ELECTION CASE. Testimony For the Defense.

It was a little more than a month ago that several citizens of Greenville were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner W. P. Ormond on the charge of having interfered with the election at Parker's X Roads, or precinct No. 4 in Greenville township. At that time the testimony for the Government was heard and the case postponed until June 22nd. Upon resuming the case the hearing of testimony for the defense began. THE REFLECTOR has before told that the people thus arraigned went to that precinct to prevent, and did prevent, a threatened riot, and that the public may see that this is true we publish the testimony of the defense.

W. J. BRILEY.

I was pollholder at precinct No. 4 in last election, got there a little before sun up. Left polls after the votes were counted and returns signed. House in which election was held was 15x26, the room we were in was 15x12 and was in back end of house, two doors to room, one in partition and the other in end from road. Partition door was not opened during day. Think there was a window on each side of voting room. Ballots were received at window on South side. I sat at window and received votes from voters. We got to work at 7 o'clock and everything went on all right until about 10 o'clock when a colored man named Henry Cory came to vote. We could not find the name and told him he could not vote. Not much was said about it and we passed on.

About 11 o'clock a negro came and called out his name as Robert Staton after I called out Robert Bell. Bill Barnhill caught hold of him and shook him and told him Robert Bell, but he said Robert Staton. Manning Moore said to Mr. Brown we can't find Robert Staton on the book but we find Robert Bell. I asked him what name he registered under and he said Robert Staton. Mr. Brown asked him what name he went under in the community. Leonidas Fleming said he went under the name of Robert Bell. His brother, Warren, said his name was Staton. I told him he had no right to vote then as his name was not on the book. He said some call me Staton, some Bell and some Red. Jesse Moye said his firm run an account with him as Robert Staton. Some one said hold on until we can phone and see how his name is on the tax books. We stopped and he and Bill Barnhill walked off. Don't think I saw him again that day. He never offered or asked to vote as Robert Bell.

During this controversy many white and colored men gathered around the window, some contending that he ought to vote, others that he ought not. More than twice as many negroes present as whites. I, Joe Atkinson and Manning Moore told them to stand back. White people were towards W. S. Fleming's dwelling, negroes on opposite side. I stuck vote he handed me in my vest pocket after he left. Brown told me give him the vote and he would put it in box. I refused, stating he had no right to vote as his name was not on books. No action taken by Board as to his right to vote.

Voting commenced again and after a while I saw some folks with guns. Brown asked me what that meant, told him I did not know, but that the first man I saw with gun was a negro. He said he was great mind to take down name of every man he caught out there with gun. In short while people went toward Ruffin House store, both white and black. Don't know what they were up to. Brown asked if they were not about to have row, told him I did not know. He said yonder they go driving a negro.

We staid there and people came on voting until in the evening. Everything went quietly until about 3 o'clock when another negro came up and called himself Joe Bryant. Moore looked on book and couldn't find that name but found Joe Brown. Brown who had been keeping the book was out. Moore called him. He came in, looked at the negro and said I know him, his name is Joe Brown. I asked what name he registered under and he said Joe Bryant. I told him he could not vote. Some contended that he had right to vote under name of Brown. He never asked to vote as Brown, in fact never insisted on voting. No vote taken by Board as to whether he should vote. I don't know if he handed his vote in.

Voting continued until near night when Ficklen came to back door and he and Brown had some words about the election. Ficklen said we have carried the election and we are here to have a fair count, and said he had a gallon of blood to spill to see a fair count. Brown said he had a gallon in him and any one that wanted it had to get it. If he had a gun or other weapon I did not see it.

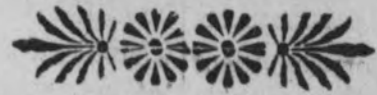

Went on until close of polls. There was no intimidation there that day and nobody prevented from voting except those whose names were not on books. No objection to any one voting except the three mentioned. Entire colored vote registered was 193 and white vote 147-178 colored votes were cast and 131 white votes. Fifteen colored and sixteen white did not vote. Of the colored who failed to vote three are dead and some were gone, none of the fifteen came and offered to vote.

After supper we went to counting votes. Brown took them out of box. In first box were two votes folded up, they were thrown out. Brown insisted they should be counted. When we finished Brown made out report and handed to me. I signed one, Dudley also signed and handed it to Brown who made protest on it regarding two votes. I and Dudley took pencil and marked out our names, told him I would sign no such returns. He then made out more which we all signed. He gave me one for Register of Deeds and kept the other. Never heard any one say if the person carried the returns with protest to Greenville they wouldn't get there alive. Room was small and if such remark had been made think I would heard it.

Cross examination—My politics since, at and previous to election was Democratic. Was appointed

S-say on Clothes.

We are writing about Clothes because we are "THE KING CLOTHIER." It is our "line" and we are proud of it. The Child, the Boy, the Youth, and the grown-up Man, all have a prominent place in our mind. Our CHILDREN DEPARTMENT was somewhat disfigured by the fire but we still have some rare bargains in it that are the real stuff. For instance we can sell you a BOPS 2-PIECE SUIT for 65 cents or a PAIR of PANTS for 10 cts. Now ain't that Bargains? If you see the goods you'll agree with us. These Suits fit, they are stylish, strongly sewed and made of good material. There is a great future for the boy who wears our Clothes. Provided his habits are as correct as his clothes. And in Mens Wear, too, we are "roosting on the highest limb." The fire destroyed a great many of our Suits but we have them from $2.50 up. We can fit you.

"Breathes there a man so stout or slim That clothes fall of fitting? Let him take heart, for if he tries In our store he'll find his size. No shape or style do we omit To fit men who are hard to fit."

ELECTION CASE.

as Democrat. Was not a member of White Government Union. Knew Robert Bell, had worked with me one year. Didn't know that he had right to vote unless his name was on book. He repeated his name as Robert Staton. There was no understanding that men would come from town if needed. I did not send, consent or direct any telephone message to be sent to Greenville and did not know one had been sent. Saw a dozen or more armed men there, among them were J. L. Sugg, Paul Metrick, R. W. Brown, L. C. Arthur, Jim Hyman.

I never knew Joe Bryant before that day. His name on tax list and where he traded was Bryant.

ASHLEY WHICHARD.

I vote at precinct No. 4, live five miles north of there. On morning of election saw five negroes with guns going in direction of election. They were going down railroad. Railroad is 100 or 150 yards from voting place. They were Oscar Carney, Henry Edwards, George, Outlaw, Kenneth Andrews, Mack Jenkins. Saw them at Staton's mill where they met, they had double-barrel shot guns. I went to election about 2 or 3 o'clock and remained until sunset. No trouble while I was there, everything passed off quietly, no intimidation. It was generally rumored that negroes were going there that day armed, that they had been advised to do so.

H. B. JORDAN.

Morning of election I saw five negroes going towards election, the same five Whichard refers to. They were one-fourth mile from election when I saw them. They fired off four or five times after passing me. I went to election about 12 o'clock, saw one negro sitting about 100 yards from election place.

G. N. BAKER.

Live in precinct No. 4, went there about 10 o'clock election day and left about 3. Heard them arguing about Bell's voting, crowd gathered by window, more blacks than whites. I went towards House store. Heard some one say "I'll be d— if I don't kill or be killed." Looked around and saw Earnest Carney coming toward House store from polling place. He went to a buggy and got a double-barrel breach loading gun, dropped it across his arm and broke it, then went back towards polls. He went within 10 steps of house, crowd of colored people got around him and told him to stop. I went up in crowd and told J. L. Little what I had seen, it was about half hour before Greenville crowd came.

PETER BROWN.

I vote at Parker X Roads, got there about 9 o'clock, left between 4 and 5. Was near window when Bell or Staton came up to vote. While controversy was going on there was crowd around window, mostly colored, some had sticks about to fight. Brown said don't have fight. A yellow fellow said he "be d— if he wasn't going to vote anyway," and walked off down road, presently came back with double barrel gun, broke it, stuck in two cartridges and said he "was going to vote this fellow or kill or be killed." I told Brose Johnston what I saw and he went to the phone office and sent over to town after help. After this right many men came from town, all went on quiet and election was all right as far as I know. In the evening there was some controversy about another vote, after that everything went on all right. That morning when I came saw a colored man with gun leaning against tree.

E. B. FICKLEN.

About 11 o'clock election day I started from Court House polls down to Five Points. In consequence of what I heard I went to cross roads to prevent trouble and not make any. J. B. Lightfoot and W. J. Corbett went with me. I carried shot gun because there was disturbance, for my own protection and protection of all. Got there between 11 and 12 o'clock, stayed an hour or so, came back to Greenville and returned there in evening about 4 o'clock. There was discussion among both white and black standing off in groups. One darkey who had great deal to say seemed to be ring leader among darkeys. Kept my eye on him. He made remark that he didn't see what those d— white men came out there for. After short while he came near where we were and either addressed a remark to Mr. Sugg or Mr. Sugg to him, I don't remember remark. Some one said to him they had had enough of him there that day and he better leave. After some hesitation he left. Don't know his name. I went part of way down road, about 50 or 75 yards. I never got nearer to window with gun than 30 to 40 yards. Did not see any men from Greenville go near window with gun. Did not interfere with any one voting. Did not have consultation with any colored man about voting there or here. Was working about 50 in factory and did not say anything to them about voting.

After going back in evening I stayed until votes were counted. Had conversation with Brown. Did not say or do anything to any election officer to deter him in discharge of duty. Conversation with Brown was in evening after going back. I went to door after voting had about ceased and was telling Brown the news from different parts of county heard from. Told him that Harrington had given up as defeated and that we had the election beyond shadow of doubt. Brown asked what we were doing out there. My reply was we were not there to keep any one from voting, but to have a fair election and see that we had a fair count. May have used remarked about spilling blood, but did so in defense of the election as we did not propose to be swindled out of it. Brown and myself discussed the rights of the men that had not been allowed to vote. He contended that they had right, and I that they did not. I went in at night to see the county vote counted and came back to Greenville.

LEONIDAS FLEMING.

My voting precinct Parker's X Roads. Went there between 8 and 9 o'clock, left just before sunset. When I got there everything was going on quietly and continued so until about half past ten or eleven. Robert Bell came up to vote. I was about 75 feet from window and did not move until sent for. Was asked to go and say what his name is in neighborhood. Went up to within 20 feet of door and saw Sam Dudley standing in door, and I said his name is Robert Bell. Don't know what he is registered by. Large crowd there, mostly negroes. I could not go nearer than 20 feet of door. Crowd was somewhat threatening. It was about half hour before crowd from Greenville came. I saw nearly all who had guns, only remember Arthur, Sugg, Metrick, Ficklen, Brown and Fleming. Metrick was doing everything that a fool could act to make people laugh, was going through the manual of arms. I had heard of law protecting polls against carrying guns there, and when I saw Robert Brown going towards polls I told him not go nearer than the hitch-post. It was 50 feet from post to polls as I have measured it. I stood there all day to watch and did not let anybody go any nearer than the post to polls.

There was no one except Robert Bell and another negro kept from voting, they were prevented by poll-holders. With this exception it was the quietest election I ever saw. The presence of the armed men had the effect of preserving order there. They were requested to remain there for the purpose of keeping order. I don't know but what there would have been an attack on box that night. I was one of the men that made the request. It was 120 to 125 feet from polls to well in front of Fleming's store. The old well near window is 12 feet, from Fleming's porch 100 feet.

C. F. WHITE.

Live in Greenville. Did not go to Parker's X Roads on day of election. Did not leave corporate limits of town.

F. M. HODGES.

Know C. F. White. Was around Court House all day. He was with me all day. (Government takes nol pros as to White.

G. B. HUGHES.

Went to cross roads about 5 o'clock, remained about 15 minutes, carried no weapon.

CHAS. SKINNER.

Saw Hughes on day of election. He was in my back yard with several young ladies dressing a float from morning to about 3 o'clock.

J. L. SUGG.

I was at precinct No 4 on election day, left here about 11 o'clock. Arthur and Donahoe went with me. I went on account of hearing they were about to have trouble there, carried no weapon but got a gun after reaching there. Went there with the fixed purpose of preventing trouble and announced the fact when got off my buggy, and not to interfere with anybody. Everything excited when I got there, pretty soon it become quiet. In my opinion if we had not gone there would have been trouble and our presence prevented it. We had not been there to exceed two hours when Willie Williams walked up through a crowd of white men 116 feet from the polls. He was pointed out to me by a gentleman as the negro who created the trouble that morning, he being the disturbing element. I called him and told him what I had heard, and said if he had made the trouble the best thing for him and all parties was to leave the ground and leave quick. He left pretty quick, probably 8 or 10 following him. I felt satisfied we were getting rid of the disturbing element and there would be no further trouble. Heard one report of gun behind store from me. When I told him to leave it was with desire to protect him and preserve peace, think if he had remained there would have been trouble. Don't think I went nearer the polls there 50 feet, and never saw any one else with gun nearer than that. Did not interfere with any one in their right to vote. Left there after county box was counted about 9 o'clock. No disturbance while vote was being counted. Leonidas Fleming requested me to stay there. A gentleman in that precinct and one of the best men in the neighborhood told me that if we did not remain there would be trouble.

[Just as we go to press news comes down that the entire case has been nol prossed, the Government having utterly failed to make out a case against the parties.]

WINE OF CARDUI
MONTHLY SUFFERING.

Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides hips and limbs. But they need not suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

McELREE'S

makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. ROZINA LEWIS, of Greenville, Texas, says:
"I was troubled at monthly intervals with terrible pains in my head and back, but have been entirely relieved by Wine of Cardui."

THE REFLECTOR recently purchased two printing office outfits and has a quantity of surplus material that will be sold cheap. There is a cylinder press large enough to print a nine column paper, in splendid condition, and a quantity of Small Pica, Long Primer, Brevier and Nonpariel body type. We can furnish a complete outfit large enough for a six or seven column paper.

Specimens of the body type are shown in this advertisement, the type being taken from the case just as it runs, so it shows for itself how well it prints. This is the Small Pica size of which there is 1 pair of cases.

Then here is a paragraph set from the Long Primer size. We have 4 pairs of these cases. In buying this type you do not get something that is worn out and cast aside, but a good serviceable type, capable of much wear.

Here is something a little smaller, Brevier size. There are 2 pairs of these and it is a bargain for somebody interested in printing. It may not come but once in a lifetime that an opportunity is given for buying type as cheap as we will sell these lots.

Again we have 1 pair of cases of this Non pariel size, a very useful type in any printing office. Cases will be sold with the type of all sizes. Any printer who can use any of all of this type can make us a spot cash offer. While we prefer a customer for a whole outfit, press and type, one case of type will be sold if no more is wanted.

NOTICE.

On Monday, the 7th day of August, A. D., 1899, I will sell at the Court House door in Greenville, the highest bidder for cash, one tract of land in Pitt county containing one hundred and fifty acres and bounded as follows: Situated in Pitt county in Contentnea township on the North East side of Contentnea creek, adjoining the lands of Sharp Blount and Jacob McCotter and Contentnea creek, containing one hundred and fifty acres, more or less, said lands being the same devised to said B. H. Ives by the last will and testament of Horace Ives subject to the life estate of Mary H. Ives to satisfy an execution in my hands for collection against B. H. Ives and which has been levied on said land as the property of said B. H. Ives.
This 7th day of June, 1899.
G. M. MOORING,
Sheriff.

WIN A STOVE.

There is on exhibition at our store a full nickel plated

BUCK'S JUNIOR RANGE

Every little girl wants it, and one little girl shall have it. On the 15th of July we will present it to the little girl under fourteen years of age, who cuts out the greatest number of Buck's Trade Marks in the advertisement below and brings them to our store. They must be done up in neat packages and the number and name written plainly on each package. Now girls get your friends to help you, save every Trade Mark and see who can win the prize.

Respectfully,
HIGGS & TAFT.

Got the Wrong Man.

Report now says that the potato drummer, Woodward, who was chastised with horse whips at Washington Thursday morning, can establish his innocence. It seems that his assailants got hold of the wrong man and the thing is going to make a big stir before it is ended.

Seven Mile Run.

Mr. M. B. Garris, of Chicod, tells us that on Wednesday his horse jumped a high gate and got out of the lot and ran seven miles before being stopped. The horse was not injured at all by the long run.

The negro Congressman from the Second District has more influence with the Postoffice Department than all the decent white people of Goldsboro. A Washington dispatch to the Raleigh News and Observer says: "Orders were issued today discontinuing the lease of the old postoffice at Goldsboro and removing the postoffice to the place formerly occupied by a saloon, which is said to be extremely objectionable to white patrons of the office. The change was recommended by the postoffice inspector. This is a victory for Representative White and his friends."
