REMEMBER THE ORPHANS

Two Hundred and Twenty Children are Now Being Cared for by the Oxford Orphan Asylum

In a few words we want to tell our readers something of the mission of this noble institution. Believing that nothing can take the place of home-life and training, an effort is made to secure for as many of the children as possible good, christian homes where they may be reared nearer a mother's side and a mother's heart. In the home more personal attention can be given to the child than where two hundred and twenty are brought together.

Not only are the physical wants of those who remain provided for, but a good, English education is offered and training is given to as many as possible in some useful trade or vocation. More important still, realizing that each and every one of these boys and girls will have to depend entirely upon his or her own exertions, with the aid of our Father in Heaven, every effort is made to give them such moral and religious training as will enable them to go forth in life with a well rounded character, a noble purpose and a strong faith in God. Many have left its walls and are successfully meeting life's responsibilities.

The Oxford Orphan Asylum is dependent for support upon the good people of North Carolina—Masons, Churches and kind friends. Now is a time of need with the institution.

Could you make your Thanksgiving offering where it would result in more good than by sending over a contribution to Col. W. J. Hicks, Sup't, for the Oxford Orphan Asylum?

While money is always preferable, we know any supplies of provisions or clothing will be thankfully received.

Then don't forget the orphans. It will warm your own heart and sweeten your own life—make Thanksgiving day a blessed one to your own soul.

Calendars

Calendars for 1899 have begun to make their appearance. The REFLECTOR has received two that are very serviceable. One is the desk calendar and memorandum pad which has been sent out for fourteen years by the Pope Manufacturing Co. of Hartford, Conn. There is a date leaf for every day in the year with a space for memorandum on each leaf. The other is the Cardui weather chart and calendar sent out by the Chattanooga (Tenn) Medicine Co. It has a sheet for each month with the dates in large figures, and under the figures are weather signals indicating DeVoe's weather forecasts for every day in the year. The changes of the moon and legal holidays are also shown.

Unique Marriage

We witnessed a very interesting and unique marriage ceremony on Thursday of last week. The happy bride and groom were united by Squire Rose, in full bloom, but the Squire made the mistake of reading the man's vow to the woman, and the woman's vow to the man; therefore the man swore to be a good and faithful wife and the woman swore to be a good and faithful husband. How they will arrange matters I cannot see, perhaps love will find a way.

It is a very bad state of affairs when two people are united to life by an institution founded by the Almighty, that they should not be properly married, especially as the marriage ceremony is so simple that a school boy should not make a mistake in reading it. It seems to me that ministers alone should have the power to bind two people together by such a sacred institution. —Troy Pine Leaf.

How People Say Good Morning.

"How can you?" That's Swedish.
"How do you are?" That's Dutch.
"How do you stand?" That's Italian.
"Go with God, senior." That's Spanish.
"How do you live on?" That's Russian.
"How do you perspire?" That's Egyptian.
"How do you have yourself?" That's Polish.
"Thank God, how are you?" That's Arabian.
"May thy shadows never grow less?" That's Persian.
"How do you carry yourself?" That's French.
"How do you do?" That's English and American.
"Be under the guard of God?" That's Ottoman.
"How is your stomach? Have you eaten your rice?" That's Chinese.

Rally Postponed

Owing to the condition of the weather the rally and torchlight procession in celebration of the Democratic victory has been postponed until Thursday night, 24th inst. All who participated in this white man's victory are invited to take part with us in the celebration. Every precinct of the county is requested to send in a strong delegation with floats and illuminations. Every lady in Greenville is requested to illuminate her home on that occasion and help us to make the celebration a grand success. OLA FORBES, Mayor.

Our correspondents seem to be taking a rest. REFLECTOR readers would be glad to hear from them often.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1898.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer sends that paper the following:

Isaac M. Meekins, the young Republican who was defeated for solicitor in the first district, was here today. He says Harry Skinner is beaten for Congress by 1,500 votes, but that Skinner says he will contest on the ground of "intimidation."

We do not know what Col. Skinner's intentions are, nor do we know whether Meekins was authorized to speak for him as above. But one thing we do know—if he has any such ideas in his head as Meekins credits him with, he had just as well relieve himself of them.

Beauty Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body.

Coming Home to Roost

It seems to have been the fate of the Republican party to blunder in every fresh effort to solve the difficult and delicate race problem that arose out of late civil war.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away. To quit tobacco easily and forever, be magnetic, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong.

bitterness that was more potential than any question of political or economic policy in making a solid South. In their stress the Southern people regarded the Democratic party as the ark of their salvation.

After the violence of reconstruction had subsided, and the fears of the intentions of the Republicans concerning the negroes had begun to abate, divisions naturally arose among the Southern Democrats on the currency, the coinage, the tariff and other questions of Federal policy.

Still clinging to the negroes as the basis of political power in the South but recognizing that sugar is better than vinegar for catching flies, the Republicans sought to win over the planters and make a breach in the solid South by liberal sugar premiums.

Things in the South would that have gone on smoothly enough but for the next blunder in dealing with the race question by the appointment of a number of obnoxious negroes to office in North Carolina and other Southern States.

As the only means of breaking down the Republican-Populist coalition which controls North Carolina the Democratic politicians of that State did not scruple to charge their opponents with the design of establishing a negro domination over the white population.

Conflict of race, whether in North Carolina or elsewhere, is as irrational as it is deplorable. In ordinary circumstances the whites and blacks of the South set on very well together until the fell spirit of party sets them by the ears.

of race and party. The curse of the attempts to control the South by the votes of the negro population is repeatedly coming home to roost.—Philadelphia Record

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

The law is sometimes very exacting in demanding compliance with technicalities. In Pittsburg a decision was handed down the other day in the case of a colored man convicted of the murder of his wife to the effect that he must be sentenced again, because the Judge had erred in omitting to ask the prisoner before sentence was pronounced if he had anything to say why the death sentence should not be declared.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic, 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

In a circular just issued by the Treasury Department the amount of money in circulation in 1890 is given at $4.99 per capita; in 1810, $7.00; in 1820, $3.96; in 1830, $6.69; in 1840, $10.91; in 1850, $12.02; in 1860, $13.85; in 1865, $20.57; in 1870, $17.59; in 1880, $19.41; in 1890, $22.82, and in 1898, $24.74.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c, $1. All druggists.

"The Dirty Dozen." The town of Groton, Vt., is terrorized by hoodlums. A secret organization has been formed, known as "The Dirty Dozen," whose sole purpose is to perpetrate unlawful and shameful deeds.

A Limit to Trust. "She said she would trust me forever with her heart." "Well, that was satisfactory." "Yes. Then we fell out about who would carry the pocketbook."—Detroit Free Press.

STOP SMOKING. If you are a smoker, you know how the smoke-killing tobacco habit, NO-TO-BAC, removes the desire for tobacco, with out nervous distress, erases all the line purifies the blood, restores lost manhood, makes you strong in health, nerve, cases cured. Buy and pocket NO-TO-BAC from your own druggist, who will furnish for you. Take it with a will, patiently, persistently. Or box, $1, usually cures; 3 boxes, $2.50, guaranteed to cure, or we refund money. Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago, Montreal, New York.

The Age of an Oyster.

It is just as easy to tell the age of an oyster by looking at its shell as it is to ascertain the age of a horse by examining its teeth, or a tree by inspecting the circles revealed by the ax or saw when it is laid low. When the oyster is 6 months old, it is as big as a dime; when 1 year old, it will cover a silver half dollar, and when 2 years old, will be about the circumference of a silver dollar.

The oyster, unlike the crab, is not obliged to seek new quarters or build a new house every time he grows appreciably. The extensions that he puts on his house are clearly marked by a well defined ridge.

Oysters are esteemed to be at their best when between 4 and 5 years of age, and the planters endeavor to protect the beds for that length of time. Conscientious oyster men—that is, men who are not inclined to kill the goose that lays the golden egg—always return to the bed oysters that are too young, but in case a patriarch is brought up, over whose shell the tides of from 8 to 12 winters and summers have ebbed and flowed, he is sent to market, where he is put at the bottom of the heap and sold with his younger and more luscious companions.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Ethical Process.

Mr. Huxley says ingeniously (speaking of societies of animals) that the ethical process "is, strictly speaking, part of the cosmic process, just as the 'governor' in a steam engine is part of the mechanism of the engine." But we know how the governor got into the engine; we don't know how or why early men introduced the ethical process. "It was their nature to," and the ignorant, superstitious blacks say that a god, Baiame, gave them this law. Yet in some ways morality does seem to pay, practically, though not when carried to an extreme. The universe, like the traveling tutor, seems to whisper to its pupils:

Practice, youths, a little virtue, Just as much as will not hurt you.

This is ordinary morality. Go much further, and you are a saint. The Isle of Saints has ever been the most distressful country. Whither in the world are these reflections hurrying us? I have no idea beyond an ineradicable conviction that the ethical process, plus some "governor" not yet invented, will win in the long run, and that we must back it with our best exertions.—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

Neither Did the King.

It is told of King Frederick VI of Denmark that while traveling through Jutland one day he entered a village school and found the children lively and intelligent and quite ready to answer his questions.

"Well, youngsters," he said, "what are the names of the greatest kings of Denmark?"

With one accord they cried out, "Canute the Great, Waldemar and Christian V!"

Just then a little girl, to whom the schoolmaster had whispered something, stood up and raised her hand.

"Do you know another?" asked the king.

"Yes—Frederick VI."

"What great act did he perform?"

The girl hung her head and stammered out, "I don't know."

"Be comforted, my child," said the king. "I don't know either."

Why Do We Yawn?

There can be little doubt that one of the objects of yawning is the exercise of muscles which have been for a long time quiescent, and the acceleration of the blood and lymph flow which has in consequence of this quiescence become sluggish; hence its frequency after one has remained for some time in the same position—for example, when waking in the morning.

Co-operating with this cause is sleepiness and the shallow breathing which it entails. This factor, as well as muscle quiescence, is apt to attend the sense of boredom which one experiences in listening to a dull sermon; hence it is that the bored individual is apt to yawn. As in the case of sighing, the deep breath which accompanies the act of yawning compensates for the shallow breathing which is so apt to excite it.—New York Herald.

Hardly.

Cabman (sitting in the street amid the ruins of his cab and horse, to driver of the bus which occasioned the disaster)—You — I — — — ! ! — — — ! ! — — — ! ! ! ! !

Constable (to the orator)—Now, now! You mustn't call him such names as that.

Cabman (in frenzy)—Him wot smashed me cab an' killed me 'orse an' left me a 'elpless cripple! Wot the — do yer expect me to call 'im—a 'owlin' hangel?—London Judy.

A "Steele Bargain."

Adam Steele of Shelby county once rented a tanyard to a Mr. Jones on shares. His idea was to risk in the business only the use of his tanyard and not to incur any further liability. So he protected himself by the following safe clause in the contract: "If anything is made, the said Steele is to have it, and if anything is lost the said Jones is to lose it."

And this is known in Shelby as a regular Adam Steele bargain to this day.—Lexington (Ky.) Gazette.

Points About Advertising.

Advertising a new business is to a certain extent, like advertising in the dull season. It is the same effect that must be looked at and not the immediate returns.

Some advertisements become in a way a department of the paper, and people look for them every day with as much zest and pleasure as they turn to any other feature.

If you have never advertised before in a certain paper it will take some little time for its readers to get acquainted with you, and until they do, don't expect much return.

When you put your ad in the best newspaper in your community you are addressing the wide-awake, progressive part of the community. You are skimming the cream.

There is a lot of money wasted in advertising, because merchants are too economical with their space. It is much easier to waste money by using insufficient space than by using too much.—Bates.

C. T. MUNFORD.

C. T. MUNFORD.

MORE THAN PLEASED.

There is a firm, to know their name, Just on this paper o'er, Who once asked me, as they ask you, To step into their store. I bought a suit. I took it home, I found it cheap and nice. And I never fail to recommend That firm for Price. Price. Price.

I took a walk, I saw all eyes Observing my new clothes: I was a model and admired By friends, also by foes. I set the fashions for the town, And travelled many a mile To tell the people where to go For Style, Style, Style.

The more I wore that suit of cloth, The better they did please I advised Munford's store until The clerks were brisk as bees. "His suit" so kept its stylish shape, (Well made and firmly knit), That still it takes the premium For Fit, Fit, Fit.

So if you'd be a happy man, Just to low my example And if you'd be a stylish man, Just take me for a sample. Go to Munford's store where the grade Are new, and cheap and nice, And see if they do not excel For Style, and Fit and Prices.
