GREENVILLE BOOK STORE.

Some Men Say,

All Insurance Companies are alike but the SOUTHERN STOCK MUTUAL & UNDERWRITER'S FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES, of Greensboro, N. C., are the best and most liberal. They share their profits with their policy holders. Tell your friends about it, and come to see me.

Our dividends are larger and our Insurance as good as any other company in the world.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, May 24, '99.

B. F. Manning & Co. have corn and hay a plenty.

W. M. Carroll has not been able to be in his store for a week or so. Mr. Ward, traveling salesman for Paris & Co. of New Berne, is stopping over here several days.

Whew! Winterville's growing; another girl at Albert Cox's and a boy at Nash Edwards'.

A great many farmers are having to plant cotton over again, wherever the hail struck.

As a result of E. C. Cox's last trip the Cigar Co. is getting off several nice orders. Ten thousand more were shipped yesterday.

Miss Annie Parker who has had charge of the school here returned to her home in Rich Square yesterday morning. Miss Annie is a good teacher and has made many friends here who regret to see her leave.

TOBACCO FLUES.—"Blest be the tie that binds" our tobacco flues together. This is what our patrons say when a neighbor gets his barn burned by his flues coming apart. A barn of tobacco is worth too much to be fooled with, so use our flues with safety fastening; they will not cost you any more.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

Trials of the Editor.

An exchange says, only an editor can comprehend the trials of a pencil pusher. How to make every man more distinguished, every girl the prettiest, every swell the most popular and every man the most successful, besides remembering to call the old settlers "Colonel" or "Major," all red-headed old maids "golden-haired," not to mention all the blessings received from failing to puff the man who passed through town and did not call around for fear he would be expected to pay his subscription, added to the mistakes in the initials in names and errors in the weight of the new members of the families. All this anything but a paradise. An editor that tries to please everybody is a fool, and if he is afraid of making enemies he is a fraud.

Good Insurance.

Henry Sheppard, agent, has something to say today about the Southern Stock Mutual and Underwriters Insurance Company, of Greensboro. This company gives you as good and as safe insurance as can be had in any company, and sharing the profits with their policy holders reduces the cost much below other companies.

Excursions.

The Methodist and Disciples Sunday schools, of Grifton, had an excursion to Weldon today. They had three extra coaches to the regular train and there were nearly two hundred of the excursionists. The colored people here had an excursion to Tarboro today on the steamer Shiloh.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

A gas well yielding 500,000 feet a day has been struck at Tiffin, O. The National Slavonic Benevolent Association is holding its convention at Chicago, Ill.

Section men on the Grand Trunk Railroad in Maine, outside of Portland, are on strike.

A syndicate of Chicago, Ill., is working to consolidate all the woolen mills on the Pacific coast.

Joseph Mullen, convicted of killing his common law wife, was sentenced to death in New York.

The Spanish cruiser Reina Mercedes arrived in Hampton Roads Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in tow of the Merritt Wrecking Company's tugs Merritt and Rescue and accompanied by the steamer S. T. Morgan.

Dawson City has been visited by another disastrous fire. This time the property loss is placed at $4,000,000.

JUST FOR FUN.

Full of good points—a pin cushion.

The deaf mute is sure to be handy at a debate.

Some men find it very hard to be out of work, but others find it dead easy.

A carriage builder uptown named Hickie has a daughter named Virginia. She sometimes signs herself "Miss V. Hickie."

Nell—"Did you meet Miss Gotrox's finance?" Belle—"Yes; he's no Italian count." "How do you know?" "He shakes your hand around in a circle as if you were an organ."

Hoax—"What! quarreling with your wife over pin-money. That's mighty small of you." "Joax—"Not when you consider that there's diamonds in the pins she wants the money for.

The Attainable Ideal.

Like Caesar's wife, newspapers should be above suspicion. If a wrong is to be righted, a newspaper should go fearlessly forward and smite down corruption, both in high and low places. There need be no great shirk, no unduly loud soundings of the lute, harp and psaltery, no vainglorious boasting. A calm, conservative statement of the facts and an appeal to those in authority will, as a rule, bring about the desired investigation and fix the blame where it belongs. The importance and weight attached to the investigation will generally vary directly with the standing of the paper in the community. Above all it is necessary that there should be a singleness of purpose in the newspaper's denunciations. The slightest suspicion of a dual motive will nullify the effect of any work, however laudable the work may be, that the newspaper sets forth to accomplish. —Los Angeles Record.

Watch and Lamp Free.

J. W. Bryan, Druggist, will give a gold watch coupon with each purchase at his soda fountain. The person presenting the largest number of these coupons on the 25th of September will receive a solid gold watch, and the person presenting the second largest number will receive a $15 lamp. His Well With Broken Neck.

Marion, May 19.—Our town was shocked beyond degree, when it was publicly announced upon our streets that our townsman, J. S. Elliott, was found dead with his neck broken, in the bottom of his well.

The facts are these: Late on the evening of May 18, Mr. Elliott was summoned down town to receive an amount of money due him; he promptly came down to the Superior Court clerk's office and transacted his business, remaining on the streets only a short time, when he started home, resting at intervals upon the sidewalk, he being very weak, on account of continued illness. After reaching home, he retired, as was usual. His family, expecting nothing wrong, did not miss him until he was sent for, to his room. Then the search began, and was almost given up when someone went to draw a bucket of water, and then the awful truth was fully realized. Help was at once summoned and the body extricated and upon examination it was found that his neck was broken. Nothing is positively known, as to whether it was a suicide, accident or mental depression from which he was suffering.

The South's Vanished Money.

According to one estimate, pickpockets carried off at least $50,000 from the Confederate veterans and the visitors who were at the convention last week. It is believed that a band from Chicago did most of the stealing, for the men arrested had nearly all return tickets to the Windy City. Many of the people here for the week had never been mixed in a big crowd before, and they were easy prey for the thieves.

Major J. C. Alderson, a veteran from West Virginia, and a former partner of Governor Atkinson, of that State, was boarding a street car when he felt that he was being robbed. There were three men near him, and he grabbed the two nearest. The third fellow, the one who really got the money, disappeared. Major Alderson's prisoners were taken to police headquarters, and next morning transferred to a magistrate. Bail for each was fixed at $300. When the magistrate named the amount, one of the men remarked, "Oh, that's easy," and with a sharp knife ripped open a secret pocket and brought out a wad of money. He paid $600 to the magistrate and went away.

"I can't afford to lose any time here," he said, as he went away, "for these are Southern people, and they are dead shot."—Charleston Dispatch.

Thought it Was Scorpions.

Last week Will Person, a negro, died here from abscess on the liver and appendicitis. He was confined to his bed for several days before he died, and Dr. G. McLeod was called to see him. But the patient would not take any of the prescription except the dose the doctor would give while there, because the negro diagnosed the trouble to be poison. When he died Drs. McLeod and Shields cut the body open and found the abscess and appendicitis. But the wife of the deceased negro insisted that poison was the trouble, and in proof of her contention said that a half dozen scorpions had come from the man before he died. They were so superstitious and had thought and talked scorpions so much that they and two-thirds of the other negroes actually believe that the poor fellow had scorpions in him produced by poison.

This same old superstition has existed with this race, time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. It has come down with this race of people that a dried scorpion head pounded to powder and dosed to some unsuspecting person will cause the victim to have scorpions in him. Curious process is this of reproduction.—Carthage Blade.

Cigarettes and Crime.

Cincinnati, May 22.—The National Convention of Charities and Corrections was addressed today by George Torrance, of Pontiac, Ill., superintendent of the Illinois State Reformatory, on "the relation of the cigarette to crime." After reciting his experience with boys coming to his institution, Mr. Torrance said: "I am sure cigarettes are destroying more boys, and making criminals of them, than the saloons."

In his reformatory now there are 278 boys. Of 63, averaging 12 years of age, 58 were cigarette smokers. Of 133, averaging 14 years of age, 125 were cigarette smokers. Of 82, averaging 15 years, 73 were cigarette smokers. This demonstrates that 92 per cent. of the whole number were cigarette fiends at the time of committing crimes for which they were committed to the reformatory.

The general discussion developed a similar experience with others connected with reformatories for boys.

The Observer's proposition that Providence is not with us in our war against the Filipinos as it was in our war against the Spaniards has been quite ably supported by several thoughtful writers. The truth is that the more we hear of the war in the Philippines, the less we find in it to commend. The Baltimore Sun tells the truth when it says that the war we are carrying on against our "rebels" in the Philippines resembles closely the devastating war Spain was carrying on in Cuba when we interfered. Says The Sun: "Spain was blamed for killing Cuban patriots, arresting industry and commerce, devastating the country and making slow progress. In the Philippines we have killed far more of the natives than Spain ever killed in Cuba, and as some of our soldiers report that no quarter is given to the Filipinos, we cannot claim much superiority to Spain in the barbarity." The God of Battles may be on our side in a fight of this kind, but He is not inspiring us with much strength. It would rather seem that His efforts are being directed to holding us in check as much as possible and giving the poor wretches a chance for their lives.—Charlotte Observer.

WINE OF CARDUI

For Mothers!

The discomforts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives tone to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui we had been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

WINE OF CARDUI

A unique circular urging the Cubans to rise in arms against the United States was distributed in Havana last week. It is reproduced verbatim in the Times of Cuba, as follows: "Down with the Atrocities of the American government. To death with the yankee pigs. Down with the McKinley administration, who thim's itself to be the elect of good and history, and is responsible for the misfortunes of beeding Cuba. Yes we shall demand from Pres. McKinley and justy to that he shall free from so idious a nation; and should he refuse we will srise in our might and bow brave Orientales, armed and seppuiled as they should be will triumph over the cowardly U. S. government, ere is by might alone the power over our country!"

Rheumacide is a thorough, permanent, constitutional cure for rheumatism. The acids in the blood which cause the disease are thoroughly eradicated. Is also the best blood purifier, laxative and tonic.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascare's. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

John D. Flower, of New York, says that the estate of his brother, the late Roswell P. Flower, is worth about $6,000,000. "The Governor," adds John D., "did not strive to pile up a great fortune for himself. He had no ambition in that direction. His chief pleasure was derived from helping others. It is a fact, as has been stated, that R. P. Flower gave away $1,000,000 last year, but nobody will ever know who the beneficiaries were."

Names of Litigants.

In an old Indiana case a man named Shallcross undertook to live up to his name by running an unlawful ferry, but the decision of the court said to him: "You shall not cross."

The name of a convicted citizen of the Chickasaw Nation whose application was cancelled and he thereupon expelled, was "Shallcross."

A California woman said in her will: "I have no child or child hereafter. O my Lord, let me live right, then in dying let me be happy." Note the prophetic Christian name of Euthanasia.

The name Dr. Phrenology, which might be looked for in some dictionary, appears as the name of a legal process in a recent law report.

Some peculiarly suggestive combinations of names in the titles of cases are these: People versus Karp; Priest versus Locke; Kick versus Merry; Protected Home Circle versus Winter; Grant versus Lockout Mountain Company.

In reminiscences of the early Minnesota bar Judge Charles E. Flandrau tells in the Minnesota Law Journal of an argument before the supreme court in 1853 by ex-Chief Justice Goodrich on behalf of an Indian convicted of murder. The Indian's name was Zu-ai-za, but as the counsel could not pronounce it he always referred to him in his argument as "my client, Abasuerus."—Case and Comment.

Treating Lockjaw.

Recently a young man in New Jersey was treated successfully for tetanus by the injection of serum into the brain. That is not the method of treating lockjaw out in Missouri. Several years ago a citizen of Liberty, Mo., was suffering from tetanus. Local physicians failed to relieve him, and Dr. Wood of Kansas City, a gruff old gentleman, was called. Arriving at the home of the patient he found the room full of sympathizing neighbors. The physician proceeded toward the sick man and remarked: "Why in ——— don't you shut your mouth!" at the same time giving him a severe "chuck" under the chin. The effect of the blow caused the mouth to close, and the man soon recovered. —Chicago Post.

A Xantippe Outwitted.

An Englishman of Lymington had the misfortune to live in a continuous quarrel with his wife, who was a modern Xantippe and threatened in case she survived him to dance over his grave. It was her lot to outlive him, but it was not so easy to carry out her threat. The husband had the precaution to make an injunction in his will, requiring his body to be buried in the sea, near his residence, and without ceremony. The injunction was complied with.

A Fine Translation.

"And you say that a teacher told you that you had an extravagant fool of a father?"

"That's what he meant."

"That's what did he say?"

"He said it was a waste of money to waste money on a child of such a class as I am."

The term "infantry" soldiers originated with the Spanish and was first applied to the military force employed by an infant, or young Prince of Spain, to rescue his father from the Moors.

WIN A STOVE!

There is on exhibition at our store a full nickel plated

BUCK'S JUNIOR RANGE

Every little girl wants it, and one little girl shall have it. On the 15th of July we will present it to the little girl under fourteen years of age, who cuts out the greatest number of Buck's Trade-Marks in the advertisement below and brings them to our store. They must be done up in neat packages and the number and name written plainly on each package. Now girls get your friends to help you, save every Trade Mark and see who can win the prize.

The purpose of this contest is to make this Trade Mark known in every household so that it may never be forgotten. It will be printed in all our advertisements. It is prominently displayed upon every one of Buck's Stoves and Ranges and carries with it the broadest guarantee of excellence. No stove can possibly be made which is better than any one of The Great White Enamel Line. We sell them in preference to all others, and carry a full line of all kinds and sizes. Ask to see Buck's Stoves and Ranges. Respectfully,
 HIGGS & TAFT.

Dispute Over Lines.

There is a dispute between the town authorities and some of the property owners over lines. Before the fire some buildings were out too far on the sidewalks, and in rebuilding the town says the owners must drop back to the proper line, and the owners want to put the buildings on the same line they occupied before, hence the dispute.

No Swinging Signs.

Raleigh is catching on to the Greenville idea. The Aldermen there are talking about adopting an ordinance against swinging signs over the sidewalks. Here in Greenville not only the swinging ones, but also the stationary signs on posts have had to come down. There is not a sign that extends over any portion of a sidewalk or street, but the signs are placed across the store fronts over the doors.

The above figures tell a remarkable story; they represent almost exactly the per centage of cures made by the wonderful new constitutional cure for RHEUMATISM. The other two per cent. were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions. Thousands have been cured. In view of the fact that many physicians think that rheumatism is incurable, and that most remedies fail, it must be true that RHEUMACIDE is the greatest medical discovery of the age.
