ORDER OF AMOREANS.

Five New Councils Organized in the Last Nine Days.

The Ancient Order of Amoreans, which was organized but a short time ago, is spreading with wonderful rapidity, as five new councils have been instituted within the past nine days. Its influences are being felt in the far north as well as the far east, where councils of the order have been established. Its Little Rock council has a membership of 111 and constantly increasing, and composed of many of Little Rock's best citizens. This rapid progress has been accomplished through the indefatigable energy and long experience of its chief secretary, Col. W. Sparling, assisted by the chief governor and chief surgeon, P. D. English and Dr. W. DeWolf Jones, whose valuable services were secured at the reorganization of the order, and through whose instrumentality Col. W. Sparling was led to accept the position of chief Secretary.

"The Democrat" extends to this flourishing and progressive order the right hand of fellowship and wishes it much prosperity on its errand of mercy by providing benefits for the widows and orphans to its deceased members, and inculcating into the minds of its members the principals of honesty, integrity and virtue.—Little Rock Democrat.

Maj. H. Harding and Mr. H. B. Harris are duly authorized organizers of this ancient order in Eastern North Carolina.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by the Orange, Va. Observer.

'Twas the poorest turkey that escaped being eaten on Thanksgiving day.

No person is excluded from heaven or happiness simply on account of poverty.

He that thinketh a grand and good thought is greater than he who taketh a city.

Many a chip of the old block is but a chip of the old blockhead and therefore nothing to be proud of.

Mostly women attended the snake show in New York. Back in the garden of Eden all the women of that day did the same.

Christmas is cantering into the home stretch.

Patronize Home People and Advertisers.

Spend your money in a distant city, and all you will receive are the goods you buy. Spend it in your own town and it will come back to you, not only in the goods you buy, but in better streets, better schools and better everything.

Spend your money away from home, and you only receive back the principal.

Spend your money at home, and you get back the principal and everlasting interest.

Read your local papers. It's your duty to know what is going on about you.

Read the advertisements of your local stores.

Keep posted on the business of your own town, as well as upon the social functions.

Many a good thing is lost to the woman who does not regularly read the advertisements.

I am aware that some stores misrepresent in their advertising, and I also know that you can get cheated at the stores that don't advertise.

All things considered, the store which wants your trade enough to invite you to give it to it, is the safest and best store to trade at, and this store advertises.

The store that advertises is the store that is known and the store that is known is the store that the trade goes to, and the store that the trade goes to is the store that does the business, and the store that does the business is the store that cannot afford to cheat.—N. C. Fowler.

Died.

On Saturday at the residence of her son, Mr. B. F. Anderson, Mrs. Sallie Anderson, in her 74th year. She was a very consistent member of the Free Will Baptist church for 60 years. She leaves five sons and many friends to mourn her demise. In her latter days her time was spent mostly in reading and studying her Bible which was much spiritual comfort to her in her last moments.

WHERE CAN YOU FIND BETTER.

Eastern Carolina offers to all energetic and reputable people who wish to better their fortune glad hands of welcome and promises them greater advantages than can be secured in any other portion of the globe. It offers them a fertile country capable of growing to perfection any of the crops grown in the mildest temperate climates; a country where an industrious man of average business ability can surely attain a competency. It has no extremes of heat or cold; a country where the summer breezes temper the rays of the sun, and where birds sing, flowers bloom and skies retain their summers breeze in the depth of winter. Yes, there can be no question but that this section affords conditions and advantages not found elsewhere. A beautiful land blessed in every way by a bountiful creator. Where can the world produce its equal?

Everywhere we are commencing to find the eyes of mankind turned to the South and especially on this one of its most favored sections.

Blest with a glorious climate, blest with a land capable of raising most of the best money crops in the world, blest with waters teeming with food fish, with forests of valuable timbers, with great water powers, situated in the midst of the raw material, with a wealth in her gold mines which will when turned into the channels of commerce surprise the world, why should this not be the coming El Dorado of modern adventure?

All needed to transform it is the push and energy of modern business methods coupled with sufficient capital to successfully build up its enterprises. To all those coming thus equipped Eastern Carolina offers a cordial welcome and assures them that well directed efforts will mean an abundant success.—Rocky Mount Argonaut.

A Good Watchword.

Economy should be the watchword of our Democratic legislature. Let all unnecessary offices be abolished, no matter how many Democrats may want to fill them. There is no use for one third of the pages and laborers employed by the legislature. We are in favor of letting the members put on their own overcoats and do like chores and save the taxpayers the money. Another thing we do not see any reason why the clerk should receive more pay than the members do. We can get plenty of good clerks for $3.00 per day instead of $5.00. All of these things will count up and if we inaugurate a system of rigid economy, the people will rise up and call us blessed.—Shelby Star.

Some Objects of Legislation.

The Legislature recently selected in North Carolina should aim to enact laws so needful, reasonable and good that all lovers of law and order would delight to obey them, and such as are not inclined to obey they should be taught to do so, or receive the just penalties of disobedience. The lawless class of our people need special attention. If they will not obey the laws then let them be rigidly punished. There has been too much pardoning of criminals in this State. When one is convicted it is too common for officers of law, including judge and jury, to sign petitions for his pardon. If he is not guilty do not convict him. If he is guilty fail not to punish him. Fear of punishment is the only terror to evil doers. Good men though will obey the law because they love order, peace and justice.

Abolish all unnecessary offices. Cut down officials, salaries and fees so that our taxes may be reduced. The people think it very grievous to pay high taxes when their labor is so poorly paid, in order to pay large salaries to office holders.

Avoid all unnecessary appropriations of the State's money.

Prove your capacity for legislation by enacting such laws only as will commend themselves to all patriots.—P. D. Gold in Wilson Times.

WONDERFUL INVENTION.

An uneducated colored youth in this county, named John Alston, has made an invention that may entirely revolutionize the motive power that propels machinery and do away with the use of steam power. This newly invented machinery is propelled by condensed air, which can be used as a motor at very little expense and is more powerful than steam power. The model he has made is a self-propelling car, or, as he calls it, a horseless carriage. How the machinery is arranged is concealed from view, by being boxed up or closed in one end of the car. When the machinery is put in motion it will keep going for an indefinite time. He ran it steadily at one time for a month. He will have his invention patented.—Pittsboro Record.

The Coast Line is putting in white men in place of colored men as firemen on all its trains. There will be white brakemen on the passenger trains. It is probable that colored brakemen will be continued on the freight trains. The policy of this road in future will be to give preference to white men for all jobs that white men will take. This is a good move on the part of this progressive road—patriotic and sensible. It is the best way to increase the white population in the country and decrease the number of negroes. It is a good plan for white employers to follow whenever practicable in every community.—Kinston Free Press.

Paid John Randolph once, "I have found the philosopher's stone. It consists of four short English words—'Pay as you go.'" In the midst of the unmistakably hard times and a general inability to pay what one owes, how eminently wise seems this simple language of the old Virginian. But nearly everybody has run into debt, deeply into debt. Few very few, have heeded the precept, "Pay as you go," and as a consequence times are hard. Of course, there are other things that will help to an improvement of our financial condition. But no one remedy could accomplish so much good as a thorough adhesion to the advice of these four monosyllables—"Pay as you go."—Fort Valley (Ga.) Leader.

PECULIAR POISONS.

GENERATED IN THE HUMAN BODY.

The Result of Imperfect Digestion of Food.

Every living thing, plant or animal, contains within itself the germs of certain decay and death.

In the human body these germs of disease and death (called by scientists Ptomaines), are usually the result of imperfect digestion of food; the result of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The stomach, from abuse, weakness, does not promptly and thoroughly digest the food. The result is a heavy, sodden mass which ferments (the first process of decay) poisoning the blood, making it thin, weak and lacking in red corpuscles; poisoning the brain causing headaches and pain in the eyes.

Bad digestion irritates the heart, causing palpitation and finally bringing on disease of this very important organ.

Poor digestion poisons the kidneys, causes Bright's disease and diabetes.

And this is so because every organ, every nerve depends upon the stomach alone for nourishment and renewal, and weak digestion shows itself not only in loss of appetite and flesh, but in weak nerves and muddy complexion.

The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to digest food properly, because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochloric) and peptogenic products; the most sensible remedy in all cases of indigestion, is to take after each meal, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack.

The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure every form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

They increase flesh, insure pure blood, strong nerves, a bright eye and clear complexion, because all these result only from wholesome food well digested.

Nearly all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents full sized package or by mail by enclosing price to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., but ask your druggist first.

A little book on stomach diseases mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt County made on the 25th day of November, 1898 in a certain Special Proceeding therein pending, entitled Jesse Cannon, Public Administrator, administering the estate of Amy Williamson, deceased, against Robert Williamson and others, I will on Monday, January 2nd, 1899, sell at public sale at the court house door in Greenville, to the highest bidder for cash, that certain lot in the town of Greenville, situated on the corner of Second and Cotanch streets and known in the plan of said town as lot number one hundred and twelve (112) JESSE CANNON, Public Adm'r. Administering the estate of Amy Williamson, dec'd.

Cox.

This Nov. 25th 1898.

R. GREENE, Admr.
 F. G. James, Attorney.

The Lady of the House.
 "The lady of the house," once esteemed a highly polite and conciliatory form of address is now, said a city dweller, "unfashionable and obsolete with those who pursue business by modern methods. In advance practice the custom is now to address the lady of the house by name, a method vastly more impressive and one susceptible of varied application. Thus an establishment with which we already have relations sends out a new circular, and this is left at the door by a man who says not 'for the lady of the house,' but 'the So-and-so sends this to Mrs. Blank.' This beats 'the lady of the house' out of sight and marks the refinement of modern methods of doing things."—New York Sun.

Some Sharp Sayings of Bismarck.
 Bismarck had the frankness to say that he looked upon the comedies of Dumas the younger, and indeed on most French plays of the lighter sort, as grossly corrupting to the public morals. "Panem et circenses," smiled De Morny. "Panem et saturnalia," muttered Bismarck.

"Prince Bismarck is respectfully requested," wrote the American, "to cable a few words in reference to the following question: What benefit will be derived in your grace's opinion from international expositions?"

On the margin of this the prince simply wrote in pencil, "None."—"Bismarck's Table Talk," by C. Lowe.

Weary's Sacred Promise.
 "No, madam, I cannot split the wood to which you so indelicately refer. It would be a violation of a sacred promise I made to me aged mother."
 "Nonsense! What kind of a promise?"

"We have the poker habit in our family, ma'am, and I promised mother I'd never touch a chip in any form."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Fall of Just Pride.
 One day soon after the Mulberry Bend park was laid out in the Italian quarter of New York the man who had had more to do with the good work than any one else was passing there. As he strode happily along, thinking of the tenements that used to stand there, the fresh, clean earth attracted him and he walked out upon it. Stamping joyously about, he exclaimed:
 "Fine, fine! They have planted the seed and soon the green grass will spring up under the warm sunshine. It is my proudest!"

Just then a park policeman who had slipped up behind him landed two vigorous whacks on the good man's back.
 "Git off'n th' grass, ye looney old crank!" he said. "Be off wid ye, quick now, an don't let me ketch ye 'round here ag'in or I'll run yo in. See? G'wan, now."
 The philanthropist had leaped wildly to the walk and his fist, doubled up with anger, but a second thought, that the "sparrow cop" was right, caused his hand to relax, and the maker of the park "moved on," sore but wise as ever.—New York Times.

WINE OF CARDUI
McELREY'S
Wine of Cardui

has demonstrated ten thousand times that it is almost infallible
FOR WOMAN'S PECULIAR WEAKNESSES,
 Irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? Wine of Cardui only costs $1.00 per bottle at your drug store.

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Rev. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: "My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her."

FOR RENT.—Dwelling house on West Fifth street with six rooms, stables, barns and all other needed out-buildings, including one and half acres of open ground well improved. Good well of water on premises. JOHN FLANAGAN.

LITTLE REFLECTIONS.

Every One of Them Sparkle.

These be cold days. Frost and ice are morning visitors. Court next week for the trial of civil cases.

The new county officers take charge next Monday.

North Carolina Conference at Elizabeth City this week.

Several places in the western part of the State had slight earthquake shocks Friday afternoon.

Others have been made happy, so can you, by buying a Standard Sewing Machine from S.M. Schultz.

The present Board of County Commissioners meet next Monday to wind up their affairs and turn over the county to the new Board.

FOR RENT.—In South Greenville a good house with six rooms, and stables and water on lot. Possession given first of next year. W. A. BRIGHT.

The Baptist State Convention comes next week. The committee on hospitality are now busy assigning the delegates whose names have come in.

Get your laundry ready to go off Wednesday morning. Nice work every time and always prompt. SHEPPARD & FORBES, Ag'ts Wilmington Steam Laundry.

Deputy Collector J. W. Perkins captured some packages of "moonshine" liquor here a night or two ago. There is said to be considerable illicit distilling going on in this county.

Gone Up

The Union Populist that flourished here for awhile previous to the election, does not seem to have recovered sufficiently from the shock to tell the news. Fact is that election business seems to have knocked its light out.

NAME PLATE.

How the Reflector Engraves Them.

H. A. Sutton is on the sick list. R. W. King went to Richmond today.

Mrs. Pattie Winstead, of Rocky Mount, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home today.

Rev. L. O. Wyche, pastor of the Greenville circuit, left this morning to attend the North Carolina Conference at Elizabeth City.

Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of the Methodist church, left this morning for Elizabeth City to attend the North Carolina Conference.

The cotton market is up several points from Saturday's prices.

No one can guarantee the results of an ad; for once printed it never dies, and may bring returns years hence.—Electrical Review.

Everybody reads the newspapers nowadays, even to the poorest and the humblest. It is the only method by which the eyes of thousands of people can be caught at the least expense.—Des Moines (Ia.) News.

A visitor to this place last week had in his pocket forty United States Treasury notes each for $1,000, making a total of $40,000. This is more ready money than was listed for taxation last year by all the people of Chatham.—Chatham Record.

Advertisements represent goods. The more accurately they represent them, the better advertisements they are. Advertising which misrepresents, either by exaggeration or by inadequacy, is bad advertising. The nearer an advertisement can get to the plain, naked truth, the more likely it is to be profitable. Newspaper men understand that unreliability in the matter of news is worse than no news at all. Advertisers are learning the same lesson. They have been long in learning it, and the tuition has been expensive.—Adwriter.

Lowers the Record

At the recent fair held here the race record of the Greenville track and also of the State was lowered. Lampgirl, owned by J. R. Bull, of Maryland, trotted a mile in 2:17. The best time ever made on this track before was 2:20, and the best time ever made on any other track in the State was 2:18, which was made at Raleigh. This gives Greenville the record for the State.

Good Advice.

Don't expect the advertisement in the newspaper to work miracles. When you advertise a special sale of anything make the store look as though there was really something special taking place. Make a prominent display of the goods advertised, and, if possible, have the prices marked in plain figures. Help the ad do its work.—Saginaw (Mich.) News.
