BETTER CAR

Needed For First-Class Travel.

THE REFLECTOR believes that the authorities of the Atlantic Coast Line desire to do what is best for the patrons of their road, and we make a suggestion hoping they may see the wisdom of acting upon it. That is, that they put a better first-class passenger coach on their train running between Weldon and Kinston. The car on this train is a very inferior one, and we know the traveling public would appreciate an improvement. The run between the two points mentioned takes nearly four hours, and we doubt if the travel on any other branch road of the system is so good as on this. Passengers leaving the splendid cars of the main line comment on the marked contrast. The first-class coach on this line has a very old appearance, the lamps give only a miserable light, the heating arrangement is poor, and the traveler is impressed with the lack of comfort when riding on it. People who want to do so and pay first-class fare, feel that they are not getting it when they travel in the present car on this road. Attention is not called to this in any spirit of fault finding, but in the hope that the authorities will see the need of equipping this road with first-class accommodations.

Making Fine Progress.

The editor of THE REFLECTOR was invited to attend a practice of the new cornet band, Friday night, to see how the boys are getting on. We heard them play several pieces, and were truly surprised that they make such excellent music as they do. They have had less than two weeks practice under an instructor, yet we have heard many old bands that do not play near so well. There is talent in the Greenville band, and we expect it to be without a superior in the State.

Masque Party.

The little folks had a real delightful masquerade party in Germania hall Friday. There were so many of them and they got around so lively that it was next to impossible to get a list of their names and the characters represented. It was a jolly time for them, and they enjoyed to the utmost. Many grown people went out to see the little folks have their fun.

Good Heaters.

Two splendid large heaters have recently been placed in the opera house. They were made by S. E. Pender & Co., and reflect credit on the work of a home firm.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Dec. 14th.

Mr. G. W. Parker has just returned from his first trip selling wire fence. He was gone about three days and canvassed a large territory between here and Kinston also around Kinston. He says most everybody wants wire fence.

The second wedding has come off. Miss Quenie Smith of this place and Mr. Billie Tripp who lives near here were married Wednesday night at the home of the bride.

The Sunday school here has appointed a committee to look after fitting up a Xmas tree. They will arrange a program and are counting on having some nice exercises.

Mr. Clayton who has been here trimming the brick stores now has his job completed and returned home last night.

A wagon was here from Snow Hill Thursday. It returned heavily laden with Wire Fence.

What can be a nicer Xmas present to give your gentleman friend than a box of Havana Special cigar. Call on Winterville Cigar Co.

A. G. Cox will take all your cotton seed and pay you the highest market price for them.

B. F. Manning & Co have just opened 6 big boxes Xmas toys and are ready to wait on everybody who comes.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. has a nice lot of back-bands, cart saddles, coffins, etc., on hand besides carts and waggons.

Mr. Speight with Mr. Norris one of his mill men was here Wednesday buying cotton. He bought out B. F. Manning & Co's entire lot of 90 bales.

Moody on Advertising.

During the World's Fair in Chicago Mr. Moody had bulletin boards made upon which large notices could be pasted. These were placed outside the churches. In one case a church officer objected to this as being undignified. Mr. Moody was amused. "Undignified?" he said. "Why, that's just like a lot of these fossils—killing their churches with dignity. I should like to know if it isn't a good deal more undignified to have a minister preach to an empty church fifty times a year? When you've something good to give a hungry world, let them know it and you will fill the church."—Ladies Home Journal.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 16, '98.

Senator Vest made a spirited attack on the evils of the present pension system, saying that the government had fallen into "a most iniquitous expenditure by its ill-advised legislation and thorough political influences," and was now acting as a sort of political accident insurance company. He declared that he did not wish to deprive a single honest applicant of his pension, but he did wish to have the abuses stopped. He said that although Illinois had furnished $5,000 more soldier for the civil war than Indiana did that the pension payments in Indiana exceeded those in Illinois by $1,500,000, and charged that the reason was that Indiana is a pivotal State politically, and that it was a notorious fact that pensions had been granted to almost every applicant in districts that were close.

The Lodge Immigration bill is thought to have received its death-blow, this week, when the House, by a majority vote declined to take it from the Speaker's table, where it has been since it passed the Senate, early in the last session. This makes twice that the House has refused to take the bill up, and it is regarded as very doubtful whether its friends will make another attempt.

Representative De Armond, of Missouri, had the pleasure of nagging Czar Reed into making a speech this week. The incident was started by Representative Grow of Pennsylvania, a Republican, making a speech attacking the gag rules of the House. Mr. DeArmond then took the floor and charged that Reed had compelled the committee on Rules to refrain from reporting a new set of rules, in order that the rules of the last House supposed to have been adopted temporarily at last year's extra session, might continue in force. Mr. Reed tried to wriggle out by being funny. He made the House laugh—any clown could do that—but he didn't convince anybody.

Col. Bryan is in Washington conferring with the Democratic leaders in Congress.

When Boss Platt was asked whether anything else besides the demands of his private business had influenced Secretary Bliss to resign the portfolio of Secretary of the Interior, he could hardly keep his face straight. He didn't answer the question in words; he wasn't expected to. Bliss was taken into the Cabinet to head off demands made by Platt, and he has been used for the same purpose at various times since. So Platt isn't grieving over his resignation. Indeed, it is altogether probable that Platt has done his part to push along the petty annoyances which have resulted in convincing Mr. Bliss that his private business needs his attention. While it is not likely that the resignation of Mr. Bliss was brought about by any open rupture, it is probably the culmination of dissatisfaction because of a thousand and one little things, no one of which is important enough to be assigned as a reason for resignation. It has been an open secret in Washington that Mr. Bliss didn't like the job.

Representative Bailey, of Texas, has made a statement concerning his attitude towards Gen. Wheeler and three other members of the House who hold commissions in the volunteer army. He quotes section 6 of Article 1, of the Constitution. "That no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either House during his continuance in office," and cites two cases in which the House decided members to have forfeited seats, one by accepting a major's commission in the District of Columbia Militia, and the other, by becoming Colonel of a volunteer regiment, in the Mexican war. Mr. Bailey thus defines his own position: "I am one of those who believe that it is the highest duty of every man to obey the law and to respect the Constitution; and I have little patience with the weak suggestion that a member of Congress shall shrink from his sworn duty because public sentiment would allow a brave and distinguished man to hold two high offices, even though it be against the Constitution of our country." Another phase of the same question is now being discussed in the Senate—the Constitutional right of Senators to serve as government or Presidential Commissioners.

Senator Turple never minces words when he has anything to say. He favors the Nicaragua Canal, but does not favor letting the Maritime Canal Co. have anything to do with its construction. In the course of a short speech advising the postponement of action on the question until the report of the Commission, sent over to investigate, is submitted to Congress. Mr. Turple said the object of the Maritime Canal Co. was not to cut a canal, but "to cut a channel of communication at the least possible cost between the treasury of the United States and the empty coffers of that beggarly corporation."

Senator Berry has offered an amendment to the Nicaragua Canal bill, providing for direct appropriation of money to construct the canal, instead of guaranteeing interest-bearing bonds, and to limit the cost to $115,000,000, and stated that Senator Morgan was willing to accept the amendment so far as it related to appropriating money instead of issuing bonds. Senator Rawlings has offered an amendment to the bill, providing that the act shall not go into effect until the United States secures by treaty the right to fortify and garrison the canal, to send armed vessels and munitions of war through it in time of war, and to close it against any other nation with which the United States may be at war.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets.
Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever.
60c. 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

An Error Corrected.

Hon. W. T. Crawford, member of Congress elect, gives the following piece of information through the Asheville Citizen.

The people generally have an idea that a member of Congress is entitled by law to a secretary with a regular fixed salary. The fact is there is no such law and never has been. There is a law which provides that the clerk of the House shall refund to a member of Congress such sum as he spent or contracted to spend the preceding month, not exceeding $100, provided he makes and files with the clerk a certificate that he has paid or contracted to pay the amount certified, and that it was necessary in the discharge of his official and representative duties. The money is paid to the member direct out of a contingent fund. Not a dollar is appropriated and put to the credit of a member. In fact, the member himself makes the appropriation when he files the certificate.

This puts each member upon his honor and makes him the sole judge between himself and the people who pay the taxes, both as to the necessity and as to the amount used for such purposes. The law does not contemplate that any member shall hire a clerk with a stated salary. It simply provides compensation in money for such members as are overburdened with official duties, and can in conscience make the required certificate.

Prof. W. A. Withers, of the State experiment station, has during past year made a series of experiments to determine to what extent food used in this State is adulterated. He finds that flour and canned goods are more adulterated than any other products, except baking powder and vinegar. Corn flour was frequently used in wheat flour and it was found that in about half the canned goods examined, chemicals injurious to the stomach were used. A large proportion of the vinegar was found to be made from chemicals, and most of the baking powders were found to be unwholesome. No adulterated sugar or adulterated packed or canned meats were found. The people ought to know what they eat and whether it is wholesome, and if Prof. Withers' investigation will result in the passage of laws preventing food adulteration, it will accomplish great good.—Charlotte News.

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsillitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since.

after a career of nearly twenty years of uninterrupted growth is justified in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

A Perfect Newspaper

To publish ALL THE NEWS promptly and succinctly and in the most readable form, without elision or partisan bias; to discuss the significance with frankness, to keep
AN OPEN EYE FOR PUBLIC
ABUSES, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its DAILY EDITIONS of from 10 to 14 PAGES, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of ONE CENT—that was from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "THE RECORD."

The Pioneer

one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still LEADS WHERE OTHERS FOL-LOW.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation exceeding 180,000 copies, and an average exceeding 145,000 copies for its Sunday editions, while imitations of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standby which excellence in journalism must be measured.
