WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., July 10, '99

The Alger-Pingree muddle has been thickened by Alger's positive denial that he had made a deal with Pingree and saying that Pingree had merely offered to support his candidacy for the Senate because of his dislike for McMillan. Later Alger denied that. This sort of thing is regarded by some as indicating the truth of the story told in Washington a few days ago, alleging that Mr. McKinley intended to support Alger and oppose Senator McMillan, but others—many others—regard it as nothing more than frantic efforts of Alger to retain his hold upon the War portfolio. The best informed men in political circles regard a break in Mr. McKinley's Cabinet as inevitable. It may not be Alger, however, who will go out. It is well known that the relations between Secretaries Gage and Alger, never very cordial, have almost reached the fighting stage, and is not believed that all of Mr. McKinley's admitted knack of mollification can succeed in keeping two men so antagonistic to each other, in his official family. Secretary Gage would have resigned last winter if the powerful financial interests he represents had not insisted on his remaining in the Cabinet. He has never entirely forgiven Mr. McKinley for not recommending the financial legislation he advised in his annual report, instead of merely commending the report to the consideration of Congress. Mr. Gage considers himself the only financier and regards Mr. McKinley and the other members of the Cabinet as timid amateurs. Mr. McKinley wishes Secretary Gage to remain in the Cabinet until after the Presidential election, anyway, because he knows that if he retires before then, it will bring about a material reduction in the republican campaign fund.

The highest rank held during the civil war by Hon. D. B. Henderson was Colonel. But ever since his election as Speaker of the House became a certainty, he has been constantly referred to as "General," and when he came to Washington several days ago, on a patronage round-up, which, by the way, was one of the most successful made by any individual under the present administration, he found that all of the officials from Mr. McKinley down, recognized his promotion; also that some of the members of the House were ready to give him a divine title, if he would only agree to give them the committee assignments they hankered after. Col. Henderson surprised those who thought him made of sterner stuff, by exhibiting his soreness, because ex-Czar Reed had not congratulated him on the success of his Speakership campaign.

Gen. Joe Wheeler, who will sail from San Francisco for Manila, on the 20th inst., says he will not resign his seat in Congress, because he expects to be back by December. Here's a brand new phase of the expansion question. Bishop Grant of the A. M. E. Church (negro) is in Washington advocating the annexation of Liberia by the United States. He told Mr. McKinley that since we had expanded into Asia, we might as well also take a slice of Africa, but somehow the Liberia idea doesn't seem to enthuse the expansionists. They think it all right to annex the saddle colored man, but draw the line on the black man.

That Hon. John R. McLean was being pushed forward by his friends as a candidate for the democratic nomination for Governor of Ohio, has been apparent for several weeks, but it was not positively known whether it was being done with or without Mr. McLean's consent, until he authorized the publication of the following statement as to his position: "I have not sought the nomination and do not regard myself as entitled to demand it; but I have friends who have urged my name in this connection, and I am by no means indifferent. On the contrary, I would regard the nomination as a very high honor, and if it is tendered me, of course, I will accept, and regard myself as obligated to make the strongest fight I can for the party. I do not think any Ohio democrat could afford to refuse such a distinction." Mr. McLean thinks existing conditions in Ohio gives the democrats the best chance they have had for some time, to elect a governor, and no man has better facilities than he has, through the numerous correspondents of his paper, The Cincinnati Inquirer, to know the exact conditions in every part of the state. A democratic victory in Ohio this year, would make a corking good starter for the Presidential campaign.

Representative Epes, of Virginia heartily endorses the suggestion, made in a Washington paper, that Senator Martin be made Chairman of the democratic National Committee, if Senator Jones' health should prevent his retaining the position. Said Mr. Epes: "Without disparagement to any man I want to say that Senator Martin has pre-eminent qualifications for the place. He is one of the wisest managers in the whole field of American politics today, and if he can be prevailed upon to act as National Chairman, the party will have the benefit of an experienced and sagacious counselor who can be depended upon to make no mistakes in the momentous campaign before us."

Gov. Roosevelt is now posing as a military expert. He says that Mr. McKinley sent for him to consult him in that capacity concerning the officers and organization of the new regiments which are to be immediately recruited for the Philippines. It is more likely that Roosevelt's errand in Washington was a political one of some sort.

LOST.—Many golden opportunities have been lost by those who suffer from rheumatism. By taking Rheumacide now they will be permanently and positively cured.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

Fruits of the Philippines.

Fruits grow in great abundance, and the reputation of some of them is established even abroad. This is true of the mango, which is the best representative of its class. Other fruits of the island are the French colonies), the mangosteen (found only in the Sulu Islands and the southern part of Mindanao), the pineapple, the tamarind, the orange, the lemon, the jack, the jujube, the litchi (the king of fruits according to the Chinese), the plum, the chicomamey (the saponilla of the West Indies), the breadfruit, and the papaw. The papaw is eaten like a melon, and is said to act as an efficacious digestive. The juice of of this fruit furnishes an extract that is used as a medicant under the name of papaine, or vegetable pepsin.

The banana grows abundantly in the Philippines. This fruit is a great boon to the poor people, supplying them at little cost with a delicious and exceedingly nutritious article of food.—American Grocer.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away.

To quit tobacco easily and forever, be magnetic, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

The sort of education that is sometimes supplied in public schools was shown up at the examination in one of the Philadelphia schools a few days ago. When a class was asked to describe a savage one little boy wrote that "a savage is a person who wears no clothes except underclothes"; another's answer was, "The savage is black, and wears only a rag"; while the third response was, "A savage doesn't wear anything except hair and a feather stuck in it." A class that was being examined in anatomy there were various laughable answers submitted, but the most amusing description was the following given by a twelve-year old girl, who had in mind an article of wear: "A body is something to hold up the panties."

Indicate Your Bowels With Cascarets.

Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

TYPE AND PRESS. Southern

WHO WANTS IT? SPEAK QUICK.

THE REFLECTOR recently purchased two printing office outfits and has a quantity of surplus material that will be sold cheap. There is a cylinder press large enough to print a nine column paper, in splendid condition, and a quantity of Small Pica, Long Primer, Brevier and Nonpariel body type. We can furnish a complete outfit large enough for a six or seven column paper.

Specimens of the body type are shown in this advertisement, the type being taken from the case just as it runs, so it shows for itself how well it prints. This is the Small Pica size of which there is 1 pair of cases.

Then here is a paragraph set from the Long Primer size. We have 4 pairs of these cases. In buying this type you do not get something that is worn out and cast aside, but a good serviceable type, capable of much wear.

Here is something a little smaller, Brevier size. There are 2 pairs of these and it is a bargain for somebody interested in printing. It may not come but once in a lifetime that an opportunity is given for buying type as cheap as we will sell these lots.

Again we have 1 pair of cases of this Nonpariel size, a very useful type in any printing office. Cases will be sold with the type of all sizes. Any printer who can use any or all of this type can make us a spot cash offer. While we prefer a customer for a whole outfit, press and type, one case of type will be sold if no more is wanted.

Speaking of trusts and combines, it is rumored that a syndicate of English noblemen will soon secure an option on all the marriageable heiresses in America.

When a man pays attention to a woman it's generally a sign that he wants to marry her, and when he doesn't pay attention to her it's often a sign that he has married her.

Rev. Mr. Eure, a young man who is soon to leave for China, will preach in the Baptist church tonight. He is the schoolmate of the pastor of this church and he would be glad for his congregation and the people of the town to hear Mr. Eure.

NOTICE.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Four sets of twins dined together in Concord the other day. That did not take all the twins in town, either.

The State Treasurer has been authorized to issue $60,000 of 4 per cent bonds to purchase the two Caladonia farms on Roanoke river.

The Wilmington Street Railway Company have tendered the editors the free use of their cars while in Wilmington attending the Press Association.

Delegates and visitors to the Baptist Sunday School Chataqua to be held in Scotland Neck July 18-21 can secure reduced rates over the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line by asking same of the ticket agent.

Eleven to Four.

Special to Reflector.

Tarboro, N. C., July 10.—The visitors were never in today's game. Person was batted out of the box in the third. Hines succeeded him and pitched good ball.

Score: Tarboro—eleven runs, thirteen hits, four errors. Wilson—four runs, seven hits, nine errors.

Batteries: Tarboro—Warren and Luskey. Wilson—Person, Hines and Brake.

The Firemen.

Hope Fire Company had its regular monthly meeting Monday night and considerable business was transacted. It was ordered that on the evening of their regular meeting, which is the second Monday night in each month, the fire alarm would be tapped eight or nine times to notify the members. The citizens need not be alarmed on the second Monday night when they hear it. Chief A. J. Griffin notified the company that he had secured a swinging lamp to be put in front of the engine house. It will be lit every night in the year, so in case of an alarm the firemen can see what they are doing. The company is in a flourishing condition and they should be encouraged by a goodly number of our citizens joining. The Board of Aldermen would receive the plaudits of every member if they would give them uniforms.

Father of 23 Children.

When David Huntley concluded to marry his wife, he called his children to witness the nuptials. Out in the yard, 50 feet from the house, he had driven up a stake, and commanding each to place their hands upon the stake, Uncle Joab Wilkie, with his quaint marriage ceremony, united the old man to his bride—thus making his children legitimate heirs to his estate, is the story told us, with names of witnesses to the marriage. We are also informed that 23 children was the crop he raised.—Rutherfordton Vindicator.

The Orphans.

Bear in mind the fact that a choir of the Oxford Orphan Asylum will be at the Opera House on July 25th and they should be greeted with a packed house.
