Trustees that they shall meet at once and organize by electing one of their number chairman, one secretary, and appoint the committees for the various districts in their township.

Superintendent of Schools.

The Board of County School Directors today elected Prof. W. H. Ragsdale as Superintendent of the public schools of the county. In this selection they were guided by the desire to do the greatest good to the school interests of the county and chose the best man for the place who could be found. Prof. Ragsdale is not only prominent at home as our foremost edueator, but has been honored with the highest position within the gift of the teachers of the State, that of President of the Teachers' Assembly. His life work has been given to educational interests, even to the declining of other offered honors because of a possibility of their interfering with his labors in his chosen profession. WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent. Washington, D. C., July 8, '99 It seems that Mr. McKinley is going into the business of Senatormaking, notwithstanding the illfortune of other Presidents who have engaged therein. Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn is and it was this week semi-officially the administration candidate for Senator Thurston's seat, he having ment would probably not grant stated his intention to retire March any concessions on the island in 3rd, 1901, when his term will expire. Of all branches of this administration the War Department is the worst from which a candi- had not been known that Mr. Mcdate for anything could be taken, and the democrats of Nebraska, | suaded of his right to promulgate a who already had excellent chances | code of laws for Porto Rico in adfor electing a majority of the next vance of Congressional action. In legislature, and Thurston's successor, ought to, and doubtless lar Commission, which ended its will, thank Mr. McKinley for official life with the close of the making their task easier by backing the Assistant Secretary of War tated by Mr. McKinley for the exas the administration candidate for the Senate.

has it that the Alger-Pingree mix up is the personal work of Mr. . McKinley, and that the entire influence of the administration is to be used to help Alger defeat Senator McMillan, provided, of course, that the republicans can elect a majority of the next Michigan legislature-a very important proviso, by the way. In view of what Alger has done to discredit the administration, this seems to be an tenant are to be appointed from astonishing sort of a deal, but those the volunteers from each state, and who have closely followed the various Hanna-McKinley political deals from the spring of '96 to the present time find it difficult to be astonished at anything. According to this story, which may or may not be true, Alger has suc ceeded in convincing Mr. McKinley that all of the attacks on Al gerism have been in reality at tacks on the entire administration, and that unless Alger can be vindicated by an election to the Senate all these charges will be placed against the McKinley administration by history. It plain that the support of Alger by the McKinley administration will be an act of treachery to Senators McMillan and Burrows, both of whom have been steadfast administration men, but treachery to friends has long been a Hanna specialty, and administration Senators will not be as badly needed during the remainder of McKinley's term as they were when the republicans were short of a majority in the Senate.

Democrats are citing the case th which ex-Gov. Hogg, of Texas the Tammany Fourth of which it had been tood was to ignore directly antagon-

Nobody in Washington had heard a word of all this until the arrival of the gentlemen from New Mexico. It may be merely a product of the "silly season," or it may be true, but if Gov. Roosevelt is willing to resign his present exalted position to go to the Philippines, he will surprise those who give him credit for knowing how to hold on to a good thing when he has it.

This Is Truth.

We look into a cradle and behold a crying male babe. At the age of 10 he is a noisy kid with an eye for meanness; at 15 he is the devil in the print shop, at 20 he is the publisher of a country newspaper at the head of every enterprise calculated to improve the town or enrich the business men thereof; at 35 he's an amaciated wornout man with a bald head and holes in his pockets, and at 50 he's a corpse in a cheap coffin and his only resources left behind, two cases of long primer, a Washington Hand Press and a subscription book with 678 delinquent subscribers who line up and march past his coffin saying, "he was a public-spirited fellow, but he could never save anything."-Ex.

A Characteristic of Great Men.

"So far as I have encountered them," said a citizen of the world, 'a characteristic of great men is that they have time. They are not in a hurry; their work doesn't boss them, but they boss their work. They don't act as if every minute you stayed was valuable time lost to them; they don't fret and fidget. What time they do devote to you appears to be time that they can spare, and take things easy in, and be comfortable. The work seems to be comfortable. The work seems to be incidental, and it seems as though they could turn to it when the time came and get through it with ease; and they always seem, besides, to have strength in reserve. It is certainly a characteristic of the great man that he has time."

Getting out of Beaten Paths.

In all the vocations of life there are men who cling with tenacity to the old in all things. They have codes of manners and methods to which they adhere without deviation, In the business world there are some such mortals, and sometimes they achieve success; but oftener they stagnate, and never leave the worn ruts in which they have so long moved. On the other hand, there are merchants who do not permit themselves to be restrained by a hidebound conservatism. Careful not to accept mere novelties as improvements, they adopt all proper and available methods which make for progress, and recognize in advertising the mightiest lever by which to extend their business and secure more profitable returns.-Philadelphia Record.

Every man who is opposed to the wicked ways of concentrated capital will be glad to know that the trust question is being taken up by honest men all over the country. When the people become aroused the trusts' days are numbered .-

We regret that a few Danville dollar chasers think a newspaper should reverse its principles and ignore the platform in order that a million dallar combine may levy tribute from an impoverished, helpless and almost hopeless class of agriculturists. To the bad land of satan with such people.—Danville Farrago.

Beau.y Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

Contest Closes Saturday.

The Buck Range coupon contest inaugurated by Higgs & Taft will close Saturday, 15th. Quite la number of little girls have been very diligent gathering the coupons from THE DAILY REFLECTOR, but only the one having the largest number can get the prize. Get your friends to give you as many coupons as they can this week. We have a few back numbers of the papers containing coupons at the office that will be sold for one cent a copy.

COLORED.

John Crooms and Rachel White. John Staton and Bell Macnair.

Professor Waterhouse, of Wash ington University, St. Louis, has made a unique suggestion. He wants the long official title "United States of North America" abbreviated by taking the first letter of each word of the title, thus making the word "Usona," which is much shorter and more practical than the present title. The people of the United States now known as Americans would then have the more direct name of "Usonians."
