METHODIST CONFERENCE

Elizabeth City, N. C. Dec. 1.— The second day's session of the North Carolina Conference was devoted largely to routine business.

A touching letter was read from Uncle Jesse Cunningham, which moved many to tears. The bishop asked all to unite in singing "How Firm a Foundation." The bishop announced the following committee on Publishing House claim: Clerical, W. C. Norman, R. B.
John and J. E. Underwood; lay, H. C. Wall and L. L. Smith.

D. J. H. Pritchett, representing the mission board, of Nashville, Tenn., made an earnest plea for greater activity in the missionary cause, especially by and through Sunday Schools.

The report of the trustees of Greensboro Female College was referred to a committee.

Rev. W. B. Moore, of the North Carolina Conference was announced as being transferred to the Virginia Conference.

Presiding Elder Beaman, of the Wilmington district, stated that Revs. Kell and Crumpler, of the local ranks, have left the Methodist church and returned their credentials.

Question twenty was resumed, and charges reported. Most of the reports were of such a character as to receive the bishop's commendation.
Main Street church, Durham, Rev. G. A. Oglesby, pastor, reported over twenty-four dollars contributed per member.

Rev. T. A. Law, field superintendent of the American Bible Society, addressed the Conference briefly, asking the preachers to make an earnest effort for large collections, that the poor of our own land as well as our West Indian and Philippine colonies may be provided with the word of God.

Rev. N. M. Journey made a powerful appeal for contributions to finish Craven Memorial Hall, Trinity College, and raised over one hundred and fifty dollars.

The committee on Conference relations reported, recommending the continuance of seven aged preachers on the list of superan-nuates and adding the names of Rev. Jesse A. Cunningham and Peter L. Herman.

The Grace Street Church, Wilmington, was called, Rev. A. P.
Tyre made an excellent report and said they hoped to entertain the next conference.

The presiding elder of Washington district stated in Conference yesterday they expected to secure the next session of the Conference there, so there will be several invitations.

A HURRICANE

of Winter Bargains.

We are going to sweep the deck for the next few days with a Storm of Inducements. It may tear down great walls of competition, but we can't help it. Whatever or whoever stands in our Knock Down and Drag Out Bargains must take the consequences. This warm winter was about to leave too many goods on our counters, tables and shelves. The coldest part of the year has arrived and these goods must get a move on them. All kinds of CLOTHING from the cheapest to the highest—they must all move lively. Come early.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2, '98.

Mr. McKinley has made it plain to Senators and Representatives, who have called upon him since Spain agreed to our terms for the surrender of the Philippines to us that he has not made up his mind what we ought to do with the Philippines and will not do so until we have had them under military control long enough to get the information necessary to form an intelligent opinion. That sort of talk has strengthened the chances of the treaty of peace for ratification at this session of Congress, as it coincides with the opinion of three-fourths of the Senators regardless of party. The opinion is practically unanimous that the taking of the islands away from Spain was the right thing to do, but there the unanimity ends. What sort of a government will follow our military rule of the islands nobody can say at this time. It will depend largely upon public sentiment in this country, and that will be governed by circumstances.

By putting in a vigorous protest Senator Jones, of Arkansas, succeeded in getting the War Department to change the orders assigning the Twenty-fifth infantry (negroes) to garrison duty at Fort Logan H. Root, near Little Rock, and having a white regiment, the Twelfth infantry, ordered there instead.

Maj. Gen. W. C. Butler, who was ordered from Havana, where he was serving as one of the Military Commissioners to Washington, to confer with the authorities in regard to the military occupation of Cuba, has gone to South Carolina to spend a few days with his family before returning to Cuba. While in Washington, Gen. Butler spoke freely to his friends of his experience in Cuba. He says the Spanish soldiers are orderly and well-behaved as a rule, and that the Cubans are bright and many of them well-educated and fully capable of administering the government of the island. He thinks the Spaniards who will remain in Cuba will get along amicably with the Cubans. Gen. Butler declined to express an opinion as to how long it would be before the government of Cuba was turned over to the Cubans, because it will be largely dependent upon circumstances.

The two Democratic Governors-elect—Sayers, of Texas, and McMillin, of Tennessee—who are members of the House will be missed when they retire. Mr. McMillin, the date of whose inauguration will be fixed by the Legislature which meets the first Monday in January, will retain his seat in the House until after the adjournment for the holiday recess, and Mr. Sayers, who is the leading Democrat on the Committee on Appropriations, and whose inauguration as Governor will take place January 17th, will keep his seat up to the last minute, so as to have a hand in shaping as many of the appropriation bills as possible before retiring. Governor Sayers is conservative on the expansion question.

Beauty Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Eatin to-day to brush pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All drug stores, satisfaction guaranteed. 10c. 25c. 50c.

RUNNING FOR OFFICE.

Some of the Things a Candidate Sometimes Undergoes.

The following is the expense account of a defeated candidate in the late campaign:

Lost 4 months, 33 days canvassing; also lost 4,349 hours of sleep thinking about the election, 5 acres of cotton, several barns of tobacco, a whole potato crop, 23 acres of corn; gave away 4 sheep, 5 shoats and a beef; lost two front teeth and a considerable quantity of hair in a personal skirmish. Gave away 97 plugs of tobacco, 7 Sunday school books, 2 pairs of suspenders, 4 calico dresses, 6 dolls and 43 baby rattles.

Told 2,987 lies, shook hands 23,578 times, talked enough to have in print 1,000 large volumes size of patent office reports, kissed 126 babies, kindled 14 kitchen fires, cut 3 cords of wood, pulled 472 bundles of fodder, picked 479 pounds of cotton, dug 14 bushels of potatoes, helped gather 7 wagon loads of corn, carried 25 buckets of water, put up 7 stoves, was dog bit 3 times, and had watch broken up by a baby which cost $3 to have repaired.

Loaned out three barrels of flour, 20 bushels of meal, 150 pounds of bacon, 57 pounds of butter, 12 dozen eggs, 3 umbrellas, 13 lead pencils, 1 Bible dictionary, 1 mowing blade, 2 hoes, 1 overcoat, 2 boxes paper collars, none of which have been returned.

Called my opponent a perambulating liar, in consequence of which have had to pay a doctor's bill of $10. Had five arguments with my wife—result 1 flower vase smashed, 1 dish of hash knocked off the table, 1 shirt bosom ruined, 2 handfuls of whiskers pulled out, 10 cents worth of sticking plaster bought. Besides spending $1,768.—Durham Sun.

After The Negro Firemen.

A News reporter learned this morning that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, have filed their request with the different roads of the country asking that the negro firemen now in the employ of these roads be dismissed.

This request is in accord with a resolution that was passed at the annual meeting of this order that was recently held in Norfolk.—Charlotte News.

Will be Brought Here.

At the Baptist Mission Rooms, on Fayetteville street, the only picture of Martin Ross now in existence is on exhibition. This portrait is the property of Dr. R. P. Dillard, of Edenton, who prizes it most highly. Martin Ross is considered by Baptists as the father of the Baptist State convention, and Dr. Dillard has loaned the picture to the convention to put on exhibition at its session in Greenville next week, that town being the convention's birth-place.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Counting Official Vote.

The Secretary of State began yesterday the canvass of the official vote cast November 8th for the judicial and Congressional tickets.

The undertaking is a slow and tedious one, as the tabulators have to be very painstaking. It is hardly possible that any of the majorities will be obtainable until late this evening. After working all day yesterday, the vote had been tabulated down to the county of Lenoir, according to the alphabetical run of the counties.

The returns show that the clerks of the court have been grossly careless in making out the returns. Over 15,000 votes are reported cast for George H. Brown in the official returns, whereas they should have been reported cast for George H. Brown, Jr. This large discrepancy was noticed in a little over half the counties from the which the returns have been opened, and it may even go to a higher figure. Some counties reported their vote cast for George "J." Brown. This is an inexcusable clerical error. All the Democratic judicial tickets were printed from the same press and they all read George H. Brown, Jr., and they were so voted in the State.

The Secretary of State says he has no authority to give the vote reported for George H. Brown to George H. Brown Jr., so Judge Brown's vote is divided in three columns, that for George J. Brown, that for George H. Brown, and that for George H. Brown, Jr.

W. P. Bynum, Jr., the Republican candidate for judge of the Fifth District, suffered in a like manner because his name was not affixed with a "Jr." In fact, the names of all the candidates have been "bulled" in some of the counties. It is no fault of the people. The votes were cast right, but it is the result of carelessness with county officers.

For instance, the county of Clay, in the official returns, does not record a vote for Judge O. H. Allen. Thos. A. McNeill, his opponent, is credited with his vote, but a blank space is below the name of Judge Allen. Edgecombe returns her vote for "T. H." McNeill, instead of Thos. A. McNeill. Some counties left out letters in the names of the judges elected. Cleveland's vote is recorded for Thos "A." Shaw, instead of Thos. J. Shaw. Gaston's vote was returned in favor of W. "J." Bynum, Jr..

The counties, whose vote is reported as being cast for Judge George H. Brown without the "Jr." are Harnett, Hyde, Dare, Duplin, Edgecombe, Forsythe, Guilford, Caswell, Chatham and Clay.

The following counties reported their vote as cast for W. P. Bynum with the "Jr." left off: Jackson, Johnston, Granville, Greene, Camden, Caswell, Chatham, Cherokee, Chowan and Clay.

Davie and Alleghany's vote was returned as being cast for W. J. Bynum.

Of course these errors can be rectified. But if the Democracy had not triumphed by such a large majority, contests would very likely have resulted.—Raleigh Post.

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since. Mrs. J. STINSON

The Railroad Attitude Toward a Separate Car Law.

There is no doubt about the fact that a large measure of unpopularity attaches to the railroads of this State. In this regard North Carolina may not be singular; we are speaking only of North Carolina now. Some of this dislike is founded on reason and some of it is not; but it exists, and on account of it a railroad company can seldom get justice in the courts and suffers in many other ways. We have told the railroads before of some of the causes of their being in disfavor, a prime cause being that in any matter of a claim against them they are uncompromising, unyielding without regard to the merits of the case, they fight it to a finish losing nearly always, because of the character they have established for contesting everything, whether they are right or wrong.

Now we are going to tell them something else: Another reason for their unpopularity is their resistance of the reasonable demands of the public upon them as regards train and station accommodations and kindred matters. The separate car matter is a case in point.
The popular demand for separate car legislation is unanimous, yet the railroads, instead of yielding a prompt and cheerful acquiescence to a reasonable public opinion, are stripped and girded for a fight upon it. It is very foolish, and it is astonishing that the railroad people, who have never been charged with a lack of sense, do not see the folly of it. The separate car law is coming. It will come through the next Legislature through the railroad commission or through the Legislature of 1901.
It may be staved off, but it is coming, and in the meantime the railroads will have accumulated a lot more of unnecessary unpopularity without any corresponding benefit beyond the mere postponement of the day.—Charlotte Observer.

A BIG HAUL.

Mr. J. B. White's Store Robbed.

Friday night was stormy, rain coming down heavily through most of the night. It was such a night as thieves usually select to carry on their plundering, and a heavy haul was made on the store of Mr.
J. B. White. A rear window to his store was broken open and the thieves entered through it. His stock was very generally ransacked and so far he has missed goods aggregating a value of about $200.
Among the articles stolen were several pairs of shoes and pants, a lot of dress goods and other piece goods, two guns, a belt of loaded shells, several knives and other articles that could be easily carried away. A strip was cut off a roll of oilcloth, presumably to wrap some of the goods in. So far there is no clue to the robbery, but we hope the thieves can be caught.

Spare-rib and sausage time have Not Guilty.

In Beaufort county Superior Court the jury this afternoon brought in a verdict of not guilty for Ade Dudley, against whom the grand jury had found a true bill for murder in the second degree for killing Henry Wilkinson, colored, in a barroom at Washington on Friday night, Nov. 25th. The trial was in progress two days.
Mr. Dudley's friends here are glad that he was acquitted.

Almost a Fire.

Early Friday night there came very near being a fire on the premises of Mr. H. A. White. Fire was discovered burning rapidly in a load of lightwood in the feed room adjoining his stables. The fire was put with a few buckets of water and no general alarm was given. It is not known how the fire started.
