Senator Forbes Demolishes Hodges, of Beaufort

Ex-state Senator A. A. Forbes, an erstwhile Populist who has come back to the white men's party (like all other good citizens ought to do) is a drummer for the Farmers tobacco warehouse. Last week he was over in Beaufort county. Knowing something of the Senator's reputation as a speaker the Democrats over there got up a big meeting for Friday night at Old Ford and billed him for a speech. H. E.
Hodges, the Populist, candidate for the Senate in Beaufort, was invited to meet him. We will let the Washington Messenger tell what else took place. That paper says:

"From the time it was announced that Mr. Forbes would speak at Old Ford Friday night, and had challenged Mr. Hodges to meet him, interest in the occasion grew, and the Pop-Repub-combine, resolved to meet Mr. Forbes in force and annihilate him. To this end the Sage of Bunyan was notified, he must be present, and word was sent out to all the Republicans and bolting Populists to be present. * *
* There were about one hundred and seventy-five present, * * * Mr.
Hodges made the first speech of thirty minutes. His speech needs no description at our hands; it was the same he has made for the last two years, and if any one did not know this man's record they would take him for an angel. Mr. Forbes followed, and he had not spoken ten words, before it was seen that he was master of the situation, and the good people of Old Ford were with him. He scored Hodges frequently, referring to his record, until the house resounded with cheers. To say the least Mr. Hodges got such a scurging he will not soon forget A. A. Forbes."

Misplaced Confidence

There are many humbugs and frauds stalking about over the country, and sometime they pass under the disguise of working for some church.
One of this kind struck Greenville Monday. A colored man came here and went around with punch cards begging for contributions for a colored church at Winterville. He received some money and invested so liberally in whiskey that he could hardly walk when he went to take the train to return home.

Be on Time.

The curtain will rise on the opening scene of "The Miller's Daughter" Wednesday night promptly at 8:30 o'clock. These of the audience who are not in their seats by that time will miss part of the play, and no one should do that.

THE COAT BETRAYED HIM.

And When He Run the Officer Used His Gun.

A few Saturday nights ago a coat disappeared from the clothing store of Frank Wilson. Mr. Wilson was not long in discovering the loss and kept up a watch for the coat. Sunday he spied that identical coat walking around on George Stamps, a gentleman of color, who came from Danville to work in one of the stemmies here. Monday Mr. Wilson swore out a warrant which was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff R. D. Harrington to serve, and he went along with the officer to identify the coat. George was found at the factory where he worked and taken in custody. He was carried to the house on Pitt street, where he boarded, for his room to be searched. Another colored man roomed with George and both of them had a trunk. When they got in the room with George it took him some little time to decide which was his own trunk. When the search got under good headway and the stolen coat began to come in sight, George concluded that the situation was getting warm and he might feel better somewhere else. Without warning he bounded up stairs, went out a window on the roof of the porch and jumped off to the ground. Officer Harrington took the same route and landed off the roof on the ground not far behind.
George struck the ground a rumbling, but when the officer struck he felt for his gun and began peppering at the flying figure of George. One shot took effect just above the heel (a little too high to be in a fatal spot) and it was enough to bring George down.
Officer Harrington again took him in charge, had his wound dressed and carried him to jail.

JUST FOR FUN

Ah! very pleasant weather! Very pleasant!

Hoax—"How should a man treat his interiors?" Josh—"Beer is good enough."

Many politicians who have hailed Quay as King of Republican leaders now insist that he is not quaking at all.

The average college student now begins to pursue his studies in the hope that he may catch up to them some day.

"Father—"I understand from your teacher that you're not up on geography." Tommy—"No, sir; I'm down on it. That's what I am."

"He's an up-to-date wheelman, isn't he?" "Yes, indeed." "College man, too?" "No? Is he?" "Yes. Signs himself A. Scorchers, '99." "O! the '99' is for his wheel."

A STUPID FELLOW.

Yet one of this class directed his wife to buy Clothing from another firm because they charged more for it, and "it must therefore be better." His better half bought some from us and some from the other house, and showed her husband that they were identical. This proved conclusively how foolish a man can be when he really tries. The lady of the house generally knows where she can get the most and best for the money.

WASHINGTON LETTER

(From our regular Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10, 98.

Lawyers for the defense seldom bring out any testimony against the accused. The member of the McKinley War Investigation Commission—"The Alger Relief Commission," is what a local paper calls it—who have put the questions to the witnesses who have to be testified may not consider themselves Secretary Alger's lawyers, but, if they were, their questions could not in the opinion of many unprejudiced persons, have been more carefully prepared to prevent the giving of undesired evidence. On witness—Col. Lee, who started to tell about some of the War Department's mismanagement, in the matter of transportation, without being questioned upon the subject, was at once called down and informed that the Commission was not ready to enter that branch of the investigation. He took the hint and thereafter only answered such questions as were asked. Gen. F. V. Boynton reiterated his theory that flies were responsible for so much sickness at Camp Thomas, and another witness—a brigade surgeon—indorsed it. Instead of trying to find out, the Commission appears to be trying to find anything derogatory to Secretary Alger's management of the War Department. It appears to desire only evidence that will be complimentary to the department.

There is much sympathy expressed for Mrs. McKinley, who left Washington for Canton, Ohio, Saturday night, to attend the funeral of her brother, who was killed supposedly by a jealous woman, Friday evening. She was to have started to the Omaha Exposition today, with Mr. McKinley and a party of officials and their wives. The party went and will be joined at Canton by Mr. McKinley, but Mrs. McKinley will probably not go.

The arrest of Senator Quay, for conspiracy in connection with the failure of a Philadelphia bank, has been much talked about in Washington. Opinion is not unanimous as to whether Senator Quay is innocent or guilty of particular charge, but, aside from a few men who are under personal obligations to him, the letters from Quay to the Cashier of the Bank, who committed suicide after the bank closed its doors, have added to the opinion that long held by most persons who know his business habits that Quay is utterly unfitted to hold a seat in the U. S. Senate. Quay is, and has been for years, a regular stock gambler, and has never hesitated to make use of knowledge obtained in his official capacity to gamble in stocks for his own profit. He was one of the most prominent of the Senatorial sugar speculators, whose operations shocked the country, and brought about an alleged investigation, while the tariff was under consideration by the Senate Finance Committee. At the investigation, Quay adopted bluffing methods; told the Committee that he speculated in sugar or anything else, whenever he wished to, and in effect asked what the Committee was going to do about it. No real patriot will deny that the country would be better off if all such men as Quay were driven out of the Senate and kept out.

Nothing could show more encouragement for Democrats in Congressional Campaign than the fact that republicans acknowledged their fear of losing four out of the eleven Iowa districts, now all represented by republicans. A gain of thirty seats is all that is needed by the democrats to put the republicans in a minority in the next house, and the prospects of getting them and many more, is very bright at this time.

Ex-Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, now in Washington, said: "The political outlook in Kentucky is satisfactory as democrats could wish. Of the eleven Congressional Districts they will carry nine certainly, and of the remaining two there is more than an even chance to carry one, the Louisville district. It seems to me that there is every reason to regard the condition of the democracy throughout the Nation, with complacency and I believe that the gains made by the party in November, will be large in a majority of the states."

Mr. McKinley is said to be very much disgusted at the position taken by Teddy Roosevelt, that his election to be governor of New York is necessary as a forerunner of the administration and the war. and it would not be surprising if he should take some way of letting it become known that he would not consider Roosevelt's defeat an affront to himself or his administration, although pressure is being brought to keep his mouth shut.

Put It in the Paper.

It is almost invariably the people who are habitual advertisers who are induced to part with their money on such worthless advertising schemes as folders, clocks, hotel registers, hotel desks, railroad time tables, and a host of other devices that might be mentioned. Money so spent might almost as well be thrown into the lake. Even if it costs only a dollar, it is that much money thrown away.

Rock in the same cradle.

The Quaker Lantern mentions the remarkable circumstances that Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Corkill, were reared in the same cradle, though they had no acquaintance in a short time before they were married. Mr. Corkill's mother, not needing the cradle in which her two sons had been rocked, sold it to Mrs. Corkill's parents and the families, who were then living in Yorkville, drifted apart, Mrs. Corkill's family going to North Carolina. Their destinies brought them together again to rock the same cradle.

No-To-Bac for fifty cents.
 Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists.

Should Keep Religion Out of Politics

Negro conferences over the State continue to endorse the stand taken by the Wilmington Record. This is gratifying, when you consider the fact that the white people contribute largely to help build negro churches over the State. The colored brother should have sense enough to keep his religion out of politics.—Durham Herald.

SYRUP OF FIGS

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it is a natural, healthy, liver and bowel purgative, and does not gripe nor cause any other untoward effects. Remember the name of the Company.
