COUNTY COMMISSIONS.

Their Busy June Meeting.

The June meeting of the Board of County Commissioners gave them more business than usual to perform.

The total payments from the general fund for the month for all purposes amounted to about $1,210.

Several persons were allowed to list taxes for 1898.

P. T. Crawford, of Beaver Dam, and Lewis Allen, of Greenville, were exempted from poll tax for 1898.

Purchase taxes of J. A. Brady for six months ending Dec 31st, 1898, were reduced to $500, he having made error at time of giving it in.

C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Superintendent of Health, made his monthly report which was ordered filed. His report showed the jail and county home to be in good condition, and everything about the county home was especially well-cared for.

D. Kramer was granted peddler licenses for one year.

J. B. Cherry, Treasurer, filed his report for six months which was approved.

Committee appointed at a previous meeting to lay out and establish a new road in Falkland township reported the work performed.

At a conference between the Board of Commissioners and the Board of Education it was agreed that the tax arising from retail liquor licenses be divided between the school and general county funds.

The Board made the following tax levy for the year 1899:

Real and personal property 23 1/2 cents, special 10 cents on each $100 valuation.

Poll tax 71 cents, special 30 cents.

Incomes, same as State tax.

Schedule B, same as State tax, except peddlers on foot $10, with one horse $30, more than one horse $40.

Real estate levy in Swift Creek, Contentnea and Beaver Dam townships 33 1/2 cents on each $100 valuation.

No levy made for Greenville stock law territory.

In consequence of the use of a part of the taxes of 1898 belonging to the general fund to replace moneys used by a prior board belonging to the school fund, the money on hand is insufficient to meet the current expenses of the county, and the act of the General Assembly having authorized the Board to borrow money to meet such dectency it was ordered that R. L. Davis, chairman of the Board, be directed to borrow for the use pf the county $2,500 at interest not exceeding six percent and turn the same over to J. B. Cherry, Treasurer.

The committee appointed to settle with W. H. Harrington former Sheriff and Tax Collector, made their report showing satisfactory settlement made.

The following persons were added to the pauper list to receive monthly the amount stated: Bettie Keel $1.50, Willis Johnson and wife $1.50, Grizzie McLawhorn $1.25, Isabella Moye $1.50, Jas. Cox $1.50, Starling Shelly $1.50, Rebecca Foreman $1.50, Marcus Allen $1.50.

The Board ordered an election to be held in Bethel township on the first Thursday in August, 1899, on the dispensary law. Registrar S. A. Gainer, Poll Holders J. R. Ward and Robert Staton.

Oxford Seminary, Oxford N. C.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of this progressive and popular school to be found in another column. Its patronage has grown so rapidly as to demand an almost yearly increase of accommodations. Its diplomas hard to win are very valuable when once won. Thoroughness during all its history has been its motto.

It has a large Conservatory of Music manned by three very able teachers. The Director has had the best advantages in music possible in this country, having had four years under the best masters in New York City. The assistants are both Graduates in Music, both have done much post-graduate work. The Music Faculty is regarded as the ables the school has had.

The Art Department is in charge of Miss Sue Hall for twelve years connected with the Seminary and well known as one of the most accomplished artists that the State has yet produced. She has just finished a full three years course of study in New York City, and the school from which she graduates has paid her the high compliment of selecting her work to represent it at the Paris Exposition next year. This course is additional to a former course of two years in New York.

Without doubt this school is now offering better advantages than ever; and its patronage is so large that it is able likewise to reduce its charges, and thus put these advantages within reach of a larger number of girls.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Dr. D. T. Tayloe, of Washington, succeeds Dr. H. F. Long as State smallpox inspector.

In Elkin, a town of 1,100 inhabitants, the mayor imposed no fine from May 1, 1898, to May 1, 1899.

The Oxford Ledger says that a few days ago a crop lien was filed for registration in the register of deeds' office in Granville county, in which a mortgage on a rooster and a hen was included.

A note from D. D. Anderson says that in his neighborhood there is a pauper drawing $1 per month from the county, Amanda Hall by name, and she keeps eleven dogs to feed. Mr. Anderson wishes to know if it is charity on the part of the county to help feed these eleven worthless dogs.

Why Not do Something?

Will the Chamber of Commerce ever met again or do anything more for the benefit of the town? The accomplishment of one or two good things soon after the Chamber was organized ought to have led on to further and greater effort, instead of letting things drop back into old ruts to wag along as best they can. Greenville is suffering every day just from a lack of united efforts in matters of public interest and welfare.

FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1899.

Death of Augustin Daly.

London, June 7.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail says that Augustin Daly, the New York theatrical manager, died at the Hotel Continental yesterday of heart failure.

New York, June 7.—Augustin Daly was born in Plymouth, North Carolina, July 20, 1838. His father was a planter, upon whose death his widow moved to Virginia. Augustin came to New York when about sixteen years old, and earned a living as clerk in a store. But he had made up his mind to become a writer of plays, and he spent his evenings in industrious practice. The products of these early efforts never reached the stage, though many of them got into managers' hands.

It was as manager,—not as playwright—that Daly earned and held distinction in theatricals. His greatest success was with musical comedies, beginning with "The Gaiety Girls," continuing with "The Geisha" and "The Circus Girl," and culminating with "The Runaway Girl."

Mr. Daly's personality was peculiar. He lived almost literally in his theatre, working day and night, indulging in no recreations, and devoting himself strainingly to his work, mentally and physically. He was autocratic on the premises. His rules for his players were strict, and they had to be obeyed. He was, all things considered, the greatest American deviser and practitioner of stagecraft.

The True Situation.

If the constitutional amendment is carried in this State it will be by a united effort on the part of Democrats, and it will be a mistake to look for aid from other parties, more especially the Republican. A large majority of the white men in the Republican party in this State are there for what there is in it, and to expect these to help disfranchise the negro is a forlorn hope. Of course after the negro is once eliminated for good and always the whites may gradually divide on political questions, but this division will be slow, and if the constitutional amendment is carried the Republican party will be a nonentity in this State for at least twenty years. No one knows this better than the white Republicans and they cannot be expected to assist at their own funeral.—Durham Herald.

Rheumacide is a thorough, permanent, constitutional cure for rheumatism. The acids in the blood which cause the disease, are thoroughly eradicated. It is also the best blood purifier, laxative and tonic.

Received Conscience Money.

One occasionally hears of "conscience money" being sent to the government, but it is not often that one finds it in private business life.

And yet there was a most remarkable case of it here yesterday.

Some six or seven years ago Mr. E. V. Denton had a clerk in whom he had the greatest confidence. He considered him honest, reliable and industrious; and finally when he left his employ Mr. Denton considered it a great loss to his business.

Soon, however, he lost track of the man and for several years had heard nothing from him, until yesterday he received from him, a letter. A most remarkable letter it was, too.

"I have taken your whiskey, your cigars, and even your money, probably $6 or $7," he wrote. "I did this while in your employ. I now desire to restore to you what belongs to you. Find enclosed a postoffice order. I am determined to right the wrongs I have done. And when I have done this, even if I have not one cent, I shall be the happiest man on earth."

And the strangest part of it all—and really the part that shows the repentance to be genuine—is that the man signs his real name to the letter.—Raleigh Post.

Coming State Elections.

There will be elections in November 7th in eleven States, six of which, Maryland, Ohio, Iowa, Massachusetts, Kentucky and Mississippi, will choose Governors and other State officers. Pennsylvania will elect a State Treasurer, a Superior Court judge and two Supreme Court justices.

In Nebraska Colonel Bryan will try to revive the silver issue in the campaign for a place on the Supreme Court bench.

New York will choose 150 Assemblymen, whose election will be important, owing to the proposed revision of the tax laws and the possible effect of the election on the national campaign of 1900.

New Jersey will choose a Republican Legislature.

In Virginia and Mississippi the legislative elections will be made interesting by the contests for seats in the United States Senate, and the voters are to express their preference for Senators at the primaries.

Although the election for Governor of Alabama will not be held until August 7, 1900, the friends of General Wheeler have already begun an enthusiastic campaign for his election to that office.—New York Tribune.

Good Reason For Waiting Till Men Die to Praise Them.

"Let a man die," says the Fireside Guard, "and he is suddenly full of good qualities, his faults are all forgotten and only the good is remembered. Why not speak good of the living?"

Just for this reason, gentle reader. If you take your pen in your hand and write a whole lot of praise of some living man, you will in all probability, live to be given the lie by that man's actions, for we all play the fool at some time while we are on the stage of action. And then, if you praise a man who cannot bear praise, and some men are so constituted that a little praise makes most disgusting fools of them, you have done a great deal more harm than if you had kept your mouth shut. With these facts before us we continue to wait until men die before spreading flowers on their graves.—Monroe Enquirer.

A Snake Story From Wilkes.

Up at McNeill's mill near Elville, a week or so ago, a negro boy narrowly escaped being bitten by a rattlesnake. The snake was coiled up under the husk frame and the boy, in looking around in the mill, saw it and thought it was a bottle of liquor which some one had hidden there, and thinking a little "smile" would do him good, started to pick it up. The miller saw the snake about this time and jerked the boy away. The snake was shot and it measured 4½ feet and had 11 rattles. Another rattler the same size was killed by the miller not very far from the mill, on the same day. It is reported here that the snakes were marked, having a crop off the right and an underbit in the left ear. Whosever mark this is can get the hides of the rattlers.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

Keep your money at home so far as possible, is an injunction we cannot lay too much stress upon. It will have much to do with making your city prosperous. Surely, by spending money away and working against your home people can never result in any possible good. All the effort that you put forth to hurt home people reverts back on you, and when you spend money abroad that you should have spent here you simply fail to do that by which your home people's hands would have been strengthened. The merchant rents your store, your dwellings, and spends his money with you, then is it not right that you should spend your money with him? If it pays this great government to have a tariff to keep out foreign competition, then it would pay home people on general principles to spend their money at home. It is patriotic, it is right and you should buy everything at home it is possible to buy here.—Winston Journal.

Few people have any idea of the benefits to farmers by having a railroad running through their farms. A farmer living about twelve or fifteen miles from town told us yesterday that since a railroad had been built through his place he had shipped enough wood to pay a $1,000 debt on his farm. Without the railroad this wood was worthless, being too far distant to be marketed by wagon. The railroads that have been constructed to and from this town in recent years have been worth thousands of dollars to the farmers living along their lines and would be worth many more if the people would take advantage of the opportunities offered.—Durham Herald.

Paul Jones, a member of the bar here, contemplates the publication of a law journal if a sufficient number of subscribers can be secured. Mr. Jones has had considerable experience as a writer and should be able to get out a publication of this kind of much value and assistance to the profession.—Tarboro Southerner.

One of the greatest expansionists in Maryland is Harvey Reef, a Hagerstown youth, who is not quite eighteen years old yet, but weighs 421 pounds, and goes on expanding. He has acquired thirty pounds of flesh since Christmas.

Superstitious republicans are not finding any comfort in the fact that their majority in the house will be 13. Aside from any superstition the margin is quite small and will not stand either absence or kicking out of party traces.

WINE OF CARDUI

For Mothers!

The discomforts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives tone to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui we had been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

WINE OF CARDUI

The above figures tell a remarkable story; they represent almost exactly the per centage of cures made by the wonderful new constitutional cure for RHEUMATISM. The other two per cent. were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions. Thousands have been cured. In view of the fact that many physicians think that rheumatism is incurable, and that most remedies fail, it must be true that RHEUMACIDE is the greatest medical discovery of the age. Particulars and testimonials of many well known people sent free to all applicants.

Bath Tubs for Invalids.
Invalids can be given tub baths by means of a newly patented tub, which is made of collapsible rubber, with a number of rubber tubes arranged along the sides and bottom, to be inflated after the patient is placed upon the collapsed bath, causing the tub to assume its proper shape.

Careful Transportation.
A crockery dealer shipped 325 dishes from Lansing, Mich., to a missionary at Teheran, Persia. The goods were seven months in transit, and were carried 800 miles by caravan, but only one dish in the lot was broken.

Duration of a Doctor's Life.
A French statistician has discovered that in the sixteenth century the average duration of a doctor's life was only thirty-six and one-half years. In the seventeenth century it reached forty-five and two-thirds years, in the eighteenth century forty-nine and two-third years, and at the present time he finds it is fifty-six years. The same inquirer purposes to ascertain whether the average longevity of patients has increased in the same proportion.

BUCK'S JUNIOR RANGE

Every little girl wants it, and one little girl shall have it. On the 15th of July we will present it to the little girl under fourteen years of age, who cuts out the greatest number of Buck's Trade Marks in the advertisement below and brings them to our store. They must be done up in neat packages and the number and name written plainly on each package. Now girls get your friends to help you, save every Trade Mark and see who can win the prize.

Respectfully,
 HIGGS & TAFT.

JUST FOR FUN.

Oh, Mr. Weatherman! Let up! The electric fan now appears to be full of breeze and sneeze.

It's funny that with all this heat you can't thaw out a cold in the head.

"Git yer frost bites here; one cent a throw," is the way a snow-ball vendor hawked his wares yesterday.

"Hurry up, pop!" shout a bright 4-year-old at dinner yesterday. "It's so hot in here that the ice is a-sweatin'."

One way to draw a bead on a fellow is to ask him: "Is it hot enough for you?" This starts the perspiration afresh.

It doesn't comfort some people to know that scientists claim the sun won't grow cold for something like a million years more.

Caller—"I have here several bills which are long overdue and—" Harduppe (desperately)—"I am sorry to say that our cashier is out today." Caller—"Oh, well, it doesn't make much difference; I'll call and pay them at some future date. Good day, sir."

Mind Your P's.

Persons who patronize papers should pay promptly, for the pecuniary prospects of the press have a peculiar power in pushing forward public prosperity. If the printer is paid promptly, and his pocket book kept plerotic by prompt paying patrons, he puts his pen to his paper in peace, his paragraphs are more pointed, he paints the picture of passing events in more pleasing colors, and the perusal of his paper is a pleasure to the people.

Paste this piece of proverbial philosophy in some place where all persons can perceive it.

FOR RENT.—A House in South Greenville. Six rooms all papered. Good water. ALFRED FORBES.

See what Greenville loses by not making things. What a nice sum it would have been to the town if the brick now being used on the burned district had been manufactured here. All that money has gone away.

ON THE GO,

Are Some Folks the Readers Know.

J. S. Joyner, of Baltimore, came in Thursday evening.

Mrs. E. A. Moye, Sr., returned to the city this morning.

Rev. N. M. Watson returned Thursday evening from Jonesboro where he had been to deliver a commencement address.

Joyous June.

Here is the way the Durham Sun warms up on the subject of the first summer month:

"And this is jolly, joyous June —when the June bugs buzz and whirl through the ambient air that is threaded with golden sunshine; when the blithe and gay humming bird goes from flower to flower, a-hunting with the bee; when the fire-flies, with their magic flash light lanterns, sweep the welkin and send their wireless flashes towards the twinkling stars, and the nearest garment to you sticketh closer than a sister at a church festival. Yes, this is June, when the sun comes down to greet us most cordially and warmly. And what is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, same perfect days; then Heaven tries the earth if it be in tune, and over it softly her warm ear lays. Are you in tune with this merry month of June, with its commencements, summer girls, bill collectors, hay fever and thunder storms?"

Only a Sprinkle.

It looked for a while like there would be a good rain Thursday evening, but this immediate section had only a sprinkle. From the looks of the clouds some other portions of the county may have fared better.
