WOULD NOT HAVE IT.

Before Attorney General Walser rendered his opinion, in which he held that Judge Geo. H. Brown, Jr., was entitled to the certificate of election as Judge of the First Judicial District, his opponent for that office, Hon. A. M. Moore wrote Governor Russell a letter waiving all claim to the Judgeship. We give the letter herewith which speaks for itself:

I am without information as to the election of Judge for the First Judicial District other than that contained in the recent issues of the Raleigh papers.

I have no knowledge or intimation as to what action you will take in the matter, but I have a very clear opinion as to what my duty is, and I feel that I can best discharge it by relieving the situation of any uncertainty or embarrassment which may exist.

Judge Brown and I were the only candidates for Judge of that district and it is fair to presume that the electors who cast their ballots believed that they were voting for one or the other of us and did not intend to vote for any other person for that position. On the face of the returns I am probably entitled to receive the certificate of election and your commission as Judge, but the same returns show that I did not receive a majority of such intended votes.

I desire to say that under such conditions I waive any right or claim I may have to such certificate and commission. I could not without a sacrifice of my self-respect, and an entire surrender of my conscientious convictions qualify in and hold the office; and I think that the title to the office of Judge should above all others be free from suspicion.

I write frankly to you, though some carping critic might say that my action in the premises is premature, but I feel sure that neither you nor any honorable gentleman will so consider it, or question my motive.
Very truly yours,
AUG. M. MOORE.

ENJOYED THE DAY.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Please allow me space in your paper to express to the committee of the Baptist State Convention here, our appreciation of the valuable service rendered to us on Sunday, Dec. 11th, by sending two eminent Divines to preach the Word of God to us. We had Rev. C. E. Gower with us at eleven o'clock, and Rev. J. S. Porter at 7:30 o'clock. Both preached able sermons and we were greatly edified thereby.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Dec. 14th.—Rev. Mr. Rowan Cooper's baby which has been very low, died this morning.

Rev. C. S. Cashwell preached for us Sunday, and a more heartfelt sermon than his is seldom heard.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. has 100 pair of cart wheels for sale at from $10 to $12.50.

Mr. Ballard a railroad man spent Tuesday night and last night in town. He went to Snow Hill yesterday to get his horse, and will go over right of way of the new railroad from here to its terminus in Hyde county on horse back. His business is getting up the right of way.

Mr. E. G. Cox, traveling salesman for Winterville Cigar Co., and Wire fence Co., left Monday morning on his trip to the Roanoke River section. He will be gone several days and will probably take in Washington.

Rev. R. D. Carroll and wife accompanied by his wife's sister, Miss Rosa Davis, are with us to spend the holidays. This is Bro. Carroll's old home. We are glad to see him and hope to have him preach for us several times before he goes back.

Look out for the new circular about to be issued by the Wire Fence Co. It will be in the form of a dialogue between agent and customers and will give you some interesting figures.

Saturday evening officers passed here with six prisoners accused of the Ayden robbery and bound for jail.

Haynie's Special Cigar in Greenville.

J. L. Wooten, the Druggist has, just received a large supply of the great Haynie Special Cigar. Haynie's Special is a 5c cigar with a Sumatra wrapper, Havana filler and a connecticut wrapper for a binder. They are guaranteed to equal any 10c cigar manufactured in the world. They have met with a large sale wherever they have been introduced and as Greenville people always want the best thing for their money no doubt they will have a large sale in Greenville. Don't fail to go and see J. L. WOOTEN the Druggist and get a Haynie Special Cigar.

The joy of the people of North Carolina in the Democratic victory of the 8th of November is continuous. There is evidence of this in the numerous celebrations of it which have been held in the State. There was quite a remarkable proof of it in Charlotte yesterday in the fact that as Judge Dossey Battle entered the court house to open his first court here, the people took off their hats and cheered him. It is doubtful if there was ever a similar demonstration in the State before. Again last night, as Judge Battle entered the opera house, he was applauded. Both incidents must have been very gratifying to him, as an individual and as a Democrat.—Charlotte Observer.

A POPULAR MISTAKE.

Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact, indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigorous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning from poor digestion; thin, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect indigestion.

When nearly every person you see is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that nearly every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles, when in fact, as Dr. Werthier says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but if is a scientific combination of pure pepsin (free from animal matter), vegetable essences, fruit salts and bismouth. It is sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extravagant claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered. They act on the food eaten, no dieting is necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results, because all the stomach needs is a rest which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion. Druggists sell these tablets at 50cts. per package. Circulars and testimonials sent free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

STATE NEWS.

A 16-year-old boy who was assistant postmaster at Apex, was convicted in the Federal Court of opening letters sent to his sweetheart by another boy, and was sentenced to imprisonment for 60 days.

 NOTE THE NAME.

A few weeks before the election an eastern city was moved to indignation at the sight of a white convict chained to a negro felon, and made such a stir about it that the officer having charge of the men was compelled to loose the bonds that held them together. Last week Winston witnessed a similar spectacle when a white man and a negro, chained together, were marched through the streets under guard, and nothing was heard of it except through the newspapers. Such an outrage against the white race, even in the person of an offender against the law, should not be regarded as less offensive now than in the heat of a political campaign. Public sentiment in Winston ought to be strong enough to prevent a repetition of the outrage.—Raleigh Post.

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING
Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis.
 The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs.
 Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since. MRS. J. STINSON Eggle, Iredell Co., N. C.

A New Cotton Bale.

The News has received a long description of the new Lowry cotton bale, one of the presses being now in operation at Monticello, Georgia.
 The advantages claimed for it are that it will enhance the value of your cotton from $3.00 to $3.50 for every 500 pounds of lint cotton;
 will make every station an independent cotton market; will obviate one entire handling in pressing the old square bale; saves in bagging and ties; saves in storage;
 saves in insurance; consumes a large amount of your raw cotton for a covering that will be made of cotton by cotton mills; justifies railroads in reducing freight rates;
 guarantees a reduction in ocean freights, for it will double storage capacity and load ships without the necessity of ballast, guarantees large reduction in stevedore charges at port of lading, for the bale will not have to be screwed in, but will load like barrels of flour, and be unloaded with the same ease at the port of discharge.

This is practically the same advantages that were claimed for the round bale. It remains to be seen whether the ginner will adopt the new method.

Any innovation in the cotton industry has to pass so many mediums, the planter, ginner, dealer, exporter, buyer and consumer, that it stands a poor chance of adoption.—ews.

Mistakes.

Considering that there are usually some five or six hundred items in a newspaper, and that in these items there are something like two hundred thousand letters, it is not surprising that mistakes sometimes occur.

The bank makes a mistake, and no one learns of it except the officers, clerks and the fellow on the outside who got the money, and neither will tell it," says the Sedalia (Mo.) Bazaar.

The merchant makes a mistake and he never tells it unless on the witness stand in a court of justice.

The lawyer makes a mistake, and he wiggles and twists or prevaricates until he clears it up, on the outside, at least.

The politician makes a mistake,
 and he gets out of it by assuming the personality of Ananias, and it is laid at the door of the other fellow.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

McELREY'S Wine of Cardui

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

W. I. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."
