PHILIPPINOS AGGRESSIVE.

Attacks Made All Along Our Lines.

Manila, February 23., 5:05 p. m. —With daylight this morning the enemy commenced worrying tactics at various parts of the American line apparently for the purpose of withdrawing attention from affairs inside the city.

An attempt was made to rush through our extreme left, near Caloocan, but it was promptly checked by a hot and effective musketry and artillery fire.

In the meantime some bodies of rebels, evidently some of those engaged last night in the cowardly work at Tundo, spread out between the city and the outposts. Every available man was sent to drive them away, with the results that there was desultory firing all the morning.

From 8 to 10:30 o'clock a. m. the United States double turreted monitor Monadnock, joined in the engagement, hurling 10-inch shells over the American lines into bodies of the enemy as indicated by the signal corps.

So far our casualties are one man killed and ten men wounded.

To Sell The A. & N. C. Railroad.

Raleigh N. C., February 23.—A bill will be introduced in the house tomorrow, providing that upon payment to the state treasurer within ninety days after the ratification of the act of $300,000 the treasurer is authorized to sell to W. J. Edwards, of Sanford, and others associated with him, all the shares held by the state in the Atlantic and North Carolina railway; that before delivery of the shares Edwards shall contract with the state to construct and complete, within four years from ratification of the act, a line of standard gauged railroad at least 100 miles in length, connecting with the Atlantic and North Carolina railway and running westwardly through the counties of Wayne, Johnston, Harnett, Moore and Montgomery, and then to directions of Concord, Salisbury or Charlotte; that on execution of the contract Edwards shall deposit with the treasurer securities amounting to $100,000 for the performance of the contract, the condition being that if the road is completed in four years than the security is surrendered to Edwards, otherwise he forfeits the amount to the state.

Marriage Licenses.

Register of Deeds Moore issued eleven marriage licenses this week and nearly all of them were for colored people, there being only two issued for whites. They were as follows:

General Wheeler Invited to Michigan.

Washington, February 23.—General Wheeler received an invitation today from the Michigan delegation in congress, headed by Representative Smith of Grand Rapids, to visit Michigan in June and attend the encampment of State troops at Petosky.

General Wheeler said he would attend if in the country at that time. This reservation, it is understood, was in view of the possible ordering of the general to the Philippines.

Another Accident on the Rail.

Another accident occurred on the Southern railway this morning, the second one in two days. A passenger train ran over and killed a big yellow cat at or near the Church street crossing. It was only a yellow cat, an animal of no great consequence, but if it was a good mouser then there might be some grounds for a suit against the railroad company. Here's the way to estimate the probable worth of the cat. Take for instance the number of rats or mice it would probably catch during its life time; estimate how much would be saved the owner of the cat by the destruction of the rats or mice; also consider how much the cat is worth as a pet. There you have grounds for a suit. —Durham Sun.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

Some eight or ten went to the fair from here and report a big time.

There is regular preaching at the Baptist church here today and Sunday.

We learn that Mr. Fred Allen has hired himself to Capt. Goodrich to work on the section.

A. G. Cox's mother Mrs. J. C. Cox and his sister Mrs. Hattie Jackson are visiting him this week.

Mr. Britt, Civil Engineer of A. L. was here Wednesday making surveys in regards to cutting a deep ditch side of Railroad.

Those having cotton seed to sell or exchange for meal would do well to see A. G. Cox to get the best price or terms.

Mr. E. G. Cox sold another man in Scotland Neck 1000 yards of wire fence this week. While there are cheaper grades of fence on the market yet the Winterville fence carries the day as to quality.

Mr. Whaley the timber man has been down here right much lately assisting J. D. Cox in the timber business. It seems that they are buying lots of timber in the section just below here.

B. F. Manning & Co have just ordered a lot of stoves and you will be surprised at the low prices. They can also compete with any one in price on Guano. Don't fail to use a few bags of their special brand—White Leaf Tobacco Grower—just for a trial.

Do you need a new Cotton planter or an old one repaired? if so of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., is the place to get it and the price is very low. While making Cotton Planters is the special order of the day with them now yet they also carry in stock some of all the articles manufactured by them and will appreciate a call from you at any time.

One of the most exciting events in Raleigh since the meeting of the General Assembly was the hearing before the Senate Committee, on Thursday, of the Charlotte dispensary bill. This bill had passed the House unanimously, yet when it came to the Senate Committee just because Senator Osborne, of Charlotte, opposed it the committee made an unfavorable report, even overwhelming sentiment of the people had been declared for it. Senator Osborne seeing he was beaten in every other way whined "Senatorial courtesy" to get the committee to stand by him. This thing of "Senatorial courtesy" is a humbug, a sentimental sham, and it ought to be strangled out of existence. Senator Bob Glenn, great man that he is, showed that he cared more for right and the wishes of the people than he did for "Senatorial courtesy" and voted for the dispensary. An effort will be made to get the bill passed by the Senate regardless of the action of the committee.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24, '99

The democrats in Congress stand behind the plain words of Senator Cockrell against the bill for a large standing army, which Mr. McKinley is trying to jam through the Senate, and they believe that the rank and file of the party stand behind them. Mr. Cockrell said: "We will give you every man and every officer that is necessary, but we are not willing at this short session to fasten upon the country a standing army of 100,000 men and to increase the expenses of the people by millions of dollars. We are offering everything that is fair and just and right. We have no disposition or intention to force an extra session of Congress, and we say to you that every bill that legitimately and of right ought to be a law can be passed at this session. If an extra session is called, it will be solely for the purpose of fastening upon the people a standing army of 100,000 men." That is a fair and straight-forward statement of the attitude of the democratic Senators, who are being accused of holding up the government. They are not holding up the government, except in the sense of helping it to be true to the people. The war taxes are likely to have to be paid until a democratic Congress and administration is elected, and there will either have to be more taxes or more bonds, unless the extravagant policy of the administration can be headed off or curtailed.

Col. W. J. Bryan, is in Washington, and the reception given him by the five hundred democrats, mostly men of prominence, who attended the banquet of the Virginia Democratic Association, at which he was the guest of honor, makes it certain that those who suppose that he is losing his hold upon the party are mistaken, just as the ringing speech, bristling with Jeffersonian democracy, he made at the banquet made it certain that he has lost none of the oratorical power that enabled him to hold the Chicago convention spell-bound and to thrill the hearts of six and a half million voters. Whether Col. Bryan will ever be President, only the future can show, but that he is one of the most wonderful men of our time and that he possesses a wonderful hold upon the hearts of his fellow-countrymen is as plain as that night follows day.

Senator Proctor has been credited with getting more than his share of army appointments and promotions under the present administration. Therefore it was a little surprising when he made a speech jumping all over the method by which army promotions and appointments are made on "pull," instead of merit. He knows the subject, for, in addition to getting commissions on "pull," he issued them on it when he was Secretary of War. Army officers will know how to appreciate his statement that little consideration is given to applications for promotion on merit, because the demand of some Senator or Representative for the place must be complied with. There is no doubt about the evil of the present system, not only because it puts unfit men into responsible military positions, but because it has a general demoralizing effect upon Congress. It is well known that Secretary Alger muzzled a number of Senators and Representatives with army patronage.

Senator Mitchell, of Wisconsin,

Beauty is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic, to clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all its poisons from the body. made a decided hit in his speech against the Hull Army bill, by declaring that he wished to confine any increase in the army to "The United States proper and not extend it to the United States improper." He objected most decidedly to having United States soldiers engaged in shooting our ideas into an alien people.

The Alger Cuban junket, planned to start as soon as Congress adjourns, upon which a number of Senators and Representatives will be carried as guests, will go upon a government vessel and the bills will be paid with public money. It is estimated that the cost of the trip will not be less than $200,000, but the amount may be lessened if the trip has to be shortened to enable the Senators and Representatives to attend an extra session of Congress, as now seems likely. It is said that Mr. McKinley has been advised to break up the Alger junket.

Every member of the committee named by Senator Jones to advise with the Democratic National Committee during the preparation for next year's campaign, is not only a staunch advocate of the renomination of Col. Bryan, but also of the re-adoption of the Chicago platform. Senator Jones will be chairman of the advisory committee and his associates will be the following gentlemen: Senator White, of California, D. S. Campan, of Michigan, Norman Mack, of New York, the widely known Buffalo editor, Ex-Governor Altgeld, of Illinois, and Ex-Congressman George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts. The headquarters of the advisory committee will be in Washington.

Admiral Schley having in his statement of his record during the war with Spain made it plain that the jumping of Sampson over his head was the result of dirty work, in which Sampson was the ringleader, there is a strong sentiment in Congress to compel the administration to do justice to Schley. One result of that sentiment is the introduction of a bill by Representative Lentz, of Ohio, providing that Dewey shall be made a full Admiral and Schley a Vice Admiral. There should be no doubt of the passage of the bill, but, unfortunately, there is.

Better be careful when fooling with a lawyer. They sometimes sue for a breach of contract as quickly as a woman in a marriage case. A man from Davidson, whose son is in trouble here, retained a lawyer last week to represent him, promising, as is alleged, to send him a retainer, but instead of doing this he came down yesterday and employed another attorney, whereupon the first brought suit and recovered judgment.—Greensboro Record.

Salisbury, N. C., Dec. 4, '98

From my own experience I have found Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy the best medicine known for building up the health in general. The greatest remedy in the world for dyspepsia, eczema, aches and pains and breaking up colds. Nine years ago I suffered with a chronic cold, which resulted in a bronchial affection and repeated serious troubles of the throat which were alarming. I was affected with something like croup and again laryngitis. I tried Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and am free of all those troubles and have been ever since and feel confident the Remedy has made the cure. I have kept it in my family for years and have always found it invaluable for old and young. The extraordinary effect of this grand remedy is sure to be realized by all who give it a fair test.

Sincerely,
MRS. M. E. RAMSAY.

History of the Spanish War

By Dr. ALBERT SHAW,

Editor of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS,

AND A LONG LIST OF NOTABLE CONTRIBUTORS.

Over 1,200 Pages and 500 Valuable Illustrations.

Three Beautiful Volumes in Half Morocco.

See special offer at bottom of this advertisement.

This Magnificent Edition for only ONE DOLLAR DOWN.

To the readers of this paper we make the following proposition to become members of the Review of Reviews History Club, and obtain the three volumes of

Our War in Two Hemispheres,

By ALBERT SHAW,

Editor of the "American Monthly Review of Reviews" and author of "Municipal Government in Great Britain," etc., and a number of prominent contributors.

EVERY American teacher possessing a library, and many that do not possess one, will be interested in the announcement of the history of the late war with Spain, now published by the REVIEW OF REVIEWS COMPANY. Much of the narrative was written by Dr. Albert Shaw during the actual fighting of the summer. This has been revised and amplified by him in the light of the official reports and documents, which have only become available after hostilities ceased. A free quotation from the critical Congressional debates and other public utterances at crucial periods aids in making this work what it is, the standard reference history of this decisive and successful struggle. But it is much more than a lively and comprehensive narrative. It goes back to the years of struggle in Cuba which prepared the way for the war; it discusses energetically all problems which confronted the United States after the war as to the Philippines, Cuba, and Porto Rico; and as a whole it forms a broadly conceived picture of the year which has seen America brought face to face with new world duties.

The important special and technical matters of the war period, generally dismissed by the historian with only slight and often insufficient discussion, are fully and authentically dealt with in contributed chapters, written by men who had unusual opportunities for studying their subjects. Thus, the lessons which the war has for us as to the relative efficiency of rifles and machine guns are in a carefully written chapter by Lieut. John H. Parker, of the United States Army; the military movements of the Santiago and Porto Rican campaigns are analyzed by the editor of the Army and Navy Journal; the battle with Cervera is described by the novelist, Winston Churchill, who is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy; the actual condition of Cuba before the war and the facts which caused the war are described by eye-witnesses, Murat Halstead and Stephen Bonsal.

The illustration of the book is especially valuable in the hundreds of portraits, pictures of the navies, photographed scenes of the war, and the entertaining cartoons reproduced from the Spanish, French, German, and English papers, as well as from the American.

How to obtain the handsome edition by a payment of only ONE DOLLAR DOWN.

The three beautifully bound large octavo volumes and a year's subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS can be obtained by any of the readers of this paper by joining the Review of Reviews Club and paying one dollar. The volumes will be sent as soon as ready to those who remit the sum, and the purchase will be completed by the payment of one dollar per month for twelve months. The first volume will be ready early in December. The subscription to the magazine which goes with the offer can be dated from any month.

ON THE MONITOR.

A Veteran's Reminiscences of the Battle in Hampton Roads.

"The important part which opportunity plays in the lives of men is well illustrated by the career of the late Admiral Worden," remarked Captain Louis N. Stodder of the United States revenue cutter service and United States supervisor of anchorages, port of New York, as he sat one day last week in his room in the barge office. Captain Stodder has the distinction of being the last survivor of the officers who were assigned to duty on the Monitor when it began its career, and who remained in constant service on the vessel until the end of Cape Hatteras.

By a singular coincidence Captain Stodder's room almost overlooks the statue erected in Battery park to the memory of Ericsson, once his intimate friend.

"You see," continued the captain, "naval officers were not overplentiful at the beginning of the war, and the officials at Washington had to make the best use of the material they had in hand. In fact, a great many officers were enrolled from the merchant marine service. I went into the service from the merchant marine myself. I think the fact that Worden, then ranking only as lieutenant, was placed in command of the Monitor would show that that vessel was looked upon as rather a doubtful experiment by the government and that the selection of a man to take command was not made by reason of any special fitness for the position.

"It was Worden's good luck that he was assigned to the Monitor, for the result of the fight made the vessel and all on board famous.

"The brave part that he played in the fight was recognized by congress, and he was rapidly promoted to high rank, which other officers obtained only after 20 years of service.

"I remember him well when he first came on board the Monitor about a month before the fight. He had just been released from prison and looked thin and sallow. He had the appearance of one dying from fever complaint. I never thought it possible for him to live long.

"During the fight he was cool and collected. I recall an incident which I do not remember ever seeing published. The pilothouse was situated in the bow of the Monitor, quite away from the turret. During the fight I was in the turret with other officers, when suddenly we saw Lieutenant Worden climbing up where we were. Without saying anything he opened one of the turret doors and stepped out on the deck in full view of the enemy.

"Why, captain, what's the trouble?" exclaimed several of the officers in astonishment at his fearless act.

"I can't see well enough from the pilothouse," came the quiet reply. "I wanted to get out here for a moment to take in the whole situation." Then, looking around for a few moments, he came inside.

"Lieutenant Worden was very popular with officers and men alike. They all worshiped him. Although only 45 years old at the time of the Monitor-Merrimac fight, he looked almost 60. He wore a long beard at the time, and looked just as the recent pictures made him appear.

"I last saw Admiral Worden at the ceremonies attending the removal of Ericsson's body to its final resting place. Only a handful of persons were admitted to the ceremony. They were those who survived from the officers and men of the Monitor. Admiral Worden was in a carriage with Secretary Tracy. He was very feeble, and his end even then seemed but a short way off, and yet that was several years ago."—Troy Times.

English Penny Novels.

Penny novelettes differ from one another in external rather than in internal. The get up of the better sort is neat and attractive. The type is clear, and the covers might even be called "artistic" in the catholic sense of the term. The inferior kinds are indifferently printed "on gray paper with blunt type," and there are many degrees of excellence between the two extremes. All except one have illustrations ranging from the rudest of woodcuts to the "mudgiest" of "process" plates. Of course the artist selects the most sensational incidents for his pencil to adorn. The stabbing of the heroine's father by the villain disguised as the hero, the kidnapping of the heroine by Black Tom and his gang of gypsies at the instigation of her jealous rival, the horse-whipping of the villain by the hero in "faultless" evening dress—these and their like naturally present themselves as thoroughly suitable and congenial subjects.—Blackwood's Magazine.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

Potato Bugs Prospering.

We fear that Mr. Oliver Davis's remedy of hanging a thermometer on the clothes-line to kill out the potato bugs will fail this year. In times past we have read of the forwardness of these voracious pests in sitting on the clods and watching for the potatoes to come up, but this year they are reported to be ahead of that. A gentleman told us in Dallas Monday that when he went to the store to get his seed potatoes the bugs were there looking over the merchant's books to see who had bought. Speaking of remedies, we hit upon one last year year which worked better than any we ever tried before, so that we were not troubled at all by the bugs. Every year recently they had been destroying our potatoes tee-totally, but last year we concluded not plant any and they never touched a leaf of ours.—Gastonia Gazette.

A Chicago paper offsets that London story about a mushroom that lifted a 500-pound paving stone with the remark that we have in this country some kinds of mushrooms that carry lots of people to the cemeteries.

SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN LOT.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county, made in a certain Special Proceeding therein pending, entitled "Lillie Baker vs Sophia Baker and others" I will, on Monday, April 3rd, 1899, before the Court House door in Greenville, sell at public sale to the highest bidder for cash, that certain part of lot No. 58 in the plan of the town of Greenville adjoining the lots of T. C. Cannon and J. A. Braddy on the south; the lots of J. A. Braddy and B. F. Tyson on the east; the lot of B. F. Patrick on the north and Greene street on the west. It being that part of said lot No. 58 upon which situated the dwelling of the late Sally Ann Jones, deceased. This February 25th, 1899.
