GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

GRIMESLAND, June 7, '99
Masons meet Tuesday night.
J. O. Proctor is sick this week. We are glad to learn W. E. Proctor is some better, but his little son is very sick.
Deputy Sheriff Mason was in town this week.
Miss Florence Hardee, of Greene county, who has been visiting Mrs. J. O. Proctor, left today for Mr. George Tucker's.

The young people of this place are practicing for a concert to be given here next month for the benefit of the Disciple church.

Everybody is invited to attend an ice-cream supper to be given in the Grimesland hall the 15th of this month for the benefit of the Methodist church.

Miss Mattie Powell is visiting friends at Bethel.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Rev. N. A. Hooker, of the North Carolina Conference, died at Kinston Wednesday morning. He was 82 years old.

B. N. Duke, of Durham, has made a $50,000 donation to Trinity College.

Conductor Thomas Sumner, of Salisbury, dropped dead on Tuesday. The cause of his death is believed to be drinking ice water excessively while he was very warm.

The State Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias will be held at Fayetteville on June 20th and 21st.

The Aldermen of Winston levied a tax of $600 a year on dealers in second hand clothing, and $500 on dealers in futures.

The Undertakers' Tax.

State Treasurer Worth, in answer to inquiries makes the following ruling on the section of the revenue act imposing a license tax on undertakers.

"The definition of undertaker is 'one who takes charge of and manages funerals.' You can manufacture all the coffins that will be necessary for your county, and not be subject to a license tax as an undertaker unless you 'manage funerals.' It does not at all apply to carpenters or shop men who can deal at wholesale or retail without being liable to license tax as an undertaker. Even a dealer in coffins is not liable to license tax unless he 'manages funerals.'"—Raleigh News.

Victors $28.00.

Until July 1st 1899, we will sell 1899 model Victor Bicycles for $28.00 net cash. The Overman Wheel Co. are preparing to re-organize their company July 1st and in order to do so they must raise a large amount of money by that date, hence the above extraordinary offer. This is a good chance to get one of the very best bicycles at a very low price.

S. E. PENDER & Co.

The Board of County Commissioners and County School Directors have both been in session this week. The Board had much work to do levying taxes, revising the jury list and attending to other important matters.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Whiskey straight makes crooked paths.

Every married woman travels under an assumed name.

Powder magazines ought to be classed as flash literature.

Plagiarism is merely a lack of skill in effecting coincidences.

Probably nothing dispels girlish illusions so quickly as marriage.

The cost of experience is never fully realized until one goes to law.

Through a man's tongue we get a glimpse of his brains—or his lack thereof.

Faint heart often wins fair lady—with a little artful assistance on her part.

Women seldom take back their unkind words unless they want to use them over again.

A man knows but very little of the happenings of the neighborhood when his wife is away on a visit.

When a wise prophet predicts the end of the world he invariably puts it so far in the future that no one he knows will live to contradict him.—Chicago News.

Having Fun and Being Enlightened.

The tax assessors and listers are having considerable fun, although the work is confining and arduous.

They are also being enlightened.

For instance they say they never knew before that there are more pigs just about this time of year than any other—"little bits of pigs," as they are termed by their owners. Not only are the hogs all pigs, but the cows have turned into small calves.

Of course there are a few cows, steers, &c., left, but these have grown old as well as the horses, many of them being given in as 22 to 25 years old.—Greensboro Record.

Not to Hang Now.

At the last term of Pitt Superior Court Lorenzo Brown, colored, was sentenced to be hanged on Friday, the 9th day of June. The prisoner took an appeal to the Supreme Court, and he was given a respite pending the hearing by that court.

So no hanging will be witnessed here tomorrow.

The intense sultry feeling this afternoon bore strong indication of an approaching storm, the indications increasing in the distant mutterings of thunder that are heard as we go to press.

NOTICE!

Politeness.

Politeness is in business what strategem is in war. It gives power to weakness; it supplies great deficiencies and overcomes the enemy with very little loss of time and blood. It is invincible either in the attack or defense. There is no investment so remunerative. It is simply putting out kind works and courteous manners to compound interest. There is no commodity costs so little, and yet is so rarely possessed.

With some persons this quality is really innate, and with others it is developed by proper home training and refined associations. True politeness springs from goodness of heart. A truly sympathetic nature is ever generous. It views its fellows from a personal standpoint and can not, therefore, fail to be polite. A polite person often succeeds in life when those of ability fail. Conciliatory manners have made the fortunes of physicians, lawyers, divines, politicians and merchants, for affability creates instantaneously a prepossession in favor of the person who exhibits it. Of two men equal in all other respects the courteously polite one has the advantage of the other; who is deficient in this quality, and by far the better chance of making his way in the world.—Great Thoughts.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets.
Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

The Platform in 1900.

General A. J. Warner, president of the Bimetallic League, and one of the strongest of free silver advocates, says of the probable Democratic platform of next year: "The Democratic party will stand by the Chicago platform. The money plank will be made as full and as strong as if there were no other issues. I would be in favor also of making a declaration against trusts as if that were the only issue; and the same with our declaration against imperialism and the Philippine war. Neither question can be said to obscure or take precedence of the other but all combine to make an issue that I believe the people will support." It is not proposed to put any one issue into the background, but to make the new issues of anti-imperialism and opposition to trusts of equal importance with the issues of the former campaign.—Charlotte News.

The longest electric railway in the world will be built from Toledo to Dayton.

To Cure Constipation Forever, Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

A Public Convenience.

Advertising, with all its diversity of form and vast amount of needed information, is not only a great and permanent factor in the newspaper world; it has also become one of the conveniences in the domestic economy. People no longer put themselves to much trouble in the selection of places at which to make purchases of goods. The newspaper advertisements are relied upon to obviate any difficulty in that direction. The merchant who fails to furnish the public the information concerning his establishment which prospective purchasers are really desirous of having might as well conclude to live in obscurity. The people will not hunt him up unless he shows by interesting advertising announcements how they can conveniently find him, and what advantages in the way of supplying their needs he can offer them.—Philadelphia Record.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents.
Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. $1. All druggists.

Indisputable.

Sometimes an advertiser about to place some business will look over a list of papers with the idea that his announcement should appear preferably in papers that do not contain other advertisements of the same goods. He makes a mistake in selecting such papers. If there was any choice between the mediums, based on such grounds, he would do better to select the papers that are most largely the favorites of his opponents. A man wanting to buy a plow hunts up the paper containing the greatest number of plow advertisements, so that he may compare the merits of the different makes. It is generally good policy to advertise any certain article where it has been most extensively advertised heretofore either by the advertiser or by his competitors. Experience has abundantly demonstrated that money so expended will bring better returns than when placed in new fields.—Agricultural Advertising.

Rheumacide is a thorough, permanent, constitutional cure for rheumatism. The acids in the blood which cause the disease are thoroughly eradicated. It is also the best blood purifier, laxative and tonic.

Remarkable Hen.

Mr. H. Montague returned this morning from High Point where he spent Sunday the guest of Mr. R. C. Childs, a prominent banker there. He tells us of a remarkable hen owned by Mr. Childs which has broken all previous records in poultry raising. This hen is of the common stock but is a rare character. About six weeks ago Mr. Childs set the fowl on thirteen brown leghorn and the same number of white leghorn eggs. One week ago today she came off with twenty-six biddys. All are living and enjoying good health. There is not a droopy one in the lot. Mr. Childs values this hen very highly and will take her and her family to the State fair.—Winston Journal.

Newspapers.

Newspapers, when considered from an advertising standpoint, have everything in their favor. They reach both the masses and the classes and they reach them with a frequency that commends itself as a shining virtue to the man who has something to sell. Moreover, a favorite newspaper can not be supplanted in the hearts of its constituents by any other sort of publication, which insures it a permanency of circulation that can not be duplicated.—Profitable Advertising.

Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets.—beauty for ten cents. All druggists. satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

A correspondent of The Frankfurter Zeitung says that Madrid is becoming more and more demoralized every day. The present population, he says, includes 20,000 professional beggars, and equal number of abandoned women, and 5000 thieves; and there are hundreds of gambling houses. The total population of Madrid is but 472,000.

A sapsucker bug is sucking the young corn to death in the Sound Neck section of Pasquotank county. We are told that some of the farmers have replanted their crops, but the new sucker bugs have attacked the second crop and destroyed it. It is said so be the most destructive bug that has troubled them for many years.—Elizabeth City Economist.

Lester E. Gilbert, of Marysville, Mo., is to start this week from Dalles, Ore., with 25,000 sheep, which are to be driven overland to Kansas. Twenty-five men will assist him in herding the sheep, and fifty horses are to be taken along. The trip will occupy the entire summer and fall.

the wonderful new constitutional cure for RHEUMATISM. The other two per cent. were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions. Thousands have been cured. "I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for seven years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief; such was my case until I began using CASCARETS. # THE LIST STILL GROWING

Crimes in New York, Connecticut and New Jersey Whose Perpetrators Are Undiscovered

The Mysterious Railway Murder, the Victim of Which Has Never Been Identified—The Killing of Ferdinand Harris, Richard Pope, Max Eglau and Others, are as Far From Solution as When Committed.

The difficulties which the Connecticut police are encountering in their efforts to solve the mystery of the death of the young girl whose cut-up body was found in a pond at Bridgeport are very similar to some of the experiences which the police of New York and New Jersey have met with in trying to solve murder mysteries in the past few years. Some of the many murders hereabouts have been of a very bold character, and it seems almost incredible that the murderers should have escaped as they have done. The chief difficulty which the police have had to contend with in most of these unsolved cases has been the fact that the murderers have not been seen, either before or after the crime, and in many cases where they have been seen it has not been possible to get any adequate description of them.

In some of the most important of these cases the police have been obliged to work entirely in the dark, and in the absence of any clue have accomplished nothing. The police of New Jersey probably have more unsolved cases against them in proportion to the population than have the police of New York. Among those they have sought the solution of in vain the most famous was the mysterious Rahway murder of less than a dozen years ago, which the police all over the country interested themselves in without avail.

One of the boldest murders ever committed in New York was the shooting of Ferdinand Harris, assistant butler to M. C. D. Borden in the latter's house at 25 West Fifty-sixth street. Here was a murder committed in broad daylight, with people all around, yet after working for weeks on the case, the police had to give it up, and it went down on the record with the other unsolved mysteries.

Another notable crime of recent years which remains unsolved to this day was the killing of Richard Pope on the night of Nov. 7, 1895, in Watter's saloon at Brown place and the Southern Boulevard, when three masked men entered the place and ordered "hands up." Pope made a move to resist and one of the men sent a bullet through his heart, killing him instantly. The murderer and his pals, after rifling the cash drawer of $42, disappeared.

A case on which the police expended a tremendous amount of labor without results was the murder of Max Eglau, an instructor in the Institute for the Improved Instruction of Deaf Mutes at Sixty-seventh street and Lexington avenue. Eglau was 71 years old and was well known in this city as a teacher. He was due to take charge of a class at 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon of Feb. 10, 1896. When he did not appear the superintendent of the institution went up to his studio, where he found him dead, surrounded by the evidences of a bloody struggle. No motive for the crime was ever discovered. Several bankbooks and Eglau's watch and chain were untouched by the murderer.

Other cases which the police have worked on in vain have been the case of Mamie Cunningham, who was strangled to death in an east side tenement two years ago, and for whose murder Thomas Farrell recently stood trial and was acquitted; the case of Susie Martin, the 10-year-old child who was killed and dismembered on the west side, near the Hell's Kitchen district, about three years ago, and the many cases in recent years of women of dissolute character being strangled in their own rooms. It remains to be seen whether the police have solved the mystery of the killing of Dollie Reynolds, who was found murdered in the Grand Hotel about a month ago. Dentist Kennedy, who is awaiting trial for the crime in the Tombs, declares that he is innocent. The Grand Jury is now investigating the case.

When You Meet in Japan.

Nothing is more amusing than to watch two acquaintances saluting in the streets of a Japanese town. As they come in sight of each other, they slaken their pace, and approach with downcast eyes and averted faces, as if neither was worthy of beholding the other; then they bow low, so as to bring the face on a level with the knees, on which the palms of the hands are pressed.

A succession of hissing sounds is next made by drawing the breath between the closed teeth, interspersed with a series of complimentary phrases uttered with great volubility in a sort of under-toned falsetto, each trying to outdo his friend in rapidity and extravagance of language, while the palms are repeatedly rubbed.

At last the climax is reached and each endeavors to give the precedence to the other. For some minutes, the polite contest continues; then the ceremony abruptly ends, as if the difficulty were capable of none but a brusque solution, and the two pass on hurriedly, with a look of extreme relief.
