

WITH THE LADIES.

The 'Phone Helps Us Out Today.

In order to get some news for our readers today THE REFLECTOR called up its lady friends over the 'phone and asked each of them for an item, with the following result. The reader can look up the numbers on the telephone directory.

20.—Mr. L. E. Whaley, of Halifax, of the N. C. Lumber Company, is snow bound in Greenville, and it will likely be some time before he can attend to any lumber business again.

28½.—Everybody here is nursing their vaccinated arms. Haywood Dail is just out from a few days confinement.

35.—We heard last night that a certain young preacher was frozen at the 'phone. The boys are picking up frozen birds in the field out here.

43.—There is nothing but snow up here and we are all frozen in.

46.—Mrs. R. M. Hearne and son Edward, of Washington, are visiting at Riverside.

50.—Haven't had my foot out the door for a week and can't see anything that is going on.

61.—News and every thing else frozen here and we are getting tired of it. But we keep two good fires running, one in the hall and one in the parlor, so each couple is provided for.

68.—Although very cold around here a certain young man shows much fondness for a Fan.

69½.—Every body gone rabbit hunting out here.

71.—Been cooped up so many days we haven't seen anything but snow. The King's Daughters want to have a meeting to look after sufferers.

72.—Can't tell a thing, we are completely shut in.

77.—If I had the tongue of a poet and the pen of a ready writer would say something about the snow. "Jim" is laid up with neuralgia and I am nursing him.

82.—We are snowed under and can't get out.

83.—Miss Bessie Jarvis is spending the week with Miss Ella King. Misses Rosa Hooker and Lena Carr are visiting Miss Sophia Jarvis. Mrs. R. J. Cobb is remaining at home during the snow.

87.—Haven't been able to get out, but have plenty of wood. A neighbor says tell you do all you can to help the dispensary, and if a ladies petition will do any good she is ready to head the list.

91.—Our only news is defective flues, and two more fires will give us the blues. We have had two from bad flues and have but two flues left to experiment with.

94.—Water wipes all frozen up with us.

95.—Been sick for a week. All the well ones at 95 are kept busy shoveling Alfred out of the snow.

101.—We have plenty of cold but not much coal.

36.—I am waiting for that load of wood, and don't forget to send up something in time for supper.

Central said she was very glad to see the beautiful sunshine after so many dreary days. THE REFLECTOR thanks her for helping us "hello" these people and get the items.

COUNTY FUNDS MUDDLE.

The Committee Shows Up The Trouble.

The above report is received and adopted and it is ordered that the statements accompanying said report be recorded on the "Record of Official Reports." On motion the committee is granted further time in which to file a report as to the other county officers.

It appearing to this Board from the reports of the former Treasurer and from the reports of the committee that the proper care has not been taken heretofore in keeping the school fund and the general and stock law funds separate, and that the school fund has been encroached upon to meet the exigencies of the general fund, it is ordered that from and after the incoming of this Board that all collecting and accounting officers keep the several accounts separate and distinct from each other, and that hereafter the tax list shall be so made up as to show distinctly the tax levy for these separate funds.

That it being perfectly manifest from the vouchers filed by J. A. Thigpen, former Treasurer, and the report of the committee appointed to examine his accounts, that the $2,180.36 which he paid out in meeting the ordinary expenses of the county over and above that came into his hands was taken from the school fund, and mostly, if not entirely, from the taxes of 1898 belonging to that fund, an order will be made directing the present Treasurer to transfer that amount from the general fund to the school fund to replace the same.

That the Board cannot go back for years and undertake to correct the errors of past Boards, if any have been committed, in encroaching upon the school fund to meet the ordinary expenses of the county, but it will from the time of the present members came into office see to it that the school funds gets all that belongs to it for the taxes collected for that purpose.

It appearing to this Board that J. A. Thigpen, former Treasurer, used of the school fund in his hands the sum of $2,180.36 in payment of county orders and that the general fund has had the benefit of such payments, it is ordered that J. B. Cherry, the present Treasurer, transfer to the school fund from the general fund the said sum of $2,180.36 to replace the money so used by said Thigpen, and that he report this fact to the Board of Education to the end that that Board may make such orders as they may deem proper in their settlement with said Thigpen.

Whereas, in consequence of a failure of the collecting and accounting officers to keep the school fund and the funds for general county and stock law purposes separate and distinct from each other some confusion has occurred, and there existed a difference between the Board of Education and the Board of County Commissioners as to the amount of each fund that ought to be in the hands of the County Treasurer,

And whereas, a committee appointed by the Board of Education and one appointed by the Board of County Commissioners have investigated these matters and made reports to their respective Boards, which reports are filed as a part of the records,

And whereas, at a conference held this day by the two Boards it has been agreed that after these investigations that the Board of County Commissioners shall cause to be transferred from the general fund to the Board of Education the sum of $2,180.36, the amount found upon these investigations to have been used by the former Treasurer of the school fund in the payment of the current expenses of the county and the sum of $840 out of the county taxes of the liquor licenses paid in January, 1899, and upon this being done that shall be an adjustment between the present Board of Education and Board of County Commissioners.

In arriving at this adjustment each Board has had recourse to the reports of former Boards and to the reports of the accounting officers made at the end of the fiscal year, 1898, and the investigations and reports of the several committees appointed to make these investigations, and it is believed that substantial justice has been done between the two Boards and the interests they have in charge.

And it is further agreed that in making this adjustment that the Board of County Commissioners will hereafter cause separate accounts to be kept by the collecting and accounting officers so that no similar mixing of accounts and confusion shall arise.

Whereas, in consequence of the fact that a considerable part of the taxes of the levy of 1898 had been collected and used before this Board came into power to replace money taken from the school fund by former administration, it is manifest that taxes now to be paid will be insufficient to meet the current expenses of the county, it is ordered that a Bill be prepared by the attorney of the Board and sent to our Representatives with a request that they have the same passed granting this Board power to borrow a sum not to exceed ten thousand dollars to meet the current expenses for the years 1899 and 1900, and to levy a tax for said years not exceeding sixteen and two-thirds cents on property and fifty cents on the poll to pay the same.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1899.

The Alamance Gleaner has started out upon its twenty-fifth year. It is as good as it is old. Continued success to it.

While laboring under a streak of pecunious economy the Board of Commissioners of Durham county passed an order that the inmates of the county Home be given coffee only once a day. More kindly disposed citizens of Durham decided that the unfortunates should not be denied their coffee twice a day, so contributed a large quantity, enough to last a year, and sent it out to them. This action of the citizens was a just rebuke to the Board of Commissioners.

A Successful Operation.

Statesville, February 8.—About three o'clock Monday afternoon the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carrigan, who lives two miles south of Taylorsville, while playing around the granary, and, it is presumed, eating grains of corn, sucked a grain of corn into the wind pipe. The child ran into the house, struggling for breath. A local physician was called, examined the child, told the parents he could do nothing for her, and advised the parents to take her to a surgeon.

They came to Statesville Monday night. The patient was seen and examined by Dr. H. F. Long and Dr. R. A. Campbell. It was determined, by auscultation, that the obstruction was low down in the trachea, at the bifurcation on the left side. The patient was made as comfortable as possible during the night, and Tuesday morning, the symptoms of suffocation being much intensified, an operation was deemed imperative, if the life of the child was to be preserved. All other methods of abstracting the foreign body having failed, the operation was undertaken at 10.15 o'clock and by 11 the wound had been sutured and dressed.

Dr. T. E. Anderson gave the anaesthetic and Dr. H. F. Long handled the knife, assisted by Dr. E. A. Campbell. The operation known as "the low trecheotomy" was done. The patient took anaesthetic well and an almost bloodless operation was given the child.

The trachea or wind-pipe was opened just above the collarbone and a pair of long, slender forceps introduced downward. The grain of corn was found at the suspected point and removed at first trial. The removal of the forceps was followed by a gush of mucus and exudate and the little patient at once began to breathe easily and naturally. The wound was cleansed and clothed, the whole time of operation occupying less than an hour, notwithstanding the difficulties of such an operation and the complications of this case.

Relief was immediate and very gratifying. The patient at the moment of the removal of the grain of corn was grasping and struggling for the breath of life, and a moment later was breathing as softly and easily as if in natural sleep, having in a moment passed from the verge of death into full and vigorous life again. The hours of agonizing pain and suffering were over, and the little patient, in ease and comfort, dropped off into deep and refreshing slumber.—Charlotte Observer.

CATARRH OF STOMACH.

A PLEASANT, SIMPLE, BUT SAFE AND EFFECTUAL CURE FOR IT.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure of this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diatase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, ca-

Smoke One With Me.

"Do you smoke?" asked the middle aged man. "You didn't two months ago. You oughtn't to smoke, my boy; you're too young and not strong looking." Then the elderly adviser started to light a cigar. "Have a cigar?" he said absentmindedly, as he scratched a match. The young man took the cigar and bit off the end.

"These are very mild," ended the speaker, presumably for the benefit of his conscience—"very mild, and won't hurt you any."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Capacity of St. Paul's.

As many as 36,000 people have been accommodated in St. Paul's cathedral, but that has been with temporary galleries, etc., erected. On festivals only between 6,000 and 7,000 people find seats. At an ordinary service about 4,000 people will make the cathedral look quite full.

Two Points of View.

"My children," said the poor man sadly, "are crying for bread."

"Which shows," replied the rich man coldly, "how much you have to be thankful for. Now, mine are crying for bonbons."—Brooklyn Life.

Experience is a Good Teacher.

Salisbury, N. C., Dec. 4, '98
From my own experience I have found Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy the best medicine known for building up the health in general. The greatest remedy in the world for dyspepsia, eczema, aches and pains and breaking up colds. Nine years ago I suffered with a chronic cold, which resulted in a bronchial affection and repeated serious troubles of the throat which were alarming. I was affected with something like croup and again laryngitis. I tried Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and am free of all those troubles and have been ever since and feel confident the Remedy has made the cure. I have kept it in my family for years and have always found it invaluable for old and young. The extraordinary effect of this grand remedy is sure to be realized by all who give it a fair test.
Sincerely,
MRS. M. E. RAMSAY.

History of the Spanish War

By Dr. ALBERT SHAW,

Editor of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS,

AND A LONG LIST OF NOTABLE CONTRIBUTORS.

Over 1,200 Pages and 500 Valuable Illustrations.

Three Beautiful Volumes in Half Morocco.

See special offer at bottom of this advertisement.

This Magnificent Edition for only ONE DOLLAR DOWN.

To the readers of this paper we make the following proposition to become members of the Review of Reviews History Club, and obtain the three volumes of

Our War in Two Hemispheres,

By ALBERT SHAW,

Editor of the "American Monthly Review of Reviews" and author of "Municipal Government in Great Britain," etc., and a number of prominent contributors.

EVERY American teacher possessing a library, and many that do not possess one, will be interested in the announcement of the history of the late war with Spain, now published by the REVIEW OF REVIEWS COMPANY. Much of the narrative was written by Dr. Albert Shaw during the actual fighting of the summer. This has been revised and amplified by him in the light of the official reports and documents, which have only become available after hostilities ceased. A free quotation from the critical Congressional debates and other public utterances at crucial periods adds in making this work what it is, the standard reference history narrative. It goes back to the years of struggle in Cuba which prepared the way for the war; it discusses energetically all problems which confronted the United States after the war as to the Philippines, Cuba, and Porto Rico; and as a whole it forms a broadly conceived picture of the year which has seen America brought face to face with new world duties.

The important special and technical matters of the war period, generally dismissed by the historian with only slight and often insufficient discussion, are fully and authentically dealt with in contributed chapters, written by men who had unusual opportunities for studying their subjects. Thus, the lessons which the war has for us as to the relative efficiency of rifles and machine guns are in a carefully written chapter by Lieut. John H. Parker, of the United States army; the military movements of the Santiago and Porto Rican campaigns are analyzed by the editor of the Army and Navy Journal; the battle with Cervera is described by the novelist, Winston Churchill, who is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy; the actual condition of Cuba before the war and the facts which caused the war are described by eye-witnesses, Murat Halstead and Stephen Bonsal.

The illustration of the book is especially valuable in the hundreds of portraits, pictures of the navies, photographed scenes of the war, and the entertaining cartoons reproduced from the Spanish, French, German, and English papers, as well as from the American.

How to obtain the handsome edition by a payment of only ONE DOLLAR DOWN.

The three beautifully bound large octavo volumes and a year's subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS can be obtained by any of the readers of this paper by joining the Review of Reviews Club and paying one dollar. The volumes will be sent as soon as ready to those who remit the sum, and the purchase will be completed by the payment of one dollar per month for twelve months. The first volume will be ready early in December. The subscription to the magazine which goes with the offer can be dated from any month.

SCOTCH SIMPLICITY.

The Mason, the Budding Architect and a Conscience Stricken Lad.

The Scotch are fond of telling stories which illustrate the peculiar simplicity of mind of their country people. This simplicity at least saves them from wicked guile.

One of these stories relates that an honest mason once had a contract to build a small house of stone. He came early and began from the inside to lay the stone, working very fast. At noon his young son brought him his dinner, peeping over the wall as he handed the basket to his father. With honest pride in his eye, the mason looked over to the boy.

"Weel, Jock, hoo d'ye think I'm gettin on?" he asked.

"Ye're getting on famous, feyther," answered Jock, looking at the solid wall, in which there was no break. "But hoo d'ye get out?"

The mason looked around. It was true. He had provided the house with no door at all, and was on the inside. He looked kindly and very admiringly at the boy.

"Mon, Jock, ye've a grand heid on ye!" he exclaimed. "Ye'll be an architect yet, as sure as yer feyther's a mason!"

Another story shows how unsuccessful as a thief the rustic Scot may be. Two young plowmen went into a garden at night to steal gooseberries. The bushes surrounded a plot of potatoes, and as one of the lads groped about he got a handful of potato plums, which he quickly put into his mouth. Then he gasped to his comrade:

"Oh, Jock, I'm poisoned! For my sake, shove me through the hedge again, for I waudna like to dee i' the auld man's garden!"—Youth's Companion

Tobacco in England, 1845.

When I was a lad, fully half the population of both sexes, rich as well as poor, the banker equally with the workingman, were snufftakers. My first schoolmaster always carried his snuff loose in his waistcoat pocket, and innumerable were his dips into it with two fingers and a thumb in the course of the day, while the big gauffered frill which protruded from the bosom of his shirt was always thickly sprinkled with it. We used to notice that he never seemed to relish one of his huge pinches so much as immediately after having administered a sound castigation to some recalcitrant pupil.

On the other hand, there was little or no open air smoking, except in the case of laboring men going to or from their work. In this respect lucifer matches have something to answer for; but for them the practice of outdoor smoking would never have grown to its present enormous proportions.—Chambers' Journal.

An Unexpected Call.

"You are just going out, I see?"—"Yes, an important engagement. What was it you wanted?"—"It was about that little debt I owe you."

"Ah, yes! Take a seat."—"I was going to ask you for a little delay?"—"Oh—excuse me, but I'm already late."

"I say, I was going to ask you for a little delay when I met a fellow who paid up what he owed me, and?"—"Why on earth don't you sit down? Will you take a glass of wine?"—Paris Figaro.

No Faith in Anything.

"Aunt Josephine is a thorough skeptic, is she?"—"She is?"—"Yes; she puts mucilage on the back of every postage stamp she uses."—Chicago Record.

Elephants' Teeth.

Elephants have only eight teeth—two above and two below on each side. All elephants' "baby teeth" fall out when the animal is about 14 years old, and a new set grows.

TWO SNOWS COMPARED

The Two Largest in This Section.

Mr. Allen Warren sends THE REFLECTOR the following comparison of the two largest snows that have visited this section of the State:

The snow of 1857 commenced falling on the 1st of January and continued for 36 hours. In some places where it drifted by the side of fences and houses it was 3 or 4 feet deep, and some of it stayed on the ground for six weeks.

The snow of 1899 commenced falling February 16th at 12:30 P. M. and continued for 54 hours. The storm broke on 13th at 6:30 P. M. The snow measured 7.50 inches Monday morning and 9.50 Tuesday morning. Temperature was 2° below zero by a Government thermometer.

TWO BELOW.

All Past Records Lowered.

This spell of weather has given Greenville the lowest record on temperature that is now known here. We have all read of zero records in the western and northern States, but it remained for Monday night to give us a real touch of it here. This morning the temperature was 2° below zero, 8° lower than any previous record. February 8th, 1895, was the next coldest day we have had, the temperature then being 6°.

Had to Stop.

The north bound passenger train Monday had hard traveling. It took until 6 o'clock to get as far as Hobgood and it had to hang up there. When it will be able to get through to Weldon and come back is a hard question.

SNOW AND ICE.

Are Colder Than These Items.

St. Valentine's Day.

Sleigh riding has been fine today.

The bright sunshine today was a luxury.

The glare on the snow is almost blinding.

We will be wishing for some of this ice next summer.

Odd Fellows meet tonight. Only the faithful will attend.

Many birds and not a few rabbits are being slaughtered.

No mail since Saturday makes Greenville folks feel lonesome.

New Bern fair next week. May the weather get better before then.

The sunshine had somewhat of an elevating effect on the temperature.

It fared off Monday night, but the weather wise say it will not stay fair when it clears at night.

Such weather as this may be good for health and crops, but it is hard on wood piles and coal bins.

Just now while it is so hard to find news we would more than ever appreciate any one phoning us an item or two.

Mr. Will Blow, formerly of Greenville, but who lived at Nashville the last few years, is now a clerk at Hotel Kenon in Goldsboro.

A telephone message from Ayden to THE REFLECTOR says that business is suspended down there and everybody is taking holiday.

The snow and bad weather may save the rattling of door bells that might prevail if the boys could take around comic valentines tonight.

Mr. S. M. Schultz wants to know if the Klondike has moved down to Greenville. We've got the Klondike weather but not the gold.

The Diamond Ink kept at the Reflector Book Store stands this weather all right. We have never known any of it to freeze. It is the kind to get when you want good ink.

WELL FIXTURES FOR SALE.—I offer for sale the entire well boring outfit of the late H. F. Harriss. The outfit includes auger, sand pump, windlass, shafting, tools, etc. I will sell the entire lot for cash. Original cost of the outfit about $125.00, but all will be sold at a great reduction. For further information apply to J. L. HARRISS, Spring Hope, N. C.

Frozen to Death.

A telephone message from Rochdale to THE REFLECTOR says that some parties out hunting this morning found a colored man, named William Hines, frozen to death in the snow. The man was found about a mile and a half from Cobb's store.

Robbery.

We understand that some of the haulers who brought wood to town during the snow have charged as much as $1 for a little one-horse load. Of course it is worse on the haulers to bring wood through the snow than it is in good weather, but it is outrageous robbery to charge $1 for such loads.

ANOTHER NARROW ESCAPE.

More Trouble From Defective Flues. Monday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock Messrs. J. B. Lightfoot and W. J. Corbett, who occupy a room at Mr. L. C. Arthur's in the Latham house, were awakened by their room being full of smoke which had almost suffocated them. They aroused the other inmates of the house and all began a search for fire. After ripping up planks and tearing out the hearth in their room it was found that fire had been started by a defective flue leading from the room below. The occupants formed their own fire brigade and succeeded in putting it out without giving an alarm. This is the second fire that has occurred in the same house in two months from defective flues.
