SMALL AND SKINNER.

Cross Swords at Bethel and Small Comes off Victor.

Though the early part of Saturday was rainy and disagreeable, the weather cleared up a little before noon and there were five or six hundred people out at Bethel to hear the joint discussion between Hons. John H. Small and Harry Skinner, candidates for Congress in this district.

Mr. Small made the opening speech after an introduction by Mayor D. C.
Moore, of Bethel. He spoke for one hour and was calm, deliberate and convincing. He gave the issues of the day clearly and fearlessly, and pointed out that it is the duty of every white man so vote the Democratic ticket.
He exposed the corruption and extravagance of the State administration and how every promise made by the fusionists for lower taxes and decreased salaries had been unfulfilled. As to Skinner he was showed up to be a man all promises but never doing anything he promised. He gave it to Skinner for the latter's much turning and twisting since 1892—said that he (Skinner) had been kicked out of the Populist party but was ashamed and would not have the temerity to stand up and confess that he was a Republican.
Small's speech was a clincher from beginning to end and the crowd cheered him generously.

Col. Skinner arose to make his reply and showed that he was a badly hacked man. He tried to answer some of Mr.
Small's charges but failed utterly. The bulk of his speech was in denunciation of the Democratic party and praises for Dan Russell and the Republican administration. An old line Republican could not have made a stronger Republican speech than did Skinner on this occasion. He never made a speech in which he handled the truth more recklessly. His effort was void of argument and only once in a speech of an hour did he receive a cheer from his few supporters in the crowd.

Mr. Small in his twenty minutes rejoinder piled it on to Skinner thicker than ever and the crowd showed its light by cheering almost every sentence. It was almost like a continuous ovation through his rejoinder and at the close it was several minutes before Skinner could get the ear of the crowd to make his rejoinder.

In his rejoinder Col. Skinner made no better success in answering Small than in his first speech. He did manage to get up a little cheering now and then, but it came chiefly from a handful of negroes stationed behind him who it looked like had been placed there to keep the applause from being too one sided.

Small had the principles, the argument and the people on his side and he came off with the victory over his opponent.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BU-

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Oct. 8th.
A. G. Cox is buying cotton seed.

The Winterville fence Co. has just received a car load of nice wire and can fill orders for fence.

B. F. Manning & Co. has just received a car of best flour at the lowest prices and will sell it at lowest prices with full guarantee on each barrel.

The Winterville Cigar Co. seems to be unable to supply their demand for cigars.

A. G. Cox Mfg Co. has just received 100 cart axles. This means 100 carts for sale in addition to a large lot on hand.

B. F. Manning & Co. has just received a car of salt and can supply a good demand. Still another car is on the road.

Some of our friends were receiving correspondence a few days ago about establishing a factory for manufacturing smoking tobacco.

There has been several parties in search of building lots this week which we hope will result in adding neighbors to us.

The school opened Monday with the largest number of pupils in its history, especially boarders.

J. P. Taylor, the photographer, is in preparing to make ugly folks pretty.

P. F. Manning is making quite an improvement on his home by building a new piece to it.

We are glad we have a dry town this wet weather.

The railroad company is going to give us an agent and it is hard to tell which will be the most pleased, the people of the place or the railroad conductor.

J. D. Cox has been off the past week enjoying.

W. J. Wyatt came in on the train last night. He is one of the firm of Wyatt and Young, of Durham.

E. G. Cox, traveling salesman for the Winterville Cigar Company, has been out a few days drumming.

There is no path for us to pursue in which we will not meet disappointments and misfortunes. Our life, at the best, is a pilgrimage, and perils surround it all the way.

God never made a lazy man.
Money, the devil and a soft brain make lazy people, and they are not very good workmen, after all. A lazy man is a poor job, even after he is finished.

Yet one of this class directed his wife to buy Clothing from another firm because they showed her husband that they were identia man can be when he really tries. The she can get the most and best for the money.

Uncle Sam has now got trouble of his own, a war being in progress among the home subjects. The Indians in Minnesota have recently become in an ugly mood and gone on the war path.

Mississippi is paric stricken over the yellow fever and people are fleeing in every direction from the plague. We hope frost will come early to stamp it out.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 7, 98. The covert threat to reopen the war by sending a strong fleet to the coast of Spain, sent out from Washington this week, was ostensibly intended to scare the Spanish government into directing the Peace Commissioners, at Paris, to speedily accept the propositions made by the American Peace Commissioners, but its real object is to try to make votes for republican candidates for Congress by stirring up the war spirit among the people, and asking them to stand by the administration because the war isn't over. It is a queer sort of voter that this sort of thing will influence. That the Spanish Peace Commissioners will quibble and delay as long as possible is the natural thing to expect from Spaniards, but every fairly well-informed person knows that Spain is just as much bound to accept the terms of peace imposed by this government as Greece was bound to accept the terms imposed by Turkey, last year. The war with Spain will not be reopened, and if there is any bluster in that direction, it will be solely for political effect.

War Department officials are unduly elated because the testimony of Gens. Joseph Wheeler, R. V. Boynton and Fitzhugh Lee, taken by Mr. McKinley's Commission, this week, has been of the not proven order. That is to say, neither of the Generals named were personally cognizant of any mismanagement or neglect. It is beginning to be pretty well understood in Washington that the work of the Commission is to be so managed that no damaging testimony is to be taken until after the Congressional elections, unless it shall be given by some witness who gets marked "all right" by mistake.

Representative Dockery, of Mo., who has been making speeches in more than thirty counties, outside of his own Congressional district, was in Washington long enough, this week, to say that Missouri would give one of her old-time Democratic majorities next month, and that the legislature to be elected would certainly re-elect Senator Cockrell.

In a long reply to questions asked him concerning his branch of the War Department, by Mr. McKinley's Commission, Adjutant General Corbin attempts, by implication, to throw all the blame upon Admiral Sampson for the troubles the army had in connection with the movement against Santiago. He doesn't of course charge that Sampson was responsible for Shafter's making the movement before arrangements for the welfare of his men was completed, but his reproduction of the following dispatches from Sampson, dated July 7, implies just that. The first dispatch reads: "If ten thousand men were here city of Santiago would be ours in 48 hours," and the second: "Only await arrival of troops to reduce Santiago." By the same sort of implication Sampson is made to appear responsible for the cooping up of our troops on the transports during the week they were delayed in Florida waters by reports of danger from a spook Spanish fleet. Whether correct or not, the impression is now growing that Gen. Corbin in writing his answers, tried to make Sampson the scapegoat for all the mistakes made in the Santiago campaign, taking it for granted that Sampson's unpopularity would make the public take kindly to the scheme. It may stir up enmity between the War and the Navy Department that may lead to uncovering some things which were thought to be safely buried. The public does not need to be informed that Sampson is a pet of the Navy Department.

Aginaldo's man, Agoncillo, who has just left Washington, is as good as concealing his disappointment as a professional gambler. Although he has received from the administration neither promise nor recognition, he is out with a published statement declaring himself pleased with what he has accomplished in Washington, and announces his intention to go to Paris to lay the claims of the insurgents before the Peace Commission, and his belief that the independence of the Philip-

Get Strength, Vigor, Clear Complexion and Good Digestion, Not by Patent Medicine, But in Nature's Own Way.

GET FLESH.

Any honest physician will tell you that there is but one way to get increased flesh; all the patent medicines and cod liver oils to the contrary notwithstanding.

Dr. Harlandson says the reason is because the stomach lacks certain digestive acids and peptones, and deficient secretion of gastric juice.

Nature's remedy in such cases is to supply what the weak stomach lacks. There are several good preparations which will do this, but none so readily as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which are designed especially for the stomach troubles, and which cure all digestive weaknesses on the common sense plan of furnishing the digestive principles which the stomach lacks.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give perfect digestion. First effect is to increase the appetite and increased vigor, added flesh, pure blood and strength of nerve and muscle is the perfectly natural result.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest tonic known and will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. May be found at druggists at 50 cents for full sized package or direct by mail from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Greenville, N. C. July 16, '97.

Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the face, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

The Corbett-McCoy Fight Declared off

New York, October 6.—The Corbett-McCoy fight has been declared off. At a meeting today of men interested in the fight, William B. Gray, manager for McCoy, showed a letter he had received from David Nugent, manager of the Hawthorne Athletic Club, of Buffalo, in which he stated that, owing to the many complications that had arisen, the club has decided to call the match off.

John Considine, the Detroit sporting man, said that he was ready to put up a purse of $20,000 for the fight between Corbett and McCoy.

George Considine, his brother, shook $5,000 in bills in the air and said he was ready to match Corbett against anybody in the world. He asked Gray if McCoy would fight, and Gray said he would have to see McCoy before making a match.

WHITE AT THE CIRCUS

Tried to sit With White People

THE REFLECTOR gets the following item from Tarboro:

At the performance of John H. Sparks circus in Tarboro Saturday, George H. White, the negro congressman who has caused so much trouble among the colored people, went and took a seat among the white people. The manager went to White and asked him to move over where the colored were sitting. White refused to move. The manager thereupon went out and found a policeman; they both returning, White was again asked to move. He still refused, saying he was as good as the white people, and that he was not going to move. The manager and policeman went out and found three other policemen, and they, backed by about twenty of the circus men, went back to White and told him "if he didn't move, and that quick, they would move him." He moved, and kept on moving until he had cleared the tent, saying that he was as good as the white people and that he would not sit with the negroes. Several of the colored people were displeased with him and those who heretofore intended voting for him say now that they will not do so.
