confined to the kitchen.

In the meantime the firemen were almost killing themselves dragging the engine through the heavy streets. They finally reached the scene and it took them but a short while to put the fire out, though the kitchen was destroyed and the house considerably damaged.

The building is owned by Mr. J. R. Cory and occupied by Messrs. A. H. Critcher, G. F. Evans and L. F. Evans. The building was insured, but Mr. L. F. Evans was the only one of the occupants who had any insurance on furniture. The loss of the other two was considerably taking the things from the house more than half was lost or ruined.

Just how the fire originated is not known, but it is believed to have caught in some way from the kitchen stove.

Uncle Sam will have a good deal more ginger if Jamaica succeeds in getting into the union.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. SEPT. 17.
 W. M. Carroll returned Friday from Baltimore where he has been purchasing goods.

George Davis has taken a position in the cigar factory.

J. B. Carroll has been clerking this week while his brother has been north.

B. F. Manning & Co. expects to make a special run on flour and meat this season. You need have no fears about prices, their's will be as low as the lowest.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., has just purchased a large lot of prepared cart wheel timber which will enable them to meet any price for cart wheels. They also make wheels of their own selection of timbers and though not so cheap in price their durability can't be excelled.

If you can't get free silver, you can get the Free Silver Cigars. Call for them when you want a cheap and pleasant smoke.

The railroad surveying corps is stopping at the Winterville House. They are on a survey to Washington and will pass this place today, Saturday.

Miss Annie E. Parker, who is to be an assistant in Miss Nannie Cox's school, arrived Friday night.

Mr. Ward, a drummer of Newbern, who has been quite sick at the Winterville House this week, is better.

Miss Nannie Cox has been sick with chills this week.

Mr. John Cox, of Kinston, was here Friday.

We saw a very large wagon load of wire fence leave our factory today. Farmers are beginning to learn it is the cheapest fence made, when you consider its strength and durability.

Winterville merchants are paying very high prices for eggs and poultry. They have a big demand for such productions.

We hear the farmers speaking very highly of our flour mill. Many of them are speaking of sowing larger wheat patches this season. We also advise those who did not sow wheat last season to have their patch this season. This is good security against a wheat trust.

We have had some nice days this week and the brick Co. has been putting out some nice brick.

Card of Thanks

We take this method of returning our sincere thanks to the people of Greenville, both white and colored, for the excellent work and service they rendered us at the fire Friday night. We will ever remember most kindly their efforts in our behalf.

The Free Press is Right

You have heard Democrats talk about the town of Greenville having a negro policeman. Well, let's see. There is one there. How did he get there? The town has four colored and two white councilmen. Two of the colored councilmen proposed to elect Mr. Cherry, a white Republican policeman, if Mr. Blow, the Democratic county chairman, Mr. Jarvis' law partner, and Mr. Brown, the other white councilman, would vote with them. Blow and Brown refused to do it, so the four negroes voted together and elected a negro. Who is responsible for the negro's election?—Cv. Thompson at Clinton.

Dr. Cy is sly. He twists and distorts things to suit his purpose. The two Democratic councilmen of Greenville were perfectly right in refusing to vote for a white Republican. The four negro councilmen, elected under the rascally gerrymander of Greenville made by the fusion legislature, could have elected a white Republican if they had so desired. It was not the business of Democrats to vote for Republicans, either white or black; that is the business and pleasure of the "holer than thou" Populist bosses, who are in it for fat office.—Kilston Free Press.

The report is floating around that Gen. Miles, as a result of the war, wants to be President. This suggests a very interesting article which was copied in Sunday's paper from Self Culture, discussing whether the recent war would make a President, as all other of our wars have. The Revolution made George Washington President; the war of 1812, Andrew Jackson; the Mexican war, Zachary Taylor; the civil war, Gen. Grant. Is there a presidency in the American-Spanish war? Hardly. Certainly not for Gen. Miles.—Charlotte Observer

Beat The Company.

A Liverpool steam packet company many years ago wanted to extend its premises, and resolved to buy a piece of land belonging to a maid in lady of uncertain age. The spinster sold her land at a very low price, and as a set off requested that a clause should be put in the agreement to the effect that during her whole life she and a companion should at any time travel free in the company's vessels. On the day after the agreement was signed, she sold her furniture, let her house and went on board the first outward bound vessel belonging to the company, without troubling herself about the destination. For many years the lady lived on one ship or another, accompanied by some lady traveler for whom she advertised, and whose passage money she pocketed. She was reckoned at her death to have made over $10,000 by the transaction.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

THEY STORE UP FOOD.

The Chipmunk and the Weasel Are Very Busy Housekeepers.

Have you ever seen the weasel carry his winter food to his den? If you meet him in the woods, says a lover of animals, watch him at work. No one could be more methodical. He brings his food to the entrance of his home and suddenly pops into the round hole in the ground that serves him as a doorway. Whatever food he may have brought he will lay it near his door, go in, turn around and then reach out to drag in the dainty after him.

The chipmunk is another busy housekeeper. He works on much the same plan as the weasel, and to and fro he will hasten on the still days of October, seeming to understand the advantage of toiling while the winds and sky are favorable. In storing his provisions the chipmunk is far more careful than the red squirrel, and he is also more particular about furnishing his home. He selects the dry maple leaves or those of the plane tree and stuffs them carefully into his cheek pockets to carry them to his den. When he cannot find enough nuts or grain, this provident little housekeeper chooses something else.

We know of two chipmunks that were observed by a student of animals while they were gathering cherry pits from under a cherry tree near the student's house. As he preferred watching the workers to disturbing them, they grew more friendly and were full of joy at the unusual feast that they were laying up for themselves. They gathered the seeds of the sugar maple also, and, as many of the keys were yet on the trees, although the leaves were many, the chipmunks harvested them by running swiftly out on the ends of the small branches, reaching for the maple keys, snipping off the wings and deftly slipping the nut or samara into their cheek pockets.

A Handy Splice.

If you wish to splice a broken stick or prevent a piece of rope from unraveling at the ends, perhaps you could not do better than to use the contrivance shown in the accompanying picture. Any bright girl or boy can easily make the splice with a piece of ordinary twine. The twine must, however, be long enough to permit of passing the loop several times over the end of the object to be spliced.

Foreign Royalty.

Foreign gossip says that Queen Olga of Greece has an anchor tattooed on her shoulder as a token of her affection for her father, the late Grand Duke Constantine of Russia, and that Princess Waldmar of Denmark, wife of the sailor son of King Christian, is also marked in like fashion, with the addition of a crown.

Unrecognized Answers.

Sometimes by unrecognized answer God makes reply to special prayer. You pray, and apparently nothing comes of it. But as the days go you find that surely something has come of it. The causes of your trouble have dissipated slowly, perhaps, but steadily and really. You have been answered, though at the time you knew it not.—Wayland Hoyt.

Trust Him.

Trust Him for a way when there is no way, for light when there is no light, for all things when you have nothing, for joy when there is only sorrow, for life when you are in the midst of death. Thus you will find at last that faith is not only righteousness, but life and joy and peace.—T. T. Munger, D. D.

Far More Important.

Life is too short to wait until some great thing can be done. Little deeds of kindness, little acts of charity done day by day as we go along through life, are far more important than one single deed, however great.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Irabam, N. C. July 16, '97.

Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lance, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

The friends who attended the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Arthur on Thursday evening, given in honor of Miss Willie Letcher Ficklen, are indebted to them for one of the most pleasant evenings of the season.
