A Tale With a Moral.

Once upon a time a tramp was sorely in need of something to eat and approaching a farm-house he spake unto the farmer, saying: "If you will give me the wherewithal to satisfy the cravings of the inner man, I will kill all the rats about the place." "Agreed," said the tiller of the soil, and he ordered his good wife to give the tramp a square meal. After the tramp had devoured everything in sight he went to the wood-pile and selected a stout club, then seating himself on the porch he said to the farmer: "Now bring on your rats."

Moral—Always have the details specified in the contract.—Chicago Fews.

Favor the Dispensary.

The Legislature voted against the proposition to submit the continuance of the Cumberland county dispensary to a vote of the people.

STATE NEWS.

Mr. Oliver Ellis, a highly respected citizen of Chocowinity, had a peculiar experience last week. While in the woods gathering wood he became suddenly blind. He managed to get to his cart; when his sight returned he was at Blount's Creek Mill about eight miles from his home. He was not able to discover a single object for miles.—Washington Messenger.

Two children of Mr. H. R. Whitley, of Nash county, died Thursday, it is supposed from eating canned huckleberries.

The smallpox has again made its appearance at Wilmington.

The Journal says that Mr. John J. Heffner, of Lincoln county recently killed a 20 months old hog that weighed 707 lbs. The hams weighed 75 pounds apiece.

A gentleman here was standing at the ticket office window of the A. C. Line a few days ago when a traveler in buying his ticket to some other point discovered that in changing his coat before leaving his home in Eastern N. C. he had failed to change his purse also. In his dilemma he appealed to the onlooker and asked for a loan of two dollars "until he could get home." The same was at once handed him and he showed his appreciation and thanks by sending to repay it the sum of five dollars. This actually happened here in Rocky Mount.—Rocky Mount Motor.

The Murchison National Bank, of Wilmington, capital $100,000, has been authorized to begin business.

Big freshets are reported in streams all over the State.

Rev. J. L. Burns, Keeper of the Capitol, is said to be at death's door with pneumonia. He is in his room in the capitol, and his condition will not admit of his removal to the hospital.

Capt. E. J. Parrish, of Durham, has accepted an important position with the American Tobacco Company, with headquarters in Japan, and will soon go to his new field of labor.

Suit Against Porterfield & Co.

The Washington (D. C.) Star of the 2nd says that William M. Cooper, through Attorneys Andrew A. Lipscomb and J. Walter Wheatley, has filed a bill in equity against William A. Porterfield, Roy D. Hassler, Richard H. Taylor, J. Marrott Hill and Thos. F. Young. It is stated that the suit is brought by Cooper in his own right and also in behalf of other unsatisfied creditors of Porterfield, Hassler, Hill and Hopkins, trading as Porterfield & Co. Taylor and Young are sued as trustees under a deed of assignment.

It is set forth that the firm of W. A. Porterfield & Co. is indebted to Cooper in the sum of $3,750, and to various other persons in large sums. The charge is made that the recent assignment of the firm was for the purpose of hindering and defrauding its creditors. The court is asked to set aside the alleged pretended assignment, and it is also asked that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the assets and effects of the firm and that the assignees be restrained from paying out any funds or secreting or disposing of any papers in connection with the assignment.

[We give this for the benefit of Greenville sufferers by the Porterfield failure.—Ed]

Aged North Carolinians.

It would be hard to find living so near together five persons whose ages aggregate more than the five persons whose names we give below. They all live in the southwestern part of Graham within a radius of less than 200 yards, and their ages aggregate 425 years. Mrs. Emily Holt, widow of the late Edwin M. Holt, was ninety years old in September last; Hon. Giles Mebane will be ninety-six years old on the 25th of January next; Mrs. Jane Long, widow of the late Jacob Long, was eighty seven years old on the 17th of June last; Mr. William Turner was eighty-one years old on the 6th of August last, and Mrs. Giles Mebane was eighty-one years old on the 26th of December.—Alamance Gleaner.

The Newspaper the Best.

The best, the most successful advertising is that of the newspapers. The dodger, handbill pamphlet and other modes of exploitation are ephemeral at the best. People rarely read them, and resent the practice of sending them through the mails, or of delivering them at their houses. The public expects to see advertisements in the newspapers. It recognizes the fact that they are a necessary part of the make-up of a live newspaper. It looks to the advertising columns for sources of supply.—New England Editor.

The Press and Libel Laws.

The Richmond Times, discussing the bill before the Legislature of North Carolina to amend the libel laws of the State in such manner as to give the publisher a fairer chance than he now has, says:

It is the rarest thing in the South that a man of character brings suit against a newspaper for libel. Southern newspapers are not scandal-mongers and do not deal in yellow news. They are not disposed to traduce any man, and if they have done any man an unintentional wrong, they are always prompt to make the necessary reparation.

Beauty Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all its impurities from the body.

Marriage Maxims.

Never marry except for love, Never forget these rules when the knot is tied.

Never taunt with a past mistake. Never allow a request to be repeated.

Never meet without a loving welcome.

Never both be angry at the same time.

Never forget to let self-denial be the daily aim and practice of each.

Never let the sun go down upon any anger or grievance.

Never neglect one another; rather neglect the whole world besides.

Never make a remark at the expense of the other—it is meanness.

Never be "stubborn" but let each one strive to yield oftener to the wishes of the other.

Never part for a day without loving words to think of during absence.

Never find fault unless it is perfectly certain a fault has been committed, and always speak lovingly.

Never let any fault you have committed go by until you have frankly confessed it and asked forgiveness.

Never forget that the very nearest approach to perfect domestic happiness on earth is the cultivation, on both sides, of absolute unselfishness.

To Cure Constipation Forever, Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

Too Late.

Under the above head the Winston Sentinel voices our sentiments in the following:

The colored politicians are too late in arriving at the conclusion to be good. It suggests action of an emergency nature.

The memorial presented to the Legislature by a committee of the race recites that they "are not insensible, but acutely grateful to our white neighbors in North Carolina for the liberal educational facilities so nobly inaugurated" by Vance and fostered by Jarvis and others, etc.

Nevertheless, they can rest assured that they will continue to be treated with kindness in the matter of caring for their unfortunate (the deaf, dumb, blind and insane) that due provision will be made for their education; that their property will be protected; that their general interests will be looked after; that personal favors will continue to be shown them by the white people, against whose welfare they have persistently voted and have taken delight in doing so—

But, if the present movement has for its main purpose the idea of continuing the negro as a power in government the instigators are barking up the wrong tree and are wasting time.

There is nothing about which the Democrats are more determined than that the fear of negro domination shall be eliminated from North Carolina politics, thus assuring the elimination, also, of the corrupt government which always follows when the negroes and their white allies get on top.

It has been most clearly demonstrated that the negro is incapacitated for government and that he has always permitted his power as a voter to become a tool of the worst elements in politics. The people have become thoroughly tired of the sort of thing and propose to have no further experiments along this line.

The negro will be treated fairly, and kindly, and even generously, but as a factor in government his day has passed.

A Novel Case.

Not long ago a man at Reidsville was standing on the platform as the vestibule passed, running, it is claimed, at about 40 miles an hour, when a postal clerk threw off a mail sack.

This particular sack was filled with books, presumably bound volumes of the Congressional Record.

The whirl of the train whirled the sack against the man's knees, sending him sprawling. He got up, however, and at first did not seem to be much injured. But soon he found his knees were damaged in some way and since then he is a queer shape. He may be standing up and talking when all at once his knees will give way causing his legs to wobble about like a pair of winding blades. The knees are as apt to throw him forward as backwards or sideways. It is claimed that a vital injury has been inflicted to the cap or caps of the knees, both being affected.

The party has consulted D. Schenck, Jr., about bringing suit, but so far Mr. Schenck has not satisfied himself about who he will sue. The Southern ran the train, but one of Uncle Sam's men threw the sack and did the damage.—Greensboro Record.

The Methodist Orphanage.

The Methodist denomination of North Carolina is determined to establish an orphanage and Raleigh is the location selected.

A meeting in the interest of the orphanage was held at Edenton street Methodist Sunday school rooms February 2nd and $1,000 in gilt-edge subscriptions was secured.

The Chamber of Commerce will give the committee on the establishment of an orphanage a hearing at an early date. An appeal will then be made to the citizens of Raleigh to give a site for the location of the buildings. Mr. J. S. Wynne and Rev. E. C. Glenn have been added to the committee.

The committee on the establishment of an orphanage is greatly encouraged and have hopes for an early realization of their plans.—Raleigh Post.

The Farm and Ranch, a leading farming journal, says that in the great packing houses of Chicago the horns, hoofs, hair, blood and the contents of the intestines constitute the profits on the beeves slaughtered, that have made millionaires of the men engaged in that business. In woolen mills, the dirt and grease from the wool is carefully saved, prepared for market and sold, or manufactured into soap and fertilizers ready for the consumers. Competition is so fierce that there must be no waste in any business, many promising concerns failing by neglecting this important fact of success. American farmers are the most wasteful farmers in the world, and Southern farmers the most wasteful in America. If it were otherwise our Southern farmers would be the most prosperous, a condition to which their natural advantages entitle them. When they learn to utilize every source of income, as manufacturers do, and permit no waste, they will begin to realize the advantages they possess.—Louisburg Times.

Postmaster Tuttle, of Carthage, Mo., has just received from the Federal government a draft for $8.20 in payment of a debt that has been running since the civil war, but of which Tuttle knew nothing. It appears that in settling with Captain Tuttle for his services as a soldier one day's pay was overlooked, and also an allowance for clothing. It took Uncle Sam thirty-four years to discover the error.

It is said that Switzerland takes in about $24,000,000 a year for feeding and lodging tourists and $6,000,000 from the sale of souvenirs, and a very large part of this is paid by Americans, who have equally as fine if not finer scenery in their own country.

"After I was induced to try CASCARETS, I will never be without them in the house. My liver was in a very bad shape, and my head ached and I had stomach trouble. Now, since taking Cascarets, I feel fine. My wife has also used them with beneficial results for her stomach." JOS. KREHLING, 1221 Congress St., St. Louis, Mo.

Experience is a Good Teacher.

Salisbury, N. C., Dec. 4, '98 From my own experience I have found Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy the best medicine known for building up the health in general. The greatest remedy in the world for dyspepsia, eczema, aches and pains and breaking up colds. Nine years ago I suffered with a chronic cold, which resulted in a bronchial affection and repeated serious troubles of the throat which were alarming. I was affected with something like croup and again laryngitis. I tried Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and am free of all those troubles and have been ever since and feel confident the Remedy has made the cure. I have kept it in my family for years and have always found it invaluable for old and young. The extraordinary effect of this grand remedy is sure to be realized by all who give it a fair test. History of the Spanish War

By Dr. ALBERT SHAW,

Editor of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS,

AND A LONG LIST OF NOTABLE CONTRIBUTORS.

Over 1,200 Pages and 500 Valuable Illustrations.

Three Beautiful Volumes in Half Morocco.

See special offer at bottom of this advertisement.

This Magnificent Edition for only ONE DOLLAR DOWN.

To the readers of this paper we make the following proposition to become members of the Review of Reviews History Club, and obtain the three volumes of

Our War in Two Hemispheres,

By ALBERT SHAW,

Editor of the "American Monthly Review of Reviews" and author of "Municipal Government in Great Britain," etc., and a number of prominent contributors.

EVERY American teacher possessing a library, and many that do not possess one, will be interested in the announcement of the history of the late war with Spain, now published by the REVIEW OF REVIEWS COMPANY. Much of the narrative was written by Dr. Albert Shaw during the actual fighting of the summer. This has been revised and amplified by him in the light of the official reports and documents, which have only become available after hostilities ceased. A free quotation from the critical Congressional debates and other public utterances at crucial periods aids in making this work what it is, the standard reference history of this decisive and successful struggle. But it is much more than a lively and comprehensive narrative. It goes back to the years of struggle in Cuba which prepared the way for the war; it discusses energetically all problems which confronted the United States after the war as to the Philippines, Cuba, and Porto Rico; and as a whole it forms a broadly conceived picture of the year which has seen America brought face to face with new world duties.

The important special and technical matters of the war period, generally dismissed by the historian with only slight and often insufficient discussion, are fully and authentically dealt with in contributed chapters, written by men who had unusual opportunities for studying their subjects. Thus, the lessons which the war has for us as to the relative efficiency of rifles and machine guns are in a carefully written chapter by Lieut. John H. Parker, of the United States army; the military movements of the Santiago and Porto Rican campaigns are analyzed by the editor of the Army and Navy Journal; the battle with Cervera is described by the novelist, Winston Churchill, who is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy; the actual condition of Cuba before the war and the facts which caused the war are described by eye-witnesses, Murat Halstead and Stephen Bonsai.

The illustration of the book is especially valuable in the hundreds of portraits, pictures of the navies, photographed scenes of the war, and the entertaining cartoons reproduced from the Spanish, French, German, and English papers, as well as from the American.

How to obtain the handsome edition by a payment of only ONE DOLLAR DOWN.

The three beautifully bound large octavo volumes and a year's subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS can be obtained by any of the readers of this paper by joining the Review of Reviews Club and paying one dollar. The volumes will be sent as soon as ready to those who remit the sum, and the purchase will be completed by the payment of one dollar per month for twelve months. The first volume will be ready early in December. The subscription to the magazine which goes with the offer can be dated from any month.

Cesar's creek, on the Florida coast, was named after a famous old pirate called Black Caesar, whose profession added to the risks of marine insurance. After the pirates the Florida wreckers came, of whom H. A. Willoughby, in his "Across the Everglades," tells this story:

A large steamer was stranded on the reef not far from Cape Florida. No sooner had she struck than the news spread rapidly along the shore. The people for 20 miles around gathered on the beach opposite the stranded steamer. Among them were a number of Indians from the Everglades, who chanced to be down there and knew what a "wreck" meant to the wreckers.

The steamer, loaded with an assorted cargo, began to break up, and barrels, cases and boxes drifted gradually ashore. There were casks of wine, boxes of soap, cases of bottles of wine and iron and a hundred other articles. The Indians seized upon the wine and soon were in a condition that allowed the white men to secure the more valuable prizes.

The squaws struck a benanza in a case of vaseline. They thought it a new variety of the white man's frying fat and, starting a fire, fried pancakes in it. What a dish—pancakes a la Seminole!

Messages by Vibration.

Curiously enough, the fact appears, according to a recent traveler among the Indians of Catuquinarn, between the rivers Embrya and Embyrasu, that those people have long employed a wireless telephony, but rather after the order of unwritten science.

It is made by digging a hole in the ground inside a house and laying the bottom with coarse sand, well piled. On this is laid a wooden drum or hollow cylinder of wood, half filled with fine sand and layers of broken wood, bone and powdered mica—the upper part of the cylinder, which is empty, rising above the floor of the hut and closed first by leather, then by wood, and lastly by india rubber. Outside, the cylinder is packed round with fragments of wood, leather and resins, and covered with hard rubber at the level of the soil.

To use this peculiar apparatus the drum is struck by a wooden hammer, and the vibration is evidently transmitted through the soil. The answer is heard in the drum, which acts as a resonator, and messages are thus sent over 1,500 yards from house to house.

Politics, Indeed.

"There is a rather crusty old gentleman attending my church," says a Detroit clergyman, "and his absence for several weeks led me to call upon him. He is not a communicant, and I am afraid at times that he is slightly skeptical. He is very pronounced in his political views, and as conversational material ran rather short I sought to interest him by asking, 'How's politics?' 'How's politics?' he repeated without a change of countenance. 'How's politics?' That's a pretty question for you to ask when you know that I haven't heard you preach for the last seven Sundays."—Exchange.

The Story of a Letter.

The National Advertiser tells a story of an old bachelor who bought a pair of socks and found attached to one of them a slip of paper with these words: "I am a young lady of 20 and would like to correspond with a bachelor with a view to matrimony." Name and address were given.

The bachelor wrote, and in a few days got this letter: "Mamma was married 20 years ago. The merchant you bought those socks from evidently did not advertise or he would have sold them long ago. Mamma handed me your letter and said possibly I might suit you. I am 18 years old."

For Insomnia.

A curious remedy for sleeplessness is used by the inhabitants of the Samoan islands. They confine a snake in a hollow bamboo, and the hissing sound emitted by the reptile is said to quickly induce slumber.

FEBRUARY ONCE A YEAR.

But New Names Come Every Day.

M. H. Quinerly went to Kinston last night.

Mrs. T. J. Jarvis went to Raleigh this morning.

W. F. Harding went to Kinston last night and returned this morning.

Prof. F. F. Dawson passed through last night on his way to Kinston.

Rev. E. D. Brown returned from Falkland yesterday and left for his home in Kinston on the evening train.

Mrs. Dan Quinerly who has been visiting Mrs. M. H. Quinerly returned to her home in Kinston Wednesday night.

Prof. Frankenfield, who has been here for the past two months instructing the Osceola Cornet Band, returned to his home in Philadelphia this morning. The Professor made many friends while here and they all regretted to see him leave. The band is in great shape and makes good music.

The Concert.

The awful weather of the several days preceeding kept many people from the Band concert, Wednesday night, and the audience was not so large as the occasion merited. Those who were there felt amply repaid, for the music was splendid, and the specialties were also good. The Band has made wonderful progress and no town in the State has a better one.

No Fool.

A gentleman who is evidently endeavoring to square himself with maiden ladies who have passed the blushing period gives this definition of an old maid: "An old maid is a woman who has not been fool enough to be fooled by every fool who has been fool enough to foolishly try to fool her."

Snowing in Norfolk.

News came from Norfolk about 3 o'clock this afternoon that snow was falling fast there and the sun was shining at the same time.

They are Signing.

The canvas for signers to the petition for a dispensary is now going actively on, and it is not proving a hard matter to find people anxious to sign it.

How Luck Comes.

The man who attends strictly to his business, and never lets pleasure interfere with his work, is apt to enjoy good luck, whether he nails any horseshoes over his door or not.

His Experience.

Once upon a time a man got mad at the editor and stopped his paper. In a few weeks he sold his corn at 4 cents less than the market price. Then his property was sold for taxes because he did not read the sheriff's sale. He paid $10 for a lot of forged notes that had been advertised two weeks and the public had been warned. He then rushed to the printing office and paid several years' subscription in advance and had the editor sign an agreement he was to kick his pants if he ever ordered his paper stopped again.—Exchange.
