COTTON IS WORTH MORE.

How the Farmer is Benefitted by the Roundlap Bale.

The Atlanta Constitution, which recently published an elaborate report on the Roundlap bale of the American Cotton Company, in discussing the value of the new system of cotton handling, says: It is quite clear that, in order to raise the price which should go to the farmer for his cotton, the commercial expenses in handling it must be reduced.

Under present conditions, the amount of money required to handle the crop, from the gin to the factory platform, has grown out of all proportion, so that its commercial handling consumed the profit which should have gone to the grower. Viewed from this standpoint, therefore, every movement which delivers the farmer's cotton with least expense to the manufacturer must be regarded as of the widest public interest.

The new methods of round baling are on this line, doing away with much of the clumsiness and extravagance of the old system and substituting one which can make of every cotton gin a compress as well. The claims of the round bale advocates show that we have entered upon an era of invention which means much to the farmer, and much therefore, to the country.

Don't Tobacco Quit and Smoke Your Life Away. To quit tobacco easily and forever, be magnetic, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

Beware of Him.

Beware of the man and mark him well who continually cries aloud in the market place and protests to heaven that he is the "friend of the people" and all others are seeking their destruction. "Actions speak louder than words," is as true as it is trite, and if one indeed be a true friend of the people, seeking to promote their welfare rather than his own, the people will find it out without his constantly telling them about it. Should they fail to discover his worth and reward him for his service in their behalf, he can at least have the consciousness that virtue is its own reward for the real friends of the people seek not their own advancement, but the public good.—Statesville Landmark.

The Salvation Army has a new battle on its hands—this time some of the people of the Hub object to the out-of-door music of the Salvationists, and complaints having been made about the playing of cornets and the beating of drums the police have made some arrests.

Heroic Treatment for the Trusts

Folks, divers and sundey, write inquiringly to the Verdict and ask: "How would you do away with the trusts?" There are three remedies to be clapped poultice-wise on these cancers. Cut down the tariff that suckles them. Collect by income tax what before you collected by tariff. Steepen and deepen your income tax with the growth of the income levied on. In brief, revise your tax scheme until you tax what folks have, not what they have to have. As a further step, accurately and in twenty words, define the trust. And then adopt a law invalidating every contract it makes and refuse it the process of the courts to collect its debts. There's nothing wrong in such a proposal. Why, man, a trust is a criminal now. Why should you lend a criminal your courts to carry forward and complete his iniquities? One is either fool or knave who says the law can't get to trusts and throttle them. Usury has been throttled; and by the same hand your trust may be choked to death.—The Verdict.

Beauty Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

Not a Matter of Doubt.

Doubtless there are many merchants who hesitate to extend their use of newspaper advertising, being skeptical as to the returns; but their real objection is not well grounded. Good newspaper advertising has become too well established and its profitable results too satisfactorily recognized to permit of a reasonable doubt of its value as the one great medium by which the tradesman may reach the people and secure their patronage. Advertising will not fail to bring adequately remunerative returns if conducted through the medium of a newspaper whose popularity and reliability have been well established.—Philadelphia Record.

How Are Your Kidneys?

Dr. Hobbs' Spargus Pills cure all kidney ills. Sample free. Add. Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or N. Y.

Very Naughty-- But Nice To Have.

What is a dollar anyhow? The question is easily answered. It is something that newspaper men enjoy more in anticipation than in realization. It is the price of a day's labor for some men, and a night's drunk for others. It is the power accredited with the making or unmaking of men. It is the hardest thing to get and the easiest thing to get rid of known to mankind. It is mighty and scarce. No man ever had more than he wanted, and no one ever will have. A dollar is a snare and a delusion, but we will continue to take it on subscription just the same.—Durham Sun.

To Cure Constipation Forever.

Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

Strong Bank Notes.

So firm is the texture of a genuine Bank of England note that burning can hardly destroy it. The authorities have in a little glazed frame the remains of a note which was in the great fire of Chicago. Though completely charred and black, the note is sufficiently legible to establish its genuineness and be cashed.

Eddystone.

The smallest inhabited island in the world is that on which the Eddystone lighthouse stands. At low water it is 30 feet in diameter. At high water the lighthouse, which stands on the base is 27 feet, completely covers it. It is inhabited by three persons.

THE HEATHEN CAN WAIT.

A Squatter's Idea of Where Charity Should Begin.

The other day an old squatter came to the city and attended divine services at a fashionable church. The old fellow listened with rapt attention to the sermon, occasionally nodding in approval or shaking his head in uncertainty. When a man with the contribution box approached, the squatter asked:

"What's up?"
"We are taking up a collection for the heathen, and as you seemed to be so much interested in the sermon I didn't know but you would like to give a few dimes."

"What's the matter with the heathen?"

"Why, he doesn't know anything about the gospel, and we want to raise money enough to send it to him."

"Wall, I tell yer, I don't think he'll spile afore mornin. I've got a hoss swap on han, an ef I ken get 'nuff boot come aroun a we'll sorter look inter the matter."

"But, my friend, the heathen children need clothes."

"So does mine, by jingo. Bill ain't worn nuthin but a shirt for six months an haster stay outen perlite society. Ike's got a vacancy in his britches biggern yer hat, an Jack haster stay under the house when a stranger comes, 'case he got his clothes scorched durin hog killin. Come aroun arter the swap, fur I don't think the heathen will spile afore mornin."—Arkansas Traveler.

High Art.

"Oh, yes, he is a follower of one of the higher arts."

"Well, he doesn't look it. What does he do?"

"He's a professional flagpole painter."

Belgium is the home of the racing pigeon. There the sport is a national pastime, and a good pigeon frequently wins for its owner large sums of money, the prizes being considerable, to which heavy pools are added.

The earliest pottery with printed designs of American subjects was made at Liverpool at the end of the eighteenth century.

No-To-Bac.

One of the surest ways to be awkward "in company" is to try to act differently from one's accustomed manner. If one's everyday manner is not good enough for company, then it should be changed, but the most delightful company manner is the natural manner when it is natural to be charming. One of the charms of an agreeable manner is to seem to be unaffected. Another is to listen appreciatively when others speak.—The Gentlewoman.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents.

Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes men strong, blood pure. 50c, $1. All druggists.

But He Made a Good Officer.

Some 20 or 25 years ago a gentleman of this place was elected constable, and although he had no opposition his nervousness as to the result was quite noticeable all during the day. After the polls closed and he was declared elected he hid him to the river bank. In the meantime having aimed himself with an old pepper box pistol, one of the earliest patterns of the revolver, and shortly after was heard to go through this colloquy with some one unseen. Pointing his pistol at a sycamore tree he exclaimed in dignified and dramatic style:

"Hail! I am constable of this district and command you to halt. You won't, eh? Well, here goes"—bang! "I hate to do it, but it is in the discharge of my official duty. Now, I told you to stop, but you wouldn't"—bang! Just then the old pepper box became unmanageable and bang, bang, bang, bang went the remaining four loads. The firing soon attracted a crowd and the tree was thus saved.

But, notwithstanding the episode of the sycamore and the scars it still shows, the gentleman is said to have made a good officer.—Hazelgreen (Ky.) Herald.

A Girl's Idea of Boys.

At an examination in a certain school for girls an essay on "Boys" was ordered written, and this was one of the compositions:

"The boy is not an animal, yet he can be heard to a considerable distance. When a boy hollers he opens his mouth like a frog's, but girls hold their tongue till they are spoke to, and they answer respectable, and tell just how it was. A boy thinks he is clever because he can wade where it is deep, but God made the dry land for every living thing, and rested on the seventh day. When the boy grows up he's called a husband and stays out nights, but the grew up girl is a widow and keeps house."

It treats with you whether you continue the nerve-killing tobacco habit, NO-TO-BAC removes the desire for tobacco, with out nervous distress, opens the appetite, purifies the blood, restores lost manhood. 100 boxes makes you strong in health, nerve, and pocket. NO-TO-BAC cases cured. Buy your own druggist, who will vouch for us. Take it with a will, patiently, persistently. One box, $1, usually cures; 3 boxes, $3.00, guaranteed to cure, or we refund money. Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago, Montreal, New York.

Always Something New to Be Said.

Nature's capacity for incessant repetition infinitely varied in form is one of her great marvels. The leaves of trees are annually reproduced, and no two are exactly alike; yet they are always only leaves. In making an application of this wonder of Nature to the efforts of man it is worth while to remind the small but enterprising tradesman who may doubt the wisdom of constant advertising because of the meagre diversity of goods in his establishment that there are endless ways of telling about those wares in the advertising columns of a first class newspaper. There is always something new and interesting to be said about them.—Philadelphia Record.

Want More trains.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Thursday night, it was decided to ask the Coast Line authorities to continue the passenger coach service on the freight train, or else give us two passenger trains a day over this road. The latter would be preferable. Greenville needs more passenger trains than we have at present.

Young Lady Hurt.

Miss Myrtle Wilson met with a painful accident Wednesday night. She was returning home from her brother's in South Greenville, and noticing a stick on the sidewalk mistook it for a snake. She sprang out in the street and stepped in a hole severely spraining one ankle. The accident has caused her much suffering and she has not yet been able to walk.

Mr. Dixon, one of the Winterville cigarmakers, was in town today and brought THE REFLECTOR boys some nice cigars with his own and "Bud Joe's" compliments. Winterville cigars are always good.

The Baker Woman in Boston.

Boston Aug. 9.—Three thousand people paid ten cents admission to People's Temple tonight, to see Miss Jewett and the Baker family. Mrs. Baker furnished the sensation of the evening. While J. W. Hutchison, the white haired abolitionist singer, was singing his song "The Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of Man," Mrs. Baker experienced religious exhilaration. She dropped her little son, Willis, who had been sleeping in her arms, and strode around the platform, rolling her eyes and waving her arms. A dozen people conducted her to a seat. Among the other speakers were Rev. Justin D. Fulton and Miss Jewett.

One of the sailors who served on the cutter McCullough in the battle of Manila Bay, and who received one of the bronze medals voted by Congress to those who were in that fight, was on shore leave in Baltimore recently when a stranger approached him and asked to see the decoration. The landsman finally offered the sailor $100 for his Dewey medal, and suddenly found himself stretched out on the pavement. A policeman who arrived in time to pick up the would be purchaser refused to arrest the sailor.

WINE OF CARDUI

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefitted by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and doctors could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."
