DONGOLA CASE.

PRELIMINARY TRIAL HELD.

Four Prisoners Discharged.---
Elijah Joyner and Cephus Langley Committed to Jail.---Fear of Lynching Causes Removal of Prisoners.

The next witness examined was the detective from Baltimore.

I. SPANDOUR.

I arrived at Farmville at night May 5th. Saturday morning following I drove up to Mr. Turnage's looked over the ruins and field adjoining. While there Mr. Ben May drove down and asked if I would not go up to woods, as there was a piece of paper there he wanted me to see. We went up and I found a bloody piece of paper at base of a tree. (Paper exhibited) I took this piece of paper to Farmville. On Sunday morning we made up a party to search the woods to see what we could find. We found another piece of paper (exhibited) about 25 yards from where the piece was found on Saturday. We then went and searched Ben Johnson's blacksmith shop, and in the shop underneath a board we found another piece with blood and hair on it. (exhibited.) While I was searching in field some one called me to come up back of blacksmith shop and there I found another piece of paper showing that a bloody knife had been wiped on it. I hunted a great deal around there. On Friday I found a vest in Elijah Joyner's house hid under table. (exhibited vest.) The inner pocket and lining had been torn out. The vest showed clots of blood. Elijah told me I would find a club near the old iron pump. I found the club but it did not satisfy me as being the club he had used. In searching his house in a corner hid away by a lot of rags and quilts I found another club (showing a murderous looking bludgeon) with blood stains on it. On yesterday we made up another party to search further. We went to Cephus Langley's house and hid in a corner on a sill underneath the house I found some rags filled with blood. (showing them.) I took a piece of quilt from the house to show that the rags matched it. In a little house under a lot of corn shucks I found an axe which has blood on it. (exhibited axe.) I questioned a little boy of Langley's a day or two before and asked him if he remembered the night of the fire. He replied "Papa was home." I asked him who told him to say that. He said "my mother told me if anybody asked me if papa was home that night to say yes." I asked him what his mother told him she would do if he didn't say this." He said "she said she would whip me."

I went down to Moses May's and found Elijah Joyner's oldest child there. Some children had told me that they heard this child say his father came home the morning of the fire very bloody and that Elijah's wife asked him where he had been all night and that he said he had been up the road helping to kill hogs. I questioned the child about this and he said it was so and that Elijah's wife started in to wash his bloody clothes that same morning.

In Cephus Langley's house I found a piece of bloody envelope addressed to Mr. Turnage, also a bloody corn shuck in the yard. I found other testimony but the witnesses are here to testify.

Here the court adjourned for didner and upon reassembling each of the six defendants was given a hearing in his own behalf.

BEN. JOHNSON.

I do not know anything about the murder or burning. The night before it happened I left the store about the same time of Mr. Turnage, got my coat and put it on, locked my shop and went on up the road. Met Mr. Ben Moore at the line gate, opened the gate for him got up on buggy and rode as far as his house with him, took out his horse for him and put the horse up. I then got over walling and went to Martha Ann Green's house and stayed there all night. Next morning after eating breakfast I went back to the shop and met the news on the road. Did not believe it when I first heard it until I met Mr. Ben and Mr. George Moore and they told me it was certainly so. Jim Fields was the first one to tell me. Do not know who committed the murder. No one told me who did it. Do not know how the bloody paper got in my shop. Sometimes when I hurt my finger at work I would wipe it on paper and throw the paper down. I had not been spitting blood that day. I sat up nearly all that night of the fire talking to Martha Ann. Was asleep next day because I had set up nearly all night and was so sorry about hearing of the fire that I did not go there. Never heard Elijah Joyner or Cephus Langley say who did it. Have not seen any goods that were taken out of store. Jim Dixon, Gatsey Fields and her son John Fields were at Martha Green's that night. Jim Dixon did not stay all night but I do not know what time he left, it was between 12 and 3 o'clock when he left.

WILLIAM H. ELLIS.

I do not know anything about murder or burning. I live about 3 miles from Turnage's store. That night I went to Betsey Hayes house on my place, about 200 yards from where I live, and stayed a couple hours. Went from there back home and never left the house again that night. Heard of the occurrence about 9 o'clock next morning. Robert Turnage and myself were friendly. I had not threatened to kill or shoot him, had not had a falling out with him about the woman to whose house I went that night. Never gave any one money to get him to come up to her house. Went to the scene of the fire about 11 o'clock next day. Never had any talk with Elijah Joyner about it and never went in the woods to where he was at work to give him any money. Met him on the road near Wilson a few days before I was arrested, did not give him any money then. I have known him a right smart while but never had a chat with him to amount to anything.

JIM DIXON.

I live at Mr. Redding Fields in Greene county, about 2 1/2 miles from Turnage's store. Went to Martha Ann Green's house that night as I was in the habit of doing, she lived on Gray Field's place. Left there about 11 o'clock and went to Jack May's house and stayed there all night. Never went to scene of the fire next day, heard about it soon that morning. Have not heard anybody say who did it, have not seen any new goods, did not have any new goods out where I was hauling logs hiding them. I left Ben Johnson at Martha Green's that night.

ELIJAH JOYNER.

I was home early that night by 8 o'clock, lay down in the porch and was in about half a doze. About 12 o'clock Cephus Langley came to my house and called me. I got up and went out to him. He told me come on and go with him, and I went and woke Mr. Bob Turnage up to go in and get some whiskey. Went in side door to bed room, Turnage left door about 2 feet open, when he drew the whiskey and was coming back and got in his room near door which I came in at Cephus passed a lick at him. Cephus had stopped near the door. When the lick was passed I went out at the pump door and got over walling at horse tub and went out to market shelter, and it was not very long before Cephus came out to where I was. As I went out the pump door I heard a scuffling in the store. Cephus got over walling at market shelter and told me to get him a basket and I got it, and he put a piece of large coarse paper in the bottom. He brought the paper with him from the store. He pulled off his top shirt and put it in the basket and untied a handkerchief from around his neck and put in with it, then took them out and went back to the store with these things. I carried the basket and put it under the gin house then put a few seed in it and poured them out at the horse stable, balled up the paper that was in bottom of basket and put that in the stable. I left there and went home. Cephus had gone back to the store. I did not have any more chat with him that night. We chatted together next day near scene of the fire. He said he was sorry he done what he did. He said one thing about it he (Bob) would never give him any more trouble. He asked me did I know his intentions, I told him no, but expected he would do many things from the chat I had heard him make. He told me he did not get any money but I believe that he did as I heard the Captain say some was missing out of the store. He told me all about how he done afterwards at the plant bed. He asked me didn't I find paper after leaving him and what did I do with it. I told him I had burned it. He asked me was I sure of it, I told him yes. I had not destroyed it, because I had been told if I could get on any track of the murder I would be rewarded even if I was implicated in it myself. He said he put all confidence in me that I would not tell anything on him or what he said. After he pulled off his shirt and came to me his hands were very bloody, he had put on another shirt that he got hanging on the walling, it was a light shirt with sleeves frazzled out, he had on a dark pair of pants. I took the paper afterwards, the bloody piece that Mr. Turnage found, and put it that morning at the place where it was found, and put two pieces in separate places in the edge of the woods. Cephus told me how he had done in the store.

DONGOLA CASE.

Said that after he struck Turnage that his lamp fell out, he (Cephus) struck a match and lighted another setting near a showcase. He reached in the showcase and got a knife to cut him with, and cut him up bad and had me for his cloaker and tells me where he put a knife. I heard Mr. Turnage speak after he was struck. Went to look for the knife but did not find it at first, then I was carried up there to search again and found it. Turnage was not cut with a razor, for the razor Mr. Windham got was mine and the other was Ben Johnson's and both had been at my house all the time. That morning while the bell was ringing for the fire I did not notice the first bell, but when the next bell tapped I noticed it and got up and ran out there, got a tub of water and threw it on top of kitchen, then commenced tearing down shed to old warehouse. I went and scratched in the ashes to show Mr. Turnage a dark, damp place where there was blood in one corner. Cephus told me before that he did not like Captain Bob nor Mr. Turnage and would never like him any more, that he was done buying drinks or anything from him. My purpose in going there that night was to get whiskey for Cephus. Got the whiskey but dropped it near the door where I ran out. That was my stick shown this morning, don't know how blood stains came on it. Sometimes it staid under the bed and sometimes set in the corner. That was my vest showed by detective, there never was a pocket on the inside, don't know how the lining was torn out, it had been out since last winter. Don't know how blood got on the vest. I snagged my hand at the fire and the blood may have got on the vest then. Never said I had been to a hog-killing when I went home. Did not have on a glove at the fire, but wore one next day. Will May told me Saturday night before the burning that he wanted to see me, we went from lot to store together. He got as far as blacksmith shop and I called him to hold on and asked what he wanted to talk with me about. (Here Elijah went over the brandy stealing proposal Will May said he made, but he put it on May as being the one to make the proposition.)

(A knife was shown.) That is the knife I found in the ditch. Cephus put it there. I have said I put it there, but I have said several things that were not true. God knows I am telling the truth now.

CEPHUS LANGLEY.

I know nothing about murder. Live nearly half a mile from Mr. Turnage's store. I had been hauling cotton seed with his steers and went to carry them home that night. I put the steers up and came out in road to the store and saw Mack Jones, Elijah Joyner and Ben Johnston standing near store. Went up to where they were standing talking. Elijah went to do something about store or lot. Mack and I left to go home. When I got home supper was not quite done and I told my wife to make haste and get me something to eat, that I was tired. I soon ate something and lay down and lay there all night long until I heard Mr. Turnage's bell ring next morning, then raised up and saw a great light and wondered what was the matter. Jumped up and ran to open the door and told my wife Mr. Turnage's store was on fire. I caught up this pair of pants (those he had on) and another old pair to put over them and hurried to the store. When I got there heard Mr. Turnage say, "run here and help me, somebody has killed Bob and set my store on fire." He told me to run get some water and help save other houses. Never had a word to say to Elijah that day. He and Will May came to the tobacco bed where I was Sunday evening, but the murder and arson was not even mentioned there. Have not talked with Elijah since have been in jail. The bloody rags found under my house belonged to female members of my family and were put there by them. The axe found in my crib belonged to Mr. Allen Butts, a shingle worker, and were put there with other tools by him sometime ago. Don't know how blood got on the axe. The one shown here this morning looked like the axe Mr. Butts left there. I was not mad with Mr. Robert Turnage and never had any falling out with him.

BEN DIXON.

I was at home that night, live about 4 miles from Mr. Turnage's store on Mr. Thomas Beaman's land. My wife and five children were with me and I never left home all night. Never heard of the fire until next day about dinner. Don't know why I was arrested.

MACK JONES.

I live three or four hundred yards from Mr. Turnage. Quit work about dark and went to store. Capt. Bob drove up about time I reached gate, Elijah took horse out and put him up in stables at gin house. I put my mule in lot, got over walling and went home ahead of mail man. Elijah and Cephus were then standing at corner of store talking. I was not near enough to hear them. Saw no one else there, never saw Ben Johnston at all. Went on home and in a little while went to bed. Did not come out any more until next morning when Speight woke me up to tell me the store was on fire. Saw the bloody paper the morning is was found. Do not know who did killing. Elijah did not tell me who did it. Have not seen any of the goods out of store.

GRAY SPEIGHT.

I live on Mr. Turnage's place about 25 yards from Mack Jones' house. Know nothing about murder and burning. The day before I asked Elijah to go fishing with me that night, he said he could not go as he had some other business. I went fishing that night with my boy and got back about 10 o'clock and went to bed. Went to fire next morning. Have not heard Elijah or Cephus say anything about it. Elijah came up in a clean shirt that morning.

DAN WARD.

I live on Mr. Turnage's place, two or three hundred yards from store. Know nothing about murder and burning. Saw Elijah at store about sunset and I left to go home just as Capt. Bob was driving up. Went back to fire next morning. Did not go to Elijah's house either the day before or after the fire. That morning of the fire Elijah asked me if I got a piece of the burned meat, that I ought to have a piece of it.

ESTHER LANGLEY.

Wife of Cephus Langley. He came home soon that night, supper was done when he got there, he ate and lay right down. I woke up twice before the bell rung, and the bell woke me next time. Cephus got up and ran out of doors and called to me that the store was burning up. He went back in house and got his pants and went to store. (Here the woman went into a denial of having told her child what to say, as stated by Detective Spandour. Said she was not home when detective went there, but that "white folks could make the children say anything.")

MARTHA ANN GREEN.

(Witness for Ben Joyner.)

I live about 2 1/2 miles from Turnage's store. Ben Joyner stayed at home that night. He came between 8 and 9 o'clock and left next morning after I had gone to work.

GATSEY FIELDS.

This witness also stated that Ben Joyner spent the night at Martha Green's and that Jim Dixon was there until very late.

FOUR PRISONERS RELEASED.

At this point Mr. F. G. James, who appeared with Solicitor Moore, said they had further testimony but the hour was so late (6:30) no more would be introduced. He said no evidence appearing that William Ellis, Ben Johnston, Ben Dixon and Jim Dixon were guilty the State would not ask that they be held further, but he asked the Court to commit Elijah Joyner and Cephus Langley to jail to await trial at September term of Superior Court. The Court agreed unanimously to this, and the four were discharged and the other two taken back to jail.

PRISONERS REMOVED.

After the trial was over and the two prisoners were taken back to jail threats of lynching began to find expression. These became so pronounced that Sheriff Mooring concluded that for the safety of the prisoners it would be best to move them, so in the early part of the night he had them quietly taken from the jail and carried elsewhere for safe keeping. The case aroused considerable feeling, especially against Elijah Joyner, who is believed to have made many false statements both before and during his examination at the trial.

LOVE'LL SHOW THE WAY.

When the old world seems so gloomy on the skies ain't lookin' bright,
When it seems ez dark in daytime en ez lone some ez at night,
It seems ez if a ray o' light's a kinder strugglin' through
When you think o' some ole friend you know'll shake the hand o' you.

When you think about the dark spots o' the times that ust be,
En gazin' at the future all is lonesome that you see,
There's one time when your mind gits on to happy thoughts awhile,
En that's when mem'ry shows you that ole sweetheart's happy smile.

So I jist don't keer how lonely past er future looks to you,
You'll allus find somehow the skies'll turn from gray to blue,
You'll allus find them lightin' up, don't keer how dark the day,
En when they light you'll allus find it's love that shows the way.
-Edward Singer in Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He Failed to Pass.

General Benjamin F. Butler was one of a commission to examine young applicants for admission to the bar, and before him came a youth who failed miserably on all that pertained to jurisprudence, case law, civil law, summary law, unwritten law and due process of law. Finally Butler, who rather liked the chap and wanted to see him through, asked: "What would you like to be examined in? You have failed in everything we have suggested."

The reply came, "Try me on the statutes; I'm up on them."

Butler shook his head solemnly. "My young friend," he said, "I'm afraid you won't do. You may be ever so familiar with the statutes, but what is to prevent a bad legislature from repealing all you know?"

TETTER ON THE HANDS.

For several years I was a sufferer from Tetter on my hands. It would come in little watery pimples and the itching was almost more than I could stand. The skin was tender and the itching would swell so I could hardly bend my fingers. Sometimes my hands would become perfectly raw from scratching or breaking of the pimples. When I was in this condition I tried one half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and some Wash in 1884, and by the time I took it my hands were cured, and I am now well of the trouble. It has since broken out a little at times, but not enough to inconvenience me or make me try more medicine. I am now well. MRS. M. E. KING.

A down town woman, who is known among her friends as a stylish person, but who is different to her toilet when she is in the experience a short time with a very quite a shock at the time. She had given a dinner party one day at which a very distinguished Englishman was entertained. The for her was quite captivated by the charming hospitality of his hostess and when on his way to the station to leave the city the next day he stopped at the house to pay his respects. All the servants were out, and the mistress of the house was by no means dressed for company. She was expecting the arrival of a new gown at the time, and thinking that the ring was that of a messenger by bringing it she went herself, in very slipshod attire, to the door.

To her horror, when she opened the door, she saw the face of the distinguished Englishman. To her joy, however, he asked if her mistress was in.
This one was all that was needed. Quick as a flash she replied, "No, sir; she's out riding." Without recognition the visitor left his card and went away with a decided opinion of the untidy appearance of Philadelphia servants.—

A Waiter's Dilemma.

It was in one of the large down town restaurants that the short little woman and her tall husband went for dinner
one night.

"Will you have oysters?" asked the man, glancing over the bill of fare.

"Yes," said the short little woman,
as she tried in vain to touch her toes to the floor. "And, John, I want a has-sock."

John nodded, and, as he handed his order to the waiter, he said, "Yes, and bring a hassock for the lady."

"One hassock?" asked the waiter, with what John thought more than ordinary interest, as he nodded in the affirmative. Still the waiter did not go, but brushed the tablecloth with a towel and rearranged the articles on it several times, while his face got very red.
Then he came around to John's side,
and, speaking sotto voce, said: "Say, mister, I haven't been here long, and I'm not on to all these things. Will the lady have the hassock broiled or fried?"

Graveyards in China.

The wife of an American naval officer stationed at Tien-tsin writes thus to a friend in Baltimore: "The trip by train from the landing to Tien-tsin takes about an hour and a half. The cars are not palatial, but they are comfortable.
When you land, hundreds of coolies besiege you for your baggage. You wonder how it ever reaches its destination in safety. The trip is somewhat interesting, but rather desolate to take alone.
You pass through miles of graveyards.
There are thousands of mounds without a sign of green grass or green leaf.

"China seems to be one vast graveyard, for they bury their dead everywhere they wish. They bury in large holes placed on the surface of the ground, covered over with mud and a pile of stones, and a small way out, and the bones are exposed to view. A few miles from the railroad station on the river you come to trees and vegetation.
It reminds you of some of the poor land that some of our railroads at home go through."

The Observing Youngsters.

Mildmay has never been in the habit of punishing his children, leaving that disagreeable duty to his wife, but the other day one of his numerous progeny became very unruly, and he was obliged to say:
"Flora, if you don't keep quiet I shall have to whip you."
"Pooh!" retorted the little 3-year-old, with a contemptuous toss of her dainty head, "you can't whip me."

The above figures tell a remarkable story; they represent almost exactly the per centage of cures made by the wonderful new constitutional cure for RHEUMATISM. The other two per cent. were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions. Thousands have been cured. In view of the fact that many physicians think that rheumatism is incurable, and that most remedies fail, it must be true that RHEUMACIDE is the greatest medical discovery of the age.

RHEUMACIDE
