"CAPTAIN DICK."

The Play a Grand Success.

There was a large crowd at the opera house Thursday night to witness "Captain Dick," Bertram & Willard's famous military play. From beginning to end it was well rendered and the audience showed delight in frequent bursts of applause. To see how well the several performers acted their parts one could hardly imagine that they were with two exceptions, amateurs and had had only a week's practice. It showed well the talent of the participants and the skill of their instructors. The play represented a part of the war between the United States and Mexico, and has several thrilling scenes and beautiful tableaux. The stage settings and effects were excellent.

O'len Warren as "Captain Dick" brought round after round of applause from the audience, and his heroic deeds by which he "won a name" for himself, at the same time showed the histrionic power he possesses.

W. F. Harding as "Col. Stafford," had a strong military part and he executed it well. His command of the forces and giving of orders required good acting and he was fully up to the occasion.

V. J. Lee rendered the role of "Mr. Merritt" with an ease and grace characteristic of him. His part was good.

E. E. Griffin as "O'Flynn," the Irish man-of-all-work who after enlisting had much sentry duty to perform, was very amusing in either place and kept the audience convulsed with laughter. He was a real surprise.

R. Hyman as "Hans Guggleheimer" was simply immense, and there was hardly a thing that he said or a movement that he made which failed to provoke roars of laughter. He is hard to beat.

C. B. Whichard as "Leon Vespucci," a war prisoner, gave his part without a flaw, and did it well.

R. M. Moye as "Gen. Mexia" added further honors to his reputation on the stage. Bob is a good actor.

Eugene Bertram took the part of "Baron Le Martine," a Frenchman who was an army contractor and up to much treachery and villainy. His acting was fine.

Bassett Willard also had a strong part as "Lieut. Bob Smalley." Of course the audience expected much of him and in no particular were they disappointed. He came in for frequent applause.

H. C. Hooker as "Dan Wheeler" and J. B. Jarvis as "Bill Nutty" were both good American soldiers and executed orders with perfect precision.

I. A. Sugg, Jr., and Hal Sugg were splendid as Mexican soldiers and moved with true military air. Hal being fresh from the battle around Santiago was perfectly at home with gun and uniform.

Miss Lizzie Laughinghouse as "Mrs. Moreland" was a charming, graceful and dignified as could be. She shows wonderful talent and gives her part perfectly.

Miss Sallie Lipscomb as "Beatrice" the heroine, was exceedingly attractive. She never turns a hand to anything without doing it well, and is a favorite with a Greenville audience.

Miss Annie Perkins had a leading part as "Angie," and at every appearance was perfection itself. She was indeed a burst of sunshine, and whether singing, receiving the attentions of "Smalley," engaging the General or if the spy could get away or any other part, she captivated all present.

Miss Aylmer Sugg was just grand as "Samantha Guggleheimer," who lost her husband and afterwards found him and made it warm for that gentleman at the end of the search. Her part was comic, and she carried it out perfectly.

Mrs. Cherry took the part of "Hannah," a lady of color, "An' bres yer soul, honey, yer can't eben be menshoned erlong wid Aunt Hannah. She wuz a bit toned nigger, for suah." The scene in which she appeared was almost a continuous ovation. She entirely caught the audience when she first stepped on the stage and every one regretted to see the curtain fall.

A. D. Johnson as "Pete" was another good darkey, of the old fashion stripe, who had a mighty longing to get spliced up wid "Hannah." He was strictly up to his part and got his share of applause.

The Forbes orchestra delighted the audience with music between the acts, and Miss's Bettie Tyson and Nina James played the accompaniments for the songs.

The performance will be repeated tonight, when all children under 14 years will be admitted for 15 cents.

THE TRUTH OF PITT COUNTY FINANCES

The Fusionist are circulating throughout Pitt county a statement that the present Board of County Commissioners during the first year of their term saved the people $4,742.80, or in other words that their expenses were that much less than the last year of their Democratic predecessors. An examination of the record show that the Democratic Board during the last year of their administration audited claims against the county to the amount of $18,346.64 and the Populist Board audited during their first year claims to the amount of $13,603.84. But it must be taken in consideration that the present Board, with the exception of what was spent for repair of Court House, have had only the ordinary routine expenses of the county to look after, while their predecessors expended $600.26 more for witness and jury tickets, which were incurred in the Superior Court, an item over which they had no control except to audit and to pay by direction of the court. The Democratic Board also expended $801.22 more for bridges than the present one and when they left office they turned over to their successors the bridges of the county in a good condition. The Democratic Board had the dam across Tar river raised about two feet high er at a cost of $321.30 and repaired and put vaults in the court house for the protection of the records and titles of the people at a cost of $3,441.98, thus expending altogether for other than the extraordinary expenses of the county the sum of $5,164.76. and if this amount was deducted from the ordinary expenses it would leave a balance in favor of the Democratic Board of $421.96.

A still further examination of the records show that Democratic Boards were in control of county affairs from September 1874 to December 1896, a period of twenty-two years and three months, and we find that the expenses of the county during that time were as follows:

For the year ending Sept. 6th, 1875.	$8,058.87
For the year ending Sept. 4th, 1876.	10,695.09
For the year ending Dec. 3rd, 1877.	16,477.93
For the year ending Dec. 2nd, 1878.	9,778.70
For the year ending Dec 1st, 1879.	12,314.90
For the year ending Dec 31st, 1880.	7,870.19
For the year ending Dec 31st, 1881.	7,696.93
For the year ending Dec 31st, 1882.	10,981.51
For the year ending Dec 31st, 1883.	8,923.81
For the year ending Dec 31st, 1884.	12,893.83
For the year ending Dec 7th, 1885.	11,495.13
For the year ending Dec 6th, 1886.	11,183.03
For the year ending Dec 5th, 1887.	11,992.80
For the year ending Dec 3rd, 1888.	13,798.05
For the year ending Dec 3rd, 1889.	12,893.85
For the year ending Dec 2nd, 1890.	10,849.06
For the year ending Dec 1st, 1891.	12,085.23
For the year ending Dec 5th, 1892.	14,859.23
For the year ending Dec 5th, 1893.	12,984.91
For the year ending Dec 5th, 1894.	12,981.62
For the year ending Dec 5th, 1895.	14,614.47
For the year ending Dec 5th, 1896.	18,344.69
Total for 22 years and 3 months	$369,445.73

It will be seen from the above that sixteen of the twenty-two years show a smaller expenditure than the boasted Fusionist retrenchment—and some of them not much more than one-half of the amount expended by them—and every year that exceeded their amount there were extraordinary expenses for public improvements.

To ascertain whether or not the Democratic Board were economical and faithful servants let us divide this amount of $369,445.73 by 22 and find what their average yearly expenses were during the time they were in control, and it shows an average of $12,247.52 per year, or in other words $1,356.32 less than the present Board. During this period of more than 22 years the Democratic Board expended for public improvements the following sums to wit:

In 1877 Repairs to Court House and Jail	$3,600.74
In 1879 Repairs to Greenville Bridge	3,474.06
In 1882 Building Jail	7,850.29
Building Dam	2,300.00
Building Vaults	3,260.00
Aggregating	$30,514.99

Now if you will deduct this $30,514.99 extraordinary expenses from the entire amount audited by the Democratic Board for 22 years and then make an average it will be ascertained that the yearly ordinary expenses were $11,315.16 thus showing that the Democratic Board expended for ordinary expenses the sum of $2,288.68 less than the present Board.

We desire also to call the attention of the tax payers of Pitt county to the further fact that when the Democratic Board took charge of the county in 1874 they found the county indebtedness to be $20,872.99 every dollar of which was paid off by them, while no county in the State, during their administration, had a lower rate of taxation than the county of Pitt.

It has been stated by the Fusionists during the present campaign that when the Democratic Board went out of office in December 1896, they left the county in a bankrupt condition. An inspection of the "Record of Official Reports" in the office of the Register of Deeds, pages 87 and 113 will show that James L. Little the Democratic Treasurer on December 7th 1896, turned ed over to his successor the sum of $2,255.26 for the General fund and $6,472.52 for the School fund making an aggregate of $8,727.78 that went into the hands of J. A. Thigpen the present Treasurer.

The Democratic Treasurers during their term of office were required to file their annual accounts, showing every item of money received or disbursed by them, and to swear to the correctness of the same. But an examination of the original account filed by J. A. Thigpen, the present Treasurer, for the fiscal year ending Dec., 1897 and the "Record of Official Reports," page 158 to 188, inclusive, upon which it is recorded fails to show that he ever received one penny for the General Fund, nor is it even sworn to, yet Aug. M. Moore and John Thompson who were appointed as a committee by the Board of Commissioners to examine the same, report the same under their signatures as being "correct." Nor is there any record in the proper office showing that a single dollar ever went into the hands of the Treasurer since December 7th, 1896, for the General Fund.

Every statement contained herein can be verified from the public records of the county and the Democratic party invites every man in Pitt county to examine them for himself.

WINE OF CARDUI

For Mothers!

The discomforts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives tone to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui we had been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

There is some talk among the business men about closing up an election day. A good idea. There will be no trade of consequences that day, to let all close up and give the day to redeeming the county and State from the hands they are now in.

An exchange gets off the following: "If men are the salt of the earth, women are undoubtedly the sugar. Salt is necessary—sugar a luxury. Vicious men are saltpeter, stern men are rock salt, nice men are table salt. Old maids are brown sugar, good-natured matrons the loaf sugar, and pretty girls the fine pulverized sugar. Press the pulverized sugar, please."

Alex Sheppard Dead

Thursday evening Mr. Henry Sheppard received a telegram from Raleigh announcing the death of his brother, A. S. Sheppard. Deceased was a Pitt county boy and was 36 years old. He left Greenville about 15 years ago and made Baltimore his home. Constant work and close confinement caused his health to fail. In the spring of last year he gave up his position and came back among his relatives in this county. Suffering from some mental trouble it was thought best to send him to the State hospital at Raleigh. All hoped the skilled treatment there would restore him, but he never sufficiently recovered to return home and died about noon on Thursday. Alex Sheppard had many relatives and warm friends in this section, to all of whom his death brings sorrow.

The remains will reach Greenville on this evening's train and will be taken out to the Sheppard burial ground, 9 miles from town, for interment tomorrow morning.

The town had a quiet appearance today, so many folks away at Grimesland.

C. T. MUNFORD.

C. T. MUNFORD.

MORE THAN PLEASED.

There is a firm, to know their name, Just on this paper over. Who once asked me, as they ask you, To step into their store. I bought a suit, I took it home, I found it cheap and nice. And I never fail to recommend That firm for Price, Price, Price.

I took a walk, I saw all eyes Observing my new clothes: I was a model and admired By friends, also by foes. I set the fashions for the town, And travelled many a mile To tell the people where to go For Style, Style, Style.

The more I wore that suit of cloth: The better they did please I advertised Munford's store until The clerks were brisk as bees. This suit so kept its stylish shape, (Well made and firmly knit), That still it takes the premium For: Fit, Fit, Fit.

So if you'd be a happy man, Just follow my example And if you'd be a stylish man, Just take me for a sample. Go to Munford's store where the grades Are new, and cheap and nice, And see if they do not excel For Style, and Fit and Prices.
