METHODIST CONFERENCE

Elizabeth City, N. C., Dec. 5.—The weather was a great disappointment yesterday to the many visitors, who were hoping for a clear day. It rained heavily until about 1 o'clock.

The first service was the love feast at the Methodist church, led by Rev. W. C. Norman, of Raleigh.

At 11 o'clock Bishop Fitzgerald preached a sermon on the treasures we should lay up in heaven.

Dr. Kilgo preached in the morning and also at night at the Methodist church. His sermon in the morning is considered by many to surpass all his previous efforts.

The services at all the churches at night were considerably interfered with by the electric lights failing.

Conference reassembled this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Dr. Yates presented, in a graceful little speech to the bishop, a gold pen and cut glass, silver-top ink-fount, requesting its use in the chapters to be devoted to North Carolina Methodists in the bishop's new book.

The bishop was so deeply moved by this taken from the Conference that he could hardly express his appreciation.

Dr. Norman asked for a reconsideration of the book claim report, saying he thought the money should be unconditionally returned to the government, but the conference declined to take such action.

Question one was called, and a class of seven young preachers were admitted on trial. At 11 o'clock the class of five elders were ordained.

Presiding Elder Rone offered a resolution calling the attention of Northern Methodist brethren to the encroachment of that church upon the territory of Southern Methodists. It passed.

Rev. W. A. Jenkins, of the paper committee, made a report, recommending the election of a publishing committee who shall form a stock company to buy half of the North Carolina Christian Advocate stock and arrange for publishing a conference organ.

The report was adopted and Dr. Ivey chosen editor.

Dr. Barbee, of Nashville, addressed the Conference in behalf of the Nashville Advocate and other publications.

A collection for Revs. Snow, Strider and Herman was taken, they being in ill health.

The Conference adjourned at 1 o'clock and met again at 3 to hear reports from the various committees.

The one of chief interest related to Trinity College management, which the committee strongly endorsed. The report was received with applause. President Kilgo was frequently applauded when speaking of the college and its future which he declared was brighter than ever before in its history. The report was adopted.

CONVENTION DELEGATES.

And By Whom Entertained.

Since publishing the list of delegates in Monday's REFLECTOR there have been some changes and some additions. The changes are:

Mrs. O. D. Thomas who was published as the guest of J. R. Moyer at the Osmund House has been changed to Mrs. King at the King House. A. E. Dickinson who was published as a guest of Mrs. King will be entertained by J. R. Moys at the Osmund House. L. N. Chappell takes the place of J. F. Tuttle who was to be entertained by A. A. Forbes.

The new assignments are:

H. Morris, by J. S. Congleton at Hotel Macon.

L. G. Cole, by H. W. Whedbee at Hotel Macon.

Miss Elizabeth S. Latham, by Miss Etta Hines at King House.

J. T. Betts, by Mrs. M. D. Higgs at King House.

There are some other assignments yet to be made.

Robbed on the Road.

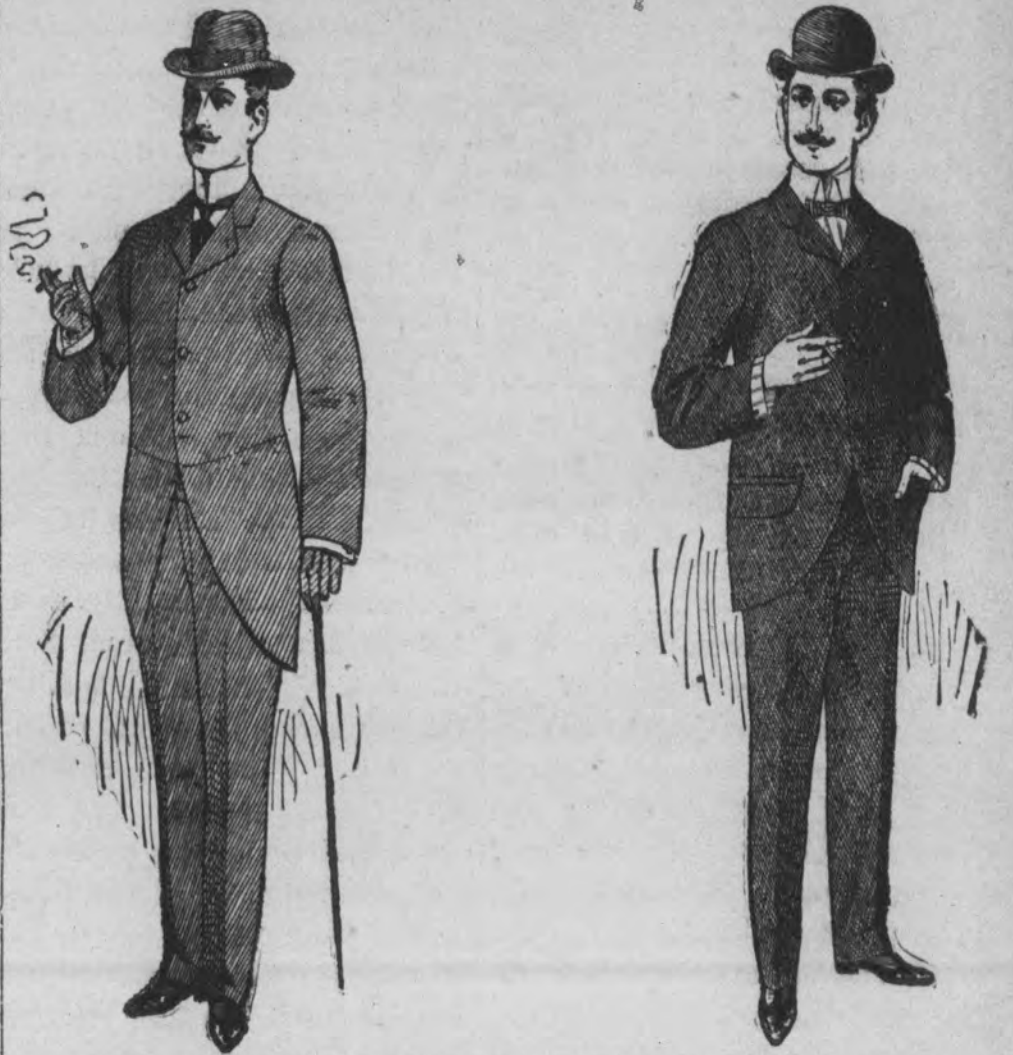

Mr. S. G. Nine, of Contentnia township, sold a load of tobacco here Tuesday. As he was getting ready to leave town a colored man helped him hitch up his team and asked to be allowed to ride with him, as he, (the colored man) was going the same road. When a secluded part of the road, about three miles from town, was reached the colored man dealt Mr. Nine a blow that rendered him senseless and robbed him of $57. Mr. Nine was here today to have a warrant issued and says he will give a liberal reward for the arrest of the negro.

Some Conference Appointments.

Tuesday evening THE REFLECTOR received a telegram from Elizabeth City, but too late to print that day, giving the following appointments made by the North Carolina Conference: Presiding Elder of Washington District, B. R. Hall, Greenville, N. M. Watson; Ayden, —Betts; Grimesland, N. A. Seabolt; Tarboro, H. B. Anderson; Wilson, J. B. Hurley; Washington, L. L. Nash; Rocky Mount, R. J. Moorman.

A HURRICANE

of Winter Bargains.

We are going to sweep the deck for the next few days with a Storm of Inducements. It may tear down great walls of competition, but we can't help it. Whatever or whoever stands in our Knock Down and Drag Out Bargains must take the consequences. This warm winter was about to leave too many goods on our counters, tables and shelves. The coldest part of the year has arrived and these goods must get a move on them. All kinds of CLOTHING from the cheapest to the highest—they must all move lively. Come early.

MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Some History of Early Baptists in Pitt County and of the Greenville Church.

There is no written record concerning the organization of the Baptist church in Greenville save the statement in an old deed in Book H. H., page 98 of the records of Pitt county, that the church was constituted July 2nd, 1827. This deed bears date of Sept. 10th, 1832, was for the lot on which the present Memorial church stands, and was from Joe B. Judkins to Redding S. Blount, a Trustee of the church. In another deed on page 99 of the same book, dated April 26, 1836, Redding S. Blount transferred the lot to David Lawrence, a Trustee of the church.

There is no other recorded history of the early years of the church. It is known that Mr. David Lawrence was for many years clerk of the church, and when his home was burned in 1866 the church conference books containing all records were destroyed. New records had to be started and were kept through thirty years, when in 1895 the home of Mr. L. W. Lawrence, who was then and is now clerk of the church, was burned and all records were again destroyed.

From an authentic source we learn that Rev. Thos. D. Mason was the first man known to be settled as pastor of the church. He was here in 1827, the year in which the old deed above referred to says the church was organized, hence must have been the first pastor. He was present and took part in the organization of the Baptist State Convention here in 1830. Soon afterwards he moved away.

Prior to this, and as far back as the middle of the eighteenth century, 1755, the Baptists were established in Pitt county. Rhame, Noble and Joseph Parker, were among the early preachers. John Wingfield (now Winfield) settled on North creek, in Beaufort county, about 1730, and he traveled into Pitt county and preached sometimes. In 1756 Dr. McAden, the first Presbyterian missionary to visit North Carolina, preached for the Baptists at Red Banks. Great Swamp, four miles from Greenville is probably the oldest Baptist church in this section, Greenville coming next and then Tranter's creek. Great Swamp and Tranter's creek are now Primitive Baptist churches.

It is not known how long it was after the organization of the church before a house of worship was built, but it is said that the congregation worshipped for some years in an academy building on the lot opposite where the Methodist church now stands. A house of worship was no doubt built soon after the purchase of the lot in 1832.

From the time of Mason down to the present the church has had a succession of able pastors and her history has been in every way honorable. Among the early pastors were Henry Spivey, McDonald, Gwaltney, S. S. Wallace, T. R. Owen, P. D. Gold, Taylor, Simpson and others.

Rev. Thos. Carrick was pastor of the church for ten years, and it was largely through his efforts that the old wooden house of worship (now used by Hickory Hill Baptist church, colored) was supplanted by the handsome brick memorial building we have here today. This beautiful and substantial house was built as a memorial to the organization of the State Convention here. Work on the building was begun in June, 1883, and the basement was completed so that the first service could be held in it in June, 1884. During the progress of that portion of the work the congregation worshipped in the Court House. From 1884 to the completion of the building in 1890, all the services of the church were held in the basement.

In October, 1890, the Tar River Association met here and on Sunday, 12th, the memorial building was dedicated. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, then of Wilmington, preached the dedicatory sermon. The total cost of the building was about $13,000, more than half of which was paid by people around Greenville. The house was seven years in building from the fact that the work was frequently interrupted by a lack of funds. However, the struggles and hardships endured were forgotten in the joy that filled all souls on the day that the building was dedicated to the service of God.

Since the pastorate of Mr. Carrick the church has been served as pastor by Revs. J. W. Wildman A. D. Hunter, J. H. Lambeth, C. M. Billings, E. D. Wells and A. W. Setzer, and B. W. Spilman and G. L. Finch served a short while as supply. Several of these former pastors are to be with us during the Convention this week and what a joy it will be to greet them once more.

Those delegates to the Convention who have never visited Greenville before, but have heard much of the memorial church, can view the building for themselves and form their own conclusions as to whether it is a fitting memorial to the organization of the Convention. Greenville is proud of it.

THE REFLECTOR acknowledges indebtedness to Dr. J. D. Huffman for information about the early history of the Baptists in Pitt county.

How Miss Dix Won.

To the work and influence of Dorothy L. Dix was due the creation of the British lunacy commission, which has ameliorated the condition of insane persons in England and led to reforms in many other countries. When the bill establishing the commission was under discussion in the House of Lords one of the members said: "To our shame, be it said, we owe the origin of this work of humanity to a foreigner, that foreigner an American, and that American a woman."

In her early attempts to right the wrongs of the insane, Miss Dix met only discouragement and coolness, or indifference, which is worse but she did not cease to labor, and if she ever lost heart no one but herself knew it. She asked for an interview with the chairman of the most important house committee in the North Carolina Legislature. He declined the interview under pretext of pressure of business.

"Very well," wrote Miss Dix, "I must see you. You will call on me or I shall call on you."

The chairman then went to see Miss Dix. He entered the room, hat in hand, a bundle of papers under his arm, and declined the proffered chair.

"I have called," he said. "I am in haste. Will you make your business known as quickly as possible?"

The lady began to speak. Eloquently she pleaded the cause of the insane. She spoke from a full heart and a well stored mind. Her listner became interested; he forgot that he was in a hurry, sat down, piled his papers on the floor, and heard with rapt attention. The interview lasted three hours, and the chairman was won over to the cause, and he was ever after a strong ally of Miss Dix in her noble work. Thirty-three lunatic asylums in this country owe their beginning to Miss Dix.—Youth's Companion.

DR. WURTH'S OPINION.

OF THE NEW DISCOVERY IN MEDICINE.

A Remarkably Successful Remedy for Dyspepsia Indigestion and Stomach Troubles

Dr. Wurth in commenting on recent discoveries in medicine said: There is none which is certain to be so valuable and far reaching in benefit as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the new stomach remedy; I say far reaching, because people little realize how important a sound stomach and vigorous digestion is to every man, woman and child.

Indigestion is the starting point of consumption, heart disease, Bright's disease, diabetes, nervous prostration, liver troubles; why is this so? Simply because every nerve, muscle and tissue in our bodies is created and nourished from the food we eat. If that food is, by reason of a weak stomach, compelled to lie for hours, a sour, fermenting mass of half digested food, it poisons the blood and nervous system, creates gas which distends the stomach and bowels, causing pressure of the heart, lungs and other organs, and seriously impeding their action.

He says further, the point to direct attention is not the nerves, nor heart, nor lungs, nor kidneys, but the stomach, the first cause of all the mischief.

The remedy to use for indigestion and weak stomachs is not some cathartic, but a remedy which will digest the food, increase the flow of gastric juice, absorb the gases, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will accomplish exactly this result in any case of stomach trouble, because these tablets are composed of the digestive acids, aseptic pepsin, Golden Seal and bismuth, pleasant to taste, and not being a patent medicine, can be used by anyone with perfect safety. I believe Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any form of indigestion and stomach trouble except cancer of stomach.

Full size packages of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents or by mail from F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. A book on stomach diseases together with thousands of testimonials will be sent by addressing above or call on your druggist for them.

IF NOTE THE NAME.

A correspondent of the Wilmington Star calls attention to the importance to a community of small industrials and what is said for Wilmington is applicable to every town in the State. Every effort to establish any enterprise that will give employment to home labor, and utilize the native products should be encouraged in every way possible. The more employment that can be given to labor in a community to those who are required to labor for support of themselves and families, the more prosperous that community will become. It is neither necessary or best that all enterprises in a community should be of one kind—though this would be better than none at all—but the greater diversity the greater use will be made of raw materials produced at home, and therefore a larger employment of people, of various capacities. There can be no community in which all of its laboring people are steadily employed according to capacity that will not be a prosperous, and therefore a contented community. We believe that capital will now seek this State. Let our people encourage it to do so by not only assuring all investments just treatment, but all the encouragement that reasonable support can give it.—Raleigh Post.

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsillitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since. MRS. J. STINSON Eagie, Iredell Co., N. C. North Carolina Internal Revenue Statistics.

Washington, Dec. 3.—Statistics are very dry reading, but it is only by presenting them that North Carolina's position as a contributor to the government's revenue can be shown. As a contributor to the internal revenue she ranks twelfth in the list of States, and among the Southern States only Maryland and Virginia excel her. She contributed $3,250,213 during the past fiscal year.

Notwithstanding this large contribution to the government's revenue, North Carolina had next to Georgia, had more illicit stills seized and destroyed than any other State. They numbered 557, of which 219 were seized in the Fourth and 338 in the Fifth districts. It cost to make these seizures $11,850 and the value of the property seized is reported at $73,021.

The report of Internal Revenue Commissioner Scott, from which these figures are taken, further shows that there are in North Carolina 219 registered tobacco manufacturers, a decrease since last year of 13; registered cigar manufacturers, 48, an increase of 6; of registered leaf tobacco dealers, 305. During the last fiscal year there were manufactured in North Carolina 92,282 cigars, and cigarettes to the enormous number of 825,734,200. Only New York and Virginia rank her in this branch of the tobacco industry.

In the 219 tobacco manufactories of the State 35,487,355 pounds of leaf tobacco was used, 1,023,669 pounds of sugar, and when completed, with other materials, the finished product weighed 40,513,639 pounds.

Of the tobacco manufactured 25,311,312 pounds was plug, 4,600,233 pounds smoking, and 49,272 pounds snuff. The amount of tobacco sold was 30,376,368 pounds, upon which stamps to the amount of $1,882,582 were placed.

The total number of persons who pay direct internal revenue taxes to the government in North Carolina is 1,400.

Of the 1,452 registered distilleries in the State operated, 954 are fruit and 498 grain. These distilleries used 21,427 bushels of malt, 1,735 bushels of wheat, 21,296 bushels rye, and 188,212 bushels of corn, and of the 49,427 gallons of fruit brandy produced 47,492 gallons was the enticing apple-jack.

Makes Corrupt Politics.

We are sorry to see in an exchange a correspondent who is evidently wanting an office for himself or some friend making such expressions as the following: There is but very little inducement for a young man without influence to vote the Democratic ticket, for they are as a general thing, side-tracked for the old 'moss-backs' of the party because they are supposed to have influence." We should say that every young man with or without "influence" whose inducement to vote the Democratic ticket is not far above some official reward should be sidetracked. It is this following after inducements rather than patriotic motives that makes corrupt politics.—Concord Standard.

JUST FOR FUN

The tobacco business appears to be a cut and dried affair. This is the season of the year when the "open door" policy creates an awful disturbance. "Your husband seems to take a great interest in the political situation, Mrs. McManus." "The more reason he should bedad; it tuk him a devil ov a toime to get it."

WINE OF CARDUI
McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui
 has demonstrated ten thousand times that it is almost infallible
FOR WOMAN'S PECULIAR WEAKNESSES, irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? Wine of Cardui only costs $1.00 per bottle at your drug store.
 For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
 Rev. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: "My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her."

There were many applications for the position, but a better selection could not have been made. The King's Daughters, who take a deep interest in the Home, remembering Mr. Smith's faithful services there under a former Democratic administration, presented a strong petition to the Board and had a representative present to urge his appointment.
