A SAD WEEK.

The year had gloomily begun For Willie Weeks, a poor man's
He was beset with bill and dun,
And he had very little
"This cash," said he, won't pay my dues;
I've nothing here but ones and
A bright thought struck him, and he said,
"The rich Miss Goldbrick I will
But when he paid his court to her,
She lisped, but firmly said, "No,
"Alas!" said he, "then I must die!
I'm done! I'll drown, I'll burn, I'll
They found his gloves, and coat, and hat;

STATE NEWS.

J. F. Carter, formerly of Salisbury, died in Charlotte from an overdose of laudanum.

A negro made an assault on a white lady, in Charlotte, Saturday afternoon. He was arrested.

The body of a female white infant was found in a ditch at Greenboro. The child's throat had been cut.

The First North Carolina Regiment has sent a petition from Cuba to the authorities at Washington asking to be mustered out of service.

Unprofitable Citizens.

There are people who depend entirely on their home people for support, who do not contribute by word or deed to the support of any other home institution but their own. People of this size never discover the amount of consideration they receive from others. Many a man thinks what he is permitted to do is what he does, and often thinks another exists by his gracious consideration when he himself is the recipient of unmeasured kindness at the hands of the other.—Emporia (Va.) Messenger.

Business Competition.

Business nowadays is a competition of the severest kind. There is no place for the laggard, for the man who is not keen witted above his fellows. The dull plodder goes to the wall. Industry is well enough in its way, industry is far from being everything in the struggle for mastery that modern business has become. The man who would succeed must be progressive, must keep awake to the movement of the times, must adapt himself to the current and swim with it.—Painter's Magazine.

An Editor's Trouble.

A problem which we have been trying to solve since Saturday, Feb. 18th, is whether one is a subject of congratulations or an object of commiseration upon the advent of an eleven and one-half pound baby boy. Will those more experienced please enlighten us?—Henderson Gold Leaf.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

William L. Merry, United States Minister to Costa Rica, Nicaragua and Salvador, has arrived at Managua.

In order to settle an estate at Milwaukee, Wis., Julius Luebke has, for the second time within a year, been adjudged legally dead.

Lizzie Cook, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., who set fire to her little brother during his mother's absence, said she "wanted to see baby die."

A tract of pine land in Wisconsin containing 200,000,000 feet of timber has been sold to Chatfield & Keep and others, of Chicago, Ill., for $1,000,000.

The Tarr Distillery, in Lexington, Ky., has been bought for $60,000 by the recently-formed trust of Kentucky distillers and warehouse companies.

Three hundred Chinamen passed through New York on their way to Mexico, where they will be employed as laborers on the Mexican Central Railroad.

An Iowa girl advertised for a husband and got him. The advertisement and wedding fixtures cost $9. Within a year he enlisted and was killed at Santiago, leaving his wife $3,000 insurance. The wife will, in addition to this, be drawing a widow's pension in a short time.

If you discontinue advertising entirely, you are leaving out some of the bricks in the wall which you are constructing and will lose a large portion of the benefits of cumulative ads when you begin again, there having been a disconnection in what you did before and that which you now intend to do.—Press and Printer.

The average merchant will get angry if you tell him you don't believe there are any good reasons why people should patronize him in preference to his competitors. Thus aroused, he will pour out reasons—good reasons, too—enough to fill a book. But it rarely occurs to the average merchant to give the public those reasons in his advertising. He doesn't seem to realize that such is the best sort of advertising—the only sort of advertising that is real advertising.—Press and Printer.

The new spring bonnet is said to be a stunner. It will have a cow-catcher in front, a tail-board behind, a flower garden on top, with a bunch of grass on one side and a bird's carcass on the other side. The whole will be elaborately banded together with crushed ribbons and topped off with a very abundant millinery bill.—Durham Sun.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 27, '99

Mr. McKinley's backdown from his army bill bluff will go down in Congressional history as the most complete ever made by a President. The democratic victory is complete. The new Army bill is practically just what was offered to the administration by Senator Cockrell, on behalf of those Senators who opposed a large standing army—it provides for continuing the present status of the regular army of 62,000 men for two years from next July, and for enlisting 35,000 volunteers for the same period. The administration Senators fairly fell over each other in their anxiety to accept Senator Cockrell's offer. The next Congress, which will be republican in both branches, will probably inflict a large standing army on the country, but that will not deprive the Senators who killed the bill, to do so at this time, of deserved credit.

Our Philippine policy is bearing fruit quickly. In addition to having an expensive war with the Filipinos on our hands, Dewey's dispatch to hurry up the battleship Oregon indicates the belief on his part that there is danger of war with more powerful opponents. Just how great this danger is can only be guessed, because officials are concealing what information they have and pretending that the dispatch from Dewey, which was made public by mistake, had no meaning. Little information can be gained from private dispatches from Manila as they are all strictly censored, but it is known that conditions are critical, and that European consuls there are making some stiff claims on account of the recent partial burning of the town.

Mr. McKinley has been catching it again from members of his own party in Congress. Senator Sewell, who voted for ratification of the treaty and for everything else that has been asked for by the administration, was so stirred up by the progress of the war with the Filipinos, that he let out the fact that he had been supporting the McKinley policy against his own judgment. He said emphatically: "I never was in favor of the acquisition of the Philippines," and added that he had begged Mr. McKinley to order Dewey away from Manila, after he won his victory. Mr. Sewell thinks the Filipinos will have to be practically exterminated before we can control the Philippines. He also thinks that we shall soon be at war with Cuba, because of the administration policy.

Representative Johnson, of Indiana, a republican, made a long speech, nearly every sentence of which contained an attack upon Mr. McKinley. He said of those who attacked Alger and praised Mr. McKinley that they have lacked the courage to lay their axe to the root of the evil and censure the gentlemen who, to reward him for his political services and disbursements in the campaign of '96, appointed him (Alger) to his present position, and had maintained him there ever since, notwithstanding his incompetency and against the righteous complaints that have been made against him." He said that Mr. McKinley's recent Boston address "was nothing more nor less than a carefully devised misstatement of the issue, and of our Philippine policy: 'I insist that the whole policy is not simply an error, but that it is a crime, and that the Chief Executive of this nation is the one who has precipitated upon us the embarrassments and difficulties by which we are now confronted.'" Speaking of the claim that Mr. McKinley acted upon the advice of Dewey, in demanding the Philippines, Mr. Johnson said: "The Chief Executive cannot screen himself behind the gold lace of the hero of Manila." He expressed the opinion that the real reason for Mr. McKinley's policy was "his concessions to the selfish capitalists of the country, his surrender to their demands. These are the gentlemen who furnished the money for his nomination and election, and who, I doubt not, have pledged him a re-nomination and re-election. These are the gentlemen who are already grasping after special privileges in the Philippines, in Cuba, and in Porto Rico. It was, I imagine, for their especial benefit that the President created his Advisory Board to the War Department."

It is an open secret in Washington that Mr. McKinley would be glad to receive Alger's resignation. The story circulated last week that Alger was about to resign originated in administration circles, and was doubtless intended as a hint to Alger. It brought out the defiant statement from Alger that he did not intend to resign, of his own accord. He is said to believe that Mr. McKinley is afraid to ask for his resignation, although he knows that he is constantly being advised by prominent republicans to do so.

When the Morgan Nicaragua Canal bill passed the Senate, there was seven votes cast against it; when the River and Harbor bill, containing an amendment providing for the building of the Nicaragua Canal passed the Senate, only three votes were cast against it—Senators Pettigrew, Teller and Rawling, neither of whom are opposed to the Canal under what they consider proper conditions.

Mr. McKinley has nominated Ex-Secretary Day to a United States Circuit Court judgeship.

No. 1000. Fifty Cents. Guaranteed to cure. This cure makes weak men strong. Price 50c. All druggists.

Secret of True Living.

The secret of true living, says the Norfolk Virginian and Pilot, is not to help the strong, aggrandize the rich, medicine the well, please the happy, contribute to the fortunate, or clothe the well-robed, but to help the weak, share with the poor, supply remedies for the sick, cheer the unhappy, relieve the unfortunate, clothe the naked, and in this you will find your greatest happiness and prosperity, as every investment is preferred and secured by this standard how many of us have discovered the secret of true living? Alas! too few indeed.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

The Fruit Crop.

While the damage to the fruit crop by the recent severe freeze has certainly been great, there is reason to believe that it is less than was at first supposed.

The Georgia peach has not suffered to the extent first reported. Florida has lost heavily by the destruction of early vegetables, but the good news comes that the orange crop, in the main has escaped injury.

Florida was just beginning to recover from the terrible effects of the freeze of 1895, and has been sending us this winter the best oranges we have had since that disaster.

The whole country is interested in the Florida orange crop, as it is in the Georgia peach crop. The Florida orange and the Georgia peach have no equals; there is no substitute for either.

The peach industry of this state has grown to vast proportions, and the market for its product has been extended to every part of the country. Last year there was an unprecedented yield of peaches in Georgia, and it brought millions of dollars into this state at a time when hardly any other money crop was available.

There is yet hope that we may have another great peach crop this year.

Without an abundant supply of Georgia peaches the pleasure of life is distinctly decreased for millions of the people of this country.—Atlanta Journal.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away.

Does This Hit You?

Fault-finding is one of the ways men seek to appear wiser than they are. It seems to invest them with a degree of authority in the eyes of those who do not realize that it is one of the easiest of all things to find fault. To expose errors, foretell difficulties, to criticize methods, to make objections, may all be done volubly by persons who have no power to originate better ways or to overcome the obstacles which they spread forth and who are in every way inferior to those whom they criticize or contradict or interrogate.—North Wales Record.

Beauty is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic, clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed—10c, 25c, 50c.

Enjoyed the "Theft."

A Charlotte gentleman who was in the city yesterday said he sat by his window in his residence Sunday and watched people carry off his wood of which he had about twenty cords. At least half that amount was taken off, he says, and he sat in silence and enjoyed it unknown to those who were "sponging" on him. One of the takers, as he started off with all he could carry, glanced at the window and saw the owner. Immediately he dropped the wood and was about to depart when the gentleman raised the window and told him to help himself. And the lick almost killed "daddy."—Greensboro Evening Telegram.

Owing to the fact that it is now frequently mistaken for a labor organization the Massachusetts Council of the Order of United American Mechanics wants the name of the society changed. The Ancient Order of American Workmen suffers under the same misapprehension.

PROOF.

It is an easy matter to claim that a remedy has wonderful curative power. The manufacturers of—leave it to those who have been positively and permanently cured of Rheumatism to make claims. Among those who have recently written us voluntary letters saying they have been cured are: Rev. J. L. Foster, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. J. E. Robinson, Editor Goldsboro, N. C. Daily Argus; Mr. A. Daus, a prominent merchant, Macon, Ga., and Mr. W. R. Duke, a railroad man, Kansas City, Mo.

RHEUMACIDE

Experience is a Good Teacher.

Salisbury, N. C., Dec. 4, '98

From my own experience I have found Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy the best medicine known for building up the health in general. The greatest remedy in the world for dyspepsia, eczema, aches and pains and breaking up colds. Nine years ago I suffered with a chronic cold, which resulted in a bronchial affection and repeated serious troubles of the throat which were alarming. I was affected with something like croup and again laryngitis. I tried Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and am free of all those troubles and have been ever since and feel confident the Remedy has made the cure. I have kept it in my family for years and have always found it invaluable for old and young. The extraordinary effect of this grand remedy is sure to be realized by all who give it a fair test.

Sincerely, MRS. M. E. RAMSAY.

PIMPLES

"My wife had pimples on her face, but she has been taking CASCARETS and they have all disappeared. I had been troubled with constipation for some time, but after taking the first Cascarets I have had no trouble with this ailment. We cannot speak too highly of Cascarets." ## Our War in Two Hemispheres,

By ALBERT SHAW,

Editor of the "American Monthly Review of Reviews" and author of "Municipal Government in Great Britain," etc., and a number of prominent contributors.

EVERY American teacher possessing a library, and many that do not possess one, will be interested in the announcement of the history of the late war with Spain, now published by the REVIEW OF REVIEWS COMPANY. Much of the narrative was written by Dr. Albert Shaw during the actual fighting of the summer. This has been revised and amplified by him in the light of the official reports and documents, which have only become available after hostilities ceased. A free quotation from the crucial Congressional debates and other public utterances at crucial periods aids in making this work what it is, the standard reference history of this decisive and successful struggle. But it is much more than a lively and comprehensive narrative. It goes back to the years of struggle in Cuba which prepared the way for the war; it discusses energetically all problems which confronted the United States after the war as to the Philippines, Cuba, and Porto Rico; and as a whole it forms a broadly conceived picture of the year which has seen America brought face to face with new world duties.

The important special and technical matters of the war period, generally dismissed by the historian with only slight and often insufficient discussion, are fully and authentically dealt with in contributed chapters, written by men who had unusual opportunities for studying their subjects. Thus, the lessons which the war has for us as to the relative efficiency of rifles and machine guns are in a carefully written chapter by Lieut. John H. Parker, of the United States army; the military movements of the Santiago and Porto Rican campaigns are analyzed by the editor of the Army and Navy Journal; the battle with Cervera is described by the novelist, Winston Churchill, who is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy; the actual condition of Cuba before the war and the facts which caused the war are described by eye-witnesses, Murat Halstead and Stephen Bonsal.

The illustration of the book is especially valuable in the hundreds of portraits, pictures of the navies, photographed scenes of the war, and the entertaining cartoons reproduced from the Spanish, French, German, and English papers, as well as from the American.

How to obtain the handsome edition by a payment of only ONE DOLLAR DOWN.

The three beautifully bound large octavo volumes and a year's subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS can be obtained by any of the readers of this paper by joining the Review of Reviews Club and paying one dollar. The volumes will be sent as soon as ready to those who remit the sum, and the purchase will be completed by the payment of one dollar per month for twelve months. The first volume will be ready early in December. The subscription to the magazine which goes with the offer can be dated from any month.

DEHMAN THOMPSON'S FIRST

His Earliest Appearance on the Stage Was With a West Swanzy Club.

One of the most treasured mementos of Denman Thompson's long and successful career on the stage is a programme of the first entertainment in which he appeared. Mr. Thompson has the bill incased in an oak frame, and he takes more pride in showing it to his friends than any of the costly souvenirs which he has collected during the 47 years he has been before the public. During the call of a Sentinel reporter upon Mr. Thompson at his home in West Swanzy a day or two ago the distinguished actor exhibited the precious piece of paper with the remark that no newspaper man had ever seen it or written about it.

The bill is 6½ by 17½ inches in size, was printed at The Sentinel office in Keene and aside from the cast of characters reads: "Exhibition by the request of their numerous friends. The West Swanzy Shakespeare club will give another entertainment at the town hall, Swanzy, on Tuesday, Dec. 10, 1850. Doors open at 5 o'clock, p. m. Curtains rise at 6½. Tickets 12½ cents."

The first number was an orchestral overture and then a song, "Greeting Glee," by A. E. Bennett, now of Keene, and others. Then came a national drama in two acts, entitled "Brazen Drum; or, The Yankee in Poland," in which Mr. Thompson played the part of Calvin Cartwheel, a drum major in the "Vermont" militia, "a carter and a whole team in the cause of Polish freedom." After that came a song, "Oh, Carry Me 'Long," by A. E. Bennett and others. "Therese, the Orphan of Geneva," was the next offering, in which Mr. Thompson appeared as the Count de Moroville. Then there was another song by A. E. Bennett and others and a fancy dance, "Lucy Long," by Mr. Thompson, and another song by Mr. Bennett.

The one act farce, "The Omnibus; or, A Convenient Distance," was the next number, in which Mr. Thompson had the part of Pat Rooney. A comic pantomime, "Adventures of Jack Jameson," closed the entertainment. The music was furnished by Ramsdall's band, which consisted of a violin and melodeon. Among the people who appeared with Mr. Thompson at that time were Mrs. H. W. Leonard, now living in West Swanzy; John Patch, roadmaster of the Connecticut river division of the Boston and Maine railroad; A. E. Bennett, a merchant of Keene; Miss M. M. Thompson, Mr. Thompson's sister, now Mrs. Granger, who lives in West Swanzy. The others are all dead. D. J. Atwood, one of the actors, known in the early days as Dan Atwood, was for many years a theatrical costumer in Boston, where he was better known as the "mad tailor."—Keene (N. H.) Sentinel.

ABSORBED IN WHIST.

A Game That Cost General Doubleday a Fortune.

Not many years ago a famous whist game was played at Sudbury, Vt., two of the sitters in being General Doubleday and Henry Dater of the well known firm of Dater, Thompson & Co. It was something like 5 or 10 cents a corner; so you see it was easy for a man to lose as much as $1.90 in an afternoon. Play began after the Sudbury dinner hour, half past 1, and lasted until teatime. The old roosters became so wrapped up in the game that nothing short of an earthquake could have disturbed them. Brokers in New York could do nothing to shake the interest.

The game was played at the time of the historic Hannibal and St. Joe corner, engineered by Kennedy, Hutchinson & Co., in the interest of their client, John Duff of Boston. Doubleday was selling the stock short through Van Schaick & Co., and at a quarter to 2 on the eventful day he received a telegram from his brokers advising him of the situation. The game was stopped just long enough for him to read it and lay it aside. In 20 minutes a second dispatch arrived, was read and cast aside. Doubleday was winning at the rate of 35 cents an hour. What did he care about Hannibal and St. Joe? Later in the afternoon a third summons came from Van Schaick & Co., and at 5 o'clock a fourth. Then Doubleday arose and remarked: "Gentlemen, I have enjoyed the game. My winnings are exactly $1.65. I must say good afternoon, as it is necessary for me to take the first train for New York." The next morning his brokers informed him that he could settle for $100,000. At the time the first telegram was sent he could have settled for $25,000, at the time of the second for $50,000, the third for $75,000. He had ample warning, but in the thick of the Sudbury game of whist he believed the rise was only a threatening flurry.—New York Press.
