FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1899.

A Good Point.

Certain splenetic journals calling themselves religious are very effectively advertised in the South by the very parties who are most opposed to the advertising. For instance, a certain religious journal calls the South a land of "barbarism," where the Church fails to "teach the sin of murder." Some religious papers reply to the slanderous statement, and, in doing so give the name of the slanderous journal. The only effect of this is to advertise a paper, which as long as it holds its prejudice, should have few Southern readers. Let our brethren of the press reply, if they wish, to the untruthful statements of their prejudiced contemporaries across the border, but let them withhold the names of the latter. Let us advertise only those papers that are worthy of being advertised.—Raleigh Christian Advocate.

There is something in this suggestion that the secular press might profit by.

All the quo warranto proceedings and testing the right to office that are to follow the decision of the Supreme Court in the Day case will make "pie" for the lawyers. The end of litigation cannot be sighted with a spy glass.

The Country Newspaper.

The country newspaper is an important agency in the cultivation of public spirit, and however humble it may seem beside the metropolitan daily it has a place in popular education. While the editor is not often above the rank of a practical printer, there are many persons in most of the suburban towns—clergymen, lawyers, teachers and others—who have the leisure and ability to use the paper as a vehicle of influence over their fellow citizens. The country newspaper is usually local in its news, and the very people who might make it fresh and suggestive are those who complain most loudly of its meager character. Short articles pertaining to local interests are always welcomed in its columns, and the men and women who most desire to make home life in the country rich and influential can best do so by contributing freely to its columns of what they have in mind. In some places this has been done and the result in the quickened life of the community has been gratifying.—Boston Herald.

Rheumacide is not recommended for the cure of every ill; it does not cure everything. But it is a certain cure for rheumatism, and is a fine blood purifier and laxative-try it.

This In Prohibition Maine.

Bystanders who watched the destruction of the splendid stock of goods in the fire at Geo. C. Shaw & Co.'s store were often heard to regret that so much of value was going up in smoke and flame. There was a large quantity of food there that would have done a vast amount of good to the poor of Portland if it could have been distributed among them before the fire began. And here it is a total loss, doing no one the slightest good. It was a pity. But how much greater the loss to Portland every year from the freedom which is allowed the rum traffic than is that caused by fire!

There are hundreds of rum shops flourishing here. It would not be an easy matter to estimate the amount of money that goes over their counters every week, but it is entirely safe to assert that it is a large sum, and that it is self-evident that it is money that is wasted and worse than wasted, so far as the good of the men who earn it and their families are concerned. This money comes primarily from the men who work for wages within our city. The less a man earns and the more his money is needed at home, the more likely he is to spend large sums, comparatively speaking, over the bar.—Portland, Me., Express.

Dewey Won't Be a Candidate.

Admiral Dewey has given to the Manila correspondent of Leslie's Weekly an interview regarding the suggestion that the admiral be made a candidate for the presidency. The admiral said, as to his politics:

"I am a sailor. A sailor has no politics. The administration is his party, and Republican or Democratic, it makes no difference. Then, again, I come from Vermont, and you know what that means. To be anything but a Republican in Vermont is to be a man without a party. My flag lieutenant comes from Georgia. He tells me that to be anything but a Democrat in the South is to be a nobody. If I lived South I would probably be a Democrat."

"Have you ever voted?" the correspondent asked.

"Yes, years ago, but my vote was usually influenced by personal preference or local conditions. I am not a politician, have never held political office, and am totally ignorant of party intricacies and affiliations."

Admiral Dewey said that neither by vocation, disposition, education or training was he capacitated to fill the presidency. He said that he was too well along in life to consider such a possibility. His health would not admit it. All his life's work was in different lines of effort, and that, while the kindness and enthusiasm of his friends were grateful to him, and the generous tributes of the American people were dear to him, he could not and would not be a candidate for the presidency of the United States under any conditions.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A PLEASANT, SIMPLE, SAFE BUT EFFECTUAL CURE FOR IT.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable.

The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompanied some times with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the lungs and heart and difficult breathing; headache, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out and languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and if the interior of stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate disease is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily and thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach.

To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids.

These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and, not being a patent medicine, can be used with perfect safety and assurance; that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom, passing back into the throat, reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I can not find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

Both Legs Broken.

Down near Dellaplane last Wednesday, Sam Johnson's son, 9 years old happened to the accident of getting both legs broken, between the knee and hip. The boy and his little sister went to the woods to get some wood. The boy cut down a tree and in some way, in falling, it fell on or struck his thighs and broke them both.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

Gleaning Ideas.

Ideas may be gleaned from most unexpected sources if a man is on the watch for them. Probably the man who will miss more ideas than any other is the one who relies entirely upon his own brain as the source of supply. Successful men have learned—and that has helped them to succeed—that ideas of the most valuable character can be picked up in the rough, from people whom one would never suspect of having such a thing about them. Your clerks, if you could draw them out, would be able to suggest many things which would prove of real value. Endeavor to stand in such relation to them, then, they will feel free to approach you and propose ideas which occur to them.—Crockery and Glass Journal.

This item is from the Colliersville Star: "The report that every husband who kisses his wife must put a revenue stamp on her is not true. The government requires stamps to be used where profit occurs and makes no vain revenue laws. Stamps are only used where a man kisses other men's wives and other men find it out."

TETTER ON THE HANDS.

For several years I was a sufferer from Tetter on my hands. It would come in little watery pimples and the itching was almost more than I could stand. The skin was tender and the itching would swell so I could hardly bend my fingers. Sometimes my hands would become perfectly raw from scratching or breaking of the pimples. When I was in this condition I tried one half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and some Wash in 1884, and by the time I took it my hands were cured, and I am now well of the trouble. It has since broken out a little at times, but not enough to inconvenience me or make me try more medicine. I am now well. MRS. M. E. KING. Burlington, N. C., May 27, 1896.

BE CURED OF GRIP!

The Wonderful Results Obtained in the Case of Supt. Davidson.

Now, what is the grip?
Can it be avoided or prevented?
And can it be cured?

Grip is characterized by a continued fever, by a tendency to inflammation of the membranes of the digestive and often the respiratory tracts, by pain in the muscles, and by debility.

The grip in individual cases varies from a slight indisposition to severe forms with grave symptoms—these variations depending wholly upon the health, age, temperament or nervous condition of the person. Those predisposed to rheumatism suffer great pain in the muscles; persons of nervous temperament become low spirited, often have hysteria, and, if not closely watched, have been known to commit suicide. Several cases of this sort have been reported this month in the newspapers. Headache is a constant symptom. The bowels are generally constipated. Whatever form the disease takes there is invariably extreme prostration. The danger to persons in previous healthful condition is slight.

It has been absolutely proven that there is one certain preventive of serious cases of grip; and that there is one remedy for persons suffering with it, or beginning to be convalescent from its attack.

The unexampled public demand for Paine's celery compound during the last two months—and the proprietors of this remedy have never known so great a call for it—has been due to its use by thousands of people for whom it has been prescribed by intelligent physicians, to restore the patient's vitality, to purify the blood of the enervating poison, to restore the nervous system to healthy action and to strengthen the vital organs.

A person will continue to suffer from the evil effects of grip for many months unless he attacks the disease by getting rid of the natural unhealthy poisons in the system supplying the body with new blood, arousing the healthful action of the kidneys, liver and digestive organs, and nourishing and upbuilding the over-exerted and debilitated nervous system. All this and just this Paine's celery compound will do. In the multitude of cases where it has been used, it has never failed.

A case well known in Chicago is cited. Mr. Frank E. Davidson, who is one of the most brilliant and best known engineers in the world, had just finished the plans for the great intercepting sewer system of Chicago, which is to divert the entire sewerage of the city from Lake Michigan, through the famous Chicago drainage canal, and down the Mississippi. Superintendent Davidson had worked for months on this scheme. He was well nigh exhausted and took to his bed with an attack of the grip. After a while the disease not having left him, he was advised to try Paine's celery compound. He was soon back at his office in the department of public works, a well man, and forthwith wrote a letter to the proprietors of the remedy, in which he says:

"I had been told by friends of the wonderful results obtained by them from the use of Paine's celery compound. After my severe attack of the grip I determined to try it. I have already found that my friends' reports were not at all exaggerated, and I wish to join most eagerly with them in recommending the remedy to others."

Hundreds of grateful letters have been written to the proprietors of Paine's celery compound since the appearance of grip this year, telling of the perfect recoveries it has effected. The letters come from men and women of many conditions. Few persons are so poor they cannot afford to have this great remedy constantly in the house, and none are so prosperous that for their health's sake they cannot be without it.

When so many men and women whose works carry the utmost weight in the communities in which they live testify as they do to the great benefit they have received from Paine's celery compound, there can be no hesitancy in trying it. A single trial is the test which is evidently invited.

This Goes it Strong.

There is but one way to stop negroes with smallpox from prowling around giving it to the public. That is when one carries it knowingly, give him a hemp necktie and swing him to a limb. An example of a dozen or so will end it. When its carried by one who has no good reason to believe he or she has it, then they are not to blame. We understand the negro who brought it here is making the rounds and not only carrying it to the towns but spreading it in the country as well—Washington Progress.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
