MEMORIAL SERVICE.

In Memory of Rev. J. H. Lambeth.

The services at the Baptist church yesterday morning were devoted to a Memorial service in honor of the memory of the late Rev. J. H. Lambeth, who was for two years pastor of this church. The following program was observed:

Voluntary—"Sometime we'll Understand."

Hymn—"Take my life and let it be."

Scripture Reading and Prayer, by Pastor Rev. A. W. Setzer.

Hymn—"All Hail the power of Jesus Name."

Offertory—"Calvary."

J. H. Lambeth as a Preacher, by Ex-Gov T. J. Jarvis. He tenderly referred to his friendship and remembrance of the deceased and said that there was a triplicate qualification of a minister. He must be (1) a teacher, (2) a preacher, (3) a messenger. He showed in pathetic words that Rev. J. H. Lambeth possessed these three qualifications and emphasized him as a messenger. He always had a message to deliver when he entered the pulpit.

J. H. Lambeth as a man and a pastor, by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale.

Mr. Ragsdale said as a man three things were prominent in the life of Mr. Lambeth, namely: (1) He was strictly honest, honorable and conscientious. (2) He was prominently, social, cordial and genial in his nature and manners. (3) He was sympathetic, strong in his affections and thereby attracted strong friends to himself. As a pastor there were also three things noticeable in his work. (1) He was wise and prudent. (2) He was always in touch with his entire membership. (3) He led and easily persuaded his congregation to follow in planning and executing, leaving results to God, and giving Him all the glory.

Hymn—"How Firm a Foundation."

Doxology.

Benediction by Pastor.

The exercises were very interesting, the audience being in sympathy with every word which was so tenderly and well spoken.

Connection for Morehead.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, President of the Teachers' Assembly, wrote to the Atlantic Coast Line authorities asking them to allow passengers to go on the noon freight train from here to Kinston on Tuesday and Thursday, 13th and 15th, so as to connect with the Atlantic & North Carolina train for Morehead, and to hold the freight train at Kinston on Saturday and Monday, 17th and 19th, until the arrival of the morning train from Morehead. Prof. Ragsdale is in receipt of a letter from Mr. E. Borden, Superintendent of Transportation of the Coast Line, saying that the arrangements will be made as requested. This is good connection for the people of this section who wish to attend the Teachers' Assembly.

The June weddings begin this week in the marriage of Mr. E. B. Ficklen and Miss Myra Skinner which takes place in the Episcopal church Tuesday night.

LIGHTNING'S FREAK.

Strikes a House and Demolishes Things.

While in town Saturday evening Mr. J. L. Cherry told us that lightning struck a tenant house on his plantation, during the storm Thursday afternoon, and did some damage. The lightning first struck a tree in the yard then went through the side of the house, tearing off a few pieces of weather boarding and some bricks out of the chimney. Inside the house the lightning struck a bureau and tore it into splinters. Mr. Cherry says he thinks the looking glass was shattered into at least a thousand fragments, these being scattered all over the room and through the door into an adjoining room, some of the pieces being stuck about in the walls.

The house was occupied by the family of John Carman. His three children were at home alone at the time and they say they had only left the room a few moments before the lightning struck.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by The Orange Va. Observer.

When a new minister takes charge of a church he is at first idolized, then criticised and is finally cauterized.

It is very probable the Peace Congress at The Hague will go to pieces without accomplishing anything.

The locomotive engineer when in love may be said to be on the "sighed track," and all his feelings are "tender."

Diplomas come in Latin script and bring their meed of fame; subpoenas come in turkey tracks but they get you just the same.

Now doth the careful housewife shake her furs and woolen stuff and with a little camphor gum doth give the mota a bluff.

Announcement.

The marriage of Mr. E. B. Ficklen and Miss Myra Skinner will take place in St. Paul's Episcopal church Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock and immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held at Hotel Macon. We are requested to say that no cards were issued to persons in Greenville, but that all friends are invited to attend both the marriage and the reception.

Press and Type for Sale.

THE REFLECTOR has recently purchased two other printing office outfits and has some surplus material on which some printer can get a bargain. We have a good cylinder press large enough for a nine-column paper, in first class condition, also a lot of Long Primer, Brevier and Nonpareil type that will be sold cheap.

Town Election.

It was a quiet election we had today, and only immediately around the polls could it be told that an election was going on. The votes will not be counted until the polls close this evening, but it is safe to say that all the nominees will be elected, there being no opposition tickets.

Gov. Jarvis at Murfreesboro.

Our townsman ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis, delivered the commencement address at the Chowan Baptist Female Institute, Murfreesboro, last Wednesday. Speaking of it the Murfreesboro Index says:

The address delivered by Gov. Jarvis on "The Republic's need of an educated womanhood," was sound, practical and uplifting. The speaker recognized the dangers threatening our republic but did not regard them from a pessimistic standpoint. If there are real dangers already appearing as a menace to our nation, they are seen coming not from without but from within. We have nothing to fear from attack by a foreign foe, since the opportunity never fails to develop a Lee or a Grant, a Farragut or a Dewey. If downfall does come to our republic, it must come through the disintegration of our social institutions.

The speaker remarked that he never had any sympathy for the idea of woman's suffrage, since he has never believed her place to be at the ballot box, nor is it her province to have recourse with the sterner sex to the awful arbitrament of war. He believed woman's power should be exerted in the home where she is the uncrowned queen. If the mothers are educated, surely the sons will be. Give me true womanhood educated in head and heart and I don't care who makes the laws of the country. Sometimes we have instances of strong men coming from rough and ungodly homes, while we see men now wicked who were carefully trained in pious homes, but such instances show the exception and not the rule. Woman's power is exerted in behalf of a safe and healthy conservatism and her strong convictions of God and unflinching fidelity to duty are to be the safe guard of the Church.

The speaker closed with a beautiful illustration drawn from the difficult ascent of a high mountain near the city of Rio Janeiro. There were midway stations where the tourists were tempted to linger and be satisfied with the beauties that met the eye, but the most beautiful sight to behold was from the summit. He urged the young ladies not to be satisfied with the attainments and beauties of the present, but to strive on till the highest ideal in life should be realized.

Rheumacide is a thorough, permanent, constitutional cure for rheumatism. The acids in the blood which cause the disease are thoroughly eradicated. Is also the best blood purifier, laxative and tonic.

Describe symptoms and free personal medical advice will be given.

Early Closing Hours.

It has reached that point in the course of the year when life indoors becomes burdensome, even under the most favorable conditions.

This is the case especially in the stores. All day long the proprietors and clerks are confined, and the demands of business, even if customers are few, are such as to thoroughly fag them out by the close of day.

With a little rest-time and a chance for recreation, men work better and are more energetic. So, on the score of better work, we call upon the merchants to close up their places of business at an earlier hour than usual—at least by seven o'clock.

No money will be lost, no customers incommoded, if all the merchants adopt this suggestion, and next day the renewed activity of employees will more than compensate for lost time.—Wilson News.

Tried Fraud to be Doctor.

A young North Carolinian who aspired to be a doctor attempted to work a clever ruse on the medical board at Asheville last week. He was perfectly aware that he could not stand the examinations, and yet he was bound to get the requisite license. The idea struck him to hire a substitute. With this in view he wrote to a friend in Baltimore, who is a physician, one who stood high in his class and is really a bright young fellow. The Baltimore doctor was to come to Asheville, having assumed the North Carolina young man's name, and pass the examinations, get the license, turn it over to the real person in whose name it was made out and receive therefor a goodly sum. The plan all but succeeded. Thanks to the watchful eyes of the members of the board, the fraud was detected and the scheme upset after the Baltimore man had taken part of the examinations.—Salisbury Sun.

Whether or not the country is now enjoying prosperity is a question that is viewed from different standpoints by different people. But one fact, that can hardly be questioned, stands out conspicuous: There is more money in the country today seeking investment than ever before. Bonds find ready sale at a low rate of interest and an abundance of money can be had for almost any kind of safe and reliable investment. This being so, the opportunity is at hand for the establishment of new industries—especially manufacturing plants. It is unnecessary to argue that manufacturing industries make a town. That is an admitted fact among all intelligent people.—Statesville Landmark.

Advertisements as Ready References.

Prominent in the libraries of lawyers are sets of exhaustive reference books, which enable them to promptly consult authorities pertinent to the legal cases in hand. The litterateur is also well supplied with reference books covering the entire field of mental achievement. To the general public advertisements are practical and ever ready references in the matter of information as to where to make purchases. It is not necessary to bind business announcements in covers or stack them against the wall. Being always opportune, and brought to hand daily by a prompt messenger—a trustworthy and popular newspaper—they are always fresh and limitless in contents, and point out to the reader and intending purchaser exactly where he may secure the wares he desires.—Philadelphia Record.

According to recent alluring reports from the Alaskan gold fields valuable new "finds" have been made, and the prospects of digging up great fortunes are said to be as bright as the glint of the minted metal itself. Several thousand miners, nearly all of whom have amassed from $1000 to $50,000, were about to journey to the new fields at the time when these stories were circulated, and, according to the thrilling reports, all that was necessary was to go, dig and find. There is, of course, another side to the picture, but that is left to the imagination to conjure up. Fortunately, for the peace of mind of those people who leap before they look, the real situation in the mining regions now and then comes to light. The War Department has just received word from Captain W. R. Abercrombie, of the regular army, who has conducted a reconnaissance in the Copper River country, south of the Yukon. At Port Valdez, on the southeastern coast, he found many uttery destitute miners, broken down with scurvy and starvation, who wept like children when refused transportation home. Their sufferings were almost indescribable. Of course, these are the conditions usually attendant upon pioneer work in new and remote countries; but the regular permits of an important suggestion to prospective gold-seekers. They should not go to the Alaskan fields unless well prepared.—Philadelphia Record.

The Kansas City Star tells of a Triplet (Kan.) girl who sent a dollar to a smart New Yorker for a "sure cure for freckles." This is the recipe which she received: "Remove the freckles carefully with a pocket knife; soak them overnight in salt water; then hang up in the smokehouse in a good, strong smoke made of sawdust and slippery-elm bark for a week. Freckles thus treated never fail to be thoroughly cured."

The above figures tell a remarkable story; they represent almost exactly the per centage of cures made by the wonderful new constitutional cure for RHEUMATISM. The other two per cent. were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions. Thousands have been cured. In view of the fact that many physicians think that rheumatism is incurable, and that most remedies fail, it must be true that RHEUMACIDE is the greatest medical discovery of the age. Particulars and testimonials of many well known people sent free to all applicants.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. A "Girl Trust" is the latest. It is in Greenport, Long Island, and is an agreement on the part of the fair ones who compose it not to marry men who drink. The young men threaten a rival trust to boycott girls who spend more than $50 a year on dress.—Durham Sun.

Woman Better Than Man.

If figures are needed to convince any man that woman is better than he is, here they are. A statistical inquirer has discovered that women are less criminal than men. In England and Wales only 18 per cent. of convictions are of women, in Russia 9 per cent., in the United States 9 per cent. Other countries show equally low percentages of female crime.

Picking Pockets With Toes.

The Gauchos, or dwellers in the extensive plains of Buenos Ayres, are marvelously dexterous with both hands and feet. Many of them have acquired through long practice such skill in using their toes as if they were fingers that they can fling the lasso and even pick pockets with them. Some time ago a Frenchman, who was fishing in one of the rivers of Buenos Ayres, was warned to be on his guard against the light-fingered natives. He forthwith kept a vigilant watch upon his companions, but, nevertheless, one day when his attention was closely directed on his float a wily Guacho drew near and, delicately inserting his foot, extracted the Frenchman's hooks and other valuables from his pocket.

Tobacco Flues!

Some of the less experienced Tobacco Flue makers employ such cheap workmen and make their Flues so ill fitting that they have to put loops on them so you can tie them together with wire in the barn. ## MOUNT DESERT'S DEER.

They May Not Be Shot and So Are on Most Friendly Terms With the World.

The hunting season in Maine opens on Oct. 1, but the herd on Mount Desert will not be molested, because there is a special law which forbids the hunting, killing or taking of deer on this island for a term of five years. A few deer on the island are undoubtedly killed each season, but without the facts ever reaching the knowledge of the game wardens.

Since the law went into effect two or three years ago, the deer on Mount Desert have been rapidly increasing until now the island abounds with these wily creatures. The farmers have already begun to regard the deer as an unnecessary evil, and complain that they enter fields and damage their crops. In several instances the town officials have been notified of damage done to crops by deer, and compensation has been demanded. As the deer have never been hunted, they have become quite tame, and bold enough to make frequent raids upon the farmers' fields and gardens. Some of the animals even mingle with the cows and sheep, and have got on friendly terms with the dogs. The farmers, no doubt, find it convenient at times to kill a good fat doe, but do not boast of it, for fear of being prosecuted and fined by the wardens.

Farmer Walls, who lives down at Otter Creek, was surprised to find a handsome doe in his barnyard one morning this summer. The doe was standing contentedly in the midst of the cattle and did not appear to be frightened when Walls entered the barnyard. The deer had come up from the pasture and into the yard with the cattle on the previous evening unnoticed in the darkness. When the cows were turned back into the pasture the deer followed them. A few days later, when Mrs. Walls was washing out some clothes in her kitchen, she was startled by the same doe poking her nose through the half-raised window. Farmer Walls, who was in the stable, heard his wife scream, and going to her assistance, drove the visitor away.

Two fine looking deer held up a coaching party on the Ocean Drive one day last week by planting themselves directly across the road and refusing to move until forced to do so by the whip of one of the coachmen. The odd-looking wagons of the tourists, no doubt, fascinated the animals while the pleasure seekers were more than delighted to see their first wild deer.

The deer on Mount Desert are being preserved chiefly for the benefit of sportsmen who visit Bar Harbor and the adjoining resorts, and who will find excellent sport and good shooting when the five years' close time has expired.

THE LEMON AS MEDICINE.

Its Many Valuable Properties for Curing Human Ills.

Lemon juice sweetened with loaf or crushed sugar will relieve a cough.

For feverishness and unnatural thirst soften a lemon by rolling on a hard surface, cut off the top, add sugar and work it down into the lemon with a fork, then suck slowly.

During the warm months a sense of coolness, comfort and invigoration can be produced by the free use of lemonade. For six large glasses of lemonade use six large juicy lemons, roll on a hard surface, so that the juice can be easily extracted. Peel and slice. Add sufficient sugar to sweeten, and stir it well into the juice before adding the water.

Hot lemonade will break up a cold if taken at the start. Make it the same as cold lemonade, only use boiling water instead of cold water, and use about one-half as much sugar.

A piece of lemon or stale bread moistened with lemon juice, bound on a corn, will cure it. Renew night and morning. The first application will produce soreness, but if treatment is persisted in for a reasonable length of time a cure will be effected.

The discomfort caused by sore and tender feet may be lessened, if not entirely cured, by applying slices of lemon on the feet.

To cure chilblains take a piece of lemon, sprinkle fine salt over it and rub the feet well. Repeat if necessary.

Lemon juice will relieve roughness and vegetable stains on the hands. After having the hands in hot soap rub them with a piece of lemon. This will prevent chapping and make the hands soft and white.

Careful Transportation.

A crockery dealer shipped 325 dishes from Lansing, Mich., to a missionary at Teheran, Persia. The goods were seven months in transit, and were carried 500 miles by caravan, but only one dish in the lot was broken.
